

New South Wales

ANNO VICESIMO QUINTO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. 34, 1976.

An Act to reconstitute The Water Conservation and Irrigation Commission as the Water Resources Commission; to confer and impose certain powers, authorities, duties and functions on the Water Resources Commission with respect to the control, management and development of water resources of New South Wales and certain other matters; and to make consequential and other amendments to the Irrigation Act, 1912, and to certain other Acts. [Assented to, 1st April, 1976.]

BE

Water Resources Commission.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the "Water Resources Commission Act, 1976".

Commencement. 2. (1) This section and section 1 shall commence on the date of assent to this Act.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (1), the several provisions of this Act shall commence on such day or days as may be appointed by the Governor in respect thereof and as may be notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Interpretation. 3. (1) In this Act, except so far as the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires—

"Chief Commissioner" means the person appointed under this Act as the Chief Commissioner;

"Commission" means the Water Resources Commission constituted under this Act;

"commissioner" means a person appointed under this Act as a commissioner, but does not include the Chief Commissioner;

"full-time commissioner" means a commissioner appointed under section 5 (a);

"part-time commissioner" means a commissioner appointed under section 5 (b);

"public authority" means any government department, any statutory body representing the Crown, any city, municipal or shire council or county council, or any other body declared under subsection (2) (a) to be a public authority for the purposes of this Act;

"statutory

Water Resources Commission.

“statutory body” means a body declared under subsection (2) (b) to be a statutory body for the purposes of this Act;

“sub-surface water” means water occurring naturally under the surface of the ground whatever may be the geological structure in which it is standing or moving.

(2) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette—

- (a) declare any body constituted by or under statute to be a public authority for the purposes of this Act; and
- (b) declare any body constituted by or under statute to be a statutory body for the purposes of this Act.

4. (1) The Governor may, subject to this Act, appoint a Chief Commissioner who is hereby incorporated as a corporation sole under the corporate name of “Water Resources Commission.”

(2) The Commission—

- (a) has perpetual succession;
- (b) shall have an official seal;
- (c) may take proceedings, and be proceeded against, in its corporate name;
- (d) may, subject to this Act, purchase, exchange, take on lease, hold, dispose of by way of lease or sale, and otherwise deal with property;
- (e) may do and suffer all other things that corporations may, by law, do and suffer and that are necessary for or incidental to the purposes for which it is constituted;

(f)

Water Resources Commission.

- (f) shall, in the exercise and performance of its powers, authorities, duties and functions under this or any other Act, be subject to the control and direction of the Minister; and
- (g) is, for the purposes of any Act, a statutory body representing the Crown.

(3) The seal of the Commission shall be kept by the Chief Commissioner and shall not be affixed to any instrument or writing except in the presence of the Chief Commissioner or a commissioner or of some other person who is authorised by the Chief Commissioner to affix the seal to the instrument or writing, and the Chief Commissioner or commissioner, or the person so authorised, shall attest by his signature the fact and date of the seal being so affixed.

(4) All courts and persons acting judicially—

- (a) shall take judicial notice of the seal of the Commission that has been affixed to an instrument or writing; and
- (b) shall, until the contrary is proved, presume that the seal was properly affixed.

Appointment of commissioners.

5. The Governor may, subject to this Act, appoint—
- (a) 2 full-time commissioners; and
 - (b) 2 part-time commissioners, to assist the Commission in the exercise and performance of its powers, authorities, duties and functions under this or any other Act.

Terms of appoint-
Chief
Commissioner and commissioners.

6. (1) The Chief Commissioner and a full-time commissioner shall be appointed on the nomination of the Minister and shall, subject to this Act, respectively be appointed for terms, not exceeding 7 years, specified in the instruments of their appointment.

Water Resources Commission.

(2) A part-time commissioner shall be appointed on the nomination of the Minister and shall, subject to this Act, be appointed for a term, not exceeding 3 years, specified in the instrument of his appointment.

