(b) by inserting after Part VA the following Part :—

PART VB.*EASEMENTS.

Easements.

136L. (1) In this section—

“easement” includes an easement in favour of—

- (a) the Crown in right of the State or the Commonwealth; or
- (b) any public or local authority constituted by Act of Parliament, without a dominant tenement;

“holder”, in relation to any lands, means the person who is registered in the books of the Department of Lands or the Western Lands Commissioner as the holder of those lands and, where that person appears to be a mortgagee, includes the person who, according to those books, appears to be the mortgagor;

“prescribed

Crown Lands and Other Acts (Amendment).

“prescribed lands” means lands vested in Her Majesty, except—

- (a) lands lawfully contracted to be granted in fee simple under this or any other Act;
- (b) lands subject to the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900;
- (c) lands comprised in a lease in perpetuity granted under this or any other Act, other than the Western Lands Act, 1901;
- (d) lands comprised in a homestead selection; and
- (e) lands reserved as, or as part of, a state recreation area under section 37B.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Minister may, by notification approved by him and published in the Gazette—

- (a) grant easements over prescribed lands; and
- (b) at any time that any lands having the benefit of an easement so granted are vested in Her Majesty—release the easement benefiting those lands.

(3) The Minister shall not, for the purposes of subsection (2), approve a notification unless he is satisfied—

- (a) where the notification relates to the grant of an easement over prescribed lands—that any holder of the lands at the time of the approval has consented to the grant; or

(b)

Crown Lands and Other Acts (Amendment).

No. 70, 1975

(b) where the notification relates to the release of an easement—that any holder of the lands having the benefit of the easement at the time of the approval has consented to the release.

(4) The Minister may—

- (a) impose such conditions as he thinks fit, including conditions relating to the payment of compensation to the Crown, upon the grant of an easement under this section; and
- (b) grant an easement under this section in such terms as he thinks fit.

(5) A grant or release of an easement under this section takes effect on the date of publication of the notification of the grant or release in the Gazette or on a later date specified in the notification.

(6) The benefit of an easement granted under this section may be annexed to lands notwithstanding that, at the time the easement is granted, those lands are vested in Her Majesty.

(7) An easement granted under this section shall not be extinguished by reason that lands having the benefit of the easement or lands having the burden of the easement or both become vested in Her Majesty.

(8) Sections 88A and 181A of the Conveyancing Act, 1919, apply to and in respect of a notification purporting to grant an easement under this section.

(3) A notification under subsection (1) shall specify the period during which, and the manner in which, tenders must be lodged.

(4) The Minister may, subject to section 64D, accept any tender or may decide to accept none of the tenders.

Sec. 64.

(d) by omitting section 64 and the short heading thereto and by inserting instead the following section and short heading thereto :—

After-auction and after-tender purchases.

After-auction and after-tender
purchases.

64. (1) Where Crown lands have been offered for sale by auction but not sold, the Minister may approve an application made by any person for the purchase (in this Act referred to as an "after-auction purchase") of those lands after the auction was held.

(2) Where Crown lands have been offered for sale by tender but not sold, the Minister may approve an application made by any person for the purchase (in this Act referred to as an "after-tender purchase") of those lands after the expiration of the period during which tenders must have been lodged.

Crown Lands and Other Acts (Amendment).

(3) An applicant for an after-auction No. 70, 1975 purchase or after-tender purchase shall—

- (a) lodge with his application a deposit in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in the notification published under section 63 or 63A in respect of the lands applied for; and
  - (b) if the Minister approves the application, pay the balance of the purchase price in accordance with those terms and conditions.
- (e) (i) by omitting the short heading to section 64A Sec. 64A. and by inserting instead the following short heading:— (Conditions relating to number of lots.)
- Auction, tender, after-auction and after-tender purchases: conditions relating to number of lots.*

No. 70, 1975

(v) by inserting at the end of section 64A the following subsections :—

(2) For the purposes of this section—

(a) a husband and wife not living apart under a decree for judicial separation made by any court of competent jurisdiction shall be deemed to be one person; and

(b) the reference to the date of the sale is a reference—

(i) in the case of an auction purchase under this Part—to the date of the auction;

(ii) in the case of a tender purchase under this Part—to the date of acceptance of the tender by the Minister; or

(iii) in the case of an after-auction purchase or after-tender purchase—to the date of the approval of the application for the purchase.

(3) Nothing in this section affects the generality of section 63 (2) or 63A (2).

Sec. 64B.
(Sales by tender.)

