Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by No. 17, 1971 and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment Act, 1971".

Short title and construction.

(2) The Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Act, 1941, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2. Part I of the Principal Act is amended—

Amendment of Act No. 45, 1941. (Part I.—Preliminary.)

(a) (i) by inserting in subsection two of section one next after the matter relating to Part IVA the following new matter:—

Sec. 1. (Short title, commencement and construction.)

PART IVB.—REFUND OF MINE WORKERS' CONTRIBUTIONS—SS. 19I–19K.

(ii) by inserting at the end of the same subsection the word and symbol "SCHEDULE.";

(b) (i) by inserting next before the definition of "Injury" in subsection one of section two the following new definition:—

Sec. 2. (Definitions.)

"Conciliation and Arbitration Act" means the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth as amended by subsequent Acts of that Parliament.

(ii)

No. 17, 1971

(ii) by omitting from paragraph (h) of the definition of "Mine worker" in the same subsection the words "Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904-1934 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "Conciliation and Arbitration Act";

(iii) by inserting next after the definition of "Regulations" in the same subsection the following new definition :—

"Social Services Act" means the Social Services Consolidation Act 1947 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth as amended by subsequent Acts of that Parliament.

Sec. 2E.
(Extension of definition of "mine worker" to cavilled out mine workers, etc.)

(c) (i) by inserting next after subsection three of section 2E the following new subsection :—

(3A) Any period for which a person, who, after the commencement of section two of the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment Act, 1971, applies for a permit under this section, was a mine worker before the eighth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and forty-one, shall be disregarded for the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection three of this section.

(ii) by omitting from subsection four of the same section the words "may be renewed from time to time for a further period specified therein" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "that period may, from time to time, be extended by the Tribunal";

(iii)

Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment.

- (iii) by inserting next after the same subsection No. 17, 1971 the following new subsection :—

(4A) The period for which a person may, after the commencement of section two of the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment Act, 1971, be authorised to be employed in some industry, other than the coal or oil shale mining industry, upon the occurrence of any event referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection two of this section shall not exceed five years, unless the Tribunal, upon application made to it by that person and having regard to the circumstances of the case, otherwise determines.

- (d) by inserting next after section 2i the following new New sec. 2j. section :—

2j. (1) Where any work is performed or to be performed in or about or in connection with a coal or oil shale mine in New South Wales, whether in pursuance of a contract or otherwise, the Minister may, from time to time, by order in writing (which order is, in this section, referred to as "the order"), declare that that work or so much of that work as is specified or described in the order shall be mine work for the purposes of this section. Further extension of the definition of "Mine worker".

(2) The specification or description of any work in the order may be made by reference to such matters as the Minister thinks fit.

(3) Without affecting the generality of subsection two of this section, work may be specified or described in the order by reference to the work performed or to be performed by a person or class of persons specified or described therein.

No. 17, 1971

(4) The order shall take effect from the day specified therein as the date of commencement of the order.

(5) The Minister shall not, in the order, specify a day under subsection four of this section that is earlier than three months before the date of the order unless the Minister is satisfied that in all the circumstances of the case it is just and reasonable to do so.

(6) Subject to this section, the Minister may, in the order, specify a day under subsection four of this section that is before or after the commencement of section two of the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment Act, 1971.

(7) As from the date of commencement of the order the definition of "Mine worker" in subsection one of section two of this Act shall be extended to include a person who is engaged in mine work, whether or not he is or would, but for subsection eight of this section, be a mine worker by virtue of any other provision of this Act.

(8) During any period that a person is a mine worker by virtue of this section and the operation of the order he shall be deemed, notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in this Act, not to be a mine worker during that period by virtue of any other provision of this Act.

(9) Without affecting the generality of any other provision of this section, the Minister may, in the order, declare that a person specified or described therein, or a person of a class of persons specified or described therein, is not a mine worker by virtue of this section and the operation of the order, and the declaration shall have effect according to its tenor.

Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment.