(3) The Public Service Act, 1902, does not apply to or in respect of the appointment of the Chief Commissioner or a commissioner, and the Chief Commissioner and commissioners are not subject to that Act during their terms of office in their respective capacities as Chief Commissioner and commissioner.

(4) A person is not eligible for appointment or re-appointment as Chief Commissioner or as a commissioner if he is a person—

- (a) who is a bankrupt or who is applying to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, or whose debts are subject to a composition with his creditors or whose remuneration or allowances would, on his appointment, be subject to an assignment for their benefit;
- (b) who is a temporary patient, a continued treatment patient, a protected person or an incapable person within the meaning of the Mental Health Act, 1958, or a person under detention under Part VII of that Act;
- (c) who has been convicted of a crime or an offence, whether in New South Wales or elsewhere, and is serving a sentence of imprisonment in respect of that crime or offence; or
- (d) who has—
 - (i) in the case of the Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner, attained the age age of 65 years; or

Water Resources Commission.

(ii) in the case of a part-time commissioner, attained the age of 70 years.

(5) Schedule 1 has effect with respect to the Chief Commissioner and the commissioners.

Liability
for acts, etc., of Commission.

7. (1) No matter or thing done or omitted, and no contract entered into, by the Commission, and no matter or thing done or omitted by the Chief Commissioner or a commissioner acting in his official capacity or by any other person acting under the direction or as a delegate of the Commission, shall, if the matter or thing was done or omitted, or the contract was entered into, in good faith for the purposes of this Act or any other Act conferring or imposing powers, authorities, duties or functions on the Commission, render the Chief Commissioner, commissioner or person so acting personally liable to any action, liability, claim or demand.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) exempts the Chief Commissioner or a commissioner, or any person acting under the direction or as a delegate of the Commission, from liability to be surcharged with the amount of any payment which is disallowed by the Auditor-General and which the Chief Commissioner or that commissioner or person, as the case may be, authorised or joined in authorising.

Disposal
of money
by the Commission.

8. (1) Except where otherwise expressly provided by or under this or any other Act or unless the Treasurer has by instrument in writing directed or authorised money payable to the Commission from a source specified or described in the instrument to be disposed of in some other manner, all money paid or payable to the Commission under this or any other Act shall be collected and received by the Commission on account of, and shall be paid into, the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Water Resources Commission.

(2) The accounts of the Commission shall be audited by the Auditor-General who shall, in respect thereof, have all the powers conferred on the Auditor-General by any law for the time being in force relating to the audit of public accounts, and the Audit Act, 1902, shall apply to the Commission, the Chief Commissioner, the commissioners and the officers and employees of the Commission in the same manner as it applies to accounting officers of public departments.

9. (1) The Commission may appoint and employ such officers and employees as are necessary to enable it to exercise and perform its powers, authorities, duties and functions under this or any other Act.

Appointment
of officers and employees
of Commission.

(2) Every officer and employee of the Commission shall, subject to the terms of his appointment, continue in the service of the Commission at the will of the Commission only.

(3) All officers and employees of the Commission shall be subject to the sole control and governance of the Commission which may, where their remuneration or conditions of employment are not fixed in accordance with the provisions of any other Act or law, fix the salary or wages payable to those officers and employees and the conditions of their employment.

(4) Regulations may be made under section 16 for or with respect to the conditions of employment of persons in the service of the Commission.

(5) The regulations made for the purposes of subsection (4)—

(a) shall have effect subject to any award by which the Commission is bound made by a court of competent jurisdiction and to any industrial agreement to which the Commission is a party; and

(b) shall have effect notwithstanding subsection (3).

Water Resources Commission.

(6) An officer or employee of the Commission shall not, in respect of the same period of service, be entitled to claim a benefit under this Act and under another Act.

(7) Schedule 2 has effect with respect to the retirement of officers of the Commission.

Extended
leave.

