Emergency fire controllers and deputy emergency fire controllers.

3. The Bush Fires Act, 1949, is further amended by omitting section seventeen and by inserting in lieu thereof the following section :—

17. (1) The provisions of this section shall not apply to or in relation to areas or parts of areas mentioned in Schedule Three to this Act.

(2) As soon as practicable after the commencement of section three of the Bush Fires (Amendment) Act, 1970, the Minister shall prepare and cause to be published in the Gazette a list (in this section referred to as "the list of emergency fire controllers and deputy emergency fire controllers") of persons who may be appointed as emergency fire controllers and deputy emergency

Bush Fires (Amendment).

emergency fire controllers under this section in respect No. 25, 1970 of any area or group of areas or in respect of the Western Division or Lord Howe Island.

The Minister may from time to time by notification published in the Gazette add to or remove from such list the name of any person.

(3) The mayor or president of an area, or person for the time being acting as mayor or president of an area, or the Minister, or a person authorised in writing by the Minister for the purposes of this section, may, if he is of opinion that a state of emergency exists and it is necessary or expedient in the interests of public safety to do so, appoint an emergency fire controller or (if there is already an emergency fire controller so appointed) a deputy emergency fire controller in accordance with the provisions of this section.

A state of emergency may be deemed to exist where the mayor or president, or person for the time being acting as mayor or president, or the Minister or person authorised in writing by the Minister, as the case may be, is of opinion that any bush fire has assumed or is likely to assume such proportions as to be incapable of control or suppression by the fire fighting authority or authorities in whose area or locality it is burning or that the prevailing conditions are conducive to the outbreak of a bush fire likely to assume such proportions.

(4) A person whose name is included in the list of emergency fire controllers and deputy emergency fire controllers may be appointed as an emergency fire controller to take charge of bush fire fighting operations in any territory that comprises, or comprises part of—

(a) any area, by the mayor or president, or person for the time being acting as mayor or president, of that area;

(b)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

No. 25, 1970

- (b) any two or more areas, jointly by the mayors or presidents, or persons for the time being acting as mayors or presidents, of such areas;
- (c) the Western Division or Lord Howe Island, by the Minister, or by any person authorised in writing by the Minister under subsection three of this section;
- (d) the Western Division, and any area, jointly by the Minister, or any person authorised as aforesaid, and by the mayor or president, or person for the time being acting as mayor or president, of that area;
- (e) the Western Division, and any two or more areas, jointly by the Minister, or any person authorised as aforesaid, and by the mayors or presidents, or persons for the time being acting as mayors or presidents, of such areas, and a person whose name is included in that list may be appointed in like manner as a deputy emergency fire controller for any such territory.

(5) A person whose name is included in the list of emergency fire controllers and deputy emergency fire controllers shall not be appointed as an emergency fire controller or deputy emergency fire controller in respect of bush fire fighting operations in any territory that comprises, or comprises part of—

- (a) any area, unless his name is included in such list in respect of that area or in respect of a group of areas in which that area is included;
- (b) two or more areas, unless his name is included in such list in respect of—
 - (i) at least one of such areas; or
 - (ii) a group of areas in which at least one of such areas is included;
- (c)

Bush Fires (Amendment)

- (c) the Western Division or Lord Howe Island, unless his name is included in such list in respect of the Western Division or Lord Howe Island, as the case may be; No. 25, 1970
- (d) the Western Division, and any area, unless his name is included in such list in respect of—
- (i) the Western Division;
 - (ii) that area; or
 - (iii) a group of areas in which that area is included;
- (e) the Western Division, and two or more areas, unless his name is included in such list in respect of—
- (i) the Western Division;
 - (ii) at least one of such areas; or
 - (iii) a group of areas in which at least one of such areas is included.

(6) A person appointed as an emergency fire controller or deputy emergency fire controller shall hold office as such for a period of seven days after his appointment, but may from time to time be re-appointed and shall hold office as such pursuant to any such re-appointment for a period of seven days thereafter.

(7) A deputy emergency fire controller appointed in respect of any territory shall, except where he is acting as the emergency fire controller pursuant to subsection eight of this section, be subject to the control and direction of the emergency fire controller appointed in respect of such territory.

