THE CIVIL JURISDICTION OF THE COURT.

DIVISION 1.—Officers and General Provisions.Subdivision 1.—Registrars.

Registrars. 19. (1) There shall be a registrar of the Court for each proclaimed place.

(2) The registrar for Sydney, and for any other proclaimed place specified for the purposes of this subsection by the Minister by order published in the Gazette, shall be appointed by the Governor under and subject to the Public Service Act, 1902.

(3) The registrar for any proclaimed place not referred to in subsection (2) shall be the person for the time being holding office as, or discharging the functions of, clerk of petty sessions at that place, or if there is no such person, shall be the person for the time being holding office as, or discharging the functions of, clerk of petty sessions at some other place specified for the purposes of this subsection by the Minister by order published in the Gazette.

Consent
orders.

20. Except where otherwise expressly provided by this Act or the rules, the registrar for the proper place in relation to any proceedings may exercise the power of the Court to make any order in the proceedings which the Court may make, being an order consented to—

- (a) by the parties to the application for the order; and
- (b) by any other persons who will be required to comply with the order or to suffer anything to be done under the order.

District Court.

21. (1) The registrar for Sydney may, except where a Judge otherwise orders or the rules otherwise provide, exercise, in or in respect of proceedings in relation to which the proper place is Sydney— No. 9, 1973 Powers of the registrar for Sydney.

- (a) the powers of the Court under section 68 (2); and
- (b) the powers of the Court to make—
  - (i) orders for substituted service of process;
  - (ii) orders in respect of the joinder, misjoinder and nonjoinder of parties;
  - (iii) orders in respect of the amendment of documents;
  - (iv) orders that the trial of proceedings be expedited; and
  - (v) orders that proceedings be heard together.

(2) The registrar for Sydney shall have, and may exercise concurrently with the registrar for any other proclaimed place specified for the purposes of this subsection by the Governor by order published in the Gazette, such of the powers, authorities, duties and functions of the registrar for that other proclaimed place as may be so specified.

(3) Any power, authority, duty or function conferred upon the registrar for Sydney by this section is additional to those otherwise conferred upon him.

22. (1) The Governor may, under and subject to the Public Service Act, 1902, appoint one or more assistant registrars for a proclaimed place. Assistant registrars.

(2) If the Governor by proclamation so directs, the person for the time being holding office as, or discharging the functions of, clerk of petty sessions for a place specified in the proclamation (whether or not that place is a proclaimed place) shall be an assistant registrar for the proclaimed place specified in the proclamation.

District Court.

No. 9, 1973 23. (1) An assistant registrar for a proclaimed place shall have and may exercise and discharge such of the powers, authorities, duties and functions of the registrar for that place as may be specified in the rules for the purposes of this subsection.

Powers, etc., of assistant registrars.

(2) Any thing done or omitted to be done by an assistant registrar for a proclaimed place in the exercise or discharge of his powers, authorities, duties and functions under this Act shall, for the purposes of this Act, have the same effect as if it had been done or omitted by the registrar for that proclaimed place.

(3) Nothing in this section affects the powers, authorities, duties and functions of any registrar.

Registrar not to act as bailiff.

24. A registrar or an assistant registrar shall not be appointed or act as a bailiff or assistant bailiff.

Subdivision 2.—Bailiffs.

Bailiffs. 25. (1) There shall be at least one bailiff of the Court for each proclaimed place.

(2) If the Governor by proclamation so directs, every person for the time being holding office as, or discharging the functions of, sheriff's officer at any place specified in the proclamation shall be a bailiff of the Court for such proclaimed place or proclaimed places as may be specified in the proclamation.

(3) The Chief Judge may, whether or not there is a bailiff for a proclaimed place by virtue of subsection (2), by order in writing appoint persons to be bailiffs of the Court for that proclaimed place.

District Court.

26. (1) A bailiff for a proclaimed place may, by instrument in writing, appoint a sufficient number of persons to be assistant bailiffs of the Court for that proclaimed place. No. 9, 1973
Assistant
bailiffs.

(2) An assistant bailiff may be dismissed or suspended from office as such by the Chief Judge or any successor of the bailiff who appointed him, as well as by that bailiff.

27. (1) A bailiff for a proclaimed place shall, if required by the Judge presiding thereat to do so, attend any sitting of the Court at that place. Duties of bailiffs
and assistant bailiffs.

(2) The bailiff for a proclaimed place shall, if required by the registrar for that place to do so—

- (a) execute any warrant or writ issued out of the Court;
or
- (b) serve any other document, whether or not that place is the proper place in relation to the proceedings to which that warrant, writ or other document relates, but where there are two or more bailiffs for that place, the warrant, writ or other document may be executed or served by any one of them.

(3) It shall be the duty of an assistant bailiff for a proclaimed place to assist the bailiff for that place, as directed by the bailiff.

(4) The bailiffs and assistant bailiffs shall in the execution of their duties conform to the rules and, subject to the rules, to the order and direction of any Judge.

(5) A bailiff who undertakes, or is required to undertake, the execution or service of any warrant, writ or other document shall, in respect thereof, be responsible to any party for all the acts and defaults of himself and of any assistant bailiff assisting him in like manner as the sheriff is responsible for the acts and defaults of himself and his officers.

No. 9, 1973

Remuneration of bailiffs and assistant bailiffs.

28. (1) A bailiff appointed under section 25 (3) shall be entitled, in respect of any service performed by him as required by or under this Act, to receive out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund and retain for his own use the amount of any fee prescribed by the regulations made under section 150 as payable by a party in respect of that service when performed by a bailiff.

(2) An assistant bailiff shall be entitled, in respect of any service performed by him as required by or under this Act, to receive out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund and retain for his own use the amount of any fee prescribed by the regulations made under section 150 as payable by a party in respect of that service when performed by an assistant bailiff.

Bailiff not to act as registrar.

29. A bailiff or assistant bailiff shall not be appointed or act as a registrar or assistant registrar.

Obstructing bailiffs.

30. A person shall not assault, resist, interrupt or obstruct a bailiff or assistant bailiff in the exercise of any of his powers, authorities, duties or functions under this Act, or rescue or attempt to rescue any property seized or taken by a bailiff or assistant bailiff.

Penalty : $200 or imprisonment for six months, or both.

Subdivision 3.—Sittings of the Court.

Proclaimed places.

31. (1) In this section, "place" means city, town or other place.

(2) The Governor may, by proclamation, specify the places at which the Court may sit in its civil jurisdiction, and one of those proclaimed places shall be Sydney.

32.

District Court.

32. (1) In this section, "year" means any period of twelve months ending on the thirty-first day of December. No. 9, 1973

Directions
as to sittings at proclaimed
places.

(2) The Governor may, if in his opinion it is expedient to do so, by proclamation, direct that the Court shall, during a specified year, sit in its civil jurisdiction at a specified proclaimed place at specified times.

(3) Where there is no direction under subsection (2) that the Court shall, during a particular year, sit at a particular proclaimed place, the Chief Judge may, if in his opinion it is expedient to do so, by order in writing—

- (a) direct that the Court shall, during that year, sit in its civil jurisdiction at that place at specified times; or
- (b) direct that all proceedings (other than proceedings before a registrar or any other officer of the Court) the proper place in relation to which is that place shall be continued by the Court sitting at some other proclaimed place specified in the order, and, while a direction under paragraph (b) remains in force, the proceedings to which it relates shall, if continued, be continued accordingly.

(4) A direction under subsection (2) or (3) may be given in respect of a particular year before the commencement of that year or, in respect of the remaining portion of that year, after the commencement of that year.

(5) Where a direction is given under subsection (2) having effect, during a particular year, in respect of a particular proclaimed place, a previous direction—

- (a) under subsection (3) (a) having effect, during that year, in respect of that proclaimed place; or
- (b) under subsection (3) (b) having effect, during that year, in respect of proceedings the proper place in relation to which is that proclaimed place, shall cease to have effect.

33.

District Court.

No. 9, 1973
 General provisions
 as to sittings.

33. (1) Subject to this Part, sittings of the Court shall be arranged by the Chief Judge.

(2) Subject to this Part—

- (a) the Court may sit simultaneously at different proclaimed places;
- (b) a Judge shall preside at such sittings of the Court at such proclaimed places as the Chief Judge may from time to time direct; and
- (c) two or more Judges may preside simultaneously at separate sittings of the Court at the one proclaimed place.

(3) Where a sitting of the Court is directed to be held at a proclaimed place at a time specified under section 32, the registrar for that place shall—

- (a) if the Chief Judge so directs; or
- (b) if for any reason it is not practicable to be held at that time, adjourn the sitting to such time as the Chief Judge nominates or, if the Chief Judge does not nominate a time, to such time as the registrar deems convenient.

Permanent substitution of proclaimed place.

34. (1) Where a place ceases to be a proclaimed place by reason of the revocation or amendment of a proclamation made under section 31, the Governor may, by proclamation, direct that—

- (a) all proceedings (including proceedings before a registrar or any other officer of the Court) pending before the Court at that place; and
- (b) any unsatisfied judgment or order of the Court in proceedings the proper place in relation to which was that place,

may be continued or enforced by the Court sitting at such other place as may be specified in the proclamation, and the proceedings shall, if continued, be continued accordingly or the judgment or order enforced accordingly, as the case may require. No. 9, 1973

(2) The Governor may, in any such proclamation, direct that the records of the Court at the place that has so ceased to be a proclaimed place shall be removed at or within a time stated in the proclamation to the registry for the other place specified therein.

(3) A direction under subsection (1) shall, for the purposes of the definition of "proper place" in section 4 (1), have effect as if it were an order for a change of venue under section 40 in respect of the proceedings to which it relates to the other place specified in the proclamation.

35. Where the Governor is of the opinion that it is inexpedient or impracticable for the Court to sit at a proclaimed place but that that place should continue to be specified in a proclamation under section 31, he may, by proclamation, direct that all proceedings (other than proceedings before a registrar or any other officer of the Court) the proper place in relation to which is that place may be continued by the Court sitting at such other place as may be specified in the proclamation, and, while the direction remains in force, the proceedings shall, if continued, be continued accordingly. Temporary substitution of proclaimed place.

36. Where all parties appearing in proceedings the hearing of which has commenced before him in court consent, a Judge may direct that those proceedings be continued before him at another proclaimed place at which he is, under section 33 (2) (b), authorised to sit. Adjournment to another proclaimed place.

No. 9, 1973      37. A Judge may make in chambers any order in respect
Chambers. of any proceedings which he could lawfully make in court and which he considers may be properly made in chambers, whether those chambers are situated at the proper place in relation to those proceedings, at any other proclaimed place or elsewhere.

Reservation      38. (1) Where in any proceedings a Judge reserves his of judgment judgment or his decision on any question of fact or law, he or decision. may—

- (a) give his judgment or decision at the proper place in relation to those proceedings or at any other place at which he is authorised by this Act to hear or dispose of those proceedings, at any time, whether or not that time is specified in respect of that place under section 32 (2) or (3) (a) ; or
- (b) draw up in writing his judgment or decision, sign it and forward it to the registrar for that proper place.

(2) Where a registrar receives a judgment or decision forwarded to him under subsection (1) (b), he shall, after giving notice to the parties to the proceedings, read the judgment or decision at the place for which he is registrar at a convenient time specified in the notice, whether or not that time is specified in respect of that place under section 32 (2) or (3) (a).

(3) A judgment or decision given by a Judge under subsection (1) (a) or read by a registrar under subsection (2) shall take effect on the day on which it is so given or read and shall be as valid as if given by the Judge at the hearing of the proceedings to which the judgment or decision relates.

39. Nothing contained in or done under section 32, 35, No. 9, 1973 36 or 37 has, for the purposes of the definition of "proper place" in section 4 (1), effect as a change of venue, unless the Court orders a change of venue under section 40. Proper place not affected.

Subdivision 4.—Change of venue.

40. (1) Where—

- (a) it appears that a fair or unprejudiced trial of any issue cannot otherwise be had; or
- (b) for any other reason it appears expedient to the Court to do so,

Change of venue.

the Court may, on terms, change the venue of any proceedings.

(2) Where the venue of any proceedings is changed, the registrar for the proclaimed place from which the venue is changed shall forthwith deliver or transmit by post the whole record of the proceedings to the registrar for the proclaimed place to which the venue is changed.

Subdivision 5.—Parties.

41. (1) Subject to this Act and the rules, where a plaintiff has a cause of action against two or more persons having a joint liability, it shall be sufficient if any one or more of those persons is or are served with process in any proceedings, and judgment in the proceedings may be given or entered up and enforced against the person or persons so served notwithstanding that others jointly liable have not been served or sued, or are not within New South Wales.

(2) The provisions of section 97 of the Supreme Court Act, 1970, apply to and in respect of a judgment given or entered up in proceedings in the Court in the same way as they apply to and in respect of a judgment given in proceedings in the Supreme Court.

42.

- No. 9, 1973 42. An executor or administrator may sue or be sued in any proceedings in like manner as if he were a party suing or being sued in his own right, and judgment in the proceedings and enforcement of the judgment shall be as prescribed.

and administrators.

Subdivision 6.—Right of appearance.

Right of appearance.

- 43. (1) A party to any proceedings may appear—
- (a) by a barrister or solicitor retained by or on behalf of that party, or by a solicitor employed (as an agent or otherwise) by a solicitor so retained; or
  - (b) if no barrister or solicitor is so retained and—
    - (i) if that party is a natural person—by himself; or
    - (ii) if that party is a corporation—by an officer of the corporation authorised in that behalf by the corporation in accordance with the rules, or by another person allowed by leave of the Court granted in the particular proceedings to appear on that party's behalf.
- (2) A person appearing in any proceedings may address the Court and examine and cross-examine witnesses.
- (3) A person who is not a barrister or solicitor shall not be entitled to receive or recover an amount of money or other remuneration or consideration for appearing on behalf of another person in the Court or before a registrar.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not operate to prevent an employee who appears on behalf of his employer in the ordinary course of his employment from receiving wages or salary for so appearing.

