following the period for which it was last renewed; and

(b) each period of twelve months after the period of twelve months referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection,
the appropriate fee set out in Schedule II.

(3) The fee payable under paragraph (b) of subsection one or under subsection two of this section in respect of a period of twelve months shall be delivered or forwarded so as to be received in the office of the Minister before the commencement of that period.

(4) Where a fee payable under paragraph
(b) of subsection one or under subsection two of this section is not received in the office of the Minister before the commencement of the period in respect of which it is payable—

- (a) the fee may, without prejudice to the power of the Minister to suspend or cancel the license to which the fee relates, be paid or received in the office of the Minister after that commencement; and
- (b) if the fee is so received after that commencement, there shall be paid such additional fee
as may be prescribed, unless the Minister in a particular case directs that the additional fee be not payable.

(5) Where the grade of a theatre or public hall is, during a period of twelve months referred to in subsection one or two of this section, changed to another grade, the change shall, for the purposes only of the payment of the appropriate fee set out in Schedule II, be deemed to take effect as from the commencement of the period of twelve months next following that firstmentioned period of twelve months

 Sch. II.

- (r) by omitting Schedule II and by inserting in lieu thereof the following Schedule :—

SCHEDULE II.

The fees payable in respect of licenses of theatres, public halls or buildings of the grades mentioned in Schedule I shall, respectively, be as follows:—

- (a) Sixty dollars per annum.
- (b) Thirty dollars per annum.
- (c) Fifteen dollars per annum.
- (d) Ten dollars per annum.
- (e) Six dollars per annum.
- (f) Three dollars per annum.

Provided that if the license in respect of the public halls or buildings referred to in paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of Schedule I bears the prescribed endorsement referred to in section 13A of this Act, the fees payable in respect of those public halls or buildings shall, respectively, be as follows:—

- (b) Sixty dollars per annum.
- (c) Forty-five dollars per annum.
- (d) Thirty dollars per annum.
- (e) Fifteen dollars per annum.
- (f) Six dollars per annum.

- (2) The purported renewal—
- (a) before the commencement of this section; and
 - (b) after the day on which it would, if not renewed, have expired, of a license issued under the Theatres and Public Halls Act, 1908, as in force at the relevant time, shall be deemed to have been as valid as it would have been had it been renewed before that day.

Theatres and Public Halls (Amendment).

(3) Where a license in respect of a theatre or public hall, not being a license cancelled under the Principal Act, would, but for this subsection, have expired during the period of twelve months next preceding the commencement of this section, that license shall be deemed to have been renewed under the Principal Act on the day on which it would have so expired. No. 81, 1969

(4) A reference to a license in subsection three of this section includes a reference to the prescribed endorsement (if any) on that license.

(5) Where the fee payable under section seven of the Principal Act on the renewal of a license referred to in subsection three of this section was not paid before the commencement of this section, the Minister may (whether or not that fee is paid after that commencement) suspend or cancel the license under section sixteen of the Principal Act, as amended by subsection one of this section, as if a provision of that Act, as so amended, had not been complied with.

(6) The provisions of subsections two, three, four and five of this section apply, mutatis mutandis, to and in respect of licenses issued in respect of drive-in theatres and open-air theatres.

(7) A regulation purporting, before the commencement of this section, to have been made under the Theatres and Public Halls Act, 1908, as in force at the time of the making of the regulation, shall be deemed to have been validly made under that Act, as so in force, if it could have been made under the Principal Act, as amended by subsection one of this section, had the Principal Act, as so amended, been in force at that time.

(8) This section shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor in that behalf and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Exemptions.

26F. (1) The Governor may, by the regulations—

- (a) exempt from the operation of this Part to the extent prescribed in the regulations any specified class of films (including films registered, whether before or after the commencement of this Part, pursuant to any regulations made under any Act of the Parliament of the Commonwealth); and
- (b) specify what provisions (if any) of this Part and the regulations are (with such modifications as are necessary or seem desirable) to apply with respect to any class or classes of films so exempted.

(2) Regulations made in pursuance of subsection one of this section may make provision for or with respect to any conditions that are to apply to or in respect of any films thereby exempted.

(3) A censor may, in any particular case, by direction in writing under his hand, exempt, subject to such conditions as he specifies in the direction, any film from the operation of this Part to the extent specified in the direction.

Duty of censor to examine films.

26G. A censor shall examine every film submitted to him for registration unless he otherwise determines in any particular case.

Registration and classification of films.

26H. (1) A censor may—

- (a) register a film unconditionally;
- (b) register a film subject to such conditions as he imposes; or
- (c) refuse registration of a film.

Theatres and Public Halls (Amendment).

