- (b) where the land is vested in or held on trust for an existing affiliated church—the assent by resolution of a majority of members of that church present and voting at a duly convened meeting, being assents given on or after the appointed day.

- (4) A certificate under the hand of the ministerial or lay secretary for the time being of the Assembly shall be conclusive evidence of the assent referred to in subsection (3) (a).

8. (1) The Fellowship shall hold land described in Schedule 5 that is vested in it by section 6, and land that becomes vested in it pursuant to section 7, subject to the provisions of and upon the trusts of Schedule 3. Provisions affecting property of the Fellowship.

(2) The Fellowship shall hold property (other than land referred to in subsection (1)) in trust for the purposes of the Fellowship and upon any other trust affecting the property.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), the Fellowship shall hold property (other than land referred to in subsection (1)) in accordance with the directions and resolutions of the Assembly.

(4) All land which pursuant to section 6 or 7 becomes vested in the Fellowship is freed and discharged from all of the provisions and trusts of The Congregational Union Incorporation Act.

*Fellowship of Congregational Churches (New South Wales)
Incorporation.*

(5) Except in relation to the trusts declared by The Congregational Union Incorporation Act, the vesting effected by section 6 or 7 shall be without prejudice to—

- (a) any special trust;
- (b) any resulting trust;
- (c) any trust in favour of a donor; and
- (d) any reservation, mortgage, charge, encumbrance, lien or lease, that, immediately before the vesting, affected the land vested.

(6) No attornment to the Fellowship by any lessees of land vested in it by section 6 or 7 shall be necessary.

(7) In this section, "special trust" means any trust other than a trust for the general purposes of the Fellowship.

day.

9. (1) Subject to this Act, any land described in Schedule 7 that, immediately before the appointed day, was vested in The Congregational Union of New South Wales is hereby divested from that Union and is, to the extent that it was so vested immediately before that day, hereby vested (without conveyance) in the persons specified in that Schedule opposite the description of the land.

(2) The land described in Schedule 7 shall be held by the persons in whom it is vested by subsection (1) as trustees.

(3) The trustees of any land described in Schedule 7 shall hold the land in trust for the Church specified in Schedule 7 opposite the description and upon any other trust affecting the land.

Incorporation.*

(4) Subject to subsection (3), the trustees of any land described in Schedule 7 shall hold the land in accordance with the directions and resolutions of meetings of the Church specified in that Schedule opposite the description of the land.

(5) The land described in Schedule 7 is freed and discharged from the provisions and trusts of The Congregational Union Incorporation Act.

(6) The vesting effected by subsection (1) shall be without prejudice to any reservation, mortgage, charge, encumbrance, lien, or lease, that, immediately before the appointed day, affected the land vested.

(7) It is hereby declared that the Trustee Act, 1925, applies to and in respect of the trustees referred to in this section.

10. (1) Where, with the consents for the time being and from time to time prescribed by the Assembly, an affiliated church has, at a duly convened meeting, resolved to enter into a scheme of co-operation with, or involving, a church of another denomination or any congregation or activity of such a church, being a scheme that involves the use of property vested in the Fellowship or in trustees under section 9, the Assembly may, while the scheme of co-operation continues in force, permit that property to be used, managed and administered in connection with that scheme in such manner and upon such conditions as the Assembly determines or prescribes. ^{Co-operative use of property.}

(2) The conditions that the Assembly may determine or prescribe under subsection (1) may include conditions with respect to the making of contributions of money for the acquisition, construction, alteration, maintenance or repair of assets vested in or held on behalf of a co-operating church or congregation upon such terms as to the giving of security or charges upon property vested in the Fellowship or in the trustees for any such contributions from other denominations and otherwise as may be so determined or prescribed, and any such contributions by or on behalf of an affiliated church or towards assets of or held on behalf of an affiliated church are, to the extent so determined at the time of the contributions, hereby so charged.

(3) Neither the Registrar-General nor any person dealing bona fide and for value with any property vested in the Fellowship or in the trustees shall be bound to inquire whether any security or charge referred to in subsection (2) exists or be deemed to have notice thereof or be bound thereby by virtue only of this Act or the existence of any scheme of co-operation under this section and—

- (a) a conveyance to such a person shall operate as a discharge of any security or charge so referred to, in so far as the property conveyed would, but for this subsection, be subject thereto; and
- (b) a mortgage or charge in favour of such a person shall have priority over any security or charge so referred to that affects the property mortgaged or charged in favour of that person.

(4) The proceeds of the sale, mortgage or other dealing with property referred to in this section, and all money collected or held in respect of a scheme of co-operation may be applied in such manner as the Assembly determines or prescribes.

(5) The minister or other person in charge of the religious services of a congregation that has entered into a scheme of co-operation may be of a denomination other than that of the religious body known as Congregationalists or Independents and, if that minister or other person is of another denomination, he shall, so long as he is in charge of the religious services and so long as that scheme of co-operation is in force, have the rights of a minister that are specified in clause 4 of Schedule 3.

Incorporation.*

(6) Where an affiliated church has entered into a scheme of co-operation, the committee of management of that church may include members of any other congregation that is a party to the scheme of co-operation and those members may be of a denomination other than that of the religious body known as Congregationalists or Independents.

(7) The provisions of subsections (1), (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) shall apply to and in relation to all property at any time held on behalf of an affiliated church that has entered into a scheme of co-operation except to the extent that the property is held subject to any express trust expressly forbidding its use or administration in any manner referred to in those subsections.

(8) Subsection (7) shall not apply to prevent the use or administration of property in a manner referred to in subsections (1), (2), (4), (5) and (6) if the property is merely directed to be held on trust for worship according to the usages of the Congregational denomination commonly called Independents or the purposes of that denomination or of the Fellowship.

11. Any deed, instrument, document, gift, will or other provision beneficially in favour of The Congregational Union of New South Wales coming into effect on or after the appointed day shall be read and construed as though any reference therein to that Union were a reference to the Fellowship unless the context otherwise provides.