(10) The retiring age of any person who by virtue of this section and the operation of the order is a mine worker shall be such age as is specified in the order, and applicable to him, as his retiring age : No. 17, 1971

Provided that, where an age (being later than the age of sixty years) is so specified and applicable to him, he may retire or be retired at any time after he attains the age of sixty years and before he attains the age of sixty-five years, and in any such case a reference in any provision of this Act to the "date of retirement" shall, notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in this Act, in the application of that provision to and in respect of such person, be construed as a reference to the date upon which he so retires or is retired.

(11) As from the date of commencement of the order the provisions of this Act shall, subject to this section, apply to and in respect of persons who are mine workers by virtue of this section and the operation of the order :

Provided that the provisions of this Act in their application to and in respect of any such person shall be deemed to have been modified to the following extent, that is to say—references, express or implied, in this Act, to the commencement of Part II of this Act, shall be construed as references—

- (a) where the date of the order is later than the date of commencement of the order—to the date of the order ; or
- (b) in any other case—to the date of commencement of the order :

Provided further that the provisions of this Act, in their application to and in respect of such person, shall be deemed to be modified to the following extent, that is to say—sections five and six of this

Act

No. 17, 1971

Act shall have and take effect as if the age specified in the order and applicable to such person, or where such person retires or is retired before the age of sixty-five years, as permitted by the proviso to subsection ten of this section, the age at which such person retires or is retired were substituted for the age of sixty years referred to in those sections, and references in this Act to the "date of retirement" shall be construed accordingly.

(12) For the purposes of this Act, all mine work shall be deemed to be work in or about a coal or oil shale mine.

(13) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to requiring any person to forward notices, to make returns or to give information for the purpose of enabling the Tribunal to determine whether any work should be declared to be mine work.

(14) Any power or duty conferred or imposed upon the Minister by this section may be exercised or performed by him upon the recommendation of the Tribunal.

(15) In this section—

"date of commencement of the order" means the day specified in the order as the date of commencement thereof;

"date of the order" means the date on which the order is made;

"mine work" means any work declared to be mine work under subsection one of this section.

Sec. 3.
(Special provisions as to calculation of periods of employment.)

- (e) (i) by omitting from subsection four of section three the words "Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904-1934" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "Conciliation and Arbitration Act";

(ii)

Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment.

- (ii) by inserting at the end of the same section No. 17, 1971 the following new subsection :—

(8) Where a mine worker ceases to be engaged in the coal or oil shale mining industries for any period not exceeding three months, or for any periods none of which exceed three months, the Tribunal may, if it is just and equitable to do so, disregard that period or those periods for the purpose of determining continuity of engagement in those industries: Provided that the Tribunal shall not disregard a period under this subsection unless the mine worker became engaged in those industries upon the expiration of the period.

3. Part II of the Principal Act is amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 45, 1941. (Part II.—Compulsory Retirement and Pensions.)

- (a) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section six the words “two pounds per week” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “the appropriate amount per week referred to in section 10EA of this Act”; Sec. 6. (Pensions—mine workers who are retired.)

- (ii) by inserting at the end of the same subsection the following new paragraph :—

Where a mine worker's date of retirement is later than the commencement of section three of the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment Act, 1971, any period period for which he was engaged in the coal or oil shale mining industries in New South Wales before the eighth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and forty-one, shall be disregarded in determining his eligibility for a pension pursuant to this subsection.

No. 17, 1971

- (iii) by omitting from subsection (1A) of the same section the words "two pounds fifteen shillings per week" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the appropriate amount per week referred to in section 10EA of this Act";
- (iv) by inserting at the end of subsection (1A) of the same section the following new paragraph:—

Any person who became a mine worker after the commencement of the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Pensions) Amendment Act, 1949, and before the commencement of section three of the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment Act, 1971, or who becomes a mine worker after the commencement of that section, shall be deemed never to have been eligible, and shall not be eligible, for a pension pursuant to subsection one of this section.

