

MOTOR TRAFFIC (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1979,
No. 157

New South Wales

ANNO VICESIMO OCTAVO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. 157, 1979.

An Act to amend section 10 (3A) of the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, with respect to the disqualification of a person for holding a driver's license upon his conviction for certain offences, and for other purposes. [Assented to, 10th December, 1979.]

Motor Traffic (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the "Motor Traffic (Amendment) Act, 1979".

Amendment of Act No. 5, 1909. 2. The Motor Traffic Act, 1909, is amended—

Sec. 3. (Regulations.) (a) by omitting section 3 (2) (e);

Sec. 10. (Court may impose penalty and suspend license upon conviction, etc.) (b) (i) by inserting in section 10 (3A) (a) (i) after the word "shorter" the words "(but not shorter than 3 months)";

(ii) by inserting in section 10 (3A) (a) (ii) after the word "shorter" the words "(but not shorter than 6 months)";

Sec. 21. (Commissioner to notify certain decisions to certain persons.) (c) by omitting from section 21 (4) (c) the words "it is withdrawn." and by inserting instead the following :—

it is withdrawn, and, where the license suspended by the Commissioner has expired and been renewed, shall so have effect with respect to the renewed license.

Saving. 3. The amendment made by section 2 (b) does not apply in respect of a conviction of a crime or offence of the class referred to in section 10 (3A) (a) of the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, that was committed before the date of assent to this Act.