10. Schedule 3 has effect with respect to the entitlement to extended leave of the Chief Commissioner, the full-time commissioners and the officers of the Commission.

Powers,
authorities, duties and functions
Commission.

11. (1) The Commission shall have and may exercise and perform the powers, authorities, duties and functions conferred or imposed on it by or under this or any other Act, and, in particular, shall have and may exercise and perform the following powers, authorities, duties and functions :—

- (a) the making of provision for—
 - (i) the systematic gauging and recording of the volume and flow of rivers and streams, and of the volume of lakes and lagoons, within New South Wales and of the effect of climatic conditions on those volumes; and
 - (ii) the gathering and recording of such data concerning the sub-surface water resources of New South Wales as the Commission considers to be practicable;
- (b) the collection, collating and interpretation of data concerning the quantity and quality of water resources in lakes, rivers, streams and lagoons and of sub-surface water resources;
- (c) the evaluation of present and future requirements for water in New South Wales;

(d)

Water Resources Commission.

- (d) the maintenance of a central repository of relevant data on water resources and on the use of those resources;
- (e) the carrying out of research for the purpose of improving the quality of water supplies;
- (f) the carrying out of works to provide for the more extensive use of water resources;
- (g) the investigation, evaluation, implementation and co-ordination of proposals for flood control and flood mitigation;
- (h) the development and management of river catchment areas as sources of water supplies and the co-ordination of—
 - (i) development schemes for river catchment areas; and
 - (ii) the management of river catchment areas;
- (i) the planning of the development of water resources in New South Wales;
- (j) the co-ordination of activities of public authorities with respect to water resources and the review of all proposals and projects of any public authority for the development of water resources;
- (k) the co-ordination and advancement of water policies with Commonwealth and interstate authorities;
- (l) the formulation, co-ordination and implementation of plans for the assessment, conservation, protection, replenishment, utilisation and distribution of the surface and sub-surface water resources of New South Wales;
- (m)

Water Resources Commission.

- (m) the formulation, co-ordination and implementation of plans for flood control works and the ascertaining of the nature and extent of land likely to be affected by those plans if implemented;
- (n) the carrying out of consultations, and the making of arrangements, with any public authority for the performance or undertaking by that authority of anything within that authority's powers which will affect the quantity or quality of the water resources of New South Wales or the management of those resources for the benefit of the public;
- (o) the carrying out of, or the commissioning of the carrying out of, and the co-ordination of, research into any matter relating to water resources;
- (p) the compilation and publication of information on any matter relating to water resources; and
- (q) the carrying out of such surveys, investigations, boring, drilling and exploration as it considers necessary or desirable to enable it effectively to carry out its powers, authorities, duties and functions under this or any other Act and, in particular, the carrying out of such surveys, investigations, boring, drilling and exploration as it considers necessary or desirable—
 - (i) to ascertain potential sites for works of water storage and water supply and the practicability and cost of constructing those works;
 - (ii) to ascertain the nature and extent of land capable of being supplied with water from any existing or proposed works of water storage or water supply and the means by which that land may be supplied with that water;
 - (iii)

Water Resources Commission.

- (iii) to ascertain the need and potential sites for flood control and flood mitigation works and the practicability and cost of constructing those works;
- (iv) to ascertain the nature and extent of land capable of being protected or partially protected by flood control or flood mitigation works from flooding or inundation;
- (v) to ascertain the existence and location of sub-surface waters and their nature and quality; and
- (vi) to enable the formation, co-ordination and implementation of plans for the assessment, conservation, protection, replenishment, utilisation and distribution of the surface and sub-surface water resources of New South Wales for the benefit of the public.

(2) The Commission may, in the exercise or performance of its powers, authorities, duties and functions under this or any other Act, by its officers, employees or agents enter on any land and do all such things as are required—

(a) for the purpose of—

- (i) making and carrying out such inspections, tests, investigations, surveys, experiments, boring, drilling and exploration as are necessary for the full and effective exercise or performance of its powers, authorities, duties and functions under this or any other Act;

(ii)

Water Resources Commission.

