(c) Section 10A (1A)—

After section 10A (1), insert :—

(1A) For the purposes of section 8A, where the Tribunal is satisfied that at the date upon which a mine worker is awarded a pension under this Act any female was recognised as his wife although not legally married to him, she shall, if the Tribunal so approves, be deemed to be his wife.

(d) Section 10A (6)—

After section 10A (5), insert :—

(6) For the purposes of this Division and notwithstanding anything contained therein, the Tribunal shall, as far as practicable, treat a couple, whether married or not, in such a way as, in the opinion of the Tribunal, is consistent with the way they are treated for the purposes of the Social Services Act or any other prescribed law of the Commonwealth.

(18) Section 10EA—

Omit the section, insert instead :—

10EA. (1) For the purposes of any provision of this Act in which there is a reference to the appropriate amount per week payable as a pension or addition to a pension, the appropriate amount per week payable to or in respect of a person who is described in Column 3 of Schedule 1 shall—

Appropriate amounts of pensions and additions thereto.

- (a) in the case of a person who is in receipt of, or eligible to receive, the pension or addition referred to in any such description on 26th March, 1978—be, as from that date; or

- (b) in the case of a person who becomes eligible therefor after that date—be, as from the date on which he becomes so eligible,

- (c) until—

- (i) except in the case of a person referred to in subparagraph (ii) or (iii)—the day immediately preceding the first mine workers' pension pay period occurring after the expiration of the period of 5 years commencing on the date on which the pension concerned became payable;
- (ii) in the case of a person who is in receipt of a pension under section 7 or 8 and who has not at the first mine workers' pension pay period occurring after the expiration of the period of 5 years referred to in subparagraph (i) attained the age of 60 years—the day immediately preceding the first mine workers' pension pay period occurring after the day on which he attains that age; or
- (iii) in the case of a person who is in receipt of a pension at the Special Rate of Pension referred to in the Second Schedule to the Repatriation Act 1920 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth as amended by subsequent Acts of that Parliament, or of any other prescribed class of pension under a law of the Commonwealth, and who has not attained the age of 65 years—the day immediately preceding the first mine workers' pension pay period after the day on which he attains that age, the amount specified in Column 4 of Schedule 1 opposite the relevant description; and

- (d) thereafter, the rate specified in Column 5 of that Schedule opposite that description.

(2) For the purposes of determining any period of 5 years referred to in subsection (1) (c), periods before 26th March, 1978, as well as periods after 25th March, 1978, shall be taken into account.

(3) Where, but for this subsection, a pension would be payable at 26th March, 1978, to a person at the rate specified in Column 5 of Schedule 1 (1), (2) or (3) and the amount of the pension would be less than the amount that would be payable as a pension (together with any addition under section 9 (1) (a) or (c)) had the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment Act, 1978, not been enacted, then subsection (1) (c) shall be construed as if it provided for 23rd September, 1978, to be the day until which the relevant amount specified in Column 4 of Schedule 1 is payable.

(4) Where, but for this subsection, the period of 5 years referred to in subsection (1) (c) applicable to a person expires after 26th March, 1978, but before 24th September, 1978, subsection (1) (c) shall be construed as if it provided for 23rd September, 1978, to be the day until which the relevant amount specified in Column 4 of Schedule 1 is payable.

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (1), (3) and (4), where, but for this subsection, a pension would be payable at 23rd September, 1978, to a person referred to in subsection (1) (c) (ii) at the rate specified in Column 5 of Schedule 1 (1) or (2) and the person was, in the opinion of the Tribunal, not at that date eligible for a pension under any law of the Commonwealth, then subsection (1) (c) shall, if the Tribunal in its discretion so directs, be construed as if it provided for the day immediately preceding the first mine workers' pension pay period occurring after—

- (a) the day on which he attains the age of 65 years; or
- (b) the day as from which, in the opinion of the Tribunal, he became eligible for a pension under any law of the Commonwealth, whichever first occurs, to be the day until which the relevant amount specified in Column 4 of Schedule 1 is payable.