- (v) by omitting from subsection two of the same section the words "two pounds per week" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the appropriate amount per week referred to in section 10EA of this Act";
- (vi) by omitting from subsection three of the same section the words "two pounds per week" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the appropriate amount per week referred to in section 10EA of this Act";

(vii)

Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment.

- (vii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "six pounds two shillings and sixpence per week" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the appropriate amount per week referred to in section 10EA of this Act";
- (viii) by omitting subsections four to fifteen (inclusive) of the same section;
- (b) by inserting next after section six the following new sections :—

6A. A mine worker shall not be eligible for a pension pursuant to section six of this Act if he is a new entrant within the meaning of section 6B of this Act.

No. 17, 1971
New secs. 6A, 6B.
New entrants not eligible for pension under section six.

6B. (1) In this section, "new entrant" means a mine worker whose date of retirement is later than the commencement of section three of the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment Act, 1971, and—

Pensions—mine workers who are retired—new entrants.

- (a) who was not engaged in the coal or oil shale mining industries immediately before that commencement; or
- (b) who was so engaged immediately before that commencement but ceased to be so engaged for any period after that commencement and before the date of retirement.

but does not include a mine worker declared by the Tribunal under subsection six of this section not to be a new entrant.

No. 17, 1971

(2) A new entrant shall be eligible as from the date of retirement to a pension of the appropriate amount per week referred to in section 10EA of this Act—

- (a) if he has been continuously engaged in the coal or oil shale mining industries for a period of not less than fifteen years immediately before the date of retirement; or
- (b) if he has been engaged in the coal or oil shale mining industries for two or more periods together amounting to not less than fifteen years and if—
  - (i) every period between those periods was an approved interval referred to in subsection three of this section; and
  - (ii) he has been continuously engaged in those industries for the period of twelve months immediately before the date of retirement.

(3) Where a mine worker's engagement in the coal or oil shale mining industries has been terminated and the Tribunal is satisfied—

- (a) that it was so terminated by reason of retrenchment or cavil out, slackness of trade or act of God (including fire or flood); or
- (b) that it was so terminated by reason of his ill health and that he did not become eligible for a pension under this Act by virtue thereof, the period commencing upon that termination of his engagement in those industries and ending when he becomes again engaged in those industries shall be an approved interval for the purposes of subsection two of this section, unless the Tribunal is satisfied

Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment.

---

satisfied that he failed without good reason to be engaged in those industries for any part of that period. No. 17, 1971

In this subsection, "period" means period that is wholly before or wholly after the commencement of section three of the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment Act, 1971, or that is partly before and partly after that commencement.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a mine worker shall not be deemed to be "engaged in the coal or oil shale mining industries" by reason of the operation of paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection two of section two of this Act.

(5) For the purposes of this section, an apprentice whose employment as a mine worker is terminated on completion of his apprenticeship shall be deemed to have been retrenched.

(6) The Tribunal may declare a mine worker whose date of retirement is later than the commencement of section three of the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment Act, 1971, and who was not engaged in the coal or oil shale mining industries immediately before that commencement, not to be a new entrant if the Tribunal is satisfied that—

(a) he was employed as a mine worker at any time after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and forty-two;

(b) his employment as a mine worker was terminated by reason of retrenchment or cavil out, slackness of trade or act of God (including fire or flood);

(c)

No. 17, 1971

(c) a permit was not issued to him under section 2E of this Act by virtue of that termination of his employment because he did not satisfy the requirements set out in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection three of that section; and

(d) he became engaged in the coal or oil shale mining industries at the earliest reasonable opportunity after that commencement.

- (v) by omitting from the same subsection the words "any such child" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "such child";
- (vi) by omitting from the same subsection the words "such a child" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "such child";
- (vii) by inserting next before subsection two of the same section the following new subsections :—
- (1B) Where the Tribunal is satisfied that, but for the absence from Australia of any person (in this subsection referred to as "the firstmentioned person"), any amount (in this subsection referred to as "the firstmentioned amount") would be payable under the Social Services Act to—
- (a) the firstmentioned person; or
- (b) some other person in respect of the firstmentioned person,

No. 17, 1971

in respect of any period for which a pension is payable under this Act to the firstmentioned person or to that other person, the Tribunal may deduct, from the amount payable as such pension, the whole of the prescribed amount or such part of the prescribed amount as the Tribunal may determine.