District Court.

(5) No amount paid to a person who appears in any proceedings, and who is not a barrister or solicitor retained as mentioned in subsection (1), shall be allowed as costs between party and party. No. 9, 1973

(6) Subsection (2) has effect subject to this Act and the rules and to any direction given by the Court under section 156 (2).

DIVISION 2.—Actions: Jurisdiction.

Subdivision 1.—General jurisdiction in relation to actions.

44. (1) Subject to this Act, the Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and dispose of—

- (a) any personal action at law where the amount claimed does not exceed $10,000, whether on a balance of account or after an admitted set-off or otherwise; or
- (b) any action brought to recover an amount not exceeding $10,000, which is the whole or part of the unliquidated balance of a partnership account, or the amount or part of the amount of the distributive share under an intestacy or of a legacy under a will.

(2) Without affecting the generality of the provisions of subsection (1) (a), a reference in those provisions to a personal action at law includes a reference to an action for the detention of goods.

No. 9, 1973 (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a), the amount claimed in an action for the detention of goods is the amount claimed for the value of the goods together with the amount (if any) claimed for damages for the detention of the goods.

Minors. 45. A minor to whom any wages or other sum arising out of the course of his employment are or is alleged to be due may sue for and recover the wages or sum in the Court in the same manner as if he were of full age.

Ancillary equitable relief: injunctions. 46. (1) Without affecting the generality of Division 8, the Court shall, in any action, have power to grant any injunction (whether interlocutory or otherwise) which the Supreme Court might have granted if the action were proceedings in the Supreme Court.

(2) In relation to the power of the Court to grant an injunction under this section—

(a) the Court and the Judges shall, in addition to the powers and authority otherwise conferred on it and them, have all the powers and authority of the Supreme Court and the Judges thereof in the like circumstances;

(b) the appropriate officer of the Court shall, in addition to the duties otherwise imposed on him, discharge—

(i) any duty which an officer of the Supreme Court would be required under the practice of the Supreme Court to discharge in the like circumstances; and

(ii) any duty imposed on him by the rules or by any order of the Court;

- (c) the practice and procedure of the Court shall, so far as practicable and subject to this Act and the rules, be the same as the practice and procedure of the Supreme Court applicable in the like circumstances; and
- (d) without affecting the generality of the foregoing provisions of this section, the powers, authority and duty conferred by paragraphs (a) and (b), and the practice and procedure of the Court referred to in paragraph (c) shall, subject to the rules, extend to the enforcement of any order of the Court made in connection with proceedings for the grant of the injunction.

(3) Without affecting the generality of any other provision of this Act authorising the making of rules, the rules may make provision for or with respect to—

- (a) the procedure to be followed with respect to the granting and enforcing of an injunction under this section; and
- (b) any other matter necessary or convenient for giving effect to this section.

47. (1) The Court shall have jurisdiction in accordance with this Act to hear and dispose of an action—

- (a) notwithstanding that part of the cause of action arose outside New South Wales, provided a material part of the cause of action arose within New South Wales;
- (b) notwithstanding that the whole cause of action arose outside New South Wales, provided the defendant was resident within New South Wales at the time of service of the statement of claim in the action; or

*District Court.*No. 9, 1973

(c) notwithstanding that the defendant is not within New South Wales, provided the whole cause of action or a material part of the cause of action arose within New South Wales and provided the defendant was within a State or a part of the Commonwealth (within the meaning of the Service and Execution of Process Act 1901 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, as subsequently amended) at the time of service of the statement of claim in the action.

(2) Subsection (1) (c) applies whether the defendant has or has not ever been resident or carried on business in New South Wales.

(3) In this section, "defendant" includes, where there are two or more defendants, any one of those defendants.

Miscellaneous limitations
on jurisdiction.

48. (1) An action in which the amount claimed does not exceed $20 and which could have been commenced in a court of petty sessions shall not be commenced in the Court except with the leave of the Court, which leave may be given on terms.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Court shall not have jurisdiction in an action in which title to land the value of which is more than $10,000 is in question.

(3) If the title to land the value of which is more than $10,000 incidentally comes in question in an action, the Court shall have power to decide the claim which it is the immediate object of the action to enforce, but the judgment of the Court shall not be evidence of title between the parties No. 9, 1973 or their privies in other proceedings in the Court or in any proceedings in any other court.

(4) Without affecting Division 8, the Court shall not have jurisdiction in actions for possession of land by virtue of this Part.

Subdivision 2.—Splitting and dividing of causes of action and abandonment.

49. (1) Where a person splits or divides any cause of action against another person— Actions not to be split or divided.

- (a) so as to bring an action for part of the amount for which an action may be brought on that cause; or
- (b) so as to plead a cross-claim for part of the amount for which an action may be brought on that cause, and judgment is given or entered up, or a final order is made, on that action or cross-claim, that other person is entitled to judgment in any other action brought or cross-claim pleaded on that cause (whether brought or pleaded in the Court or brought, taken or pleaded in any other court).

(2) Where a person has given two or more bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds or other securities for any claim by another person, whether or not the amount of that claim exceeds $10,000, that other person may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) but subject to any other provision of this Act, bring an action on, or plead by way of cross-claim in the Court, each of those securities as if each of them formed a distinct cause of action.

District Court.

No. 9, 1973 50. A plaintiff who has a cause of action for more than $10,000 may abandon the excess by stating the abandonment in the statement of claim by the lodging of which an action is commenced on that cause of action, and where the abandonment is so stated—

Abandonment.

- (a) the plaintiff's claim shall be reduced by the amount of the excess and the plaintiff shall, on proving his case, recover to an amount not exceeding $10,000;
- (b) judgment in the action shall be in full discharge of all demands in respect of that cause of action; and
- (c) entry of the judgment in the records of the Court shall be made accordingly.

Subdivision 3.—Jurisdiction by consent.

Consent jurisdiction. 51. (1) In this section, "memorandum of consent", in relation to an action, means a document signed—

- (a) where there is only one defendant in the action—by the defendant or his solicitor; or
- (b) where there are two or more defendants in the action—by each defendant or his solicitor, in which it is stated that the defendant, or each of the defendants, consents to the action being tried in the Court and is aware that, unless the memorandum is filed in accordance with subsection (2), the Court will not have jurisdiction to hear and dispose of the action.

(2) Where, but for this subsection, the Court would not have jurisdiction to hear and dispose of an action by reason only of the fact that the amount claimed exceeds $10,000, the Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and dispose

of that action if, together with the statement of claim by the No. 9, 1973 lodging of which the action is commenced, the plaintiff files — a memorandum of consent in respect of the action.

DIVISION 3.—Actions: Procedure.Subdivision 1.—General.

52. Except where otherwise expressly provided by or Actions to under this Act, an action and any proceedings ancillary to be heard at that action shall be heard and disposed of by the Court sitting proper place.

Subdivision 2.—Commencement of actions.

53. (1) An action shall be commenced by the lodging Manner of by the plaintiff with a registrar— commencement of actions.

(a) except in the case of an action for the recovery of a debt or liquidated demand—of an ordinary statement of claim; or

(b) in the case of an action for the recovery of a debt or liquidated demand—of an ordinary statement of claim or a statement of liquidated claim, for issue by the registrar.

(2) Proceedings ancillary to an action shall be commenced in the prescribed manner.

54. An action may be commenced at any proclaimed Place of place. commencement of action.

55.

No. 9, 1973 55. (1) In this section—

Relevant
places.

“defendant” includes, where there are two or more defendants, any one of those defendants;

“relevant place”, in relation to an action, means each of the following places :—

- (a) the place where the defendant is resident;
- (b) the place where the defendant carries on his business; and
- (c) the place where the cause of action arose, but does not include any place outside New South Wales.

(2) Where the proclaimed place at which an action is commenced is not the nearest proclaimed place to a relevant place, the defendant may, if he files the notice of the grounds of his defence under section 56 within the time prescribed for the purposes of this subsection, file within that time an affidavit by the defendant or his solicitor or agent specifying all the relevant places and the nearest proclaimed place to each of them.

(3) Where the defendant files the notice of the grounds of his defence and an affidavit in accordance with subsection (2), the plaintiff may, within the time prescribed for the purposes of this subsection, file—

- (a) a notice, signed by the plaintiff or his solicitor or agent, selecting as the venue of the action one of the proclaimed places specified in the defendant’s affidavit; or
- (b) an affidavit by the plaintiff or his solicitor or agent stating that a notice under paragraph (a) is not filed on the ground that—
  - (i) the proclaimed place at which the action was commenced is the nearest proclaimed place to a relevant place;

(ii)

District Court.

- (ii) at least one of the places specified as relevant No. 9, 1973 places in the affidavit under subsection (2) is not a relevant place;
  - (iii) not all of the relevant places were specified in the affidavit under subsection (2); or
  - (iv) the place specified in the affidavit under subsection (2) as being the nearest proclaimed place to a relevant place specified therein is not the nearest proclaimed place, and if a notice under paragraph (a) or affidavit under paragraph (b) is not so filed, the plaintiff shall, at the expiration of that prescribed time, be deemed to have discontinued his action.

(4) The filing of a notice in accordance with subsection (3) shall have the same effect as if the Court had ordered a change of venue under section 40 to the proclaimed place selected in the notice.

(5) Where the plaintiff files an affidavit in accordance with subsection (3), the Court shall either order a change of venue under section 40 to such proclaimed place as the Court thinks proper (whether or not that place is a relevant place) or direct that there shall be no such change of venue.

Subdivision 3.—Defences.

56. (1) A defendant in an action commenced by the lodging of an ordinary statement of claim may at any time before judgment file, in duplicate, notice of the grounds of his defence, signed by the defendant or his solicitor. Defences.

(2)

No. 9, 1973

(2) A defendant in an action commenced by the lodging of a statement of liquidated claim may at any time before judgment file, in duplicate, notice of the grounds of his defence, signed by the defendant or his solicitor, and an affidavit verifying the grounds or verifying such facts as the Court may, in the special circumstances of the case, deem sufficient.

(3) The registrar shall, as soon as practicable after the filing of any notice of grounds of defence under this section, give or send by post a copy of the notice and any affidavit filed with it to the plaintiff or his solicitor.

(4) A defendant shall not at the trial of an action, except by consent of the plaintiff or by leave, given on terms, of the Court, set up any ground of defence not included in a notice of grounds of defence filed by him under this section.

(5) A defendant shall not, by reason of having filed a notice of the grounds of his defence to an action, be deemed to have waived any objection he may have on the ground of want of jurisdiction in the Court to try the action.

Subdivision 4.—Order for judgment and judgment by default.

Order for judgment.

57. (1) Where, in an action commenced by the lodging of an ordinary statement of claim—

- (a) a defendant has not filed a notice of the grounds of his defence under section 56 (1); and
- (b) judgment has not been given or entered up in the action,

the plaintiff may, within twelve months after the expiration of the prescribed time, or at such later time as the Court may, on sufficient cause being shown, allow, and on filing an affidavit of service of the statement of claim on that defendant, have an order, to be called an order for judgment, made by the Court or the registrar against that defendant.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), where an order for No. 9, 1973 judgment is made in an action against a defendant—

- (a) that defendant shall be deemed to have admitted liability; and
- (b) the action shall go to trial only as to the assessment of the amount to be recovered by the plaintiff.

(3) An order for judgment—

- (a) may be set aside, on terms, by order of the Court at any time before judgment; and
- (b) shall, without order, be set aside on the filing of a notice of grounds of defence under section 56 (1) in the action in which the order for judgment was made.

(4) Subsection (2) shall, on the setting aside of an order for judgment in accordance with subsection (3), cease to have any operation upon or in respect of the action in which the order for judgment was made.

(5) Where an order for judgment is set aside, the Court may, at the same time or subsequently, make such orders as it thinks fit as to the continuance of the action and as to the costs incurred by any party by the making or setting aside of the order for judgment or by any adjournment of the hearing of the action.

58. (1) Where, in an action commenced by the lodging of a statement of liquidated claim— Default judgment.

- (a) a defendant has not filed a notice of the grounds of his defence under section 56 (2); and
- (b) judgment has not been entered up in the action,

Interpre- tation:
Pt. III, Div.
3, Subdiv. 5.

59. In this Subdivision—

“defendant”, in relation to an action—

(a) in which there is only one defendant—means the defendant; or

(b) in which there are two or more defendants—means all or any of the defendants;

“plaintiff”,

“plaintiff”, in relation to an action—

No. 9, 1973

- (a) in which there is only one plaintiff—means the plaintiff; or
- (b) in which there are two or more plaintiffs—means all the plaintiffs.

60. (1) At any time before judgment in an action, the defendant may sign a statement confessing to the amount, or part of the amount, of the claim of the plaintiff and may specify in that statement by what instalments payable at what times the defendant is prepared to pay the amount so confessed to. <sup>Judgment by confession.</sup>

(2) Where a statement under subsection (1) is filed before judgment, the registrar shall as soon as practicable thereafter give or send by post to the plaintiff or his solicitor notice of the amount to which the defendant has confessed and of any terms of payment specified by the defendant in that statement.

(3) Where the confession is to the whole of the amount of the claim of the plaintiff and the plaintiff has not in the action claimed damages in respect of any personal injuries, the registrar shall forthwith after giving or sending the notice under subsection (2)—

- (a) enter up judgment for the plaintiff for that amount; and
- (b) where any terms of payment are specified in the statement, order that the judgment debt be paid by such instalments payable at such times as are so specified.

District Court.

