PART III.

APPEALS TO THE TRIBUNAL.

DIVISION 1.—Promotions Appeals.

19. (1) Except as provided by subsections (2) and (3), each employer shall publish and distribute to its employees, at intervals of not more than one month, a notice, in the prescribed form, containing particulars of any decision to appoint or recommend the appointment of an employee of the employer to fill a vacant office in the establishment of the employer, particulars of which have not previously been published in accordance with this subsection. Publication of notices.

---

Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal.

---

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) applies to or in respect of an employer who is required, by or under any other Act, to give a notice to its employees containing particulars of the kind referred to in that subsection.

(3) The Senior Chairman may, on application by an employer, permit the employer to notify its employees of particulars of the kind referred to in subsection (1) by means of an approved form.

Right of appeal.

20. Subject to and in accordance with this Part, where an employer has made a decision to appoint or recommend the appointment of one of its employees to fill a vacant office in the establishment of the employer, any other employee of the employer may appeal against that decision to the Tribunal on the ground that the appellant is, having regard to the provisions of any Act, statutory instrument, industrial award or agreement or any advertisement published bona fide in relation to the vacant office, being an Act, statutory instrument, industrial award or agreement or advertisement which is required to be applied or taken into consideration by the employer in respect of an appointment to the vacant office, more entitled to be appointed to the vacant office than the employee in whose favour the decision is made.

Excluded
circumstances.

21. (1) An employee is not entitled to appeal under section 20 in respect of the decision of an employer relating to a vacant office—

- (a) if the appointment to the vacant office is not a permanent appointment;
- (b) if the vacant office is an office specified in Schedule 1, 2 or 3 to the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act, 1975;
- (c) if the vacant office is in the Special Division of the Public Service;

Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal.

- (d) if the maximum salary applicable to the vacant office at the date of the decision of the employer exceeds—
  - (i) except as provided in subparagraph (ii)—the amount equal to the maximum salary applicable to an office graded Grade 11 in the Administrative and Clerical Division of the Public Service; or
  - (ii) where another amount is prescribed—that other amount;
- (e) unless the maximum salary applicable to the vacant office is greater than the salary paid, at the date of the decision of the employer, to the appellant in relation to the office held by him at that date;
- (f) unless the maximum salary applicable to the vacant office is greater than the salary paid, at the date of the decision of the employer, to the employee in whose favour that decision is made in relation to the office held by him at that date;
- (g) unless, where an invitation to apply for appointment to the vacant office was published in a notice given by the employer to its employees or in a newspaper, he duly made application for appointment to the vacant office or had reasonable cause for failing to do so;
- (h) unless he satisfies the minimum requirements, in relation to the vacant office, of any Act, statutory instrument, industrial award or agreement or advertisement referred to in section 20;
- (i) unless he is willing to take up duties in the vacant office; or
- (j) if he or the employee in whose favour the decision of the employer is made is—
  - (i) a term officer within the meaning of section 4 (1) of the Public Service Act, 1979, or a temporary employee within the meaning of that subsection;

Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal.

---

- (ii) an employee within the meaning of section 3 of the Teaching Service Act, 1970; or
- (iii) in relation to an employee of a class referred to in paragraph (c), (d) or (e) of the definition of "employee" in section 4 (1), an employee who is employed, otherwise than permanently, in the service of his employer.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) (j) prevents an employee, being a person employed, otherwise than permanently, in the Wages Division of the Metropolitan Water Sewerage and Drainage Board, from appealing, under section 20, against a decision of the Board to appoint another such employee to a permanent office in the Wages Division of the Board and, for the purposes of any such appeal, a reference in subsection (1) to salary shall be read and construed as including a reference to wages.

Effect of failure to notify vacancy.

22. Where no invitation to apply for appointment to a vacant office in the establishment of an employer is published in a notice given by the employer to its employees or in a newspaper, and—

- (a) where the employer is a person other than the Public Service Board—any employee employed by the employer; or
- (b) where the employer is the Public Service Board—only employees employed in the same administrative unit (within the meaning of section 4 (1) of the Public Service Act, 1979) of which the vacant office forms part, may, if otherwise entitled, appeal to the Tribunal against the decision of the employer to appoint or recommend the appointment of one of its employees to fill the vacant office.

Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal.

---

DIVISION 2.—Disciplinary Appeals.

- 23. (1) Where, in relation to an employee, an employer makes a decision, or a decision to make a recommendation—<sup>Notice of certain decisions, etc.</sup>
- (a) to defer, for a period in excess of 6 months, the payment of an increment to the employee;
  - (b) to reduce the rank, classification, position, grade or pay of the employee;
  - (c) to impose a fine or forfeit pay in respect of any offence of which the employee is held to be guilty;
  - (d) to annul the appointment of an employee appointed on probation;
  - (e) to suspend the employee as a punishment where the employee is held to be guilty of misconduct or contravention of any law or any rule or direction of the employer;
  - (f) to dismiss the employee; or
  - (g) to direct or to require the employee to resign, the employer shall, except as may be otherwise provided by an order made under subsection (3), give the employee notice, in writing, of the decision as soon as practicable after the decision is made.

(2) Where an employer is unable to give an employee notice, under subsection (1), of a decision within 14 days after the decision is made, the employer may apply to the Senior Chairman for an order as to the giving of the notice.

(3) On receipt of an application under subsection (2), the Senior Chairman may make such order as he thinks fit as to the giving of the notice or may make an order dispensing with the giving of the notice.

(4) A notice may be given, or the giving of a notice may be dispensed with, in accordance with an order made under subsection (3).

Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal.

---

Right of appeal. 24. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, an employee may, subject to and in accordance with this Part, appeal to the Tribunal against a decision of his employer, being a decision of a kind referred to in section 23 (1).

Alternative rights of appeal. 25. (1) Nothing in section 24 derogates from or otherwise affects any right of appeal an employee may have, or other proceedings which may be instituted by him or on his behalf, under any other Act or law or any industrial award or agreement (whether enacted, existing or made before, on or after the day appointed and notified under section 2 (2)) in respect of a decision of a kind referred to in section 23 (1).

(2) Where—

- (a) an employee elects, in writing, to forgo a right of appeal under section 24 in respect of a decision of a kind referred to in section 23 (1); or
- (b) an employee makes an appeal or institutes other proceedings or proceedings are instituted on his behalf in respect of a decision of a kind referred to in section 23 (1) under an Act or law or an industrial award or agreement referred to in subsection (1), he may not thereafter appeal to the Tribunal under section 24 in respect of that decision.

(3) Where an employee appeals to the Tribunal under section 24 in respect of a decision of a kind referred to in section 23 (1), he may not thereafter, in respect of that decision, appeal or institute other proceedings or proceedings may not be instituted on his behalf under an Act or law or an industrial award or agreement referred to in subsection (1).

Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal.

---

26. (1) A decision of a kind referred to in section 23 (1) shall not be carried into effect—

- Carrying into effect of certain decisions, etc.
- (a) where no notice of appeal is lodged with respect to the decision within the time limited by section 29—until the expiration of that time; or
  - (b) where a notice of appeal is lodged with respect to the decision within the time limited by section 29—until the appeal is determined.

(2) Where an order is made under section 23 (3) dispensing with the giving of a notice to an employee of a decision of a kind referred to in section 23 (1), nothing in subsection (1) operates so as to prevent the decision from having effect at any time after the order is made, unless the Tribunal otherwise orders.

27. Where an employee has appealed under section 24 against a decision of his employer to dismiss him, the employee shall not, except to such extent, if any, as the Tribunal otherwise determines on the appeal, be entitled to any salary, wages or allowances in respect of any period occurring after the date of the decision.

Effect of decision to dismiss on payment of salary, etc.

DIVISION 3.—Procedures Relating to the Making of Appeals.

28. An employee may make an appeal by lodging with the Registrar a notice of appeal in the approved form.

Notice of appeal.