(6) For the purposes of this section, a person in receipt of, or eligible to receive, a pension under section 6, 7 or 8 for any period before 26th March, 1978, shall—

- (a) be deemed to have been in receipt of the pension at the single man's rate for any part thereof during which he did not receive, or was not eligible for, an addition under section 9 (1) (a) or (c) of this Act as in force at any time before that date; and
- (b) be deemed to have been in receipt of the pension at the married man's rate for any part thereof during which he received, or was eligible for, such an addition.

(7) For the purposes of determining any period of 5 years referred to in subsection (1) (c)—

- (a) any period during which a person received a pension at the single man's rate shall be deemed also to be a period during which he received a pension at the married man's rate;
- (b) any period during which a person received a pension at the married man's rate shall be deemed also to be a period during which he received a pension at the single man's rate; and
- (c) any period during which a person received a pension at the married man's rate shall be deemed also to be a period during which his widow, or a female treated under this Act as his wife, received a pension.

(8) Nothing in this section affects anything contained in section 11A.

19) (a) Section 10F (1)–(3)—

Omit the subsections, insert instead :—

(1) Where there is a variation in the amount of the Reference Rate, the Minister, on the recommendation of the Tribunal, shall, by order published in the Gazette as soon as practicable after the variation, amend Column 4 of Schedule 1—

- (a) by omitting the reference to the amount in Item (1) and by inserting instead a reference to the amount that equals 35 per cent. of the Reference Rate;
- (b) by omitting the reference to the amount in Item (2) and by inserting instead a reference to the amount that equals 50 per cent. of the Reference Rate;

- (d) by omitting the reference to the amount in Item (4) and by inserting instead a reference to the amount that equals the amount specified in Column 4 of the Item.

- (b) Section 10F (4)—

Omit “the Schedule”, insert instead “Schedule 1”.

- (c) Section 10F (5)—

After “before”, insert “, on”.

- (d) Section 10F (7)—

Omit “or 13”.

- (e) Section 10F (8), (9)—

After section 10F (7), insert :—

(8) Where there is a variation in the amount of the Reference Rate, a reference in subsection (2) to the amount specified in Column 4 of an Item of Schedule 1 is a reference to such amount as is, in accordance with subsection (1), inserted or to be inserted in that Column in consequence of that variation.

(9) Notwithstanding anything in this section, any amount to be inserted in Schedule 1 in pursuance of this section may be rounded off in such manner as the Minister, on the recommendation of the Tribunal, thinks proper, but so that the variation authorised by this subsection does not exceed 5 cents.

14A.

(2) Where a variation of the Reference Rate takes effect under section 2 (5) on or after 26th March, 1978, but before 26th March, 1979, and that variation was not made after 26th March, 1979, the Minister, on the recommendation of the Tribunal, shall, by an order published in the Gazette as soon as practicable after the variation—

- (a) vary the prescribed amount in line with and by the same percentage as the Reference Rate was varied; and
- (b) specify the date as from which the variation takes effect, being the date the variation of the Reference Rate takes effect.

(3) After 26th March, 1979, the Minister, on the recommendation of the Tribunal (made by it after taking into consideration the recommendation of the actuary made in connection therewith and contained in a report furnished under section 27), may, by an order published in the Gazette—

- (a) vary the prescribed amount; and
- (b) specify the date as from which the variation takes effect.

(4) A date specified in an order published under subsection (2) or (3) may be a date that is before, on or after the date of publication of the order in the Gazette, and, in the case of an order published under subsection (3), before, on or after 26th March, 1979.

(5) A variation shall not be made under subsection (3) that would result in the prescribed amount being greater than it would be if it were varied in line with and by the same percentage as variations in the Reference Rate.

(6) Where, but for this subsection, the prescribed amount would include a fraction of a cent, that fraction shall, if less than half a cent, be disregarded, or shall, if half a cent or more, be treated as 1 cent.

