LOCAL COURTS (CIVIL CLAIMS) AMENDMENT ACT 1987 No. 281

NEW SOUTH WALES

Act No. 281, 1987

An Act to amend the Local Courts (Civil Claims) Act 1970 to increase the maximum amount for which a civil action may be commenced in a Local Court and with respect to the civil procedures of Local Courts. [Assented to 16 December 1987]

See also District Court (Civil Claims) Amendment Act 1987.

Local Courts (Civil Claims) Amendment 1987

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Local Courts (Civil Claims) Amendment Act 1987.

Commencement

2. This Act shall commence on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Amendment of Act No. 11, 1970

3. The Local Courts (Civil Claims) Act 1970 is amended as set out in Schedules 1-4.

Savings and transitional provisions

4. (1) The rules under the Local Courts (Civil Claims) Act 1970 may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.

(2) A provision referred to in subsection (1) may, if the rules so provide, take effect as from the date of commencement of a provision of this Act or a later day.

(3) To the extent to which a provision referred to in subsection (1) takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as—

- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication therein; or
- (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication therein.

SCHEDULE 1—AMENDMENTS RELATING TO JURISDICTION

(Sec. 3)

(1) Section 4 (Definitions)—

Section 4 (1)—

Omit the definition of “admitted set-off”.

(2) Section 12 (Limits of jurisdiction)—

(a) Section 12 (1)—

Omit “$5,000”, insert instead “$10,000”.

(b) Section 12 (2)–(4)—

Local Courts (Civil Claims) Amendment 1987

continued

After section 12 (1), insert:

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), but otherwise subject to this Part, a court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine actions for damages arising out of the use of a motor vehicle within the meaning of the Transport Accidents Compensation Act 1987 (other than damages in respect of the death of or bodily injury, within the meaning of that Act, to a person) in which the amount claimed is not more than $20,000.

(3) If the amount claimed in an action includes interest (being interest which the court could, under section 39A (1), order to be included in the amount for which it could give judgment), that interest shall be disregarded for the purposes of—

- (a) determining whether the maximum amount for which the action is authorised by this Act to be brought has been exceeded or not; and
- (b) determining whether or not the court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the action.

(4) If—

- (a) an amendment to subsection (1) or (2) which is enacted after, or was enacted before, the commencement of Schedule 1 to the Local Courts (Civil Claims) Amendment Act 1987 has or had the effect of increasing an amount specified in either of those subsections; and
- (b) an action in which an amount of money is claimed is pending in a court at the time when the amendment has effect or, as the case may be, an action in which an amount of money is claimed was pending in a court at the time when the amendment had effect and has not been finally determined, the court may, on the application of a plaintiff, make an order altering the amount specified in the claim to an amount not exceeding that specified in subsection (1) or (2) (whichever applies to the action) as in force immediately after the amendment has or had effect.

(c) Section 12 (7)—

After section 12 (6), insert:

(7) In subsection (1), “admitted set-off”, in relation to an action, means set-off admitted by the plaintiff in the document by the filing of which the action is commenced.

Local Courts (Civil Claims) Amendment 1987

continued
(3) Section 13 (Actions not to be split or divided)—

(14) Section 21E—

Omit the section, insert instead:

Proceedings after removal

21E. (1) Where an order under section 21B (1) for removal into the District Court of an action in a court takes effect, the action ceases to be an action in the court, but proceedings in the action continue, in accordance with rules made under the District Court Act 1973, in the District Court as if the action had been duly commenced, and any cross-claim brought in relation to the action had been duly pleaded, in the District Court at the proclaimed place specified in the order on the date on which the action was commenced, or the cross-claim was brought, as the case may be, in the court.

(2) Where any proceedings continue in the District Court as referred to in subsection (1), any abandonment made in accordance with section 14 or 15 has no further force or effect except to the extent that the amount originally claimed in the action, or in any cross-claim brought in relation to the action, before any abandonment exceeded the appropriate amount specified in section 44 (1) (a), (aa) or (b) of the District Court Act 1973, as the case may be.

(3) Where an order under section 21B (1) for removal into the District Court of an action in a court takes effect, any admission made in accordance with the rules for the purposes of the action, including the purposes of any cross-claim brought in relation to the action, shall, if it could have been made in accordance with the rules made under the District Court Act 1973, be treated as an admission made under those rules.

(4) Subsection (1) has effect subject to—

(a) the District Court Act 1973 and the rules made under that Act; and

(b) any order of the District Court as to procedure.

Local Courts (Civil Claims) Amendment 1987

SCHEDULE 2—AMENDMENTS RELATING TO PROCEDURES—

(5) An order made by a court in an action removed into the District Court under section 21B (1) may be set aside or varied, and is subject to appeal, as if made by the District Court.

(6) Costs payable under an order of the District Court in respect of any step in an action removed into the District Court under section 21B (1) shall be limited as may be prescribed in the rules.