No. 9, 1973

(4) Where the confession is to the whole of the amount of the claim of the plaintiff and the plaintiff has in the action claimed damages in respect of any personal injuries and the plaintiff within the prescribed time—

(a) does not—

- (i) make application for leave to amend his claim by increasing the amount of damages claimed; or
- (ii) make application to the Supreme Court for an order under section 145 removing the action into the Supreme Court and give notice to the registrar that he has so applied; and

(b) does not file a notice refusing to accept any terms of payment specified by the defendant in the statement made by him under subsection (1), the registrar shall forthwith after the expiration of that prescribed time—

(c) enter up judgment for the plaintiff for the amount to which the defendant has confessed; and

(d) where any terms of payment are specified in the statement, order that the judgment debt be paid by such instalments payable at such times as are so specified.

(5) Where the confession is to part only of the amount of the claim of the plaintiff and the plaintiff within the prescribed time—

(a) does not file a notice refusing to accept in full satisfaction of his claim the amount so confessed to; and

(b) does not file a notice refusing to accept any terms of payment specified by the defendant in the statement made by him under subsection (1),

the registrar shall forthwith after the expiration of that No. 9, 1973 prescribed time—

- (c) enter up judgment for the plaintiff for the amount to which the defendant has confessed; and
- (d) where any terms of payment are specified in the statement, order that the judgment debt be paid by such instalments payable at such times as are so specified.

(6) An order made under subsection (3) (b), (4) (d) or (5) (d) shall be deemed to be an order made under section 88 (4) pursuant to an application made by the judgment debtor under section 88 (1) (a).

(7) Where within the prescribed time the plaintiff does not—

- (a) if the confession is to part only of the amount of the claim of the plaintiff—file a notice refusing to accept in full satisfaction of his claim the amount confessed to; or
- (b) if the confession is to the whole of that amount and the plaintiff has in the action claimed damages in respect of any personal injuries—make an application as referred to in subsection (4) (a) (i), or make an application and give notice, as referred to in subsection (4) (a) (ii).

but files a notice refusing to accept any of the terms of payment specified by the defendant in the statement made by him under subsection (1), the registrar shall forthwith enter up judgment for the plaintiff for the amount to which the defendant has confessed and—

- (c) the registrar shall be deemed to have made an order under section 88 (4) that the judgment debt be paid by such instalments payable at such times as may be specified in the statement; and
- (d) the plaintiff's notice of refusal shall be deemed to be a notice of objection under section 88 (5).

(8)

District Court.

No. 9, 1973

(8) Where the plaintiff makes application, on the ground that he did not receive in sufficient time any notice required to be forwarded to him by the registrar under subsection (2), for the setting aside of any judgment entered up by the registrar under subsection (4) (c) or (5) (c) or any order made by the registrar under subsection (3) (b), (4) (d) or (5) (d), the Court may, if it thinks fit, set aside, on terms, the judgment or order.

(9) Where, within the prescribed time referred to in subsection (4), the plaintiff makes an application as referred to in subsection (4) (a) (i) or makes an application and gives notice, as referred to in subsection (4) (a) (ii), and the application is refused—

- (a) the provisions of subsections (4) and (7) shall apply as if the application had not been made; and
- (b) where the time at which the registrar is, in accordance with the rules, notified of the refusal is later than that prescribed time, the provisions of subsection (4) shall so apply as if the reference therein to the expiration of the prescribed time were a reference to the time at which the registrar is so notified.

Judgment by agreement.

61. (1) At any time before judgment in an action—

- (a) where there are parties joined otherwise than as plaintiff or defendant—
  - (i) all the parties; or
  - (ii) the plaintiff and the defendant; or
- (b) where there are no parties joined otherwise than as plaintiff or defendant—the plaintiff and the defendant, may enter into an agreement as to the judgment to be entered in the action as between the parties to the agreement and as to the terms and conditions (if any) upon which the judgment is to be satisfied.

District Court.

(2) Where an agreement under subsection (1) is filed before judgment, the registrar shall forthwith enter up judgment in accordance with that agreement. No. 9, 1973

(3) Where—

- (a) the registrar enters up a judgment under subsection (2);
- (b) a judgment debt arises by virtue of the judgment; and
- (c) the agreement specifies by what instalments payable at what times the judgment debt or part thereof is to be paid.

the registrar shall forthwith order that the judgment debt or part be paid by such instalments payable at such times as are so specified.

(4) An order made under subsection (3) shall be deemed to be an order made under section 88 (4) pursuant to an agreement referred to in section 88 (1) (b).

(5) A judgment entered up under subsection (2) pursuant to an agreement under subsection (1) may be set aside, on terms, by the Court on sufficient cause being shown on the application of any party to the action who was not a party to that agreement.

62. (1) A statement under section 60 (1) may, instead of being signed by the defendant, be signed by his solicitor or barrister on his behalf. Machinery as to statements of confession and agreements.

(2) An agreement under section 61 (1) may, instead of being entered into personally by a party to the action, be entered into by his solicitor or barrister on his behalf.

District Court.

No. 9, 1973 (3) A statement under section 60 (1) or an agreement under section 61 (1) shall have no force or effect for the purposes of this Subdivision unless the signature of every person executing it, other than a solicitor or barrister, is witnessed by a person of a prescribed class.

(4) A judgment entered up—

- (a) under section 60 pursuant to a statement under section 60 (1) shall, as between the plaintiff and the defendant signing the statement; or
- (b) under section 61 pursuant to an agreement under section 61 (1) shall, as between the parties to the agreement, be in full discharge of all demands in respect of the cause of action in respect of which the statement was signed or the agreement was entered into.

Subdivision 6.—Arbitration.

Arbitration. 63. (1) The Court at any time may, with the consent of all the parties to an action, order, on terms, that the action be referred to an arbitrator.

(2) An award made by an arbitrator in an action referred to arbitration under subsection (1) shall, as soon as practicable, be—

- (a) communicated by the arbitrator to the registrar; and
- (b) entered by the registrar as the judgment of the Court in the action.

(3) A judgment entered under subsection (2) (b) shall, subject to subsection (4), be as binding and effectual for all purposes as if given by the Court.

District Court.

(4) The Court, on application made to it by any party within the prescribed time, may set aside an award referred to in subsection (2) and any judgment entered under subsection (2) (b) in consequence of the award, and may—

- (a) refer the award back to the arbitrator who made it;
or
- (b) revoke the reference to the arbitrator who made the award and make such order as it thinks fit for the continuance of the action.

Subdivision 7.—Witnesses, evidence and ancillary matters.

64. (1) On request by a party to an action, the registrar for any proclaimed place (whether or not that place is the proper place in relation to the action) shall, subject to the rules, issue—

- (a) a subpoena to give evidence, requiring a person specified therein to attend and give evidence at any hearing of the action or of proceedings ancillary to the action, as directed by the subpoena; or
- (b) a subpoena for production, requiring a person specified therein to attend and produce, for the purpose of evidence, at any hearing of the action or of proceedings ancillary to the action any document or thing that is in his possession or control and specified in the subpoena, as directed by the subpoena.

(2) The rules may make provision for or with respect to authorising compliance with a subpoena for production issued in respect of a document or thing by the production of the document or thing to a registrar.

No. 9, 1973

(3) A person—

- (a) who is duly served with a subpoena issued under subsection (1);
- (b) to whom at the time of service of the subpoena, or not later than a reasonable time before the day on which his attendance is required by the subpoena, tender is made of an amount in respect of the expenses of complying with the requirements of the subpoena, determined in accordance with the rules; and
- (c) who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with the subpoena, shall be liable to a fine of such amount not exceeding $500 as the Court orders, but shall not be released by the imposition or payment of any such fine from any obligation to give the evidence or produce the document or thing.

Evidence and production by persons present.

65. A person who is present at the hearing of an action or of proceedings ancillary to an action and who, having been required by the Court but not by a subpoena to do so, refuses without reasonable excuse—

- (a) to give evidence; or
- (b) to produce a document or thing then in his possession,

shall be liable to a fine of such amount not exceeding $500 as the Court orders, but shall not be released by the imposition or payment of any such fine from any obligation to give the evidence or to produce the document or thing.

Fines under section
64 or 65.

66. (1) A fine imposed under section 64 or 65 is payable to the registrar.

District Court.

(2) Payment of a fine imposed under section 64 or No. 9, 1973 65 may, if the Court so orders, be enforced, subject to the rules, as if the amount of the fine were a judgment debt, the person upon whom the fine was imposed were a judgment debtor and the registrar were a judgment creditor.

(3) The amount of any fine paid to or recovered by the registrar under this section shall be applied in such proportions as the Court thinks fit—

- (a) towards compensating any party to the action who is injured by failure to comply with the requirements of the subpoena or the Court in respect of which the fine was imposed; and
- (b) to the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

67. (1) A Judge (whether or not sitting at a proclaimed place), on application made in the prescribed manner by a party to an action, may if he thinks fit issue an order under the seal of the Court for bringing up before the Court any person confined in any prison or place under any sentence, under commitment for trial, or for any other reason, to be examined as a witness in the action, and for returning him to confinement. Bringing up a prisoner to give evidence.

(2) The person having the custody of a person in respect of whom an order is made under subsection (1) shall not be bound to comply with the order unless tender is made to him of an amount sufficient to cover the reasonable expenses involved in complying with the order.

68. (1) The rules may make provision for or with respect to— Matters ancillary to trial.

- (a) empowering a party to an action to give another party a notice requiring that other party to do all or any of the following things :—

- (i) to give discovery of documents;

- (ii)

- (ii) to produce documents for inspection;
- (iii) to produce documents at the hearing of the action;
- (iv) to attend for a medical examination; or
- (v) to make admissions for the purposes of the action;

(b) the manner of compliance with such a requirement; and

(c) empowering the Court to make such orders as may be prescribed in the event of failure to comply with such a requirement.

(2) The Court may, subject to and in accordance with the rules, order, on terms, that—

- (a) a natural person, or a corporation through any of its officers, attend for examination before the Court, or attend and produce documents, for the purpose of ascertaining or assisting in the ascertainment of the identity of, and the name and place of residence of, and other particulars relating to, a person against whom an action may be brought;
- (b) a party give discovery of documents to any party;
- (c) a party produce documents for inspection by any party;
- (d) a party produce documents at the hearing of any action;
- (e) a party be at liberty to inspect property, whether real or personal, and whether or not in the possession or control of any party, for the purposes of any action;
- (f) the evidence of a witness be allowed to be taken on an examination before the hearing of an action;
- (g) a party attend for a medical examination; or
- (h)

No. 52,
1970, s. 82.
- (a) dispense with the rules of evidence for proving any matter which is not bona fide in dispute, and with such rules as might cause expense and delay arising from any commission to take evidence or arising otherwise; and, without limiting the generality of this power, dispense with the proof of handwriting, documents, the identity of parties or parcels, or of authority; and
- (b) require any party to the action, not being a minor or person of unsound mind, to make admissions with respect to any document or to any question of fact; and in case of refusal or neglect to make the admissions may, unless the Court is of the opinion that the refusal or neglect is reasonable, order that the costs of proof occasioned by the refusal or neglect shall be paid by that party.

(2) An admission made as required by the Court under subsection (1) (b)—

- (a) shall be for the purpose of the action in which it is made and for no other purpose;
- (b) shall be subject to all just exceptions; and
- (c) may, with the leave of the Court, given on terms, be amended or withdrawn.

Subdivision 8.—Trial and jury.

Setting down for trial. 71. Subject to this Act and the rules, an action in which a notice of grounds of defence is filed under section 56 or in which an order for judgment is made under section 57, shall be set down for trial in accordance with the rules.

Action called on for trial. 72. (1) Subject to this Act, where an action that has been set down for trial is called on for trial—

- (a) if the plaintiff and a defendant appear, the Court may proceed to hear and dispose of the action as against that defendant; or
- (b) if the plaintiff does, but a defendant does not, appear, the Court may proceed to the trial of the action against that defendant on the part of the plaintiff only.

(2) Where the Court proceeds to the trial of the action on the part of the plaintiff only, as referred to in subsection (1) (b), its judgment—

- (a) may, on sufficient cause being shown, be set aside by order of the Court on terms; and

District Court.

- (b) shall, if not set aside, be as final and conclusive No. 9, 1973 between the parties to the action as if both parties had appeared.

73. (1) The Court may, if it thinks fit, strike out an action at any time on terms, and without affecting the generality of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the Court may so strike out an action if—

- (a) no party appears; or
- (b) a defendant does, but the plaintiff does not, appear.

(2) Where an action is struck out under subsection (1), the Court may, on the application of any party, order that the action be restored on terms, and without affecting the generality of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, that action may be so restored upon such terms and conditions as to costs, the staying of the action until payment of costs, and the priority of the hearing of the action as the Court thinks fit.

74. Subject to any direction given by the Court under section 156 (2), the order of evidence and addresses and conduct of the trial in respect of any action shall be in accordance with the rules.

75. The Court, at the trial of an action, may, in the prescribed circumstances, order a nonsuit where satisfactory proof is not given entitling the plaintiff to the judgment of the Court.

(a) an amount in excess of $10,000 but not in excess of $15,000, the Court shall record the amount of the verdict or total amount, as the case may be, and the successful party shall be entitled to recover—

(i) the full amount of the verdict; or

(ii) the total amount reduced in accordance with section 10 of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1965, as the case may be; or

(b) an amount in excess of $15,000, the Court shall record the amount of the verdict or total amount, as the case may be, and the successful party shall be entitled to recover—

(i) the amount of $15,000; or

(ii) the amount of $15,000 reduced in accordance with section 10 of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1965, as the case may be.

Questions of fact and law.

(3) Subject to sections 78 and 79, an action shall be tried without a jury unless the Court makes an order (which may be made on terms) to the contrary. No. 9, 1973

(4) The Court may order that any question of fact in an action be tried before any other question of fact in the action.