- (b) had the reference in section 14A (1) to 26th March, 1978, been a reference to the date of retirement, but reduced by the amount of any pension or additions thereto paid to or in respect of him, or consequent upon his death, since the date of retirement.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), section 14A (6) (a) does not apply to any pension or addition paid to or in respect of the person referred to in subsection (1), or consequent upon his death, since the date of retirement.

(3) Upon payment of a lump sum benefit pursuant to an application made by a person under this section, no pension or addition thereto is thereafter payable to or in respect of him or consequent upon his death.

(4) The Tribunal—

- (a) may refrain from approving an application under this section during the period of 139 days after the date of retirement of the applicant, although satisfied that the application is such as may otherwise be approved; but
- (b) shall not, in any case, approve such an application before 26th May, 1978.

(5) If a person dies after making an application under this section, but before payment of the lump sum benefit, the benefit shall, when the application is approved, be paid to his personal representatives.

(6) An application under this section may be withdrawn at any time before it is approved.

Lump sum
benefit
payment on death of mine worker.

14D. (1) In this section—

“child”, in relation to a mine worker referred to in subsection (2), means his child or step-child under the age of 18 years;

“prescribed dependent amount”, in relation to a mine worker referred to in subsection (3), means the amount that equals 240 times the amount that is the prescribed amount (as referred to in section 14B) as at the date of his death;

“relative” means brother, sister, step-brother, step-sister, grandmother, grandfather, grandson or granddaughter.

(2) Where a mine worker dies on or after 26th March, 1978, while engaged in the coal or oil shale mining industries or during an authorised period, and a lump sum benefit has not been paid or is not payable under any other section of this Division to or in respect of the mine worker or consequent upon his death—

(a) his widow is entitled to a lump sum benefit payment of the prescribed dependent amount;

(b) if a benefit is payable under paragraph (a)—each of his dependent children is entitled to a lump sum benefit payment as follows :—

(i) where there are not more than 3 dependent children—the lump sum benefit for each such child is an amount equal to one-third of the prescribed dependent amount; or

- (ii) where there are more than 3 dependent children—the lump sum benefit for each such child is an amount equal to the prescribed dependent amount divided by the number of such dependent children;
- (c) if a benefit is not payable under paragraph (a)—each of his dependent children is entitled to a lump sum benefit payment as follows :—
  - (i) where there are not more than 3 dependent children—the lump sum benefit for each such child is an amount equal to two-thirds of the prescribed dependent amount; or
  - (ii) where there are more than 3 dependent children—the lump sum benefit for each such child is an amount equal to twice the prescribed dependent amount divided by the number of such dependent children; and
- (d) if there are fewer than 3 dependent children—
  - (i) each of his dependent parents is entitled to a lump sum benefit payment of three-quarters of the prescribed dependent amount;
  - (ii) each of his dependent relatives is entitled to a lump sum benefit payment of one-half of the prescribed dependent amount; and
  - (iii) each of his other dependants is entitled to a lump sum benefit payment of one-quarter of the prescribed dependent amount, unless entitled to a benefit under any other provision of this subsection.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person is dependent on a mine worker referred to in subsection (2), only if the Tribunal is satisfied that the person was totally or mainly dependent for financial support on the mine worker at the date of the mine worker's death or, in the case of a child of the mine worker, that the child had not attained the age of 16 years at that date.

(4) Where the wife of a mine worker referred to in subsection (2) dies—

(a) at the same moment as he dies or in circumstances rendering it uncertain which of them survived the other; or

(b) within 48 hours before he dies, she shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to have been alive at the time of his death.

(5) For the purposes of this section, where there is no wife or widow of a mine worker referred to in subsection (2), a woman who was recognised as his wife although not legally married to him shall, if the Tribunal so approves, be deemed to be his wife or widow.

(6) The lump sum benefit to which a child is entitled under this section is payable to one of the child's parents or guardians for the child's support and education or to the child as soon as practicable after his attaining the age of 18 years.