(ii) constructing, maintaining, operating or altering any works that it is empowered to construct or operate under this or any other Act; or

(iii) implementing any proposals or plans referred to in subsection (1); or

(b) for any other purpose connected with or related to or incidental to the exercise or performance of its powers, authorities, duties and functions under this or any other Act, notwithstanding that an easement or right to enter the land may not have been granted or acquired.

(3) In the exercise of a power conferred by subsection (2) the Commission shall ensure that no more damage than is necessary in the circumstances is inflicted and shall fully compensate any person who sustains damage in the course of the exercise of that power.

(4) A power conferred by subsection (2) is in addition to any other power relating to entry on to land conferred by or under this or any other Act.

(5) For the purpose of enabling the Commission to exercise or perform the powers, authorities, duties and functions conferred or imposed on the Commission by or under this or any other Act, a public authority shall, on receiving from the Commission a request in writing in that behalf and as far as is practicable having regard to all the circumstances of the matter, carry out such work, render such assistance or provide such information as may be specified in the request and as the authority is empowered by law to carry out, render or provide.

Water Resources Commission.

12. (1) The Commission may establish standing or special committees or councils for the purposes of assisting or advising the Commission in the exercise or performance of its powers, authorities, duties and functions under this or any other Act and may appoint as a member of any such committee or council any person who, in its opinion, appears to be qualified to be a member of that committee or council. Appointment of committees, etc., and delegations.

(2) The Commission shall appoint one of the members of a committee or council established under subsection (1) to be chairman of the committee or council and any such committee or council may, subject to any directions of the Commission, regulate its procedure in such manner as it thinks fit.

(3) The Commission may, by instrument in writing, delegate to any committee or council established under subsection (1), or to a commissioner or to any officer of the Commission, the exercise or performance of such of its powers (other than this power of delegation), authorities, duties and functions as may be specified in the instrument of delegation and may, by a similar instrument, revoke any such delegation either wholly or in part.

(4) A delegation under subsection (3) may be made subject to such conditions or such limitations as to the exercise or performance of any of the powers, authorities, duties or functions that have been delegated, or as to time or circumstance, as may be specified in the instrument of delegation.

(5) A power, authority, duty or function, the exercise or performance of which has been delegated under subsection (3) may, while the delegation remains unrevoked, be exercised or performed by the delegate from time to time in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

Water Resources Commission.

(6) Notwithstanding the making of any delegation under subsection (3), the Commission may continue to exercise or perform all or any of the powers, authorities, duties or functions that have been delegated.

(7) Any act, omission or thing done, omitted or undergone by a delegate while acting pursuant to a delegation made under subsection (3) shall have the same force and effect as if the act, omission or thing had been done, omitted or undergone by the Commission.

Limitation
proceedings.

13. All proceedings against the Commission for anything done or omitted or purporting to have been done or omitted under this Act or under any other Act (whether passed before or after the commencement of this section) which confers or imposes any power, authority, duty or function on the Commission, or in the exercise or performance of any power, authority, duty or function conferred or imposed by any such Act, shall be commenced within 3 years after the act or omission complained of was committed or made.

Notice
proceedings.

14. (1) No proceedings shall be commenced against the Commission or any person for anything done or omitted or purporting to have been done or omitted under this Act or under any other Act (whether passed before or after the commencement of this section) which confers or imposes any power, authority, duty or function on the Commission, or in the exercise or performance of any power, authority, duty or function conferred or imposed by any such Act, until 1 month at least after a notice in writing of the intended proceedings has been delivered to or left at the office of the Commission or person by the party intending to commence those proceedings, or by his attorney or agent.

Water Resources Commission.