(8) A deputy emergency fire controller appointed in respect of any territory shall act as emergency fire controller at the direction of the emergency fire controller or in the event of his absence, illness or other inability to act.

(9)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

No. 25, 1970

(9) Where an emergency fire controller or a deputy emergency fire controller is appointed pursuant to this section all councils, captains, deputy captains, group captains and deputy group captains of bush fire brigades, fire control officers, fire patrol officers, officers and employees of the Board of Fire Commissioners of New South Wales and the Forestry Commission of New South Wales, members of the Police Force and other persons, shall comply with any directions given to them by such emergency fire controller or deputy emergency fire controller (which directions they are hereby respectively empowered to give) in connection with the prevention, control or suppression of any fire in the territory in respect of which such emergency fire controller or deputy emergency fire controller has been so appointed.

In addition to, and without limiting, the power conferred on emergency fire controllers and deputy emergency fire controllers by the foregoing provisions of this subsection an emergency fire controller and a deputy emergency fire controller shall have and may exercise all the powers conferred on a bush fire brigade captain by section twenty-two of this Act, without being subject to any proviso to subsection two of that section and without limitation as to the territory within which they may exercise such powers.

(10) Any person failing to observe any direction given pursuant to this section by an emergency fire controller or by a deputy emergency fire controller shall be liable upon conviction to a penalty not exceeding four hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or to both such penalty and imprisonment.

(11) The provisions of section twenty-three of this Act apply, mutatis mutandis, to an emergency fire controller and a deputy emergency fire controller appointed under this section.

Bush Fires (Amendment).

(12) The provisions of this section shall have No. 25, 1970 effect notwithstanding anything contained in this or any other Act to the contrary.

Functions of Coordinating
Committee as to co-ordination of bush fire fighting activities.

41A. (1) In this section—

"plan of operations" means a plan prepared by the Co-ordinating Committee under this section;

"prescribed

Bush Fires (Amendment).

“prescribed organisation” means a council, the No. 25, 1970
Board of Fire Commissioners of New South Wales, the Forestry Commission of New South Wales, the National Parks and Wildlife Service or any body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, associated with the prevention, control or suppression of bush fires.

(2) The Co-ordinating Committee may, for the purpose of co-ordinating the activities of such two or more of the prescribed organisations as it thinks fit (in so far as those activities relate to the prevention, control or suppression of bush fires), prepare a plan setting out the procedures which the Co-ordinating Committee considers ought to be followed if a bush fire breaks out in any area or locality and assumes or is likely to assume such proportions as to be incapable of control or suppression by the fire fighting authority or authorities in that area or locality or if the prevailing conditions are conducive to the outbreak of a bush fire likely to assume such proportions.

(3) The Co-ordinating Committee may from time to time vary or revoke any plan of operations.

(4) A plan of operations may be communicated in such manner as the Co-ordinating Committee thinks fit to any prescribed organisation to which it relates.

(5) A plan of operations communicated to a prescribed organisation to which it relates shall be adopted by that organisation and as far as practicable, be carried into effect by that organisation in the circumstances indicated by the plan.

measures for the detection, prevention, No. 25, 1970 control and suppression of bush fires on unoccupied Crown lands;

- (i) determine the territories in respect of which Fire Prevention Associations may operate.

(2) The Co-ordinating Committee shall—

- (a) review annually the incidence of fire hazards on such private lands as it determines and facilitate as far as practicable the removal or reduction of those hazards by the owners or occupiers of those lands;
- (b) encourage and assist as far as practicable councils in the exercise of their powers under section thirteen of this Act;
- (c) ensure as far as practicable that members of bush fire brigades and persons in, or under the control of, other fire fighting authorities are provided with the necessary training and techniques for the prevention, control and suppression of bush fires;
- (d) ensure as far as practicable that equipment in such sufficient quantity, and of such approved standards of operation and efficiency, as the Co-ordinating Committee determines, is available to and properly maintained by fire fighting authorities;
- (e) ensure as far as practicable that adequate information is furnished to the Chief Co-ordinator to enable him properly to exercise or discharge any of the powers, authorities, duties or functions conferred or imposed upon him by or under this Act;

(f)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

No. 25, 1970

- (f) before the thirtieth day of June in each year furnish a report to the Minister, for presentation to Parliament, as to its activities during the period of twelve months ending on the thirty-first day of March in that year.