(7) The maximum total amount payable under this section consequent upon the death of a mine worker shall not exceed double the prescribed dependent amount, and where, but for this subsection, that amount would be exceeded, the benefits payable under subsection (2) (d) shall, to the necessary extent, be reduced proportionately or, if necessary, not be paid.

14E. (1) Where a mine worker—

(a) proves to the satisfaction of the Tribunal—

(i) that he has been incapacitated by injury during a period when he was engaged in the coal or oil shale mining industries;

(ii) that by reason of his incapacity he is unable to continue his engagement in those industries and that the date of his disability was on or after 26th March, 1978; and

(iii) that the incapacity is likely to be permanent and is of a major and effectively disabling kind;

(b) has not been awarded a pension under section 6, and is not entitled to a lump sum benefit payment under section 14A, in respect of the incapacity; and

(c) has submitted himself to any examination required under subsection (3), he is entitled to a lump sum benefit payment of the amount determined under subsection (2).

(2) The amount of a lump sum benefit payable under this section is—

(a) where the Tribunal is satisfied that the incapacity was caused by injury as a mine worker—an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to him under section 14A—

(i) had he continued being engaged in the coal or oil shale mining industries until the date of retirement;

- (ii) had section 14A (1) (a) and (b) not been enacted; and
  - (iii) had the reference in section 14A (3) to his date of retirement been a reference to the date of his disability; or
- (b) in any other case—an amount equal to a percentage of the amount referred to in paragraph (a), being 10 per cent. of that amount, together with a further 10 per cent. for each completed year of his engagement in the coal or oil shale mining industries before the date of his disability, to a maximum of 100 per cent.

(3) The Tribunal may require an applicant for payment of a lump sum benefit under this section to submit himself to examination by a panel of 3 medical practitioners nominated by the Tribunal and the Tribunal shall, in making any such nomination, have regard to any representations made in regard thereto by the applicant.

(4) A person is not entitled to a lump sum benefit payment where the incapacity was caused by his act or default intended by him to produce that incapacity.

(5) For the purposes of this section, the date on which a person's incapacity arises and the date of his disability shall be deemed to be such date or dates as may be determined by the Tribunal, and the Tribunal shall, in making a determination under this subsection, have regard to all the circumstances of the case, including—

- (a) his medical and employment history; and
- (b) the date on which he ceased to be able to be effectively employed as a mine worker.

(6) In this section, a reference to—

- (a) injury includes a reference to illness; and
- (b) the date of a mine worker's disability is a reference to the date on which he becomes unable to continue his engagement in the coal or oil shale mining industries by reason of incapacity referred to in this section.

14F. (1) Where a person, who is in receipt of or eligible for a pension under section 7 or 8 by reason of incapacity, became eligible for the pension on or after 7th November, 1977, but before 26th March, 1978, he is, on application made to the Tribunal before 26th May, 1978, entitled to the lump sum benefit payment to which he would have been entitled under section 14E—

Lump sum
benefit

- (a) had the amendments made by the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Amendment Act, 1978, been in force at the date he became eligible for the pension; and
- (b) had the words "has not been awarded a pension under section 6, and" been omitted from section 14E (1) (b), but reduced by the amount of any pension or additions thereto paid for or in respect of him, or consequent upon his death, since he became eligible for the pension.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), section 14A (6) (a) does not apply to any pension or addition paid to or in respect of the person referred to in subsection (1), or consequent upon his death, since the date he became eligible for the pension.

(3) Upon payment of a lump sum benefit pursuant to an application made by a person under this section, no pension or addition thereto is thereafter payable to or in respect of him or consequent upon his death.

(4) The Tribunal—

- (a) may refrain from approving an application under this section during the period of 139 days after the date the applicant became eligible for the pension, although satisfied that the application is such as may otherwise be approved; but
- (b) shall not, in any case, approve such an application before 26th May, 1978.

(5) If a person dies after making an application under this section, but before payment of the lump sum benefit, the benefit shall, when the application is approved, be paid to his personal representatives.

(6) An application under this section may be withdrawn at any time before it is approved.

Certain periods not be counted.