(5) In an action, where a jury has been summoned—

(a) the Court may order that all or any issues of fact be tried without the jury if—

(i) any prolonged examination of documents or scientific or local investigation is required and cannot conveniently be made with a jury; or

(ii) all parties consent to the order; and

(b) issues of fact on a defence arising under section 63 (5) or 64 (1) (c) of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, shall be tried without the jury.

78. (1) In any action (other than an action to which section 79 applies), where the amount claimed exceeds $100, any party may, within the prescribed time, by filing a requisition for trial with a jury and paying the fee prescribed by the regulations made under section 150 require that a jury be summoned to try the action, and a jury shall be so summoned. Where jury may be summoned.

(2) Where the Court makes an order under section 77 (3) or 79 (1), the plaintiff shall pay the fee prescribed by the regulations made under section 150 and shall not be entitled to take any further step in the action until the fee is paid.

(3) The fee paid under subsection (1) or (2) shall be treated as costs in the action, unless the Court otherwise orders.

No. 9, 1973 79. (1) In any action to which this section applies, the Court may, on the application of any party, and shall, on the application of all parties, make an order (which may be made on terms) that the action be tried with a jury.

Running down cases.
No. 52,
1970, s. 87.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), this section applies to any action in which—

(a) damages are claimed in respect of—

- (i) the death of or bodily injury to any person and the claim is based upon any act, neglect or default involving the use of a motor vehicle where that death or bodily injury, or an injury leading to that death, or that act, neglect or default, occurred on a public street;
- (ii) damage to property caused by or arising out of the use of a motor vehicle; or
- (iii) any other matter in which the liability incurred is caused by or arises out of the use of a motor vehicle; or

(b) contribution is claimed under Part III of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1946, in respect of damages of the nature referred to in paragraph (a).

(3) In subsection (2)—

“motor vehicle” means any motor car, motor carriage, motor cycle or other vehicle propelled wholly or partly by any volatile spirit, steam, gas, oil or electricity, or by any means other than human or animal power, and includes a trailer, but does not include any vehicle used on a railway or tramway;

“public street” means any street, road, lane, thoroughfare, footpath, or place open to or used by the public, and includes any place at the time open to or used by the public on the payment of money or otherwise.

District Court.

(4) This section does not apply to an action for No. 9, 1973 damages in respect of the death of or bodily injury to any person where the action is based upon an act, neglect or default of the defendant for which, if proved, he would, as the employer of that person and not otherwise, incur liability to the plaintiff.

- (b) damages (if any) awarded for the detention of the goods.

(2) The rules may make provision for or with respect to the circumstances in which the judgment debt in an action for the detention of goods shall be deemed to be satisfied, to the extent of the value of the goods, by the delivery of the goods to the plaintiff.

DIVISION 4.—Actions: Enforcement of Judgments.

Subdivision 1.—General.

Interpretation:
Pt. III,
Div. 4.

84. (1) In this Division, except in so far as the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires—

“judgment” includes any order of the Court for the payment of an amount of money as costs or otherwise;

“judgment debt” includes—

- (a) any amount ordered by the Court to be paid as costs or otherwise; and
- (b) any amount payable under section 120 as costs without any order of the Court.

(2) A reference in this Division to the giving of a judgment includes a reference to the making by the Court of an order for the payment of an amount of money as costs or otherwise.

(2) Interest payable under subsection (1) in respect of a judgment debt shall—

- (a) subject to subsection (3), be calculated as from the date when the judgment debt came into being or from such later date as the Court in any particular case fixes;
- (b) be calculated at the rate prescribed for the purposes of section 95 (1) of the Supreme Court Act, 1970; and
- (c) form part of the judgment debt, but not so as to require the payment of interest upon interest.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) or (2), where—

- (a) the amount of a judgment debt (excluding the amount of costs to be ascertained by taxation or otherwise) is paid in full within twenty-one days after the judgment debt becomes payable; or
- (b) the amount of costs ascertained by taxation or otherwise is paid in full within twenty-one days after that amount is so ascertained, interest shall, unless the Court otherwise orders in any particular case, not be payable on the amount so paid.

District Court.

No. 9, 1973 judgment creditor, the judgment debtor may apply to the Court sitting at the proper place for either of those actions for an order that the judgment against him be set off against the judgment in his favour.

(2) Where an order is made under subsection (1) and—

- (a) the amount of the judgment debt in the first action is less than or equal to the amount of the judgment debt in the second action, the judgment in the first action shall be deemed to be satisfied, and the amount of the judgment debt in the second action shall be reduced by the amount of the judgment debt in the first action; or
- (b) the amount of the judgment debt in the first action is more than the amount of the judgment debt in the second action, the amount of the judgment debt in the first action shall be reduced by the amount of the judgment debt in the second action, and the judgment in the second action shall be deemed to be satisfied.

Subdivision 2.—Payment of judgment debt.

Payment of judgment
generally.

87. (1) The Court may, on the application of any party to an action or without any such application being made, when giving judgment in the action, order that the judgment debt (if any) be paid at such time, or by such instalments payable at such times, as it thinks fit.

(2) Subject to this Subdivision, every judgment debt shall be payable forthwith.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the amount of every judgment debt arising from an action, whether payable in one sum or by instalments, shall be payable to the registrar.

District Court.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), any payment No. 9, 1973 by or on behalf of a judgment debtor made on account of the judgment debt to or at the direction of the judgment creditor shall, if accepted by or on behalf of the judgment creditor, operate to reduce the judgment debt by the amount of the payment.

(5) Where the Court makes an order under subsection (1), the order shall, while it remains in force, operate as a stay of enforcement of the judgment.

(6) Where a judgment creditor files an affidavit for the purpose of requiring the issue of any document for or in connection with the enforcement of a judgment, the affidavit shall, in any action (whether in the Court or in any other court) by the judgment debtor against the registrar for the wrongful issue of the document, be conclusive evidence in favour of the registrar that at the time of the issue of the document—

- (a) where an amount is stated in the affidavit as having been paid in reduction of the judgment debt—that amount and no other amount had been paid; or
- (b) where there is a statement in the affidavit that no amount has been paid in reduction of the judgment debt—no amount had been paid, then owing to the judgment creditor, by such instalments payable at such times as may be specified in the application; or

- (b) the judgment creditor and the judgment debtor may enter into an agreement specifying the amount agreed to be then owing to the judgment creditor, and may in that agreement specify by what instalments payable at what times that amount is to be paid.

(2) An agreement under subsection (1) (b) may, instead of being entered into personally by the judgment creditor or the judgment debtor, be entered into by his solicitor or barrister on his behalf.

(3) An agreement under subsection (1) (b) shall have no force or effect for the purposes of this section unless the signature of every person executing it, other than a solicitor or barrister, is witnessed by a person of a prescribed class.

(4) Where—

- (a) an application is made by a judgment debtor under subsection (1) (a), the registrar shall forthwith consider and determine the application and may—

(i) order that the judgment debt be paid by such instalments payable at such times as are specified in the application; or

(ii) refuse to make such an order; or

- (b) an agreement under subsection (1) (b) is filed, the registrar shall forthwith order that the judgment debt be paid by such instalments payable at such times as are specified in the agreement, and where he makes an order under paragraph (a) or (b) the registrar shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, give or send by post to the judgment creditor and judgment debtor notice of the order.

(5) Where an order is made by a registrar under No. 9, 1973 subsection (4) pursuant to an application made by the judgment debtor under subsection (1) (a), the judgment creditor may, within the prescribed period after notice of the order was given or sent to him under subsection (4) by the registrar, file notice of his objection to the payment of the judgment debt by the instalments specified in the order.

(6) Where under subsection (4) the registrar refuses to make an order, or where the judgment creditor files with the registrar a notice of objection in accordance with subsection (5), the registrar shall set down the judgment debtor's application for hearing by the Court and shall as soon as practicable thereafter give or send by post to the judgment creditor and the judgment debtor notice of the time and place set down by him for the hearing of the judgment debtor's application, and the Court may, after hearing the judgment debtor and the judgment creditor, or such of them as appears, deal with the application and—

(a) where the registrar refused to make the order—

(i) make an order that the judgment debt, or the balance of the judgment debt then owing to the judgment creditor, be paid by such instalments payable at such times as the Court thinks fit; or

(ii) refuse to make such an order; or

(b) where the judgment creditor has filed such a notice of objection, confirm, vary or rescind the order of the registrar.

(7) Where—

(a) an application is made by a judgment debtor under subsection (1) and no application in respect of the judgment debt has previously been made under that subsection or under section 87 (1); and

(b)

District Court.

No. 9, 1973

(b) the registrar refuses under subsection (4) to make an order pursuant to the application, the application shall, until it is dealt with under subsection (6), and unless the Court otherwise orders, operate as a stay of enforcement of the judgment in respect of which the application is made, except enforcement by way of a garnishee order to which section 98 applies made before the application was made to the registrar.

(8) Where the Court or the registrar makes an order under this section, the order shall, while it remains in force, operate as a stay of enforcement of the judgment in respect of which the order was made, except enforcement by way of a garnishee order to which section 98 applies made before the order under this section was made.

(9) An order may be made under this section in respect of a judgment debt, notwithstanding that at the time when the application for the order or the order is made there is in force an order under section 87 (1) or under this section, but where there is in force such an order any subsequent order made under this section in respect of the same judgment debt supersedes the former order.

Miscellaneous provisions as to orders under sections 87 and 88 and applications.

89. (1) Upon an application, supported by affidavit, made by the judgment creditor on the grounds that there has been a substantial increase in the property or means of the judgment debtor, the Court may, if satisfied as to the truth of those grounds, vary or rescind any order under section 87 or 88 in respect of the judgment debt and, where the Court refuses to grant the application, may order the judgment creditor to pay to the judgment debtor such amount as it thinks fit for the expenses of the judgment debtor in attending the Court to oppose the application.

District Court.

(2) An order made under section 87 or 88 in respect No. 9, 1973 of a judgment debt shall, subject to the agreement (if any) consequent on the filing of which the order was made under section 88 (4) (b), cease to be in force if the judgment debtor fails to make any payment in accordance with the order, and thereafter the judgment may, except where otherwise directed by the Court or provided in the agreement (if any), be enforced for the balance of the judgment debt owing to the judgment creditor.

Subdivision 3.—Examination of judgment debtor.

90. In this Subdivision—

“examination summons” means summons issued under section 91 (1);

Interpretation: Pt.
III, Div. 4,
Subdiv. 3.

“issuing registrar”, in relation to an examination summons, means the registrar for the proclaimed place at which the summons was issued;

“presiding registrar” means a registrar before whom a person is required to attend for examination under this Subdivision.

91. (1) Where a judgment debt arising from an action has not been satisfied, the judgment creditor may apply in the prescribed manner to the registrar for the issue of, and the registrar may issue, a summons directed—

Examination
summons.

- (a) where the judgment debtor is not a corporation—to the judgment debtor; or
- (b) where the judgment debtor is a corporation—to an officer or former officer of the corporation.

No. 9, 1973

(2) The examination summons—

- (a) shall summon the person to whom it is directed to attend before the registrar for a proclaimed place that, in the opinion of the issuing registrar, is either—
- (i) the nearest proclaimed place to the place where that person is resident, as stated by the judgment creditor to the issuing registrar in writing; or
  - (ii) the most easily accessible to that person, and that is specified in the summons;
- (b) shall summon that person so to attend on a day and at a time fixed by the issuing registrar and specified in the summons, and thereafter as required by the presiding registrar, to be orally examined by the judgment creditor before the presiding registrar; and
- (c) may require that person to produce to the presiding registrar, at the examination referred to in paragraph (b), any document or thing in that person's possession or control which tends to show the judgment debtor's true financial circumstances.

(3) Where the person to whom the examination summons is directed attends before the presiding registrar as required by the examination summons, the judgment creditor may orally examine that person before the presiding registrar as to the judgment debtor's property and other means of satisfying the judgment debt and generally as to the judgment debtor's financial circumstances.

(4) The examination summons shall not be directed to an officer or former officer of a corporation under subsection (1) (b) unless the Court or the issuing registrar is satisfied

satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that the officer or former No. 9, 1973 officer is likely—

- (a) to have sufficient knowledge of the affairs of the corporation to enable him to give such answers as might be required of a judgment debtor who is not a corporation, or a substantial part of those answers, at an examination under this Subdivision; or
- (b) to have in his possession or control any document or thing which tends to show the true financial circumstances of the corporation.

(5) Where in respect of the judgment debt the person to whom the examination summons is directed has attended before a registrar for examination under this Subdivision in answer to or consequent upon the issue of an examination summons, another examination summons directed to that person shall not, unless the Court, on the application of the judgment creditor, otherwise orders, be issued in respect of the judgment debt within three months after that person's attendance.

(6) A registrar may be a presiding registrar as well as the issuing registrar in relation to the one examination summons.

92. (1) If at the time set down (whether originally or in an order under subsection (7) (b) (ii) or on an adjournment) for the examination of the person to whom an examination summons is directed he fails to attend before the presiding registrar, that registrar, unless he has information satisfying him that the judgment debt has been paid, shall, if the judgment creditor so requests and—

Failure to attend in answer to examination summons.

- (a) upon due proof of service of the examination summons on the person to whom the summons is directed or, where the examination has been adjourned, that that person has been notified of the time and place fixed for the examination; and

District Court.

- No. 9, 1973 (b) upon due proof of the tender to that person of the reasonable expenses of attending in answer to the summons, at the time of service of the summons or not later than a reasonable time before the day on which he was required by the summons to attend before the registrar, report in writing to the Court that that person has so failed to attend.

(2) After the report is made to it, the Court may, if it thinks fit—

- (a) authorise the presiding registrar to issue a warrant for the apprehension of the person to whom the examination summons was directed; or
- (b) adjourn the examination of that person and order that he attend before the presiding registrar on a date and at a time specified in the order, and the presiding registrar shall forthwith give that person, or send to him by post at his address last known to the presiding registrar, a notice informing him of any action taken by the Court under this subsection.