(3) The Co-ordinating Committee—

- (a) shall furnish reports and recommendations upon any matter, referred to it by the Minister, relating to the prevention, control and suppression of bush fires;
- (b) may furnish to the Minister, councils and other persons, such reports and recommendations relating to the prevention, control and suppression of bush fires as it thinks fit.

Councils and other bodies to furnish information to Co-ordinating Committee.

41C. For the purpose of enabling the Co-ordinating Committee to exercise or discharge any of the powers, authorities, duties or functions conferred or imposed upon it by or under this Act, any council, bush fire brigade, occupier of any supervised park, fire control officer, public authority or body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, associated with the prevention, control or suppression of bush fires shall, at such times and in such manner as the Co-ordinating Committee may require, furnish to it such information as it may require.

Appointment of Chief Co-ordinator and other officers.

41D. The Governor may, under and subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, appoint a Chief Co-ordinator of Bush Fire Fighting and such other officers and employees as may be necessary for the purposes of this Act.

Bush Fires (Amendment).

41E. In the case of the illness or absence of the Chief Co-ordinator, the Minister, on the recommendation of the Co-ordinating Committee, may appoint a person to act as Chief Co-ordinator during the period of his illness or absence, and the person so appointed, while he so acts during that period, shall have and may exercise and discharge all the immunities, powers, authorities, duties and functions conferred and imposed upon the Chief Co-ordinator by or under this Act.

No. 25, 1970

Acting
Chief Co-ordinator.

41F. (1) The Chief Co-ordinator shall either personally or through regional officers, officers of the Board of Fire Commissioners of New South Wales, officers of the Forestry Commission of New South Wales or other persons—

Functions of Chief Co-ordinator.

- (a) take charge of fire fighting operations, and fire prevention measures, where he is of the opinion that any bush fire has assumed or is likely to assume such proportions as to be incapable of control or suppression by the fire fighting authority or authorities in whose area or locality it is burning or that the prevailing conditions are conducive to the outbreak of a bush fire likely to assume such proportions;
- (b) take such measures to control or suppress any bush fire as he deems necessary, where he is of the opinion that—
 - (i) the fire is not being effectively controlled or suppressed by the fire fighting authority or authorities in whose area or locality it is burning;

or

(ii)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

No. 25, 1970

- (ii) the fire is burning in a place which is not the responsibility of any fire fighting authority, and that it is necessary or expedient that the fire should be controlled or suppressed.

(2) The Chief Co-ordinator shall—

- (a) make such recommendations to the Minister as he deems necessary to assist the Minister in the exercise of the Minister's powers under section sixteen of this Act;
- (b) perform such other duties and functions as the Co-ordinating Committee determines.

(3) Where the Chief Co-ordinator, either personally or through some person referred to in subsection one of this section, takes charge of any fire fighting operations or fire prevention measures under paragraph (a) of that subsection or takes any measures under paragraph (b) of that subsection, all councils, captains, deputy captains, group captains and deputy group captains of bush fire brigades, fire control officers, fire patrol officers, officers and employees of the Board of Fire Commissioners of New South Wales, members of the Police Force and other persons, shall comply with any directions given to them by the Chief Co-ordinator or that firstmentioned person (which directions they are hereby respectively empowered to give) in connection with the prevention, control or suppression of any bush fire in the area or locality in which the Chief Co-ordinator has so taken charge or is taking those measures.

In addition to, and without limiting, the power conferred on the Chief Co-ordinator or any other person by the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the Chief Co-ordinator and that person shall have and may exercise all the powers conferred on

Bush Fires (Amendment).

on a bush fire brigade captain by section twenty-two of this Act, without being subject to any proviso to subsection two of that section and without limitation as to the territory within which they may exercise such powers. No. 25, 1970

(4) Any person failing to observe any direction given pursuant to this section by the Chief Co-ordinator or any other person shall be liable upon conviction to a penalty not exceeding four hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or to both such penalty and imprisonment.