(f) by omitting section 64B and the short heading thereto;

(g)

Crown Lands and Other Acts (Amendment).

- (g) by inserting before the short heading to section 65 the following sections and short headings thereto :—

No. 70, 1975

Secs.
64C-64F.Auction, tender, after-auction and after-tender purchases: terms and conditions generally.

64c. (1) Every sale of lands by way of after-auction purchase or after-tender purchase shall be upon the terms and conditions specified in the notification published under section 63 or 63A in respect of those lands, except in so far as those terms and conditions are not applicable to or in relation to the after-auction purchase or after-tender purchase, as the case may be.

Terms and conditions
generally.

(2) Without affecting the generality of section 63 (2) or 63A (2), the terms and conditions referred to therein may relate to—

- (a) lands to which the notification does not relate as well as to Crown lands to which it relates;
- (b) the reclamation and improvement of any Crown lands;
- (c) subject to any other law for the time being in force, the use to be made of the lands to which the notification relates, including the subdivision thereof and the erection of dwellings, shops or other buildings thereon; and
- (d) the provision of amenities, roads and bridges to serve the lands to which the notification relates.

No. 70, 1975

(3) If a purchaser under section 63, 63A or 64 fails to comply with any term or condition applicable to the sale, or if any money payable to the Crown in accordance with any such term or condition remains unpaid for the period of three months after the day when it falls due, the Minister may declare the purchase to have lapsed, and all money paid in respect of the purchase shall thereupon become forfeited.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the Minister may authorise the receipt of any money payable after the expiration of the period referred to therein and may waive compliance with any term or condition or grant an extension of time within which a purchaser may comply therewith.

(5) Without affecting the generality of section 63 (2) or 63A (2), the terms and conditions referred to therein may authorise deferred payments of the purchase price.

(6) Deferred payments referred to in subsection (5) shall bear interest—

- (a) in the case of an auction purchase or tender purchase—at the rate which, at the date of the publication of the notification under section 63 or 63A relating to the purchase, is the prescribed rate; or
- (b) in the case of an after-auction purchase or after-tender purchase—at the rate which, at the date of the approval of the application for the purchase, is the prescribed rate.

(7) The prescribed rate for the purposes of subsection (6) is eight per centum per annum or, where some other rate is prescribed, that other rate.

Auction,

purchases: upset prices.

64D. (1) The Minister may, by instrument in writing— <sup>Upset prices.</sup>

- (a) determine the upset price for any Crown lands; and
- (b) vary the upset price for those lands, but not during the currency of a contract for the sale of those lands.

(2) A notification shall not be published under section 63 or 63A in respect of any lands unless the upset price has been determined for those lands.

(3) Lands shall not be sold under section 63 or 63A for less than the upset price for those lands.

(4) Lands shall not be sold under section 64 except at the upset price for those lands.

(5) Lands shall not be sold under section 64 unless the upset price for the lands was stated in—

- (a) the notification published under section 63 or 63A in respect of those lands; or
- (b) another notification published in the Gazette before the application for the purchase was lodged.

Auction,

Crown Lands and Other Acts (Amendment).

No. 70, 1975

Auction, tender, after-auction and after-tender purchases: improvements.

Improvements.

64E. (1) The Minister shall, when determining or varying the upset price under section 64D for any Crown lands containing improvements, ensure that the upset price includes the capital value of the improvements.

(2) Notwithstanding Division 8 of Part VIII, the capital value of improvements shall, for the purposes of this section, be such amount as the Minister determines.

(3) Where Crown lands containing private improvements, or containing improvements that are the subject of tenant-right, are the subject of a notification under section 63 or 63A, the capital value of those improvements shall be stated in the notification.

(4) Where Crown lands containing improvements referred to in subsection (3) are sold under section 63, 63A or 64, any payments received by the Crown and made by or on behalf of the purchaser on account of those improvements shall be paid to the owner of the improvements or the person having the tenant-right, as the case may be.

(5) Where it becomes necessary, for the purposes of subsection (4), to apportion the capital value of improvements between two or more persons, the apportionment shall be effected in such manner as the Minister determines.

(6) Division 8 of Part VIII does not apply to or in relation to a person in his capacity as a purchaser of Crown lands sold under section 63, 63A or 64.

(7)

Crown Lands and Other Acts (Amendment).