14G. For the purposes of this Division, a mine worker shall not be deemed to be “engaged in the coal or oil shale mining industries” by reason of the operation of section 2 (2) (b) or (c).

Applications for lump sum benefit payment.

14H. (1) Every application for a lump sum benefit payment—

- (a) shall be in or to the effect of a form approved by the Tribunal;
- (b) shall contain such particulars as may be approved by the Tribunal;
- (c) shall be verified by statutory declaration; and
- (d) shall be lodged with or forwarded to the Registrar.

(2) Upon receipt of any such application the Registrar shall make or cause to be made such investigations as appear to him desirable or as may be directed, either generally or in any particular case, by the Chairman or by the Tribunal.

(4) The Tribunal shall thereupon consider the application and report.

(5) The Tribunal may allow or disallow the application or may refer the application to the Workers' Compensation Commission.

(6) The Workers' Compensation Commission shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any application referred to it under this section.

(7) The power to make rules conferred on the Workers' Compensation Commission by the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, shall extend to the making of rules for regulating the procedure and practice of the Commission in dealing with applications referred to it under this section and for prescribing all matters which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed by rules in relation to the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred upon the Commission by this section.

(8) The decision of the Workers' Compensation Commission on any application referred to it under this section shall be final and conclusive and shall be binding upon the applicant and the Tribunal.

(9) Where the Tribunal allows the application it shall, in its determination, specify the number of completed calendar months of employment as a mine worker in respect of which the lump sum benefit payment is payable under this Act.

SCHEDULE 2.

Sec. 6.

SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.

(1) The Minister, on the recommendation of the Superannuation Tribunal, shall, by an order published in the Gazette as soon as practicable after the date of assent to this Act, specify the weekly rate of wage payable for the classification of loaderman in an industrial award applying to the coal mining industry in New South Wales.

(2) An order under item (1) shall be deemed to have been made under section 2 (5) of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, for the purposes of the definition of "Reference Rate" in section 2 (1) of that Act, and shall take effect or be deemed to have taken effect (as the case may require) on and from 26th March, 1978.

(3) Where an addition to a pension was payable, immediately before the commencement of this item, under section 9 (5) or (5A) of the Principal Act as in force before that commencement, the addition shall be deemed to have been awarded by the Superannuation Tribunal under section 9 (5) or (5A) (as the case may be) of that Act, as amended by this Act, unless the addition was revoked by the Tribunal with effect from that commencement.

(4) Any amounts paid before 26th March, 1978, under section 19 (4) of the Principal Act in respect of the year commencing on 1st July, 1977, shall be deemed to have been paid under section 19 (4) of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act.

(5) Nothing in this Act takes away the right to a pension under the Principal Act of a person who was in receipt of or eligible for the pension immediately before 26th March, 1978, but such a person shall be entitled thereto to in accordance with and at the rates prescribed by the Principal Act, as amended by this Act.

(6) Without affecting the generality of Division 2 of Part II of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, where, but for this Act, a person in receipt of or eligible for an addition under section 9 (1) (a) or (c) of the Principal Act immediately before 26th March, 1978, would be entitled to the addition for any period commencing on 26th March, 1978, he is entitled instead to a pension at the married man's rate, as referred to in the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, in respect of that period.

(7) Notwithstanding the repeal by this Act of the provisions of section 9 (1) (a) and (c), (1A) and (1B) of the Principal Act, those provisions apply to and in respect of—

(a) the period commencing on 1st January, 1978, and ending on 25th March, 1978; and

(b) any previous period, as if this Act had not been enacted, but as if the period referred to in paragraph (a) were a prescribed period within the meaning of section 9 (1A) of the Principal Act.

(8) Nothing in the Interpretation Act, 1897, requires an actuarial examination or report to be made under section 27 of the Principal Act after the repeal of that section by this Act.

(9) Section 10F of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, shall, but only if the Minister so approves by instrument in writing, apply to and in respect of a variation of a kind referred to in that section and made before 26th March, 1978.