(2) The notice shall clearly and explicitly state the cause of action and the court in which the proceedings are intended to be brought, and on the back of the notice there shall be endorsed the name and place of residence of the party intending to commence the proceedings and, if the notice was served by an attorney or agent, the name and place of residence or of business of that attorney or agent.

(3) A notice under this section shall not be deemed invalid by reason of any defect or inaccuracy therein unless the court before which the proceedings are tried is of opinion that the defendant in the action has been prejudiced in his defence by the defect or inaccuracy.

15. (1) If any irregularity, trespass, or other wrongful proceeding has been committed in the execution of this Act or of any other Act (whether passed before or after the commencement of this section) which confers or imposes any power, authority, duty or function on the Commission or in the exercise or performance of any power, authority, duty or function conferred or imposed by any such Act, and if, before proceedings are brought in respect thereof, tender of sufficient amends is made to the person injured, that person shall not recover in any such proceedings.

(2) If no such tender has been made, the defendant may, by leave of the court in which the proceedings are pending at any time before issue is joined, pay into court such sum of money as the defendant thinks fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into court.

16. (1) The Commission may, with the approval of the Governor, make regulations for or with respect to any matter that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out out or giving effect to this Act and, in particular, for or with respect to the control and regulation of officers and employees of the Commission.

(2) Regulations may be made so as to apply differently according to such factors as may be specified in the regulations.

Savings and transitional provisions.

17. Schedule 4 has effect.

Amendment of Irrigation Act, 1912.

18. The Irrigation Act, 1912, is amended in the manner set forth in Schedule 5.

Amendments to other Acts.

19. Each Act specified in Column 1 of Schedule 6 is amended in the manner specified opposite that Act in Column 2 of Schedule 6.

Sec. 6.

SCHEDULE 1.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER AND COMMISSIONERS.

Provisions relating to the Chief Commissioner and to commissioners generally.

1. (1) The Chief Commissioner and a full-time commissioner shall respectively devote the whole of their time to the duties of their office and shall respectively be paid—

- (a) remuneration in accordance with the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act, 1975; and
- (b) such travelling and subsistence allowances as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of each of them.

(2) A part-time commissioner shall be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of him.

(3) The Chief Commissioner and a commissioner or a person who has been Chief Commissioner or a commissioner shall, if otherwise qualified, be eligible for re-appointment as the Chief Commissioner or as a commissioner, as the case may be.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER AND COMMISSIONERS—continued.

(4) No person shall be concerned to inquire whether or not any occasion has arisen requiring or authorising a person to act in the office of a commissioner or requiring or authorising a commissioner to act in the office of the Chief Commissioner, and all acts or things done or omitted by the person or commissioner while so acting shall be as valid and effectual, and shall have the same consequences, as if they had been done or omitted by the commissioner in whose office the person was appointed to act or by the Chief Commissioner, as the case may be.

Casual
vacancy.

3. (1) The Chief Commissioner or a commissioner shall be deemed to have vacated his office—

- (a) if he dies;
- (b) if, being the Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner, he engages without the approval of the Governor in any paid employment outside the duties of his office;
- (c) if, being the Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner, he absents himself from duty for a period exceeding 14 consecutive days except—
 - (i) on leave granted by the Minister (which leave the Minister is hereby authorised to grant);
 - (ii) through illness or other unavoidable cause; or
 - (iii) pursuant to a right preserved by clause 4;
- (d) if he becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his creditors or makes an assignment of his remuneration or allowances as Chief Commissioner or as a commissioner, or of his estate, for their benefit;
- (e) if he becomes a temporary patient, a continued treatment patient, a protected person or an incapable person within the meaning of the Mental Health Act, 1958, or a person under detention under Part VII of that Act;
- (f) if he is convicted in New South Wales of a crime or an offence punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or more, or if he is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of a crime or an offence which, if committed in New South Wales, would be a crime or an offence so punishable;

COMMISSIONERS—continued.

- (g) if he resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Governor and the Governor accepts the resignation; or
- (h) if he is removed from office by the Governor for misbehaviour or incompetence under subclause (4).