(7) In this section—

No. 70, 1975

“capital value”, in relation to improvements, has the meaning ascribed to the expression “capital value of improvements” in section 213;

“improvements” has the meaning ascribed to the expression “improvements” in section 213;

“private improvements” means improvements that are not the property of the Crown, as referred to in Division 8 of Part VIII;

“tenant-right” means tenant-right under Division 8 of Part VIII.

Auction, tender, after-auction and after-tender purchases: miscellaneous provisions.

64F. (1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act (subsection (2) and Part IIIA excepted) or the Forestry Act, 1916, a notification under section 63 or 63A has the effect of revoking any classified areas, reserves under this Act or timber reserves under the Forestry Act, 1916, or parts of any such areas, reserves or timber reserves, within the boundaries of the lands to which the notification relates, unless the contrary is expressly declared by the terms of the notification. Miscellaneous provisions.

(2) The revocation of a timber reserve is not effected by virtue of subsection (1) unless the consent thereto of the Minister administering the Forestry Act, 1916, has been obtained.

(3) The Governor may execute, in connection with a sale of lands under section 63, 63A or 64, such grants as he may consider necessary.

Crown Lands and Other Acts (Amendment).

No. 70, 1975

(4) The Minister may, by notification published in the Gazette, amend or revoke a notification under section 63 or 63A, but not after any of the lands to which the notification relates are sold.

(7) Any order under subsection (5) shall be deemed to be a conviction or order whereby a sum of money is adjudged to be paid within the meaning of the Justices Act, 1902.

(8) Where any proceedings are taken against a person for an offence arising under this section and the court before which the proceedings are brought is not satisfied that he is guilty of the offence, but is satisfied that he is guilty of an attempt to commit the offence, the court may acquit him of the offence charged and find him guilty of attempting to commit the offence, and he is liable to the same penalty as if he had been found guilty of the offence.

(9) Nothing in this section affects any other provision of this or any other Act, so far as that provision would, but for this section, have effect in relation to a reserve within the meaning of section 37M, or of any by-laws applying to such a reserve, but a person is not liable to be punished twice for an act or omission that constitutes an offence both under this section and any other such provision.

(10) By-laws applying to a reserve within the meaning of section 37M may contain provisions having the effect of authorising any act or omission that would, but for the by-laws and this subsection, constitute an offence arising under this section, but nothing in this subsection authorises the making of by-laws that could not be made if this section were not in force.

(11) In proceedings for an offence arising under this section, the defendant has the onus of proving lawful authority in relation to the act or omission giving rise to the alleged offence.

Removal

Crown Lands and Other Acts (Amendment).Removal of unauthorised structures from Crown No. 70, 1975 lands or dedicated lands.

254A. (1) In this section—

“public lands” means any Crown lands or lands granted, reserved or dedicated for any public purpose;

Removal of unauthorised structures from Crown lands or dedicated lands.

“structure” includes—

- (a) any building;
- (b) any post, pile, stake, pipe, chain, wire or any other thing, that is fixed to the soil or to anything fixed to the soil; and
- (c) any works for the reclamation of lands that are or are at any time liable to be, or would, but for the reclamation, be or be at any time liable to be, covered wholly or partly by water.

(2) The Minister may cause or authorise any structure erected without lawful authority on public lands to be removed, together with the contents of the structure.

(3) If a notice requiring any person who claims to have authority to erect, maintain or use a structure erected on any public lands, or any part of the structure, or any person who claims any interest in the structure, to deliver to the Minister a statement in writing signed by that person stating by what authority he erected or is entitled to maintain or use the structure or part or by what authority he claims any interest in the structure, is—

- (a) displayed for a period of one month on or adjacent to the structure; or
- (b) published in a local newspaper or such other newspaper (if any) as the Minister may determine, any person who, within one month after the expiration of that period or within one month after publication of that notice, fails to deliver such a statement to the Minister shall have no claim against the Minister or any other person removing the structure or contents in accordance with subsection (2).

(4) The Minister may at his option cause or authorise any structure or part thereof or the contents thereof removed in accordance with subsection (2) to be destroyed or sold, or stored (and, if stored, then destroyed or sold), or may sell the structure or contents on condition that it or they be removed, and may recover in any court of competent jurisdiction the expenses incurred in the removal, destruction, sale or storage of the structure or part thereof or the contents thereof from the person who—

- (a) erected the structure or caused it to be erected; or
- (b) has made use of the structure after—
  - (i) if a notice was served on him under section 254 (3) in respect of the structure—the expiration of the period specified in the notice; or

(ii)

Crown Lands and Other Acts (Amendment).