(5) The Chief Co-ordinator, in the exercise or discharge of any power, authority, duty or function conferred or imposed upon him by or under subsection one or three of this section shall, subject to any relevant plan of operations under section 41A of this Act, not be subject to the control and direction of the Co-ordinating Committee.

(6) Except as provided by subsection five of this section, the Chief Co-ordinator shall be subject to the control and direction of the Co-ordinating Committee.

(7) The provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in this or any other Act to the contrary.

41G. For the purposes of this Act, the Co-ordinating Committee or the Chief Co-ordinator may—

- (a) with the approval of the Department concerned, and on such terms as may be arranged, make use of the services of any of the officers or employees of any Government Department;

Use of services of officers, etc., of Government
Departments, etc.

(b)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

No. 25, 1970

- (b) with the approval of the statutory corporation concerned or of the council concerned, and on such terms as may be arranged, make use of the services of any of the officers, employees or servants of any statutory corporation or any council.

Delegation.

41H. (1) The Co-ordinating Committee may, by resolution, delegate to the Chief Co-ordinator any power, authority, duty or function (other than this power of delegation) conferred or imposed upon it by or under this Act.

(2) The Chief Co-ordinator may by writing under his hand, delegate to any regional officer or to any officer, employee or servant of the Co-ordinating Committee or of any Government Department, statutory corporation or council in respect of which an arrangement has been made under section 41G of this Act for the use of the services of the officer, employee or servant, any power, authority, duty or function (other than this power of delegation) conferred or imposed upon him by or under this Act.

(3) The exercise of any delegation under this section shall be subject to such limitations and conditions as may be specified in the instrument of delegation.

(4) Any act or thing done or suffered by the Chief Co-ordinator or, as the case may be, by an officer, employee or servant when acting in the exercise of any such delegation, and within the terms of the delegation, shall be as effective as if the act or thing had been done or suffered by the person making the delegation.

Bush Fires (Amendment).

(5) Any delegation under subsection two of this section shall remain in force notwithstanding that the person who made the delegation has ceased to hold office as Chief Co-ordinator. No. 25, 1970

(6) The Co-ordinating Committee or the Chief Co-ordinator, as the case may be, may revoke either wholly or in part any delegation under this section of powers, authorities, duties or functions, whether made by it or him or by a predecessor in that office but no act or thing done or suffered by an officer, employee or servant within the terms of any such delegation during the period in which such delegation was in force shall be invalidated by reason of the revocation.

(7) Subject to any stipulation to the contrary contained in the instrument, any instrument of delegation under this section shall, so far as concerns any act or thing done or suffered thereunder in good faith, operate and continue in force until notice of the revocation thereof has been received by the delegate.

(8) Every act or thing within the scope of the delegation done or suffered in good faith by the delegate after revocation of the delegation and before notice thereof has been received by him shall be as effectual in all respects as if the revocation had not been made.

(9) A statutory declaration by the delegate stating that he has not received notice of the revocation of the delegation at the time when any such act or thing was done or suffered or at any time after, shall be taken to be conclusive proof of non-revocation at the time when the act or thing was so done or suffered in favour of all persons dealing dealing with the delegate in good faith and for valuable consideration without notice of the revocation.

Limitation upon exercise of powers, etc., of Co-ordinating Committee and Chief Co-ordinator.

41I. (1) The powers, authorities, duties and functions conferred and imposed upon the Co-ordinating Committee and the Chief Co-ordinator by or under this Act shall not be exercised or discharged except in the areas or parts of areas mentioned in Schedule Three to this Act.

(2) The Governor may, by proclamation in the Gazette, amend Schedule Three to this Act by adding thereto or deleting therefrom any area or part of any area, and the Schedule as so amended from time to time shall be Schedule Three to this Act.

Finance.

41J. (1) Any moneys payable in connection with the exercise of the duties imposed upon the Co-ordinating Committee by paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection one of section 41B of this Act and the construction and maintenance of fire trails and other fire prevention works and hazard reduction works carried out by Fire Prevention Associations shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

(2) Except as provided by subsection one of this section, any moneys payable in connection with the exercise or discharge of the powers, authorities, duties and functions conferred or imposed upon the Co-ordinating Committee or the Chief Co-ordinator by or under this Act shall be paid out of the Fund.