29. (1) An employee shall lodge a notice of appeal—

- Time for making appeal.
- (a) in respect of an appeal under section 20—
    - (i) where a notice containing particulars of the decision appealed against is given in accordance with section 19 (1) or by or under any other Act as referred to in section 19 (2)—within a period of 28 days after the date of the notice; and

---

Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal.

---

- (ii) where notification of the particulars of the decision appealed against is given in accordance with section 19 (3)—within a period of 28 days after the date of notification; or
- (b) in respect of an appeal under section 24—within a period of 28 days after the employee is notified of the decision appealed against.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) prevents an employee from appealing to the Tribunal against a decision of his employer particulars of which have not been given in accordance with section 19 (1), or by or under any other Act as referred to in section 19 (2), or in accordance with section 19 (3).

Appointment of agents.

30. (1) An employee may, by notice of appointment in or to the effect of the prescribed form, appoint a person to be his agent for the purposes of—

- (a) accepting service of—
  - (i) a notice referred to in section 19 (1) or (2);
  - (ii) a notification given under section 19 (3); or
  - (iii) a notice of a decision of a kind referred to in section 23 (1); and
- (b) completing and lodging a notice of appeal.

(2) A copy of a notice of appointment under subsection (1) shall—

- (a) where the employee referred to in that subsection is employed by an employer to whom section 19 (3) applies—be given to that employer; and
- (b) where a notice of appeal is lodged with the Registrar under section 28 by the person appointed pursuant to the notice of appointment—be given to the Registrar on the lodging of the notice of appeal.

Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal.

---

31. (1) On receipt of a notice of appeal lodged in accordance with this Act against the decision of an employer, the Senior Chairman shall, as soon as practicable after the expiration of the period within which a notice of appeal may, under section 29, be lodged against that decision—

Arrangements for hearing appeals.

- (a) determine that—
  - (i) he shall preside as chairman; or
  - (ii) a Chairman selected by him shall preside as chairman, at the sitting of the Tribunal for the purpose of hearing appeals against that decision;
- (b) appoint a time, date and place for the hearing of those appeals; and
- (c) notify the Registrar of the arrangements made under paragraphs (a) and (b).

(2) The Senior Chairman may, if he thinks fit, determine that 2 or more appeals in respect of the same decision shall be heard at one sitting of the Tribunal and, where the Tribunal hears 2 or more appeals at one sitting, it may make a single composite decision with respect to all or any of those appeals.

32. (1) Where the Registrar is notified under section 31 (1) of the arrangements made for the hearing of appeals, he shall thereupon, by notice in writing—

Notification of arrangements.

- (a) inform each appellant, the employer against whose decision the appeals are brought and the appropriate association of employees within the meaning of section 15 of the time, date and place appointed for the hearing of the appeals;
- (b) inform that employer and that association of the particulars of the appeals;

Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal.

---

- (c) request that employer—
  - (i) to select, in accordance with this Act, a member of the Tribunal to be the employer's representative at the sitting of the Tribunal for the purpose of hearing the appeals;
  - (ii) to notify the member so selected of his selection and of the particulars of the appeals; and
  - (iii) to notify the Registrar of the name of the member so selected; and
- (d) request that association—
  - (i) to select, in accordance with this Act, a member of the Tribunal to be the employee's representative at the sitting of the Tribunal for the purpose of hearing the appeals;

- (b) apply differently according to different factors of a specified kind; or
- (c) authorise any matter or thing to be from time to time determined, applied or regulated by any specified person or body, or may do any combination of those things.

Sec. 12.

SCHEDULE 1.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE OFFICES OF SENIOR CHAIRMAN AND CHAIRMAN.

Application of Public
Service Act,
1979.

1. The Public Service Act, 1979, does not apply to or in respect of the appointment of the Senior Chairman, the Acting Senior Chairman or a Chairman and a person so appointed is not, in his capacity as the Senior Chairman, the Acting Senior Chairman or a Chairman, subject to that Act while he holds office as the Senior Chairman, the Acting Senior Chairman or a Chairman.

Appointment of holder of judicial or magisterial office.

