PART II.

AMENDMENTS OF ACTS.

5. Part X of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from section 289 (m) the following words :—

Amendment
of Act No.
41, 1919.

Any owner who has been served with a notice under this paragraph may within the time and in the manner prescribed by rules of court appeal to a district court judge having jurisdiction within the area against the direction given in the notice.

(Part X.—
Public Health, Safety, and Convenience.)
Sec. 289.

Such judge may determine whether the direction of the council is reasonable in all the circumstances of the case and whether it shall or shall not be carried out either in its entirety or with modifications, and may extend the time within which anything is to be done. The costs of the appeal shall be in the discretion of the judge.

(Various powers of the council.)

If costs are awarded they may be recovered in like manner to costs awarded in a judgment of the district court.

The

No. 64, 1972

The decision of such judge upon any such appeal shall be final, and shall be binding upon the council and the appellant, and for the purposes of this Act shall be deemed to be the final decision of the council.

and by inserting instead the following words :—

Any owner who has been served with a notice under this paragraph may, within one month after service of the notice upon him, appeal to the Tribunal against the direction given in the notice.

Where an appeal is made under this paragraph against a direction, a reference in Part XII B to a decision of a council, howsoever expressed, includes a reference to that direction.

amendment
of Act No.
41, 1919.
(Part XI.—
Building Regulation.)

Sec. 317B.
(Repair or demolition of existing buildings.)

6. Part XI of the Principal Act is amended—

(a) by omitting section 317B (4) and by inserting instead the following subsections :—

(4) Where there is a sale under subsection (3), the council—

(a) if the proceeds of the sale exceed the expenses incurred by the council in relation to the execution of the order and the sale—

(i) may deduct out of the proceeds an amount equal to those expenses; and

(ii) shall pay the surplus on demand to the owner; or

(b) if the proceeds of the sale do not exceed those expenses—

(i) may retain the proceeds; and

(ii)

Local Government (Further Amendment).

(ii) may recover the deficiency, if any, No. 64, 1972 together with all costs in respect thereof, from the owner as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4A) Where—

- (a) the council demolishes the building or any part thereof but does not sell the materials under subsection (3); or
- (b) the execution of the order does not involve any such demolition,

the council may recover all expenses incurred by it in relation to the execution of the order, together with all costs in respect thereof, from the owner as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4B) Nothing in subsection (4) or (4A) affects the owner's right to recover any amount from any lessee or other person liable for the expenses of repairs.

(4C) A reference in subsection (4) or (4A) to costs is a reference to costs incurred by the council in seeking to recover the deficiency or expenses otherwise than by proceedings in a court, but nothing in this section prevents the council from receiving costs as between party and party in respect of those proceedings.

(b) by omitting section 317BA;

Sec. 317BA.
(Demolition
of residential buildings.)

(c) by omitting from the heading to Division 4B the word "escapes" and by inserting instead the word "precautions";

Sec. 317D.

(Fire escapes, fire-fighting equipment etc.)

(d) (i) by omitting section 317D (1) and by inserting instead the following subsections :—

(1) The council, for the purpose of ensuring that adequate provision is made in or in connection with a building for all or any of the following matters, namely—

- (a) the safety of persons in the building in the event of fire;
- (b) the prevention of fire;
- (c) the suppression of fire; and
- (d) the prevention of the spread of fire,

may, by resolution—

- (e) direct that such works (whether in the nature of alterations or otherwise) as may be specified in the resolution be carried out; or
- (f) direct that such fire-fighting equipment as may be so specified be provided, or give both such directions.

(1A) Without affecting the generality of subsection (1), the council may, under subsection (1) (e), direct that any or all of the following works be carried out in or in connection with the building, namely—

- (a) that means of escape or egress be provided;
- (b) that automatic sprinklers or drenchers be installed; and
- (c) that provision be made for the protection from fire of means of escape or egress.

(ii)

Local Government (Further Amendment).

- Sec. 317J.
(Completion of work.)
- (i) by inserting at the end of section 317J the following new subsections :—
- (5) Any person who fails to comply with a direction referred to in subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.
- Penalty: Five hundred dollars and, for each day the offence continues, a further fifty dollars.

Local Government (Further Amendment).

(6) In the event of a failure to comply with a No. 64, 1972 direction referred to in subsection (1)—

- (a) proceedings may be instituted for an offence arising under subsection (5) notwithstanding that the council is exercising or has exercised all or any of its powers under subsections (2), (3) and (4) in relation to the failure; or
- (b) the council may exercise all or any of those powers in relation to the failure notwithstanding that proceedings have been instituted for such an offence.