(2) The Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner shall be deemed to have vacated his office on the day on which he attains the age of 65 years.

(3) A part-time commissioner shall be deemed to have vacated his office on the day on which he attains the age of 70 years.

(4) The Governor may remove the Chief Commissioner or a commissioner from office on the grounds of misbehaviour or incompetence.

4. (1) In this clause, "superannuation scheme" means a scheme, fund or arrangement under which any superannuation or retirement benefits are provided and which is established by or under any Act.

Preservation of certain rights of Chief Commissioner and commissioners.

(2) Subject to subclause (3) and to the terms of his appointment, where the Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner, immediately before his appointment as such, was—

- (a) an officer of the Public Service;
- (b) a contributor to a superannuation scheme;
- (c) an officer employed by a statutory body; or
- (d) a person in respect of whom provision was made by any Act that he retain any rights accrued or accruing to him as an officer or employee, he—

- (e) shall retain any rights and privileges accrued to him as such an officer, contributor or person;

(f) may continue to contribute to any superannuation scheme to which he was a contributor immediately before his appointment as Chief Commissioner or as a commissioner; and

(g) shall be entitled to receive any deferred or extended leave and any payment, pension or gratuity, as if he had continued to be such an officer, contributor or person during his service as Chief Commissioner or as a commissioner, as the case may be, and—

(h) his service as Chief Commissioner or as a commissioner shall be deemed to be service as an officer or employee for the purposes of any law under which those rights accrued or were accruing, under which he continues to contribute or by which that entitlement is conferred; and

(i) he shall be deemed to be an officer or employee and the Commission shall be deemed to be his employer for the purpose of the superannuation scheme to which he is entitled to contribute under this subclause.

(3) Where the Chief Commissioner or a commissioner—

(a) would, but for this subclause, be entitled under subclause (2) to contribute to a superannuation scheme, or to receive any payment, pension or gratuity under a superannuation scheme; and

(b) becomes a contributor to another superannuation scheme (whether on his appointment as Chief Commissioner or as a commissioner or at any later time while he holds office as such), he ceases to be so entitled and subclause (2) (i) ceases to apply to or in respect of him.

(4) Subclause (3) does not prevent the payment to the Chief Commissioner or to a commissioner, on his ceasing to be a contributor to a superannuation scheme, of such amount as would have been payable to him if he had ceased, by reason of resignation, to be an officer or employee for the purposes of that scheme.

(5) Neither the Chief Commissioner nor a commissioner shall, in respect of the same period of service, be entitled to claim a benefit under this Act and another Act.

5. (1) In this clause—

“officer or employee of a prescribed authority” does not include the Chief Commissioner, a commissioner or a member of any other statutory body;

“prescribed authority” means the Commission and any other statutory body;

“retiring age” means—

(a) in relation to a person who was, immediately before his appointment as Chief Commissioner or as a full-time commissioner, an officer of the Public Service—the age of 60 years; and

(b) in relation to a person who was, immediately before his appointment as Chief Commissioner or as a full-time commissioner, an officer or employee of a prescribed authority—the age at which officers or employees (being officers or employees of the class to which that person belonged immediately before his appointment as Chief Commissioner or as a commissioner) of that prescribed authority are entitled to retire.

Chief Commissioner and commissioners entitled to re-appointment in former employment in certain cases.

(2) Where the Chief Commissioner ceases to hold office as such, otherwise than pursuant to clause 3 (1) (paragraph (g) excepted), and—

(a) was, immediately before his appointment as Chief Commissioner; or

(b) in the case of a Chief Commissioner who, before his appointment as such, held office as a full-time commissioner, was, immediately before his appointment as a full-time commissioner, an officer of the Public Service or an officer or employee of a prescribed authority, he shall, if he has not attained the retiring age, be entitled to be appointed to some office in the Public Service or, as

SCHEDULE 2.