(3) A warrant shall not be issued under this section until after the expiration of fourteen days after the Court authorised its issue.

(4) If during the period of fourteen days after the Court authorised the issue of a warrant in respect of a person he has not attended, by arrangement with the presiding registrar, to be examined as to the matters referred to in section 91 (3), the presiding registrar, on the application of the judgment creditor verified by his affidavit or in such other manner as may be prescribed, may, after the expiration of that period, issue his warrant for the apprehension of that person.

(5) The warrant shall—

No. 9, 1973

- (a) be under the hand of the presiding registrar;
- (b) name or otherwise describe the person whose apprehension is required by the warrant;
- (c) state shortly the reason for its issue;
- (d) order the bailiff, required under section 27 (2) to execute it, to apprehend that person if he is within New South Wales and cause him to be brought before the registrar for the proclaimed place nearest to the place at which he is apprehended to be examined as to the matters referred to in section 91 (3); and
- (e) continue in force until it—
  - (i) is executed;
  - (ii) is revoked by order of the Court sitting at any proclaimed place or of the registrar for the proclaimed place at which it was issued, communicated to the bailiff in whose hands the warrant is for execution; or
  - (iii) expires in accordance with the rules,whichever first occurs.

(6) Any member of the police force shall, if called upon by the bailiff to do so, aid and assist in the execution of the warrant.

(7) Where the person in respect of whom the issue of a warrant is authorised under subsection (2) (a) attends before a registrar by arrangement, as referred to in subsection (4), or is brought before a registrar under the warrant, as referred to in subsection (5) (d), and—

- (a) the judgment creditor attends before the registrar—the judgment creditor may orally examine that person before the registrar as to the matters referred to in section 91 (3); or

(b)

No. 9, 1973

(b) the judgment creditor does not so attend—the registrar may—

- (i) in accordance with the rules examine that person as to the matters referred to in section 91 (3) and report to the judgment creditor the results of the examination;
- (ii) if the judgment creditor has so requested, order that the examination be conducted before the registrar for another proclaimed place on a day and at a time specified in the order; or
- (iii) strike out the examination.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (5) (e) (i), the warrant is executed when the person whose apprehension is required has been examined as to the matters referred to in section 91 (3), or the examination is adjourned to another day, or an order is made under subsection (7) (b) (ii) in respect of the examination, or the examination is struck out, whichever first occurs.

Instalment order after examination.

93. (1) Where a person has attended for examination in accordance with this Subdivision before or by the issuing registrar in relation to a judgment debt, that registrar may make an order for the payment of the judgment debt or the balance of the judgment debt then owing to the judgment creditor by such instalments payable at such times as may be specified in the order.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) shall be deemed to be an order made under section 88 (4) pursuant to an application made by the judgment debtor under section 88 (1) (a).

94. Where a person attends before or is brought before a registrar for examination in accordance with this Subdivision and that person—

No. 9, 1973
Failure to give evidence, etc., at examination.

- (a) without reasonable excuse, refuses to give evidence on oath at the examination;
- (b) gives false information at the examination; or
- (c) without reasonable excuse, fails to produce any document or thing that he is required by an examination summons to produce thereat, the Court may, if that registrar reports the refusal, giving of false information or failure to the Court and if the Court thinks fit, deal with the refusal, giving of false information or failure as if it were a contempt committed in the face of the Court.

95. A registrar may from time to time adjourn any examination being or to be conducted before or by him under this Subdivision.

Adjournment of examination.

96. The Court may exercise or perform any of a registrar's powers, authorities, duties or functions under this Subdivision.

Court may exercise registrar's powers under this Subdivision.

Subdivision 4.—Attachment of debts.

97. (1) Where a judgment debt arising from an action has not been satisfied, the registrar may, on the application of the judgment creditor supported by the affidavit of the judgment creditor or his solicitor or agent, make, in respect of the judgment debt, a garnishee order directed to a specified person (who is in this Subdivision referred to as a "garnishee").

Garnishee orders.

No. 9, 1973

(2) A garnishee order shall take effect upon its being served on the garnishee, and upon its being so served—

- (a) except in a case to which paragraph (b) or (c) applies, shall operate to attach in the hands of the garnishee all debts which were due, owing or accruing from him to the judgment debtor at the time when the garnishee order was made and which are so due, owing or accruing at the time of service of the garnishee order;
- (b) in the case of an order expressed to be for the attachment of any wage or salary, not being an order to which paragraph (c) applies, shall operate to attach the wage or salary next payable by the garnishee to the judgment debtor within one month after the service of the order on the garnishee; and
- (c) in the case of an order expressed to be for the continuous attachment of the wage or salary of a judgment debtor, shall operate to attach any wage or salary as provided in section 98 (4).

(3) A garnishee order shall specify the amount of the judgment debt owing to the judgment creditor and shall require the garnishee to pay, in accordance with this Act and the rules, the debt, wage or salary attached by operation of the order or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the judgment debt specified in the order or the balance of the judgment debt specified in the order after deducting therefrom such amount (if any) as may be notified in writing to the garnishee by the judgment creditor or the registrar as having been paid or credited to the judgment creditor on account of the judgment debt otherwise than pursuant to the order.

(4) Where, by reason of the smallness of the judgment debt or of the amount to be recovered or of the debt, wage or salary sought to be attached or for any other reason, the registrar is of the opinion that a garnishee order should not be made, he may refuse to make the order.

98. (1) In this section, "instalment order" means an order made under section 88. No. 9, 1973

(2) This section applies to and in respect of a garnishee order expressed to be for the continuous attachment of the wage or salary of a judgment debtor. Continuous operation of certain garnishee orders.

(3) A garnishee order to which this section applies, upon its being served on the garnishee, shall, subject to this section, thereafter operate to attach any wage or salary payable by the garnishee to the judgment debtor from time to time until the expiration of a period of four weeks after the garnishee order is so served.

(4) Where an instalment order is in force relating to a judgment debt the subject of a garnishee order to which this section applies and a copy of the instalment order is served on the garnishee, the garnishee order shall thereafter, unless any period specified in the instalment order for which it was to remain in force has expired, operate, to the extent necessary to secure payment of the instalments specified in that instalment order, to attach any wage or salary payable by the garnishee to the judgment debtor from time to time.

(5) A garnishee order made for the attachment of a wage or salary to answer the same judgment debt in respect of which a garnishee order to which this section applies is in force shall have no force or effect.

99. (1) In this section—

"prescribed rate", in relation to a wage or salary, means—

(a) where no part of the wage or salary is otherwise attached under this or any other Act—a rate equal to $8 per week less than the Sydney basic wage; or

(b)

Limitation on operation of garnishee orders attaching a wage or salary.

No. 9, 1973

- (b) where any part of the wage or salary is otherwise attached under this or any other Act—a rate equal to $8 per week less than the Sydney basic wage increased by the amount so attached, calculated on a weekly basis;

“Sydney basic wage” means the basic wage for the time being in force within the meaning of Part V of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, and appropriate for the judgment debtor;

“wage or salary” includes earnings that are not payable under a contract of employment, but that are either analogous to or in the nature of wages or salary, and the earnings of a share farmer or share worker.

(2) A garnishee order for the attachment of the wage or salary of a judgment debtor shall extend only—

- (a) where the wage or salary is payable for a period of one week, to that part of the wage or salary that is payable at a rate in excess of the prescribed rate;
or
- (b) where the wage or salary is payable for a period greater than one week, to that part of the wage or salary payable for that period that is payable at a rate in excess of the prescribed rate.

Payment
under certain garnishee
orders.

100. (1) Subject to compliance with subsection (2), a garnishee required to make a payment under a garnishee order to which section 98 applies may deduct therefrom for his own use an amount equal to ten per centum thereof.

(2) Where a garnishee makes a deduction in accordance with subsection (1), he shall forward to the judgment creditor, when making payment to the registrar or to

or at the direction of the judgment creditor of the balance of No. 9, 1973 the payment due, a statement showing—

- (a) the amount deducted under the garnishee order from the wage or salary of the judgment debtor;
- (b) the amount deducted by the garnishee for his own use under subsection (1); and
- (c) the amount of the payment to the registrar or to or at the direction of the judgment creditor, as the case may be.

(3) Where a garnishee makes a payment in accordance with a garnishee order to which section 98 applies after making a deduction in accordance with subsection (1), the amount deducted shall for the purposes of section 105 (2) be deemed to have been paid by the garnishee.

101. (1) In this section, "instalment garnishee order" means a garnishee order that operates as provided in section 98 (4), and includes an attachment order, made or given under an Act other than this Act, that has a like operation.

Limitation of payment under certain concurrent
orders.

(2) This section shall apply where a wage or salary is attached by more than one order, including at least one garnishee order made under this Act, whether or not the other orders were made under this Act, and where, of the orders attaching the wage or salary, at least one is, and one is not, an instalment garnishee order.

(3) Subject to section 99 and except to the extent that, in the case of an order made under an Act other than this Act, that other Act otherwise provides, where this section applies the amount payable by the garnishee under any of

No. 9, 1973 the orders that is not an instalment garnishee order shall not, in respect of any payment of wage or salary attached under such an order, exceed—

- (a) where only one of the orders is an instalment garnishee order, the amount payable by the garnishee under that instalment garnishee order in respect of that payment of wage or salary; or
- (b) where more than one of the orders is an instalment garnishee order, the greater, or greatest, of the amounts payable by the garnishee under the instalment garnishee orders in respect of that payment of wage or salary.

Procedure where garnishee order not complied with.

102. (1) Where a judgment creditor is satisfied that a garnishee order relating to the judgment debt has not been complied with by the garnishee on whom it was served, he may apply in the prescribed manner to the registrar for the issue of, and the registrar may issue, a summons (in this Subdivision referred to as "the garnishee summons") requiring the garnishee to show cause before the Court why the garnishee should not comply with the garnishee order.

(2) The garnishee summons—

- (a) shall summon the garnishee to attend the Court sitting at a proclaimed place that, in the opinion of the registrar issuing the garnishee summons, is either—
  - (i) the nearest proclaimed place to the place where the garnishee is resident, as stated by the judgment creditor to that registrar in writing; or
  - (ii) the most easily accessible to the garnishee, and that is specified in the garnishee summons; and

(b) shall summon the garnishee so to attend on a day No. 9, 1973 and at a time fixed by that registrar and specified in the garnishee summons.

(3) At the time set down (whether originally or on an adjournment) for the garnishee to attend to answer the garnishee summons the Court may hear and determine any question of the amount of the debt, wage or salary (if any) attached by the garnishee order, and may give judgment for that amount, or for the unpaid balance of the judgment debt, whichever is the lesser, in favour of the judgment creditor against the garnishee, but shall not give judgment in the absence of the garnishee except upon due proof of service of the summons on the garnishee or, where the matter has been adjourned, of the garnishee having been notified of the time and place fixed for him to attend.

(4) Where, by reason of the smallness of the judgment debt or of the amount to be recovered or of the debt, wage or salary sought to be attached or for any other reason, the Court is of the opinion that judgment should not be given under subsection (3), it may refuse to give the judgment.

103. (1) An amount standing to the credit of a judgment debtor in an account in a bank shall, for the purposes of this Subdivision, be a debt due, owing or accruing to the judgment debtor, notwithstanding that any condition relating to demand of payment is unsatisfied. Bank accounts. S.C.R. Pt. 46, rr. 2, 5 (2).

(2) An amount standing to the credit of a judgment debtor in a deposit account in a bank shall, for the purposes of this Subdivision, be a debt due, owing or accruing to the judgment debtor, notwithstanding that any of the following conditions applicable to the account has not been satisfied :—

(a) a condition that notice is required before money is withdrawn;

(b)

- No. 9, 1973
- (b) a condition that a personal application must be made before money is withdrawn;
  - (c) a condition that a deposit book must be produced before money is withdrawn; or
  - (d) a condition that a receipt for money deposited in the account must be produced before money is withdrawn.

(3) Where after service of a garnishee order on a bank with respect to a debt, being an amount standing to the credit of a judgment debtor as referred to in subsection (1) or (2), the garnishee acts with reasonable diligence for the purpose of giving effect to the attachment but nevertheless pays to the judgment debtor the whole or any part of the debt attached or otherwise deals with the debt attached so as to satisfy, as between the garnishee and the judgment debtor, the whole or any part of the debt attached, the Court may order that for the purposes of the garnishee proceedings the debt attached be reduced to the extent of the payment or satisfaction.

Lien or claim of third person
on debt.
Pt. 46, r. 10.

104. Where it appears to the Court that any person other than the judgment debtor is, or claims to be, entitled to any money paid under a garnishee order, or to the debt, wage or salary attached by such an order, or to any charge or lien on, or other interest in that money, debt, wage or salary, the Court may make orders for giving to that person notice of the proceedings and may hear and determine his claim and give such judgment or make such order in respect of the claim (including an order barring the claim and an order for the payment into court by a judgment creditor of money received under the garnishee order) as the nature of the case requires.

Payment by
garnishee.

105. (1) A payment under a garnishee order shall be made to the registrar, for payment to the judgment creditor, or, if the garnishee before making the payment notifies the judgment debtor that he proposes so to do, may be made to or at the direction of the judgment creditor.

(2) Payment made by or execution levied upon a garnishee shall satisfy the judgment debt, and be a valid discharge to him as against the judgment debtor, to the extent of the amount paid or levied, notwithstanding that the garnishee order or the judgment may be set aside or the judgment reversed.

106. (1) Where a judgment creditor receives an amount paid under a garnishee order in excess of the amount required to satisfy the judgment debt, he shall forthwith so notify the garnishee and the judgment debtor and on demand made by the judgment debtor pay the excess to the judgment debtor.

Judgment creditor to account for any excess paid by a garnishee.

Penalty : $200.

