- (a) the complaint is frivolous, vexatious or not in good faith; or
- (b) the subject-matter of the complaint is trivial; or
- (c) there is available to the complainant an alternative, satisfactory and readily available means of redress; or
- (d) the complainant has no interest or an insufficient interest in the subject-matter of the complaint; or
- (e) the complainant does not have an entitlement to a legal remedy; or
- (f) the conduct of the complainant does not warrant the matter to be pursued by the Commissioner.

Reasons for refusal or discontinuance of investigation

13. If a complaint has been made to the Commissioner and the Commissioner:

- (a) refuses to investigate the complaint; or
- (b) discontinues an investigation of the complaint,

Entry on premises etc.

18. The Commissioner may, in the course of an investigation:

- (a) enter and inspect any premises occupied or used by a public authority as a public authority; and
- (b) inspect any document or thing in or on the premises.

Limits on secrecy and privilege (information and inquiries)

19. (1) This section applies where, in the course of an investigation, the Commissioner requires any person under section 16 or 17:

- (a) to give any statement of information; or
- (b) to produce any document or other thing; or
- (c) to give a copy of any document; or
- (d) to answer any question.

(2) The Commissioner must set aside the requirement if it appears to the Commissioner that any person has a ground of privilege whereby, in proceedings in a court of law, the person might resist a like requirement and it does not appear to the Commissioner that the person consents to compliance with the requirement.

(3) The person must however comply with the requirement despite:

- (a) any rule of law which in proceedings in a court of law might justify an objection to compliance with a like requirement on grounds of public interest; or

HomeFund Commissioner Act 1993 No. 9

- (b) any privilege of a public authority which the authority could have claimed in a court of law; or
- (c) any duty of secrecy or other restriction on disclosure applying to a public authority.

Limits on secrecy and privilege (entry of premises)

20. (1) This section applies to the powers of entry and inspection conferred by section 18.

(2) The powers are not to be exercised if it appears to the Commissioner that any person has a ground of privilege whereby, in proceedings in a court of law, the person might resist inspection of the premises or production of the document or thing and it does not appear to the Commissioner that the person consents to the inspection or production.

(3) The powers may however be exercised despite:

- (a) any rule of law which in proceedings in a court of law might justify an objection to an inspection of the premises or to production of the document or thing on grounds of public interest; or
- (b) any privilege of a public authority; or
- (c) any duty of secrecy or other restriction on disclosure applying to a public authority.

Cabinet proceedings

21. (1) This Act does not enable the Commissioner:

- (a) to require any person:
  - (i) to give any statement of information; or
  - (ii) to produce any document or other thing; or
  - (iii) to give a copy of any document; or
  - (iv) to answer any question, which relates to confidential proceedings of cabinet or any committee of cabinet; or

- (b) to inspect any document or thing which so relates.

Submissions

22. (1) The Commissioner must give an opportunity to make submissions on the subject-matter of the complaint the subject of the investigation to any person given notice under section 14.

(2) The Commissioner may determine the mode in which a person is to be given an opportunity to make any such submissions, the manner and period in which any such submissions must be made, and the scope of any such submissions.

Division 3—General provisions*Representation

23. (1) A person is not entitled to be represented by another person before the Commissioner (whether at an inquiry or otherwise) without the leave of the Commissioner.

(2) Leave is not to be given under this section for a person to be represented by a practising barrister or practising solicitor unless the commissioner is satisfied that leave should be given in the special circumstances of the case.

(3) The Commissioner may allow any person appearing before the Commissioner the services of an interpreter.

General procedure

24. (1) Subject to this Act, the Commissioner:

- (a) may determine the procedures to be followed in exercising functions under this Act, including the procedures to be followed at an inquiry (if one is to be held); and
- (b) is to act as quickly as is practicable in the circumstances; and
- (c) is to act in an informal manner (including avoiding conducting formal hearings) as far as possible; and
- (d) is not bound by the rules of evidence and may inform himself or herself on any matter in any way that he or she considers to be just; and
- (e) is to act according to the substantial merits of the case without undue regard to technicalities.

(2) The Commissioner may form views on and decide any matter on the information before the Commissioner, without being required to seek the giving of evidence.

PART 5—DETERMINATIONS*Determinations

25. (1) The Commissioner may make determinations about the whole or any part of the subject-matter of a complaint.

(2) A determination applies to such of the following as are named in the determination as being covered by it:

- (a) the parties to a HomeFund mortgage;
- (b) the parties to an ancillary contract or arrangement to which a HomeFund borrower is or was a party (including for example a real estate developer, real estate agent or lawyer);
- (c) a co-operative housing society;
- (d) the Department of Housing.

(3) Determinations may be made, only, for any one or more of the following:

- (a) relieving a HomeFund borrower of specified obligations, including current or future payments and arrears of payments;
- (b) setting aside or altering a HomeFund mortgage;
- (c) setting aside a HomeFund mortgage and entering into a new transaction;
- (d) ordering the payment to a HomeFund borrower of an amount of money, whether by way of damages or compensation, or otherwise, for financial loss (including, without limitation, ordering a refund of payments made by a HomeFund borrower).

(4) The Commissioner is not to make a determination unless satisfied that the complainant has an entitlement to a legal remedy (apart from this Act) in relation to the complaint.