The prescribed amount for the purposes of this subsection is the amount that equals the amount that the Tribunal is satisfied would be deducted, from the amount so payable as such pension, in pursuance of subsection one of this section if the firstmentioned amount was paid under the Social Services Act to the firstmentioned person or to that other person in respect of the firstmentioned person, as the case may require, but does not include any amount that would be so deducted whether or not this subsection had been enacted.

(1c) Where the Tribunal is satisfied that, but for—

- (a) the refusal of an application made for a pension under the Social Services Act by a female; or
- (b) the cancellation of a female's pension under that Act, on any ground other than a ground relating to her means as assessed (within the meaning of that Act) in relation to her, any amount (in this subsection referred to as "the firstmentioned amount") would be payable as pension under that Act to her in respect of any period for which a pension is payable under section ten or 10A of this Act to her, the Tribunal may deduct, from the amount payable as such pension under this Act, the whole of the prescribed amount or such part of the prescribed amount as the Tribunal may determine. No. 17, 1971

The prescribed amount for the purposes of this subsection is the amount that equals the amount that the Tribunal is satisfied would be deducted, from the amount so payable as such pension under this Act, in pursuance of subsection one of this section if the firstmentioned amount was paid under the Social Services Act to a female referred to in this subsection, but does not include any amount that would be so deducted whether or not this subsection had been enacted.

- (viii) by omitting subsection three of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection : —

(3) In this section, "Social Services Act" has the meaning ascribed thereto by subsection one of section two of this Act, and includes any agreement referred to in section one hundred and thirty-seven of the Social Services Act.

4. (1) Part II of the Principal Act is further amended—
- Further amendment of Act No. 45, 1941. (Part II.—Compulsory Retirement and Pensions.)
- (a) (i) by inserting in subsection (1A) of section nine after the word "person" where firstly occurring the words "(in this subsection referred to as "the dependant")";
- Sec. 9. (Pensions—additional payments in respect of dependants.)
- (ii)

No. 17, 1971

- (ii) by inserting in the same subsection after the words "mine worker" where firstly occurring the words "(in this subsection referred to as "the mine worker")";
- (iii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "such mine worker where the income of such person" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the mine worker during a prescribed period, where the dependant's average weekly income during that period";
- (iv) by omitting from the same subsection the words "on the weekly average of such income over the period of twelve months immediately preceding the eligibility of the mine worker for an addition to his pension as aforesaid";
- (v) by inserting at the end of the same subsection the following new paragraphs : —
  - In this subsection, "prescribed period" means, except as hereinafter provided in this subsection—
    - (a) the period commencing on the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and seventy, and ending on the thirty-first day of December next following; or
    - (b) the period of twelve months commencing on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seventy-one, or any subsequent period of twelve months commencing on the first day of January in any year thereafter.

Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this subsection, where—

- (i) the dependant has ceased to be employed in any employment (including self employment) during a period specified specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of "prescribed period" in this subsection; and No. 17, 1971

- (ii) no addition was payable to the mine worker under paragraph (a) or (c) of subsection one of this section in respect of the dependant at any time (whether before or after the commencement of section four of the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment Act, 1971) before the dependant has so ceased to be employed, then, for the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, in so far as those provisions apply to and in respect of the mine worker and the dependant, the period referred to in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph shall, instead of being treated as one prescribed period, be deemed to consist of two prescribed periods, namely :—

- (iii) the period commencing on the day on which the period so referred to commences and ending on the day on which the dependant has so ceased to be employed; and
  - (iv) the period commencing on the day following the day on which the dependant has so ceased to be employed and ending on the day on which the period so referred to ends.
- (vi) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsection :—

(1B) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1A) of this section, no regard shall, for the purposes of that subsection, be had to