(2) Where an amount in excess of the amount required to satisfy the judgment debt is paid by a garnishee under a garnishee order, the excess shall be recoverable by the garnishee or the judgment debtor from the judgment creditor as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Subdivision 5.—Writ of execution.

107. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a judgment debt arising from an action has not been satisfied, the registrar may, on the application of the judgment creditor supported by the affidavit of the judgment creditor or his solicitor or agent, issue a writ of execution to enforce the judgment in the action.

Issue of writ of execution.

(2) The registrar shall not, without the leave of the Court granted on application made by the judgment creditor, issue a writ of execution to enforce a judgment—

(a) if a period of twelve years has elapsed since the judgment was given or entered up;

(b)

No. 9, 1973

- (b) if since the judgment was given or entered up any change has taken place, whether by assignment, death or otherwise, in the persons entitled or liable to execution under the judgment;
- (c) if the judgment is against the assets of a deceased person coming to the hands of his executor or administrator after the date of the giving or entering up of the judgment, and the writ of execution is sought against assets of that description;
- (d) if an order, or a summons issued under the rules to show cause why an order should not be made, for the issue of a writ to enforce the judgment against the person of the judgment debtor remains in force; or
- (e) in the prescribed circumstances.

Priority and duration of writs of execution.

108. (1) The date and time when an application is made to a registrar for the issue of a writ of execution shall be recorded by the registrar and entered by him on the writ, and the bailiff for a proclaimed place who is required, under section 27 (2), to execute more than one writ of execution against the property of a judgment debtor shall execute them in the order of the times so entered.

(2) A writ of execution shall be valid for the prescribed period.

Seizing and taking under writ of execution.

109. (1) The bailiff for a proclaimed place who is required, under section 27 (2), to execute a writ of execution may seize and take under the writ and may cause to be sold—

- (a) all the goods, chattels and other personal property, other than chattels real, of or to which the person named in the writ as judgment debtor is or may be possessed

District Court.

possessed or entitled, or which he can, either at No. 9, 1973 law or in equity, assign or dispose of, except—

- (i) any wearing apparel and any bedroom or kitchen furniture; and
- (ii) any ordinary tools of trade, plant and equipment, professional instruments and reference books, not exceeding in the aggregate $500 in value, being used as such by the judgment debtor or any member of his family; and

- (b) subject to this Subdivision, all the land of or to which the person named in the writ as judgment debtor is seized or entitled, or which he can, either at law or in equity, assign or dispose of.

(2) A bailiff shall, before he causes any property to be sold under a writ of execution, diligently inform himself whether it would be best, with the view of obtaining the highest prices for the property, to cause the sale to be at the place of levy or elsewhere, and shall cause the sale to be at the place where, in his judgment, those prices are most likely to be obtained.

(3) Where it appears to the bailiff that the property subject to levy under a writ of execution is more than sufficient to satisfy the execution, he shall first cause to be sold so much of the property as appears to him to be sufficient, and if it is not sufficient shall then cause to be sold so much of the property as appears to him to be sufficient to satisfy the balance due under the execution.

(4) The bailiff shall cause property to be sold under subsection (3)—

- (a) in such order as seems to him best for the speedy execution of the writ without undue expense;

(b)

District Court.

No. 9, 1973

(b) subject to paragraph (a), in such order as the judgment debtor may direct; and

(c) subject to paragraphs (a) and (b), in such order as seems to the bailiff best for minimising hardship to the judgment debtor or any other person.

(5) Subsections (3) and (4) do not affect any liability of the bailiff to the judgment creditor.

(6) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), any property intended to be sold under a writ of execution shall be put up for sale as early as may be with due regard to the interests of the parties and to the avoidance of sacrifice of the reasonable value of the property.

(7) Where a bailiff may cause property to be sold under a writ of execution, the property may be sold by that bailiff or by another bailiff or, in the case of land, by an auctioneer, as referred to in section 111.

(8) Where any property is to be put up for sale under a writ of execution, the bailiff shall cause notice of the writ, of the intended day, time and place of the sale, and of particulars of the property to be published in the prescribed manner.

(9) A bailiff may serve—

(a) on a judgment debtor against whom a writ of execution has been issued; or

(b) on any person who has the custody of any personal property of such a judgment debtor, a notice in writing informing the person so served that that person is responsible for the safekeeping of such of the personal property of the judgment debtor in his custody as has been seized under the writ of execution.

District Court.

(10) A person (whether or not he is the judgment debtor), knowing that any personal property has been seized under subsection (1) or is the subject of a notice under subsection (9), shall not, except with the leave of the Court or with the consent in writing of the bailiff by whom the property was seized or by whom the notice was given, interfere with or dispose of any such property or remove any such property from the place at which it was seized or at which it was situated when the notice was served, or cause, permit or suffer any such property to be so interfered with, disposed of or removed.

Penalty : $500.

(11) Nothing in this section affects the provisions of the Judgment Creditors' Remedies Act, 1901.

110. (1) Subject to section 105 of the Real Property Act, 1900, and section 188 of the Conveyancing Act, 1919, a writ of execution, when delivered to the bailiff required under section 27 (2) to execute it, binds land in like manner as a writ of execution against property binds goods and chattels. Special provisions as to execution against land.

(2) Land shall not be sold under a writ of execution before all the property referred to in section 109 (1) (a) that may be sold under the writ has been sold unless—

- (a) the judgment debtor requests that the land be sold before all or any of that property is sold; or
- (b) the bailiff is satisfied that the sale of the land before the sale of all or any of that property would minimise hardship to the judgment debtor or any other person.

(3) A bailiff shall not cause land to be sold under a writ of execution except on compliance by the judgment creditor and the bailiff with the prescribed procedures, but a purchaser

District Court.

No. 9, 1973 purchaser of the land, and the Registrar-General, shall not be concerned to inquire whether this subsection has been complied with.

(4) The publication under section 109 (8) of notice of the intended sale under a writ of execution of any land shall be deemed to be a seizure by the bailiff of the land under the writ, and no actual seizure of the land shall be necessary in order to authorise the sale thereof under the writ.

(5) Where land that is not under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, is sold under a writ of execution by the bailiff for a proclaimed place, the registrar for that place shall execute a proper assurance thereof in favour of the purchaser.

(6) Where land that is under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, is sold under a writ of execution by the bailiff for a proclaimed place, the duty imposed on a registrar by section 105 (2) of that Act shall not be performed except by the registrar for that place.

Auctioneers. 111. The rules may make provision for or with respect to—

- (a) the appointment of an auctioneer licensed under the Auctioneers and Agents Act, 1941, to sell any land under a writ of execution; and
- (b) where an auctioneer is appointed in accordance with the rules—the respective powers, authorities, duties and functions of the auctioneer and the bailiff, and without affecting the generality of the foregoing provisions of this section, the rules may authorise or require the auctioneer to exercise or perform any power, authority, duty or function of the bailiff in connection with the sale of the land.

*District Court.112. (1) In this section—

No. 9, 1973

“issuing registrar”, in relation to a writ of execution, means the registrar for the proclaimed place at which the writ of execution was issued;

Sale or mortgage by judgment debtor of land affected by writ.

“notice of consent” means the notice referred to in subsection (2) (a).

(2) Where land is affected by a writ of execution particulars of which have been recorded in accordance with section 105 of the Real Property Act, 1900, or which has been registered in the register of causes, writs, and orders affecting land in accordance with section 186 of the Conveyancing Act, 1919, and—

- (a) the judgment creditor consents, by notice in writing, to the sale or mortgage of the land by the judgment debtor;
- (b) the judgment creditor stipulates, in the notice of consent, the minimum amount that should be paid to the issuing registrar out of the proceeds of the sale or the money advanced in respect of the mortgage;
- (c) the notice of consent is filed with the issuing registrar; and
- (d) the issuing registrar, after due inquiry, endorses the notice of consent with a certificate to the effect that the land has not been sold under the writ, the endorsement of the notice with that certificate operates to prohibit the sale of the land under the writ during the prescribed period.

(3) Where during that prescribed period—

- (a) the judgment debtor sells or mortgages the land;

(b)

No. 9, 1973

- (b) in the case of a sale—the amount of the deposit (if any) is paid to the issuing registrar, to be held by him as stakeholder; and
- (c) an amount (including any deposit paid to the issuing registrar as referred to in paragraph (b)) that is not less than—
- (i) the minimum amount referred to in subsection (2) (b); or
  - (ii) if the judgment creditor notifies the issuing registrar in writing that he consents to payment of a specified amount that is less than that minimum amount—that specified amount, is paid to the issuing registrar out of the proceeds of the sale or money advanced in respect of the mortgage, any liability of the purchaser or mortgagee for payment to the judgment debtor of those proceeds or that money is extinguished to the extent of the amount so paid to the issuing registrar, and the issuing registrar shall, upon production to him of the instrument evidencing the sale or mortgage, and if he is satisfied as to the matters referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c), endorse the instrument with his consent to the sale or mortgage.

(4) The interest of the purchaser or mortgagee evidenced by the instrument endorsed with the issuing registrar's consent shall not, in relation to the land, be affected by anything done or purporting to have been done, whether before or after the endorsement of the consent, under the writ of execution.

(5) The amount paid to the issuing registrar, as referred to in subsection (3) (c), shall, subject to and in accordance with the rules—

- (a) be paid to or at the direction of the judgment creditor; and
- (b) be in reduction of the judgment debt.

Subdivision

District Court.Subdivision 6.—Writ against the person.

No. 9, 1973

113. (1) Where the Court is satisfied on the application of a judgment creditor that— Writ against the person.

- (a) the judgment debt arising from an action has not been satisfied; and
- (b) the judgment debtor is about to leave the Commonwealth, or to remove any property from the Commonwealth, with intent to evade payment of the judgment debt, the Court may, if it thinks fit, authorise the registrar to issue a writ against the person of the judgment debtor to enforce payment of the judgment debt and the registrar shall, on being so authorised, issue the writ.

(2) A writ against the person of a judgment debtor shall—

- (a) be under the hand of the registrar by whom it is issued;
- (b) name or otherwise describe the judgment debtor whose arrest and imprisonment is required by the writ;
- (c) order the bailiff, required under section 27 (2) to execute it, to arrest the judgment debtor if he is within New South Wales and to deliver him to the governor of the prison to whom it is directed;
- (d) order the governor of the prison to whom it is directed to keep him in custody until discharged in accordance with law; and

(e)

District Court.

No. 9, 1973

(e) continue in force until the judgment debtor is so discharged or, if the judgment debtor is not arrested, until it expires in accordance with the rules, and may lawfully be executed on a Sunday.

(3) Any member of the police force shall, if called upon by the bailiff to do so, aid and assist in the execution of a writ against the person.

(4) The arrest or imprisonment of a judgment debtor under a writ against the person shall not operate as a satisfaction of the judgment debt or any part thereof, but the issue of the writ shall, except as provided in this Subdivision, operate as a stay of enforcement of the judgment until the writ ceases to be in force.

(5) In this section, "the Commonwealth" includes any part of the Commonwealth within the meaning of the Service and Execution of Process Act 1901 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, as subsequently amended.

Discharge of
debtor.

114. (1) A judgment debtor arrested or imprisoned under a writ against the person shall be discharged from custody under the writ on payment of the amount specified in the writ as being due under the judgment and the costs of executing the writ, and any bailiff, and the governor of any prison, in whose custody the judgment debtor is under the writ, are hereby empowered and required to receive that amount and those costs if tendered, and to transmit them to the registrar for the proclaimed place at which the writ was issued.

(2) Where the judgment creditor on whose application a writ against the person of a judgment debtor is issued sends or delivers to the registrar for the proclaimed place at which the writ was issued a request in writing for the discharge of the judgment debtor from custody, the registrar shall, as soon as practicable after receipt of the request, issue a notice requesting the discharge of the judgment debtor and send or deliver the notice to the bailiff or governor of the prison in whose custody the judgment debtor is under the writ, and the bailiff or governor of the prison shall on receipt of the notice forthwith discharge the judgment debtor from custody under the writ. No. 9, 1973

(3) Where the judgment creditor on whose application a writ against the person of a judgment debtor is issued sends or delivers to the bailiff or governor of the prison in whose custody the judgment debtor is under the writ a request in writing for the discharge of the judgment debtor, the bailiff or governor of the prison shall on receipt of the request forthwith discharge the judgment debtor from custody under the writ.

(4) Where a judgment debtor makes application to the governor of the prison in whose custody he is under a writ against the person for his discharge from that custody, the governor shall as soon as practicable cause the judgment debtor to be brought before the Court at the most convenient proclaimed place for the purpose of making his application to the Court, and on hearing any such application the Court may, if it thinks fit, order, on terms, that the judgment debtor be discharged from custody under the writ.

(5) Where a judgment debtor is discharged by virtue of subsection (2), (3) or (4) from the custody in which he is held under a writ against the person, the discharge from custody shall not operate as a satisfaction of the judgment debt or any part thereof.

DIVISION

Interpleader by defendant or bailiff.

115. (1) An application may be made for relief by way of interpleader—

- (a) by a defendant in an action for or in respect of any debt, money, goods or chattels to which some third party makes a claim; or
- (b) by a bailiff if a claim is made to any money, goods or chattels, taken or intended to be taken in execution under a writ of execution, or to the proceeds or value of any such goods or chattels, by any person other than the person against whom the writ issued.

(2) An application under subsection (1)—

- (a) by a defendant in an action shall be made to the registrar for the proper place in relation to the action; or
- (b) by a bailiff, required under section 27 (2) to execute a writ of execution, shall be made to the registrar for the proclaimed place for which he is bailiff.

(3) Where the application is made by the defendant, it shall be supported by an affidavit showing—

- (a) that the applicant claims no interest in the subject-matter in dispute other than for charges or costs;
- (b) that the applicant does not collude with the person making a claim as referred to in subsection (1) (a); and
- (c) that the applicant is willing to pay or transfer the subject-matter in dispute into court or, if the registrar so requires, to give security to the value of the subject-matter to the satisfaction of the registrar.