(5) Having established that entitlement, the determination may give such relief (of the kind authorised by subsection (3)) as appears to be appropriate in the circumstances and to the entitlement. Accordingly, the relief need not be identical to that which would be available to be given by a court or tribunal in similar circumstances.

(6) Nothing in this section affects the power to make a determination under section 27.

Monetary determinations

26. (1) This section applies to a determination under section 25 ordering the payment to a HomeFund borrower of an amount of money, whether by way of damages or compensation, or otherwise, for financial loss.

(2) The maximum amount that can be ordered to be paid to a HomeFund borrower is $30,000 in relation to a parcel of mortgaged property. This is also the maximum amount payable where there is more than one mortgage of the same property, and is also the maximum amount payable to joint mortgagors.

(3) However, the Commissioner may, if of the opinion that special circumstances exist, include in the determination a recommendation to the Minister that a specified amount in excess of $30,000 be paid.

(4) Such an amount ordered to be paid may be recovered as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Determination for suspending eviction

27. (1) The Commissioner may make a determination specifying premises occupied by a complainant and declaring that the Commissioner is satisfied that the complainant should remain in occupation of the premises while the determination remains in force.

(2) Subject to this section, the Commissioner may determine the period during which the determination remains in force.

(3) While it remains in force, the determination operates as a stay on all action and proceedings for the eviction of the complainant (and any members of the complainant's household or any other persons specified in the determination) from the premises. However, the determination does not operate on action or proceedings of a kind specified in the determination as being excluded from its operation.

(4) The Commissioner may vary or revoke the determination at any time.

(5) The determination remains in force for 3 months, unless it expires or is revoked at an earlier time. It may, however, be renewed or remade (in the same or different terms).

(6) The determination may be made before, during, following or without an investigation.

Binding nature of determinations

28. (1) A determination binds a public authority to which it applies.

(2) A determination binds the other persons to whom it applies, provided they have consented.

Consents to determinations

29. (1) Consent may, for the purposes of this Part, be given generally, for classes of cases or for specific cases.

(2) The borrower to whom a proposed determination applies need not give consent until the terms of the proposed determination have been communicated to the borrower.

(3) Once given, consent is irrevocable, unless the Commissioner authorises withdrawal of consent where the Commissioner is of the opinion that special circumstances exist.

(4) The Commissioner may establish procedures for seeking and recording consents.

Form of determination

30. On request by a person to whom a determination applies, the determination is to be reduced to writing and is to contain a statement of relevant findings and reasons.

Other relief

31. (1) The Commissioner may refrain from making a determination if other relief has been sought or obtained.

(2) The Commissioner may make a determination on the condition that the HomeFund borrower to whom it relates executes an instrument that precludes the borrower from seeking or obtaining other relief (whether generally or of specified kinds).

PART 6—REPORTS*Report of complaint

32. (1) The Commissioner may report on any complaint under this Act and any matters arising in relation to any such complaint, and in particular may report on any investigation under this Act.

(2) The Commissioner is to give a copy of any such report to the Minister.

(3) The Commissioner may (but need not) give a copy of any such report to the complainant or to such public authorities and other persons as appear to be materially involved in the subject-matter of the complaint concerned.

Annual report

33. (1) The Commissioner is, as soon as practicable after 30 June in each year, to prepare and submit to the Minister a report of his or her work and activities for the 12 months preceding that date.

(2) The Minister is to lay that report or cause it to be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as practicable after receiving it.

(3) If the first annual report would relate to a period of less than 3 months, the report need not be prepared and the period may instead be covered by the next annual report.

Special report to Parliament

34. (1) The Commissioner may, at any time, make a special report to the Minister for presentation to Parliament on any matter arising in connection with the discharge of his or her functions.

(2) The Commissioner may include in a report under this section a recommendation that the report be made public immediately.

(3) If a report under this section contains a recommendation that it be made public immediately, the Minister may make it public before it is presented to Parliament.

Recommendations

35. A report under this Act may contain such specific or general recommendations as appear to the Commissioner to be appropriate in relation to HomeFund borrowers, HomeFund mortgages, associated schemes or arrangements of loans, and associated matters.

(4) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the Panel, including provisions for or with respect to conferring additional advisory functions on the Panel, its procedures, the appointment of its members, the terms of office of its members, and the termination of membership of the Panel.

(5) If by or under any Act provision is made:

- (a) requiring a person who is the holder of a specified office to devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of that office; or
- (b) prohibiting the person from engaging in employment outside the duties of that office, the provision does not operate to disqualify the person from holding that office and also the office of member of the Panel or from accepting and retaining any remuneration payable to the person as a member of the Panel.

Application of Act

38. (1) This Act applies to a HomeFund mortgage entered into before the date of assent to this Act as well as to a HomeFund mortgage entered into afterwards.

(2) A complaint may be made under this Act even though the mortgage to which the complaint relates has been discharged.

Personal liability of Commissioner and others

39. A matter or thing done by the Commissioner, a member of the staff of the Commissioner, the HomeFund Advisory Panel, a member of the Panel or a person acting under the direction of the Commissioner does not, if the matter or thing was done or omitted in good faith for the purpose of executing this Act, subject the Commissioner, member of staff, member of the Panel or person so acting to any action, liability, claim or demand.

Appeal

40. A determination or other decision of the Commissioner and any other act, matter or thing done or omitted by the Commissioner may not be appealed against, reviewed, quashed or called in question by any court or tribunal.