(7) Section 632 does not apply to a failure to comply with a direction referred to in subsection (1).

- (j) (i) by omitting from section 319 (1) the following paragraph :—
- Sec. 319.

12. (1) In this section, “appeal” means appeal under section 289 (m) of the Principal Act.

Pending, etc., appeals under section 289 (m) of Principal Act: section 5.

(2) An appeal made before the commencement of this section shall, whether or not the hearing of the appeal has commenced, be heard and dealt with in all respects as if this Act had not been enacted.

(3)

Local Government (Further Amendment).

No. 64, 1972

(3) For the purposes only of hearing and dealing with an appeal as referred to in subsection (2), the provisions of section 289 (m) of the Principal Act, as in force immediately before the commencement of section 5, relating to any such appeal shall continue in force notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act.

(4) The decision of the District Court judge on any appeal referred to in subsection (2) shall have the same force and effect as it would have had if this Act had not been enacted.

(5) Where an appeal had not been made before the commencement of this section but could, but for the enactment of this Act, have been made, immediately after that commencement, to a District Court judge—

- (a) the appeal may be made to the Local Government Appeals Tribunal under the provisions of the Principal Act, as amended by section 5; and
- (b) section 289 (m) of that Act, as so amended, shall, for the purposes only of so making the appeal, be deemed to be amended by omitting the words “one month” and by inserting instead the words “sixty days”.

Savings:
section 6.

13. (1) The provisions of section 317B of the Principal Act shall continue to apply to and in respect of an order in force under that section immediately before the commencement of section 6 in all respects as if the amendments made by section 6 (a) had not been made.

(2) The provisions of Division 4B of Part XI of the Principal Act shall continue to apply to and in respect of any resolution in force under that Division immediately before the commencement of section 6, whether or not the resolution was adopted under that Division, in all respects as if the amendments made to that Division by section 6 had not been made.

14.

Local Government (Further Amendment).

14. (1) In this section, "appeal" means appeal under No. 64, 1972 section 20 of the Conveyancing (Strata Titles) Act, 1961.

(2) Section 11 of the Local Government (Appeals) Amendment Act, 1971, applies, and shall be deemed to have applied, to and in respect of an appeal, other than an appeal referred to in subsection (3) or (4), as if section 10 of this Act had been enacted as part of that Act.

Appeals
under section 20
of Conveyancing
(Strata Titles) Act:
section 10.

(3) Where, after the commencement of the Local Government (Appeals) Amendment Act, 1971, but before the commencement of this section, the Land and Valuation Court purported to give a decision in an appeal, the decision shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, as valid and effectual as if that Act and this Act had not been enacted.

(4) Where, after the commencement of the Local Government (Appeals) Amendment Act, 1971, but before the commencement of this section, an appeal, being an appeal pending at the commencement of this section, was made to, or was commenced or continued to be heard by, the Land and Valuation Court, the making or hearing of the appeal shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, as valid and effectual as if that Act and this Act had not been enacted.

15. (1) In this section, "appeal" means appeal referred to in section 14 (4).

(2) An appeal shall—

- (a) if the hearing of the appeal has commenced, continue to be heard and dealt with in all respects as if the Local Government (Appeals) Amendment Act, 1971, and this Act had not been enacted; or
- (b) if the hearing of the appeal has not commenced, be deemed to be an appeal made to the Local Government Appeals Tribunal.

No. 64, 1972

(3) For the purposes only of continuing to hear and deal with an appeal as referred to in subsection (2) (a), the provisions of section 20 of the Conveyancing (Strata Titles) Act, 1961, and the Principal Act, as respectively in force immediately before the commencement of the Local Government (Appeals) Amendment Act, 1971, shall be deemed to have continued and to continue in force notwithstanding any provision of the Local Government (Appeals) Amendment Act, 1971, or any other provision of this Act.

(4) The decision of the Land and Valuation Court on any appeal referred to in subsection (2) (a) shall have the same force and effect as it would have had if the Local Government (Appeals) Amendment Act, 1971, and this Act had not been enacted.

(5) The Registrar of the Land and Valuation Court shall, as soon as practicable after the commencement of this section, forward to the Local Government Appeals Tribunal all documents held by him and relating to any appeal referred to in subsection (2) (b).