No. 9, 1973

- (a) a person, other than the person against whom a writ of execution is issued, makes to the bailiff a claim to any money, goods or chattels (in this section referred to as "the property") taken or intended to be taken in execution under the writ; Claim to property taken or intended to be taken in execution.
- (b) the judgment creditor has not, in accordance with the rules, directed the bailiff to withdraw from possession of the property, or not to seize the property, as the case may require; and
- (c) the property has not been sold under the writ, then—

- (d) where, whether or not a notice referred to in paragraph (e) is given to the claimant and whether or not the period specified in the notice has expired, the claimant pays to the bailiff an amount equal to the value of the property or gives the bailiff security to that value—the property shall thereupon be released from execution under the writ and the bailiff shall make an application for relief by way of interpleader under section 115 in respect of the amount so paid or the security so given; or
- (e) where the claimant neither pays that amount nor gives that security before the expiration of a reasonable period specified in a notice given by the bailiff to the claimant for the purposes of this subsection—the bailiff—
- (i) may make an application for relief by way of interpleader under section 115 in respect of the property; or
  - (ii) may, subject to paragraph (d), sell the property as if the claim had not been made, and shall make an application under section 115 for relief by way of interpleader in respect of the proceeds of the sale as if the claim had been made to those proceeds.

No. 9, 1973 (2) The rules may require that a claim referred to in subsection (1) be verified by affidavit of the claimant.

(3) The amount of the value and the nature of the security referred to in subsection (1) shall be as may be agreed upon between the claimant and the bailiff, or where they have not agreed be as determined by some competent person appointed by the registrar, and the costs of the determination shall in the first instance be payable by the claimant.

(4) Any amount paid to the bailiff as referred to in subsection (1) (d), and the proceeds of any sale under subsection (1) (e) (ii), shall as soon as practicable thereafter be paid by the bailiff to the registrar to whom the bailiff's application for relief by way of interpleader is made, and shall be paid out by the registrar in accordance with the order of the Court.

Adverse titles.

118. Relief by way of interpleader may be granted though the titles of the persons claiming to the money, goods or chattels in question, or to the proceeds or value thereof have not a common origin, but are adverse to and independent of each other.

DIVISION 6.—Actions: Costs.

Interpretation:
Pt. III,
Div. 6.

119. In this Division, "costs" means costs payable between party and party, and includes disbursements.

Costs in discretion of Court or follow event.

120. Subject to section 124, the costs of any action, including the costs of any proceedings ancillary to the action, shall be paid by or apportioned between the parties in such manner as the Court in its discretion orders and, in default of any such order, shall, except where otherwise provided by the rules, follow the event of the action.

Agreement as to costs.

121. Where—

(a) a party's costs, or any part thereof, in an action are required to be paid by another party;

(b)

District Court.

- (b) the parties agree upon the amount of those costs; No. 9, 1973 and
- (c) the agreement is evidenced to the registrar in the prescribed manner, the amount of those costs shall be as so agreed upon.

122. (1) Where—Taxation of costs.

- (a) a party's costs in an action are required to be paid by another party; and
- (b) an agreement as to the amount of those costs is not entered into and evidenced as required by section 121, the amount of those costs shall be as determined—

- (c) except as provided by paragraph (d), by taxation, in accordance with the rules, by the registrar for the proper place in relation to the action; or
- (d) if the action is within a prescribed class of actions and if the Court so orders on the application of any party or without any such application—by taxation, in accordance with the rules, by the registrar for Sydney.

(2) On a taxation of costs—

- (a) no item shall be allowed that is not authorised by the rules; and
- (b) where an item is allowed, the amount to be allowed for the item shall, subject to subsection (3), be the amount specified in the rules in relation to items of the class to which that item belongs.

(3)

District Court.

No. 9, 1973

(3) The rules may require that costs payable in any action be reduced by reference to the amount recovered in the action or otherwise.

(4) A taxation of costs may be reviewed by the Court in accordance with the rules.

Costs form part of judgment debt.

123. Any costs payable by a judgment debtor under this Act shall form part of the judgment debt.

Limitations on costs.

124. (1) If in any action which could have been brought in a court of petty sessions but which is brought in the Court—

(a) the plaintiff recovers a total amount which does not exceed $100 by payment by or on behalf of the defendant without judgment; or

(b) judgment is given or entered up in favour of the plaintiff for an amount which does not exceed $100, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to recover any costs in the action unless the Court certifies that it appears to it that there was a sufficient reason for bringing or trying the action in the Court.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of an action in which judgment is given or entered up for an amount which does not exceed $100 but which would have exceeded $100 but for—

(a) any verdict against the plaintiff on any cross-claim pleaded by the defendant; or

(b) any reduction of the damages due to the plaintiff under Part III of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1965, or but for both such a verdict and such a reduction.

District Court.

(3) No fees to barristers or solicitors shall be allowed in any action for the recovery of a debt or liquidated demand if—

- (a) the amount sued for does not exceed $250; and
- (b) the defendant does not file notice of the grounds of his defence under section 56.

DIVISION 7.—Actions: New Trial and Appeal.

125. In this Division, “action” includes interpleader action.

Interpretation:
Pt. III,
Div. 7.

126. (1) The Court in its discretion may, after judgment in an action, order that a new trial of the action be had if—

Order of the Court for new trial.

- (a) the parties to the action consent; or
- (b) the action is tried with a jury and on the day on which the jury gives its verdict in the action a party to the action—
  - (i) in the presence of the other party; or
  - (ii) in the absence of the other party but after such notice as the Court thinks reasonable has been given to the other party, makes application for the order.

(2) The Court may, before judgment in an action and if no verdict in the action has been entered, order, on sufficient cause being shown, that the hearing of the action be discontinued and that a new trial be had.

127. (1) Subject to section 130, where, after judgment in an action, an order has not been made under section 126 (1) in respect of the action, an application for a new trial in respect of the action may be made to the Supreme Court.

Application to Supreme Court for new trial.

(2)

District Court.

No. 9, 1973

(2) On an application under this section in respect of an action, the Supreme Court may order a new trial of the action or of any issue therein or may refuse to make such an order.

(3) An application under this section shall be deemed to be an appeal to which sections 106 and 107 of the Supreme Court Act, 1970, apply.

(4) Without affecting the generality of subsection (2), the Supreme Court may order a new trial under this section on the ground that a verdict, finding or assessment of the Judge, whether sitting with or without a jury, is against the evidence and the weight of evidence.

(5) An application under this section shall be made in such manner and be subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by rules of the Supreme Court.

Appeal to Supreme Court.

128. (1) Except in the case of an action of the nature mentioned in subsection (2), an appeal shall, subject to sections 129 and 130, lie to the Supreme Court from the ruling, order, direction or decision of the Judge in point of law, or upon the admission or rejection of any evidence, in an action.

(2) In the case of an action in which the relief sought or granted includes an injunction under section 46, an appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court from the ruling, order, direction or decision of the Judge in point of law, or upon the admission or rejection of any evidence, or upon the determination of any question of fact, in the action.

(3) In an appeal under subsection (1) or (2), the Supreme Court—

(a) if it is of the opinion that a nonsuit should have been ordered at the trial—may order a nonsuit;

District Court.

(b) if it is of the opinion that upon the evidence any party is as a matter of law entitled to a verdict in the action or upon any issue therein—may give that verdict and may order that such judgment be entered as is appropriate to that verdict; or

(c) may order that a new trial of the action or of any issue therein be had, or may refuse to make such an order or give such a verdict.

(4) In an appeal under subsection (2), the Supreme Court may grant, refuse, vary or rescind any injunction relative to the action.

(5) Where no injunction under section 46 is granted in an action in which the relief sought includes such an injunction, the Supreme Court may, if it thinks fit, refuse to entertain an appeal under subsection (2) in relation to the action if it is of the opinion that the injunction was sought only for the purpose of securing the right to appeal under subsection (2).

(6) An appeal under subsection (1) or (2) shall be made in such manner and be subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by rules of the Supreme Court.

129. An appeal shall not lie under section 128 (1) from any ruling, order, direction or decision of the Court if before the ruling, order, direction or decision is pronounced the parties agree in writing, signed by themselves or their solicitors, that the ruling, order, direction or decision shall be final. Agreement not to appeal.

District Court.

No. 9, 1973 130. (1) An application under section 127 may be made or an appeal under section 128 (1) lies—

Whether application or appeal to Supreme Court is as of right.

(a) where the application or appeal involves directly or indirectly any claim, demand or question to or respecting any property or any civil right amounting to or of the value of $1,000 or upwards—as of right; or

(b) in any case—by leave of the Supreme Court.

(2) An appeal under section 128 (2) lies as of right.

Stay of proceedings on an application or appeal to Supreme Court.

131. (1) Where—

(a) after judgment in an action the Court orders that proceedings be stayed during the period within which an application under section 127 may be made or an appeal under section 128 may be brought; and

(b) during that period—

(i) such an application is made or such an appeal is brought in respect of those proceedings; and

(ii) security is given to the satisfaction of the registrar for the amount of the judgment debt (if any) payable by the applicant or appellant, including an amount assessed by the registrar in respect of any costs forming part of the judgment debt,

the

149. Where any proceedings purport to be commenced in the Court and the Court has no jurisdiction to hear and dispose of the proceedings, the Court may, notwithstanding the lack of jurisdiction, make such order (if any) as it thinks fit for the payment by any party to any other party of the costs of the proceedings in the Court, and any such order for costs may be enforced as if the Court had had jurisdiction to hear and dispose of the proceedings.

District Court.

150. (1) The Governor may make regulations for or with respect to fees to be paid in respect of the business of the Court. No. 9, 1973 Regulations:
Court fees.

(2) Different regulations may be made under this section to apply in different circumstances.

151. All fees received by a registrar under this Act shall be paid by him to the Treasurer for payment to the Consolidated Revenue Fund. Fees form part of Consolidated Revenue Fund.

152. (1) An amount which— Unclaimed money.

(a) was paid to a registrar for or on account of or for the use or benefit of any party to any proceedings; and

(b) remains unclaimed in the hands of the registrar for one year after a party to the proceedings becomes entitled to claim the amount.

shall be paid by the registrar to the Treasurer and placed to the credit of the Special Deposits Account in the Treasury.

(2) Section 30 of the Audit Act, 1902, does not apply to any amount referred to in subsection (1) of this section, but section 31 of that Act applies to any amount placed to the credit of the Special Deposits Account under subsection (1) of this section as if the amount had been so placed under section 30 of that Act.

153. (1) All proceedings for offences against this Act shall be disposed of summarily before a court of petty sessions held before a stipendiary magistrate sitting alone. Proceedings for offences.

No. 9, 1973 (2) Nothing in subsection (1) applies in respect of the imposition of a fine under section 64 or 65.

Offences by corporations.

154. Where a person convicted of an offence against this Act is a corporation, every person who at the time of the commission of the offence was an officer of the corporation shall be deemed to have committed the like offence and be liable to the penalty provided by this Act for the offence accordingly, if he knowingly and wilfully authorised or permitted the commission of the offence.

Civil remedy not affected by proceedings for an offence.

155. Notwithstanding any proceedings against a person for an offence against this Act (whether resulting in a conviction or otherwise) that person shall remain liable to all civil proceedings in like manner as if the proceedings for the offence had not been taken.

Miscellaneous powers of Court in respect of proceedings, etc.

156. (1) Subject to section 36, the Court may, on terms, adjourn any sittings or the trial of any proceedings in such manner as the Court thinks fit.

(2) The Court may give directions as to the orderly transaction of the business of the Court in relation to any proceedings.

(3) At any stage of any proceedings, the Court may, on terms, order that the proceedings be stayed.

District Court.

(4) Nothing in this section limits any power conferred on the Court or a Judge by any other provision of this Act or by any other Act or law to adjourn any sittings or trial, or to give directions or to stay proceedings. No. 9, 1973

157. Service of a document for the purposes of or in relation to any proceedings shall be effected by a person prescribed in respect of the class of document to which that document belongs, and may be effected by delivering a copy of the document to the person on whom the document is to be served or in such other manner as may be prescribed. Service of documents.

158. If the manner or form of procedure for taking any step in any proceedings is not prescribed by or under this Act or the law under which the step is to be taken or by the practice of the Court, the Court may direct what manner or form of procedure is to be followed, and any step taken in accordance with a direction so given shall for the purposes of the proceedings be regular and sufficient. Directions where no procedure provided.

159. (1) Where, in the purported commencement of any proceedings or at any stage in the course of or in connection with any proceedings, there is, by reason of anything done or left undone, a failure to comply with any requirement of this Act or of the rules whether in respect of time, place, manner, form or content or in any other respect— Irregularity. No. 52, 1970, s. 81.

(a) the failure shall be treated as an irregularity and shall not nullify the proceedings, or any step taken in the proceedings, or any document, judgment or order in the proceedings; and

District Court.

No. 9, 1973

(b) subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Court may, on terms, set aside wholly or in part the proceedings or any step taken in the proceedings or any document, judgment or order in the proceedings, or exercise its powers under the rules to allow amendments and to make orders dealing with the proceedings generally.

(2) The Court shall not wholly set aside any proceedings on the ground that although not constituting an action for the recovery of a debt or liquidated demand they were commenced by the lodging of a statement of liquidated claim.

(3) The Court shall not set aside any proceedings or any step taken in any proceedings or any document, judgment or order in any proceedings on the ground of a failure to which subsection (1) applies on the application of any party unless the application is made within a reasonable time and before the applicant has taken any fresh step after becoming aware of the irregularity.

Officer
acting for corporation.

