ment of councils or committees.

26. (1) In this section—

“area” has the meaning ascribed thereto in the Local Government Act, 1919;

“district” means—

- (a) an area;
- (b) a region; or
- (c) any combination of areas or regions, or areas and regions;

“region” means a region established under the Regional Organisation Act, 1972.

(2) The Minister may, in accordance with the regulations, establish in respect of—

- (a) a prescribed college; or
- (b) a prescribed district,

a council or committee, consisting of such number of persons as the Minister may determine.

(3)

Technical and Further Education.

(3) A council or committee established under sub-section (2), in respect of the college or district for which it is established— No. 72, 1974

- (a) shall promote and encourage the advancement of technical and further education within that college or district; and
- (b) shall have and may exercise or perform such powers, authorities, duties and functions as are delegated to it by the Minister under section 30 (1).

27. The accounts of each council or committee established by the Minister under section 26 shall, if directed by the Minister at any time, be audited by the Auditor-General, who shall have, in respect thereof, all the powers conferred on the Auditor-General by any law now or hereafter in force relating to the audit of public accounts and the Audit Act, 1902, shall apply to the members of the council or committee in the same manner as it applies to accounting officers of public departments. Audit.

PART VI.

ACQUISITION OF LAND.

28. (1) For the purposes of this Act, the Governor may, under the Public Works Act, 1912, and in accordance with the provisions of this section, resume or appropriate any land and the Minister may purchase, lease or exchange any land. Acquisition of land.

(2) A resumption or appropriation effected in accordance with subsection (1) shall be deemed to be for an authorised work within the meaning of the Public Works Act, 1912, and the Minister shall, in relation to that authorised work, be deemed to be the Constructing Authority within the meaning of that Act.

Technical and Further Education.

No. 72, 1974 (3) Sections 34, 35, 36 and 37 of the Public Works Act, 1912, do not apply to expenditure on any works constructed for the purposes of this Act, but section 38 of that Act applies to any such expenditure.

Power to rescind resumptions.

29. (1) The Governor may, by notification in the Gazette, rescind wholly or in part a notification of resumption made under section 28.

(2) Upon the publication of a notification of rescission under subsection (1) the land described in that notification—

- (a) shall revert in the person who was entitled thereto immediately before the resumption for his estate, interest or right immediately before the resumption, subject to any interest in or equity binding on that land created by the Constructing Authority since the resumption;
- (b) shall be subject to all trusts, obligations, estates, interests, contracts, charges, rates, rights-of-way or other easements from which it was freed and discharged by the resumption; and
- (c) shall be subject to any interests in or equities binding on the compensation money created since the resumption.

(3) On the lodgment with the Registrar-General of a copy of a notification in the Gazette rescinding a notification of resumption of land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, the Registrar-General shall cancel any recording in the Register made by him pursuant to section 31A of the Real Property Act, 1900, in so far as it relates to the land the notification of the resumption of which has been rescinded, and for the purpose of any dealing with that land the recording made pursuant to section 31A of the Real Property Act, 1900, shall be deemed never to have been made.

Technical and Further Education.

(4) On the lodgment with the Registrar-General of a copy of a notification in the Gazette rescinding a notification of resumption of land wholly or in part and in respect of which a certificate of title has issued to the Constructing Authority pursuant to section 31A of the Real Property Act, 1900, the Registrar-General shall cancel that certificate of title in so far as it relates to the land the notification of the resumption of which has been rescinded and of which the Constructing Authority is the registered proprietor.

(5) The person in whom any land is revested under this section shall be entitled to be compensated by the Constructing Authority for any loss or damage actually suffered by him as a direct consequence of the resumption and its rescission other than compensation in respect of the value of the land.

(6) Section 9 of the Land and Valuation Court Act, 1921, applies to and in respect of a claim for compensation under this Act in the same way as it applies to and in respect of a claim for compensation by reason of the acquisition of land for public purposes under the Public Works Act, 1912.

PART VII.

GENERAL.

30. (1) The Minister may by instrument in writing delegate to—

- (a) any specified officer of the Department;
- (b) the Council of Technical and Further Education constituted under section 13; or
- (c) a council or committee established under section 26 (2), the exercise or performance of such of the powers (other than this power of delegation), authorities, duties or functions conferred or imposed on him by or under this Act as may be prescribed and may in like manner revoke wholly or in part any such delegation.

No. 72, 1974

(2) The Director may by instrument in writing delegate to any specified officer of the Department the exercise or performance of such of the powers, authorities, duties or functions (other than this power of delegation or the exercise or performance of a power, authority, duty or function delegated to him under this section by the Minister) conferred or imposed on him by or under this Act as may be specified in the instrument of delegation and may in like manner revoke wholly or in part any such delegation.

(3) A power, authority, duty or function, the exercise or performance of which has been delegated under this section, may, while the delegation remains unrevoked, be exercised or performed from time to time in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

(4) A delegation under this section may be made subject to such conditions or such limitations as to the exercise or performance of any of the powers, authorities, duties or functions delegated, or as to time or circumstances, as may be specified in the instrument of delegation.

(5) Notwithstanding any delegation made under this section, the Minister or the Director, as the case may be, may continue to exercise or perform all or any of the powers, authorities, duties or functions delegated.

(6) Any act or thing done or suffered by a delegate while acting in the exercise of a delegation under this section shall have the same force and effect as if the act or thing done had been done or suffered by the Minister or the Director, as the case may be, and shall be deemed to have been done or suffered by the Minister or the Director, as the case may be.

Regulations.

31. (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or