RETIREMENT OF OFFICERS.

Officers between 60 and 65 years of age entitled or may be called upon to retire.

1. (1) Every officer of the Commission shall, subject to the Superannuation Act, 1916, be entitled if he desires so to do, having attained the age of 60 years, to retire from the service of the Commission.

(2) Any such officer may, unless called upon to retire as provided in subclause (3) and subject to the Superannuation Act, 1916, continue in the service of the Commission until he attains the age of 65 years.

(3) If any such officer continues in the service of the Commission after he has attained the age of 60 years, he may, at any time before he attains the age of 65 years, be called upon by the Commission to retire, and every such officer so called upon to retire shall retire accordingly.

Officers on attaining 65 years of age to retire unless called on to continue.

2. (1) Every officer of the Commission shall, immediately on attaining the age of 65 years, retire from the service of the Commission, unless, notwithstanding his age, he continues in the service of the Commission as provided in subclause (2).

RETIREMENT OF OFFICERS—continued.

(2) Where any officer of the Commission has attained the age of 65 years and is willing to continue in the service of the Commission, the Commission may, from time to time, continue to employ that officer for such fixed period not exceeding 12 months as the Commission in each case determines.

SCHEDULE 3.

Sec. 10.

EXTENDED LEAVE.

1. (1) Subject to this clause, the Chief Commissioner, a full-time commissioner or an officer of the Commission shall be entitled— Leave of absence after years of service.
- (a) after 10 years' service, to leave for 2 months on full pay or 4 months on half pay; and
 - (b) after service in excess of 10 years, to—
 - (i) leave pursuant to paragraph (a); and
 - (ii) in addition, an amount of leave proportionate to his length of service after 10 years, calculated on the basis of 5 months on full pay, or 10 months on half pay, for 10 years served after service for 10 years.
- (2) For the purpose of calculating the entitlement of a person to extended leave under this clause at any time—
- (a) "service" includes service with The Water Conservation and Irrigation Commission, as a Chief Commissioner, a Commissioner or an officer;
 - (b) there shall be deducted from the amount of extended leave to which, but for this paragraph, that person would be entitled—
 - (i) any extended leave, or leave in the nature of extended leave; and
 - (ii) the equivalent, in extended leave, of any benefit instead of extended leave or leave in the nature of extended leave, taken or received by that person before that time, including any such leave taken, or benefit received, by that person pursuant to a repealed provision of the Irrigation Act, 1912; and

- (c) the provisions of the Transferred Officers Extended Leave Act, 1961, shall have effect, but nothing in this subclause shall be construed as authorising, in respect of the same period of leave taken or the same benefit received, a deduction under both paragraph (b) and section 3 (7) of the Transferred Officers Extended Leave Act, 1961.

(3) Where—

- (a) a Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner vacates his office under clause 3 (1) (e) of Schedule 1 or under clause 3 (1) (g) of that Schedule on account of illness, incapacity or domestic or other pressing necessity; or
- (b) the services of an officer of the Commission are terminated by the Commission for any reason other than the officer's serious and wilful misconduct or by the officer on account of illness, incapacity or domestic or other pressing necessity, and that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer has had at least 5 years' service as an adult and less than 10 years' service, he shall be entitled for 5 years' service to 1 month's leave on full pay and for service after 5 years to a proportionate amount of leave on full pay calculated on the basis of 3 months' leave for 15 years' service (that service to include service as an adult and otherwise than as an adult).