- (ii) if a notice was displayed under sub-<sup>No. 70, 1975</sup> section (3) in respect of the structure—the expiration of the period of one month for which it was so displayed, or both.

(5) Subsection (4) (b) (ii) does not apply in relation to a person unless it is established that he knew of, or ought reasonably to have known of, the notice.

Vehicles on vacant public lands.

- 254B. (1) In this section, “vehicle” includes—<sup>Vehicles on vacant public lands.</sup>
- (a) a motor car, motor carriage, motor cycle or other apparatus propelled on land, snow or ice wholly or partly by volatile spirit, steam, gas, oil or electricity;
  - (b) a boat or other object that, while floating on water or submerged, whether wholly or partly, under water, is wholly or partly used for the conveyance of persons or things;
  - (c) an apparatus that, while propelled in the air by human or mechanical power or by the wind, is wholly or partly used for the conveyance of persons or things;
  - (d) an apparatus propelled upon land, snow or ice by human or animal power or by the wind; and
  - (e) a trailer or caravan, whether or not it is in the course of being towed.

No. 70, 1975

(2) The Minister may give such directions as to the bringing of vehicles into, and the use and parking of vehicles in, any vacant public lands as he thinks fit, and any such direction—

(a) may be limited as to time, place or subject-matter; and

(b) may be varied or revoked by the Minister.

(3) A direction given pursuant to subsection (2) shall have effect only while there is erected or displayed upon or near, or marked upon, the lands to which the direction relates a sign that is notice of the direction.

(4) The direction appearing upon a sign that is erected or displayed upon or near, or marked upon, any vacant public lands with the authority of the Minister shall be deemed to be a direction, for the time being in force, given pursuant to subsection (2) in relation to those lands, and the sign shall, for the purposes of subsection (3), be deemed to be notice of that direction.

(5) A person shall not contravene or fail to comply with a direction having effect under this section.

Penalty : $200.

(6) A person shall not interfere with, alter or remove any sign erected or displayed with the authority of the Minister upon or near, or marked with that authority upon, any vacant public lands.

Penalty : $200.

Crown Lands and Other Acts (Amendment).

(7) Nothing in this section affects any No. 70, 1975 other provision of this or any other Act, so far as that provision would, but for this section, have effect in relation to vehicles on vacant public lands, or any by-laws applying to any vacant public lands.

(8) An allegation, in an information in respect of an offence arising under this section, that a sign was erected, displayed or marked with the authority of the Minister or his delegate, or that a sign was interfered with, altered or removed without the authority of the Minister or his delegate, shall be accepted by the court as evidence of the truth of the allegation, unless the defendant proves to the contrary.

Impounding of animals.

254c. (1) In this section, "authorised person" Impounding. means—

- (a) any member of the Police Force;
- (b) any person holding an office, position or rank prescribed for the purposes of this section; or
- (c) any person authorised by the Minister for the purposes of this section.

(2) For the purposes of—

- (a) the Impounding Act, 1898, sections 44, 45 and 46 excepted; and

(b)

*Crown Lands and Other Acts (Amendment).No. 70, 1975

(b) Part XVIII of the Local Government Act, 1919, sections 438 and 439 excepted, the Minister shall be deemed to be the occupant of vacant public lands.

(3) An authorised person may exercise any power conferred on the Minister by virtue of this section.

(4) An authorised person may, on behalf of the Minister, take proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction for the trespass committed on the vacant public lands by animals impounded by virtue of this section.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the Minister shall be deemed to be in exclusive possession of vacant public lands.

(6) Nothing in this section prevents the laying of any information for an offence arising under section 254 or affects any proceedings for such an offence.

Requirement to state name and address.

Requirement to state name and address.

254D. (1) In this section—

“authorised person” means—

- (a) any member of the Police Force;

(c)

Crown Lands and Other Acts (Amendment).

(c) any person authorised by the Minister for the purposes of this section; No. 70, 1975

“motor vehicle” means a motor car, motor carriage, motor cycle or other apparatus propelled wholly or partly by volatile spirit, steam, gas, oil or electricity.

(2) An authorised person may require a person whom he suspects on reasonable grounds to be offending against this Act, the regulations or the by-laws to state his full name and his place of abode.

(3) An authorised person may require the driver of a motor vehicle on vacant public lands to produce his driver's licence and to state his full name and his place of abode.

(4) A person shall not—

- (a) fail or refuse to comply with a requirement under subsection (2) or (3); or
- (b) in purported compliance with such a requirement, state a name that is not his name or a place of abode that is not his place of abode.