2. (1) The appointment of a holder of a judicial office or a magisterial office as the Senior Chairman or a Chairman shall not, nor shall his services as the Senior Chairman or a Chairman, affect his tenure of that office or his rank, title, status, precedence, salary or other rights or privileges as a holder of that office.

(2) A holder of a judicial office or a magisterial office may, notwithstanding that he is the Senior Chairman or a Chairman, exercise his functions as a holder of that office, but while he is the Senior Chairman or a Chairman he shall not (unless otherwise provided by the instrument of his appointment as the Senior Chairman or a Chairman) be required to exercise his functions as a holder of that office.

(3) The service, as Senior Chairman or Chairman, of a holder of a judicial office or a magisterial office shall, for all purposes, be taken to be service as a holder of that judicial office or magisterial office, as the case may be.

- Vacation of office by Chairmen not being holders of judicial office.
9. A Chairman, not being the holder of a judicial office, shall be deemed to have vacated his office—
- (a) if he dies;
  - (b) if—
    - (i) not being the holder of a magisterial office, he engages (whether in New South Wales or elsewhere) during his term of office in any paid employment outside the duties of his office; or
    - (ii) being the holder of a magisterial office, he engages (whether in New South Wales or elsewhere) during his term of office in any paid employment outside the duties of his office, not being employment within the duties of his magisterial office;
  - (c) if he becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his creditors or makes an assignment of his remuneration for their benefit;
  - (d) if he becomes a temporary patient, a continued treatment patient, a protected person or an incapable person within the meaning of the Mental Health Act, 1958, or a person under detention under Part VII of that Act;
  - (e) if he is convicted in New South Wales of a crime or an offence punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or upwards, or if he is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of a crime or an offence which if committed in New South Wales would be a crime or an offence so punishable;
  - (f) if he resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Governor;
  - (g) if he is removed from office by the Governor under clause 8; or
  - (h) upon his attaining the age of 65 years.
- Preservation of rights of Chairmen previously public servants, etc.
10. (1) In this clause—
- “statutory body” means any body declared under clause 12 to be a statutory body for the purposes of this Schedule;

“superannuation scheme” means a scheme, fund or arrangement under which any superannuation or retirement benefits are provided and which is established by or under any Act.

(2) Subject to subclause (3) of this clause and to the terms of his appointment, where a person appointed as a Chairman, not being the holder of a judicial office or a magisterial office, was, immediately before his appointment—

- (a) an officer of the Public Service;
- (b) a contributor to a superannuation scheme;
- (c) an officer employed by a statutory body; or
- (d) a person in respect of whom provision was made by any Act that he retain any rights accrued or accruing to him as an officer or employee, he—

- (c) shall retain any rights accrued or accruing to him as such an officer, contributor or person;
- (f) may continue to contribute to any superannuation scheme to which he was a contributor immediately before his appointment as a Chairman; and
- (g) shall be entitled to receive any deferred or extended leave and any payment, pension or gratuity, as if he had continued to be such an officer, contributor or person during his service as a Chairman, and—

- (h) his service as a Chairman shall be deemed to be service as an officer or employee for the purpose of any law under which those rights accrued or were accruing, under which he continued to contribute or by which that entitlement is conferred; and
- (i) he shall be deemed to be an officer or employee, and the Tribunal shall be deemed to be his employer, for the purposes of the superannuation scheme to which he is entitled to contribute under this clause.

(3) If a Chairman would, but for this subclause, be entitled under subclause (2) of this clause to contribute to a superannuation scheme or to receive any payment, pension or gratuity under that scheme, he shall not be so entitled upon his becoming (whether upon his appointment as a Chairman or at any later time while he holds office as a Chairman) a contributor to any other superannuation scheme, and the provisions of subclause (2) (i) of this clause cease to apply to or in respect of him and the Tribunal in any case where he becomes a contributor to such another superannuation scheme.

(4) Subclause (3) of this clause does not prevent the payment to a Chairman upon his ceasing to be a contributor to a superannuation scheme of such amount as would have been payable to him if he had ceased, by reason of his resignation, to be an officer or employee for the purposes of that scheme.