(15) Section 21F (Removal of proceedings from District Court)—

(a) Section 21F (1), (2)—

Omit the subsections, insert instead:

(1) Where an action is pending in the District Court and the District Court is satisfied that the action could properly have been commenced as an action in a court, and that any cross-claim pleaded in relation to the action could properly have been brought as a cross-claim in a court, the District Court may, on application by a party to the action or of its own motion, order that the action, including any cross-claim pleaded in relation to the action, be removed into a court for such district as the District Court shall specify in the order.

(2) The District Court shall not make an order under subsection (1) in respect of an action unless it is satisfied that—

(a) the document by the filing of which the action was commenced has been served on the defendant; and

(b) any cross-claim pleaded in relation to the action has been served on the plaintiff.

(b) Section 21F (4)—

Omit “(7)”, insert instead “(4)”.

(c) Section 21F (4)—

Omit “, or in the proceedings in relation to the cross-claim,”.

(d) Section 21F (5)—

(16) Section 21G—

SCHEDULE 2—AMENDMENTS RELATING TO PROCEDURES—
continued

Omit the section, insert instead:

Proceedings after removal

21G. (1) Where an order under section 21F (1) for removal into a court of an action in the District Court takes effect, the action ceases to be an action in the District Court but proceedings in the action continue in the court as if the action had been duly commenced, and any cross-claim pleaded in relation to the action had been duly brought, in a court for the district specified in the order on the date on which the action was commenced, or the cross-claim was pleaded, as the case may be, in the District Court.

(2) Where an order under section 21F (1) for removal into a court of an action takes effect, any admission made in accordance with the rules made under the District Court Act 1973 for the purposes of the action, including the purposes of any cross-claim pleaded in relation to the action, shall, if it could have been made under the rules, be treated as an admission made under the rules in the action in that court.

(3) Subsection (1) has effect subject to this Act and the rules.

(4) An order made by the District Court in an action removed into a court under section 21F (1) may be set aside or varied, and is subject to appeal, as if made by the court.

(5) No costs shall be payable under an order of the District Court in respect of any step in an action removed into a court under section 21F (1).

(6) In respect of an action removed into a court under section 21F (1), the court may order that such costs as may be prescribed be payable in respect of the order of removal, the copies of the order and any step taken in the action before the order of removal takes effect.

(17) Part IV, Divisions 1–3A—

Omit the Divisions, insert instead:

Division 1—Commencement of actions

Manner of commencement of actions

22. An action in a court, and any proceedings ancillary to an action, shall be commenced in the manner prescribed by the rules.

Division 2—Defences

Right to defend action

23. A person against whom an action in a court has been commenced may defend the action and any proceedings ancillary to the action as prescribed by the rules.

(20) Part IV, Division 5—

Omit the Division, insert instead:

Division 5—Costs

Interpretation

33. In this Division, a reference to costs is a reference to costs payable between party and party, including disbursements.

Costs to be in discretion of court

34. (1) Subject to this Act and the rules, and subject to any other Act—

- (a) costs in or in relation to an action shall be in the discretion of a court;
- (b) a court has full power to determine by whom, to whom and to what extent costs are to be paid in or in relation to an action; and
- (c) a court has full power to determine the amount of costs to be paid in or in relation to an action, or to direct how that amount is to be determined.

(2) The rules may provide that the amount of any costs in relation to the commencement of an action, the entry of default judgment, the giving of judgment in undefended actions and any process for the enforcement of a judgment shall be determined in accordance with scales prescribed in the rules.

(3) The rules may provide that the amount of any costs in relation to a contested action shall be determined in accordance with scales prescribed in the rules unless the Magistrate before whom the action is heard (or, in the case of an action determined under section 15 (1) of the Arbitration (Civil Actions) Act 1983, a Magistrate on the application of a party) certifies that in the special circumstances applying to the action the amount of the costs should not be so determined.

(4) Any scales prescribed as referred to in subsection (2) or (3) may be varied by a determination made under section 20J (2) (c) of the Legal Practitioners Act 1898.

35. Any costs payable by a judgment debtor under this Act shall form part of the judgment debt.

(21) Section 39—

Omit the section, insert instead:

Interest on judgment debt

39. (1) Unless a court orders in any particular case that interest be not payable, interest shall, subject to subsection (3), be payable on so much of the amount of a judgment debt as is from time to time unpaid.

(2) Interest payable under subsection (1) in respect of a judgment debt shall—

- (a) subject to subsection (3), be calculated as from the date when the judgment debt came into being or from such later date as a court in any particular case fixes;
- (b) be calculated at the rate prescribed for the purposes of section 95 (1) of the Supreme Court Act 1970; and
- (c) form part of the judgment debt, but not so as to require the payment of interest upon interest.

(3) Where—

- (a) the amount of a judgment debt (excluding the amount of any costs remaining to be ascertained) is paid in full within 21 days after the judgment debt becomes payable; or
- (b) any amount of costs is paid in full within 21 days after that amount is ascertained, interest shall, unless a court otherwise orders in any particular case, not be payable on the amount so paid.