(2) Where a censor registers a film under No. 81, 1969 subsection one of this section, the censor shall classify the film as being, in his opinion—

- (a) for general exhibition;
- (b) not recommended for children; or
- (c) for adults only,

or as being, in his opinion, of such other class or classes (whether in addition to or in lieu of all or any of the classes specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this subsection) as may be prescribed.

(3) A trailer film, poster, programme, advertisement or written, printed or oral matter in the nature of an advertisement, whether in a newspaper or otherwise, with respect to a film or the exhibition of any picture from a film shall, where a censor has classified the film in accordance with the provisions of subsection two of this section, contain a statement or symbol in the prescribed form denoting the censor's classification of the film.

(4) A person carrying on the business of exhibiting pictures or of distributing films or of selling, leasing or otherwise disposing of films or the right to use films for the exhibition of pictures therefrom who exhibits or presents, or causes to be exhibited or presented, a trailer film, poster, programme, advertisement, or written, printed, or oral matter in the way of an advertisement, whether in a newspaper or otherwise, that contravenes or does not comply with any of the provisions of subsection three of this section shall be liable for a first offence to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars and for a second or subsequent offence to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars.

(5) Nothing in subsection three or four of this section shall affect the liability of any person under any other provisions of this Part.

No. 81, 1969

(6) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to statements or symbols required under subsection three of this section.

Appeal.

26i. (1) A person aggrieved by any decision of a censor or by the imposition by him of any condition under the powers conferred on a censor by or under this Part may, within such time and upon such conditions as are prescribed, appeal therefrom to such person or authority as may be authorised to be the appeal authority pursuant to an arrangement under section 26c of this Act.

(2) An appeal under subsection one of this section shall be lodged, heard and determined as prescribed and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(3) The decision of the appeal authority shall be final and without appeal, and shall be given effect to.

Certificate of registration.

26j. (1) The registration of a film by a censor under section 26H of this Act shall be signified by a certificate in such form as the censor thinks fit.

(2) The classification of a film by a censor in accordance with section 26H of this Act shall be signified in the certificate given in relation to that film under subsection one of this section.

No registration in certain cases.

26k. (1) Subject to subsection two of this section, a censor shall not register a film under subsection one of section 26H of this Act where, in the opinion of the censor, the film depicts any matter—

(a) which is indecent or obscene; or

(b)

Theatres and Public Halls (Amendment).

(b) the exhibition of which—

No. 81, 1969

(i) is likely to be injurious to morality or to encourage or incite to crime; or

(ii) is undesirable in the public interest.

(2) A censor shall not refuse registration of a film which in the opinion of the censor—

(a) in good faith and with artistic merit reproduces or adapts any work of recognised literary merit; or

(b) in good faith and with artistic merit represents any scriptural, historical, traditional, mythical or legendary story.

26L. (1) A censor may require an applicant for registration of a film to produce any scenario thereof.

Power to require scenarios to be produced.

(2) In forming his opinion as to whether or not a film submitted for his registration should be registered, a censor may take into consideration not only the film itself but any scenario thereof and also any posters, photographs, sketches, programmes and slides proposed to be used in connection with the exhibition of the picture to be exhibited from the film and any advertisements or written, printed or oral matter in the nature of advertisements of or with respect to the film or picture or any portion thereof.

26M. (1) A film registered by a censor shall, subject to any conditions imposed under this Part in relation thereto, be used in the exhibition of a picture exactly in the form and under the name by which it is registered and without any alteration or addition unless the censor first registers the film as altered or added to.

Films to be exhibited in form registered.

Theatres and Public Halls (Amendment).

No. 81, 1969

(2) Where a registered film is altered or added to it shall be deemed never to have been registered as altered or added to.

Sample copies of posters, slides, etc., to be submitted for approval when required.

26N. (1) An applicant for registration of a film by a censor shall, when required by the censor, submit to him for approval, and every person exhibiting the picture from a film after registration thereof pursuant to this Part, and every person exhibiting a picture from a film registered, whether before or after the commencement of this Part, pursuant to any regulations relating to films made under any Act of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, shall, when required by the censor, submit, together with the prescribed fee (if any), to him for approval a copy (in this Part referred to as a "sample copy") of every poster, photograph, sketch, programme, slide and advertisement or written, printed or oral matter in the nature of an advertisement intended to be used in connection with the exhibition within New South Wales of the picture from the film.

(2) A censor shall with regard to a sample copy and his approval thereof have the like powers and duties as he has with regard to films submitted for registration by him and his decision shall be subject to the like appeal as a decision by him in respect of a film submitted to him for registration.

(3) Nothing in subsection two of this section requires the censor's approval of a sample copy to be signified by a certificate.

(4) A poster, photograph, sketch, programme, slide or advertisement or written, printed or oral matter in the nature of an advertisement a sample copy of which has been approved by the censor shall, in connection with the exhibition of a picture and so far as it relates to a film used for the purposes