(5) A Chairman shall not, in respect of the same period of service, be entitled to claim a benefit under this Act and another Act.

Re-appointment to former employment in certain cases.

11. (1) In this clause—

“retiring age” means—

- (a) in relation to a person who was, immediately before his appointment as a Chairman, an officer of the Public Service—the age of 60 years; and
- (b) in relation to a person who was, immediately before his appointment as a Chairman, an officer or employee of a statutory body—the age at which officers or employees (being officers or employees of the class to which that person belonged immediately before his appointment as a Chairman), as the case may be, of that statutory body are entitled to retire;

“statutory body” means any body declared under clause 12 to be a statutory body for the purposes of this Schedule.

(2) A person, not being the holder of a judicial office or a magisterial office, who ceases to be a Chairman, otherwise than pursuant to clause 9 (paragraph (f) excepted), shall, if he has not attained the retiring age, be entitled to be appointed, where, immediately before his appointment as a Chairman, he was—

- (a) an officer of the Public Service—to some office in the Public Service; or

SCHEDULE 6.

SAVINGS, TRANSITIONAL AND OTHER PROVISIONS.

Interpretation:

Sch. 6.

1. In this Schedule—

“appointed day” means the day appointed and notified under section 2 (2);

“cognate Acts” means the Industrial Arbitration (Appeal Tribunal) Amendment Act, 1980, the Judges’ Pensions (Appeal Tribunal) Amendment Act, 1980, the Teaching Service (Appeal Tribunal) Amendment Act, 1980, the Supreme Court (Appeal Tribunal) Amendment Act, 1980, the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration (Appeal Tribunal) Amendment Act, 1980, and the Public Service (Appeal Tribunal) Amendment Act, 1980;

“former appellate body” means the Crown Employees Appeal Board or a Promotions Appeal Tribunal constituted under section 69H of the Public Service (Promotion Appeals) Act, 1902.

Appeals against decisions made before the appointed day.

2. (1) An appeal against any decision of an employer, being a decision made before the appointed day, may be made to, or continued and completed before, a former appellate body and shall be given effect to, in all respects as if this Act and the cognate Acts had not been enacted, and not otherwise.

(2) For any purpose of or incidental to subclause (1) of this clause, the provisions of the Acts repealed by this Act, the provisions of the Acts amended by the cognate Acts and the provisions of any instrument made under those Acts and in force immediately before the appointed day shall, notwithstanding any other provision of this Act or any provision of the cognate Acts, continue in force.

(3) Nothing in this clause limits any saving in the Interpretation Act, 1897.

(4) A person who is concerned in the hearing and determination of an appeal to which this clause applies shall not, in respect of the same period of service, be entitled to claim a benefit under this Act and an Act the provisions of which are continued in force by subclause (2) of this clause.

Construction of certain references.

3. (1) On and from the appointed day, a reference in a provision of any other Act or of any regulation, by-law or other statutory instrument or of any other document, whether of the same or of a different kind (not being a prescribed provision), to—

(a) a former appellate body shall be read and construed as a reference to the Tribunal; and

SAVINGS, TRANSITIONAL AND OTHER PROVISIONS—continued.

(b) the Chairman of the Crown Employees Appeal Board shall be read and construed as a reference to the Senior Chairman of the Tribunal.

(2) For the purposes of subclause (1) of this clause, the following provisions are prescribed provisions:—

- (a) clause 2;
- (b) section 8 (1) (c) of the Judges' Pensions Act, 1953;
- (c) section 4 (2) of the Police Regulation (Priority Lists and Appeals) Amendment Act, 1978; and
- (d) section 5 of the Police Regulation (Appeals) Appeal Tribunal (Amendment) Act, 1980.

4. Section 69D of the Public Service (Promotion Appeals) Act, 1902, shall, notwithstanding the repeal of that Act, continue to apply after the date of repeal of that Act in favour of a person in respect of whom the section applied immediately before that date.

Certain
right of re-appointment to Public Service.