160. For the purposes of this Act, a corporation may, subject to and in accordance with the rules, authorise an officer of the corporation to sign any document, or do any thing which a party to any proceedings acting in person may do, in respect of any proceedings to which the corporation is or may become a party, and any document signed or thing done by an officer so authorised shall be deemed to be signed or done by the corporation.

DIVISION 11.—Rules.

Rules.

161. (1) The Chief Judge and any four other Judges may make rules for or with respect to—

(a) the procedure (including the method of pleading) and the practice to be followed in the Court in any proceedings (including the procedure and practice

District Court.

- (s) the striking out, by order of the Court, of the whole or any part of a statement of claim or a document filed by a party; and (t)

---

(t) all matters that by this Act (sections 150 and 171 No. 9, 1973 excepted) are required or permitted to be prescribed or that are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(2) The rules may make provision for or with respect to the bringing of money into court by a defendant in any proceedings and, without affecting the generality of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, may make provision for or with respect to—

- (a) prescribing the manner in which money may be so brought into court;
- (b) without affecting the generality of paragraph (a), deeming money to be brought into court if there is filed a security given by a licensed insurer under the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, or an authorised insurer under the Motor Vehicles (Third Party Insurance) Act, 1942;
- (c) requiring the insurer who gives a security as referred to in paragraph (b) to pay the amount for which the security was given in the prescribed circumstances and providing that any such amount not so paid may be enforced as a judgment against the insurer; and
- (d) determining the effect on the cause or causes of action on which the proceedings were brought where the plaintiff accepts the money so brought into court.

(3) Different rules may be made to apply in different circumstances.

(4) After the commencement of this Act no power conferred by any Act upon the Judges or a majority of Judges or any number of Judges or a Judge to make rules shall be exercised otherwise than by the Chief Judge and any four other Judges making in respect of that matter rules under and in accordance with this Act.

District Court.

No. 9, 1973

(5) Any rules made under any power conferred upon the Judges or a majority of Judges or any number of Judges or a Judge by any Act (other than this Act and the District Courts Act, 1912), and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall continue in force as though made under this Act.

Gazetta and Parliamentary review.

162. (1) A rule shall—

- (a) be published in the Gazette;
- (b) take effect on and from the date of publication or a later date specified in the rule; and
- (c) be laid before each House of Parliament within fourteen sitting days of that House after the date of publication.

(2) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution, of which notice has been given within fifteen sitting days of that House after a rule has been laid before it, disallowing the rule or any part thereof, the rule or part thereupon ceases to have effect.

(3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), sitting days shall be counted, whether or not they occur during the same session.

Judicial notice.

163. Judicial notice shall be taken—

- (a) of a rule made or purporting to have been made under this Act and published in the Gazette; and
- (b) of the date of its publication.

Conditions precedent.

164. It shall be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that all conditions and steps precedent to the making of a rule have been complied with and performed.

District Court.

PART IV.

No. 9, 1973

THE CRIMINAL AND SPECIAL JURISDICTION OF THE COURT.

165. In this Part—

“appointed place” means place for the time being specified in a proclamation under section 172;

Interpretation:
Pt. IV.

“instrument” means an Act (other than this Act) enacted before the commencement of this Act, or a rule, by-law, regulation or ordinance, or any other instrument or document whatsoever, of the same or a different kind or nature, made, proclaimed, issued or published before the commencement of this Act.

166. The Court shall have jurisdiction in respect of all crimes and misdemeanours (other than a crime or misdemeanour which is punishable with death or which was so punishable immediately before the commencement of the Crimes (Amendment) Act, 1955), and generally shall have the same jurisdiction and authority, civil and criminal, as each Court of Quarter Sessions had immediately before the commencement of this Act.

Criminal and special jurisdiction of the Court.

167. Subject to section 194, Courts of Quarter Sessions are abolished.

Abolition of Courts of Quarter Sessions.

168. (1) A reference in any instrument to a Court of Quarter Sessions shall be read and construed as a reference to the Court in its criminal and special jurisdiction.

References to Courts of Quarter Sessions.

(2) In subsection (1), the reference to a Court of Quarter Sessions includes a reference to a Court of Sessions of the Peace, General Sessions of the Peace, General Sessions, General Quarter Sessions, General or Quarter Sessions, or General and Quarter Sessions.

District Court.

No. 9, 1973 169. (1) A Judge exercising the criminal and special jurisdiction of the Court has, in relation to proceedings in the Court in that jurisdiction, the same powers, authorities, duties and functions as a Chairman of Quarter Sessions would have had, in relation to the like proceedings in a Court of Quarter Sessions, had this Act not been enacted.

Judges.

(2) A Judge exercising the criminal and special jurisdiction of the Court shall be the sole Judge at the trial of all civil or criminal issues therein, and at the hearing of any application, or the making of any order in reference thereto, and in all other matters relating to the exercise of that jurisdiction.

(3) A reference in any instrument to a Chairman of Quarter Sessions shall be read and construed as a reference to a Judge exercising the criminal and special jurisdiction of the Court.

Clerk of the Peace.

170. The Clerk of the Peace has, in relation to the Court in its criminal and special jurisdiction and to proceedings in the Court in that jurisdiction, the same powers, authorities, duties and functions as he had, in relation to Courts of Quarter Sessions and to proceedings in those Courts, immediately before the commencement of this Act.

Regulations:
practice and procedure.

171. (1) The Governor may make regulations for or with respect to regulating and prescribing the practice and procedure of the Court in relation to any proceedings in the Court in its criminal and special jurisdiction.

(2) The regulations made under this section may provide that any provisions of this Act that would, but for this subsection, not apply to or in respect of any proceedings in the Court in its criminal and special jurisdiction shall, to the extent specified in the regulations so made, apply to or in respect of those proceedings.

District Court.

(3) The provisions of an instrument shall, in so far as they have effect in respect of or in relation to the practice and procedure of the Court in its criminal and special jurisdiction or any documents that may be or are issued by or in respect of the Court in that jurisdiction, have effect subject to the regulations made under this section. No. 9, 1973

(4) Different regulations may be made under this section to apply in different circumstances.

172. (1) In this section, "place" means city, town or other place. Appointed places.

(2) The Governor may, by proclamation, specify the places at which the Court may sit in its criminal and special jurisdiction.

173. The Governor may, by proclamation, direct that the Court shall sit in its criminal and special jurisdiction at a specified appointed place at specified times. Directions as to sittings.

174. (1) Subject to this Part—

(a) the Court may sit simultaneously at different appointed places in its criminal and special jurisdiction; General provisions as to sittings.

(b) a Judge shall preside at such sittings of the Court in its criminal and special jurisdiction at such appointed places as the Chief Judge may from time to time direct; and

(c) two or more Judges may preside simultaneously at separate sittings of the Court in its criminal and special jurisdiction at the one appointed place.

No. 9, 1973

(2) Where a sitting of the Court in its criminal and special jurisdiction is to be held and the Judge who is to preside at that sitting is not present at the time appointed for the sitting to commence, any justice of the peace may adjourn the sitting to such time as the justice deems convenient.

Hearing of appeals at proclaimed
places.

175. Notwithstanding anything in this Part, a Judge sitting at any proclaimed place may, whether or not that proclaimed place is an appointed place, hear and dispose of any appeal made to the Court in its criminal and special jurisdiction.

---

PART V.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Order to Judge or officer.

176. If a Judge or officer of the Court refuses to do any act relating to the duties of his office, the Supreme Court may, on the application of any party requiring the act to be done, by order direct the Judge or officer to do the act.

Privilege.

177. No privilege shall be allowed to any barrister, solicitor or other person to exempt him from the provisions of this Act.

Proclamations.

178. (1) In this section, "proclamation" means proclamation under this Act, not being the proclamation under section 2.

(2) A power conferred by any provision of this Act to make a proclamation includes the power to revoke or amend that proclamation from time to time.

District Court.

(3) A proclamation shall—

No. 9, 1973

- (a) be published in the Gazette; and
- (b) take effect on and from the date of publication or a later date specified in the proclamation.

179. (1) The Judges shall assemble at least once in every six months for the purpose of—

Judges to meet and make recommendations.

- (a) considering the operation of this Act and the rules;
- (b) considering the working of the offices of the Court; and
- (c) inquiring into and examining any defects which appear to exist in the system of procedure or the administration of justice in the Court.

(2) The Judges shall at least once in every six months furnish a report to the Attorney-General as to what (if any) legislation or rules, regulations, by-laws or ordinances it would, in their judgment, be expedient to enact or make for the better administration of justice in the Court.

REPEALS, AMENDMENTS, SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.

DIVISION 1.—General.

180. Each Act mentioned in Schedule 1 is repealed. Repeals.

181. Each Act specified in Column 1 of Schedule 2 is amended in the manner set forth opposite that Act in Column 2 of Schedule 2. Amendments.

182.

District Court.

No. 9, 1973 182. A repeal made by section 180 or an amendment made by section 181 shall not revive anything not in force or existing immediately before the commencement of this Act.
Non-revivor.
No. 52,
1970, s. 9.

Operation of Interpretation Act, 1897. 183. Except as provided in this Part, nothing in this Part limits any saving in the Interpretation Act, 1897.

DIVISION 2.—The Civil Jurisdiction of the Court.*

Interpretation: Pt.
VI, Div. 2.

184. In this Division—

“district” means district referred to in section 5 of the District Courts Act, 1912;

“former Court” means a District Court established under the District Courts Act, 1912, and includes a court referred to in an instrument as “the District Court” or “the district court”;

“instrument” means an Act (other than this Act) enacted before the commencement of this Act, or a rule, by-law, regulation or ordinance, or any other instrument or document whatsoever, of the same or a different kind or nature, made, proclaimed, issued or published before the commencement of this Act;

“the new Court” means the Court.

Savings as to places,
sittings,
Judges and officers.

185. (1) A proclamation made under section 4 (1) of the District Courts Act, 1912, and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall—

(a) in so far as it specifies the towns and places at which former Courts shall be holden—be deemed to be a proclamation under section 31 (2) specifying proclaimed places; and

(b)

District Court.

(b) in so far as it specifies the times at which former Courts shall be holden—shall be deemed to be a proclamation under section 32 (2) directing that the new Court shall sit in its civil jurisdiction at those times at the proclaimed places specified therein. No. 9, 1973

(2) A person appointed as a judge under section 14 of the District Courts Act, 1912, and holding office as such immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to have been appointed as a Judge under section 13 of this Act.

(3) A person appointed to sit and act as a judge under section 19A of the District Courts Act, 1912, and whose appointment continues in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to have been appointed to act as a Judge under section 18 of this Act, but he shall not, by virtue of this subsection, hold office as such for a time longer than that for which he was appointed to exercise jurisdiction under section 19A of the District Courts Act, 1912.

(4) The person who was, immediately before the commencement of this Act, the Chairman of the District Court Judges shall be deemed to have been appointed as the Chief Judge under section 13 (4).

(5) A person appointed as a judge under the District Courts Act, 1912, and not holding office as such immediately before the commencement of this Act, and the widow of any such person, shall, notwithstanding anything in this Act, have the same rights as to salary, pension or otherwise which he or she would have had if this Act had not been enacted.

(6) A person holding office immediately before the commencement of this Act as the registrar of the District Court of the Metropolitan District holden at Sydney under section 21 (2) (a) of the District Courts Act, 1912, or as an

No. 9, 1973 assistant registrar of that Court under section 24 of that Act shall be deemed to have been appointed as the registrar for Sydney under section 19 (2) of this Act or as an assistant registrar for Sydney under section 22 (1) of this Act, as the case may require.

(7) A person holding office immediately before the commencement of this Act as a bailiff for a former Court appointed under section 26 (3) of the District Courts Act, 1912, or an officer appointed under section 26 (4) of that Act to assist a bailiff for a former Court, shall be deemed to have been appointed under section 25 (3) of this Act as a bailiff, or under section 26 (1) of this Act as an assistant bailiff, as the case may require, of the new Court for the proclaimed place that is the place at which the former Court was ordered, under section 4 (1) of the District Courts Act, 1912, to be holden.

Pending proceed-

186. (1) Subject to the rules, and unless the Court otherwise orders—

- (a) any proceedings pending in a former Court immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be continued in and disposed of by the new Court sitting at the proclaimed place that is the place at which the former Court was holden immediately before the commencement of this Act, but otherwise those proceedings shall be continued and disposed of as if this Act had not been enacted;
- (b) any judgment or order of the new Court in proceedings referred to in paragraph (a) shall be enforceable in accordance with this Act and the rules;
- (c) except as provided in paragraph (d), any judgment or order of a former Court shall be enforceable in accordance with this Act and the rules by the new Court sitting at the proclaimed place at which the former

---

former Court was holden in which the judgment or order could have been enforced immediately before the commencement of this Act; No. 9, 1973

- (d) any judgment or order of a former Court shall, as regards any step taken in the enforcement of the judgment or order before the commencement of this Act, be enforceable by the new Court sitting at the proclaimed place at which the former Court was holden in which the judgment or order could have been enforced immediately before the commencement of this Act, but otherwise shall be enforceable as if this Act had not been enacted; and
- (e) the entitlement of any party to costs in respect of proceedings commenced before the commencement of this Act and completed after that commencement shall be ascertained as if this Act had not been enacted.

(2) For the purposes of continuing any proceedings in, or enforcing any judgment or order in, the new Court sitting at a proclaimed place, that place shall be deemed to be the proper place in relation to those proceedings or the proceedings in which the judgment was given or entered up or the order was made, as the case may require.

(3) Unless the Supreme Court in a particular case otherwise orders—

- (a) Division 7 of Part III (section 126 excepted) applies to and in respect of proceedings in, or a judgment or order of, a former Court as if they or it were proceedings in, or a judgment or order of, the new Court; and
- (b) any appeal made under Part VI of the District Courts Act, 1912, and pending in the Supreme Court immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been made under Division 7 of Part III of this Act.