DIVISION 2.—Provisions respecting county councils.

Validation:
functions,
powers and duties of county councils.

16. (1) A proclamation which purported to be made under the Principal Act, as in force when the proclamation was made, and which was published before the commencement of this section, and by which any power or duty purported to be delegated to a county council, shall be deemed to have been and to be valid and effectual notwithstanding that a request for the delegation was not made, under and in accordance with section 564 (2) of that Act, by a majority of the constituent councils and notwithstanding any defect in the proclamation.

(2) Where, before the commencement of the Local Government (Amendment) Act, 1959—

(a) the boundaries of a county district were altered by adding thereto any area or part of an area, the provisions of section 564 (3A) of the Principal Act shall shall be deemed to have applied to and in respect No. 64, 1972 of the council of the county district, and shall be deemed to have so applied—

- (i) as if those provisions had been in force at the time of the alteration of the boundaries; and
  - (ii) as if a reference in those provisions to the date specified in the proclamation altering the boundaries of the county district were a reference to the date specified in that proclamation or a subsequent proclamation relating to that alteration as the date from which the council of the county district purported to be substituted for the council of that area, or, where no such date was so specified, to the date on which that alteration took effect;
- (b) two or more county districts were united, the provisions of section 564 (3B) of the Principal Act shall be deemed to have applied to and in respect of the council of the united county district, and shall be deemed to have so applied—
- (i) as if those provisions had been in force at the time of the union;
  - (ii) as if those provisions had been amended by omitting the words “under this Part”; and
  - (iii) as if a reference in those provisions to the date specified in the proclamation uniting the county districts were a reference to the date on which the union took effect; and
- (c) the boundaries of a county district were altered by excluding therefrom the whole or part of a constituent area without at the same time adding it to another county district, the provisions of section 564 (3c) of the Principal Act shall be deemed to have applied to and in respect of the council council of the county district and the council of the constituent area, and shall be deemed to have so applied as if those provisions had been in force at the time of the alteration of the boundaries.

(3) Where, after the commencement of the Local Government (Amendment) Act, 1959, and before the commencement of this section, a date was not specified in a proclamation referred to in section 564 (3A) or (3B) of the Principal Act as the date as on and from which the functions, powers and duties referred to therein shall be deemed to be delegated thereunder—

- (a) the proclamation shall be deemed to have been and to be valid and effectual notwithstanding that such a date was not so specified;
- (b) the date on which the alteration of boundaries or the union of county districts, as the case may be, took effect shall be deemed to have been specified in the proclamation as the date as on and from which those functions, powers and duties shall be deemed to be delegated; and
- (c) section 564 (3A) or (3B) of the Principal Act, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have operated accordingly.

(4) A person is not guilty of an offence arising by virtue of any act, matter or thing done or omitted to be done before the commencement of this section, being an offence of which he would not be guilty if this section had not been enacted.

(5) Nothing in subsection (2) applies to or in respect of the alteration of the boundaries of the Prospect County District and the Central West County District in so far as those boundaries were altered by the proclamations referred to in section 8 (2) (b) (iii) of the Local Government (Amendment) Act, 1959.

Local Government (Further Amendment).

(6) Without affecting the generality of the operation No. 64, 1972 of subsection (2), that subsection applies to and in respect of the alteration of the boundaries of the Upper Hunter County District effected by the proclamation published in Gazette No. 165 of 13th December, 1957, with respect to that county district.

No. 64, 1972

(b) if they agree that any persons should be so transferred, shall agree upon an arrangement as to which of those persons so employed should be so transferred.

(4) In the event of any failure to agree under subsection (3) within one month after the commencement of this section or within such further period as the Minister may allow, the Minister may determine the question and, where appropriate, make an arrangement as to which persons should be transferred to the service of the County Council.

(5) An arrangement under this section shall be embodied in a proclamation.

(6) On the date specified in that behalf in the proclamation embodying an arrangement under this section—

(a) each of the persons included in the arrangement shall be transferred to the service of the County Council from the service of the constituent council to which the arrangement relates; and

(b) the provisions of section 564B (1) (m) of the Principal Act shall apply to and in respect of each of those persons, the County Council and the constituent council as if the transfer had been effected by the operation of section 564B (1) (m) (i) (a) thereof and as if a reference in section 564B (1) (m) thereof to the date of delegation were a reference to the date so specified in the proclamation.