(4) For the purposes of subclause (3), "service as an adult"—

- (a) in the case of an officer of the Commission employed to do any work for which the remuneration has been fixed by an award made under the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904, as subsequently amended, or made under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, or has been fixed by an industrial agreement made pursuant to or registered under either of those Acts—means the period of service during which the remuneration applicable to the officer was at a rate not lower than the lowest rate fixed under the award or industrial agreement for an adult male or adult female in the same trade, classification or calling as the officer; or

- (b) in the case of a Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner, or of an officer of the Commission employed to do any work for which the remuneration has not been fixed by an award or industrial agreement referred to in paragraph (a)—means the period of service during which that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer was not less than 21 years of age.
- (5) For the purposes of subclause (1), “service” includes—
- (a) any period of leave without pay taken before the commencement of the Public Service and Other Statutory Bodies (Extended Leave) Amendment Act, 1963, while holding appointment as a commissioner or an officer of The Water Conservation and Irrigation Commission; and
- (b) in the case of a Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner, or an officer of the Commission, who has completed at least 10 years’ service (any period of leave without pay taken before that commencement being included therein, and any period of leave without pay taken after that commencement being excluded therefrom)—any period of leave without pay, not exceeding 6 months, taken after that commencement.
- (6) For the purposes of subclause (3), “service” does not include any period of leave without pay whether taken before or after the commencement of the Public Service and Other Statutory Bodies (Extended Leave) Amendment Act, 1963.
- (7) Where the Chief Commissioner, a full-time commissioner or an officer appointed to the service of the Commission was, immediately before that appointment, an officer of the Public Service or an officer in the employment of the Rural Bank of New South Wales or of any statutory body representing the Crown, his service as an officer of the Public Service or in the employment of that Bank or statutory body shall be deemed to be service with the Commission for the purposes of this clause, but no person shall be entitled to claim benefits under this clause as well as under any other provision of this Act or under any other Act in respect of the same period of service.
2. (1) Where a Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner or an officer of the Commission has acquired a right under clause 1 (1) to extended leave with pay and dies before commencing it or after commencing it dies before its termination—

- (a) the widow or widower of that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer; or
- (b) if there is no such widow or widower, the children of that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer; or
- (c) if there is no such widow, widower or children, the person who, in the opinion of the Commission, was, at the time of the death of that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer, a dependent relative of that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer, shall be entitled to receive the money value of the leave not taken, or not completed, computed at the rate of remuneration that that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer received at the time of his or her death less any amount paid to that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer in respect of the leave not taken, or not completed.

(2) Where a Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner, or an officer of the Commission, with at least 5 years' service as an adult and less than 10 years' service as referred to in clause 1 (3) dies—

- (a) the widow or widower of that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer; or
- (b) if there is no such widow or widower, the children of that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer; or
- (c) if there is no such widow, widower or children, the person who, in the opinion of the Commission, was, at the time of the death of that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer, a dependent relative of that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer, shall be entitled to receive the money value of the leave which would have accrued to that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer had he vacated office or, as the case may be, had his services terminated as referred to in clause 1 (3), computed at the rate of remuneration that that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer received at the time of his death.

(3) Where there is a guardian of any children entitled under subclause (1) or (2), the payment to which those children are entitled may be made to that guardian for their maintenance, education and advancement.

(4) Where there is no person entitled under subclause (1) or (2) to receive the money value of any leave not taken or not completed by a Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner or by an officer of the Commission or which would have accrued to a Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner or an officer of the Commission, payment in respect thereof shall be made to the personal representatives of that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer, as the case may require.

(5) Any payment under this clause shall be in addition to any payment due under the Superannuation Act, 1916.

(6) Where payment of the money value of leave has been made under this Act, no proceedings may be brought against the Crown or the Commission for payment of any amount in respect of that leave.

3. (1) Where a Chief Commissioner or a full-time commissioner or an officer of the Commission has acquired a right to extended leave with pay under clause 1 (1) or (3), he shall, on vacating his office or, as the case may be, on the termination of his service, be paid forthwith instead of that leave the money value thereof as a gratuity in addition to any gratuity to which he may be otherwise entitled. ^{Gratuity instead of extended leave.}

(2) Any pension to which that Chief Commissioner, commissioner or officer is entitled under the Superannuation Act, 1916, shall commence from the date on which his extended leave, if taken, would have commenced.
