(f) special privileges in respect of, the whole or any specified part of the common property, upon conditions (including the payment of money, at specified times or as required by the body corporate, by the lessee or lessees of the lot or lots concerned) specified in the by-law.

(7A) A by-law referred to in subsection (7) shall either—

- (a) provide that the body corporate shall continue to be responsible for the proper maintenance, and keeping in a state of good and serviceable repair, of the common property or the relevant part of it; or
- (b) impose on the lessee or lessees of the lot or lots concerned the responsibility for that maintenance and upkeep, and in the case of a by-law that confers rights or privileges on more than one lessee, any money payable by virtue of the by-law by the lessees concerned—

- (c) to the body corporate; or
- (d) to any person for or towards the maintenance or upkeep of any common property, shall, except to the extent that the by-law otherwise provides, be payable by the lessees concerned proportionately according to the relative proportions of their respective unit entitlements.

(c) Section 87 (9)–(10A)—

Omit section 87 (9) and (10), insert instead—

(9) If a plan lodged under section 7 for registration as a strata plan is accompanied by an instrument, in a form approved under the Real Property Act 1900, containing the terms of a proposed by-law of the kind referred to in subsection (7)—

- (a) a by-law in those terms shall be deemed to have been made, and to take effect, on registration of the plan; and

- (b) on application made by a lessee or a body corporate, that the lessor under the leasehold strata scheme or the lessee of a lot has unreasonably refused to consent to the terms of a proposed by-law of that kind, or to the proposed amendment or repeal of such a by-law; or
- (c) on application made by any interested person, that the conditions of such a by-law relating to the maintenance or upkeep of any common property are unjust, the Board may, subject to subsection (3), determine the application by an order prescribing the making, amendment or repeal, in terms of the order, of any such by-law or may, if it thinks fit, dismiss the application.

(2) In considering whether to make an order under this section, the Board shall have regard to—

- (a) the interests of all lessees in the use and enjoyment of their lots and common property; and
- (b) the rights and reasonable expectations of any lessee deriving or anticipating a benefit under a by-law of the kind referred to in section 87 (7).

(3) The Board shall not determine an application referred to in subsection (1) (a) by an order prescribing the making of a by-law in terms to which the applicant or the lessor under the leasehold strata scheme is not prepared to consent.

(4) An order under this section, when recorded under section 179, has effect, subject to any order of a superior court, as if its terms were a by-law.

(7) Section 179 (Recording in Register of effect of certain orders)—

Section 146 (2), (3)—

At the end of section 146, insert:

(2) If, pursuant to an application by the occupier of a lot in a leasehold strata scheme in respect of which clause (2) of by-law 28 in Schedule 3 (or a provision to the like effect in any by-laws) is for the time being in force, the Commissioner is satisfied—

- (a) that the application is made with the consent of the lessee of the applicant's lot (if the applicant is not the lessee); and
- (b) that the body corporate has unreasonably withheld its consent to the keeping by the applicant of an animal upon the lot or the common property, the Commissioner may by order declare that the applicant may keep the animal in such manner as may be specified in the order.

(3) An order under subsection (2) is binding on the body corporate and is a good defence to any action against the applicant for breach of any by-law by virtue of the keeping of the animal in a manner authorised by the order.

(15) Section 151 (Copy of order to be served)—

(a) Section 151 (1A)—

After section 151 (1), insert:

(1A) On receipt of a copy of the order, the body corporate shall, unless the order otherwise provides, cause it to be prominently displayed, within 72 hours of its receipt and for 14 days thereafter, on the notice board maintained under the by-laws.

SCHEDULE 3

(Sec. 4)

SAVINGS, TRANSITIONAL AND OTHER PROVISIONS

Interpretation

1. In this Schedule, “the Principal Act” means the Strata Titles (Leasehold) Act 1986.

Lessees

2. No amendment made by this Act affects the status, as a lessee within the meaning of the Principal Act, of any person who was such a lessee immediately before the amendment took effect.

First annual general meetings of bodies corporate

3. A meeting held before the commencement of Schedule 2 (2) (b) which would (if section 86 of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, had then been in force) have been the first annual general meeting of a body corporate, shall be deemed to have been its first annual general meeting.

By-laws concerning individual rights and privileges over common property

4. A by-law made in accordance with section 87 of the Principal Act, as in force immediately before the commencement of Schedule 1 (3), continues in force as if made under that section as amended by this Act.

Liability for damage to lots

5. Section 94 of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, does not apply in respect of any damage caused by or arising out of work that was carried out before the commencement of schedule 2 (3).

Strata Titles (Leasehold) Amendment 1987

Strata rolls

6. To the extent to which, before the commencement of Schedule 2 (4), a strata roll was kept and maintained in a manner that accords with section 99 of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, the strata roll shall be deemed to have been validly kept and maintained.

Certificates of body corporate

7. A certificate given, before the commencement of schedule 2 (5), under section 100 (1) (c) of the Principal Act shall be deemed, for the purposes of section 100 (5) of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, to be a certificate given under section 100 (1) (a) of that Act, as so amended.

Requirement to serve certain notices

8. Section 132 (2) of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, does not apply in respect of an application lodged before the commencement of Schedule 2 (12).
