30A Right of appeal to Disciplinary Tribunal

- (1) A veterinary surgeon against whom the Investigating Committee has made an order under section 28 (1) (b) may appeal to the Disciplinary Tribunal against the order.
- (2) An appeal must be lodged in writing with the chairperson of the Disciplinary Tribunal within 28 days after the date on which the veterinary surgeon is notified of the Investigating Committee's order. The appeal must specify the grounds on which it is based.
- (3) An appeal against an order of the Investigating Committee is to be dealt with by way of a new hearing. Fresh evidence, or evidence in addition to or in substitution for the evidence given before the Investigating Committee, may be given at the hearing of such an appeal.
- (4) The Disciplinary Tribunal is, on the hearing of an appeal, required to sit in open court. The appellant may appear at the appeal in person or be represented by a legal practitioner.
- (5) The person who made the complaint that gave rise to the order that is the subject of an appeal may be (but is not obliged to be) present at the hearing and may be represented by a legal practitioner.
- (6) For the purpose of the hearing of an appeal, the Disciplinary Tribunal and the chairperson or deputy chairperson have the powers, authorities, protections and immunities conferred by the Royal Commissions Act 1923 on a commissioner and the chairperson of a commission respectively appointed under Division 1 of Part 2 of that Act. That Act (Division 2 of Part 2 excepted) applies to any witness summoned by or appearing before the Disciplinary Tribunal in the same way as it applies to a witness summoned before a royal commission.

- (7) At the end of the hearing of an appeal, the Disciplinary Tribunal may confirm, quash or vary the order appealed against, having regard to the merits of the case. The Disciplinary Tribunal must set out the reasons for its decision.
- (8) If the persons constituting the Disciplinary Tribunal are divided in opinion as to the decision to be given on any question (not being a question to which section 31 (5) relates), the question is to be decided according to the opinion of the majority, if there is a majority, but if those persons are equally divided in opinion, the decision is to be in favour of the appellant.
- (9) As soon as practicable after a decision under this section is made in respect of a registered veterinary surgeon, the Registrar must give notice of the decision to the veterinary surgeon.
- (10) A decision under this section does not take effect until 21 days after notice of the decision is given to the veterinary surgeon by the Registrar, subject to any decision of the Supreme Court on appeal under section 34.

[15] Section 31 Powers of chairperson of Disciplinary Tribunal

Section 31 (1) and (6)

Insert “or an appeal” after “an inquiry” wherever occurring.

[16] Section 31 (2) and (3)

Omit “inquiry” wherever occurring. Insert instead “hearing”.

[17] Section 31 (5)

Insert “or appeal heard by the Disciplinary Tribunal” after “any inquiry”.

[18] Section 32

Omit section 32. Insert instead:

32 Chairperson may make disciplinary orders

- (1) If the matter of a complaint against a registered veterinary surgeon has been proved to the satisfaction of the Disciplinary Tribunal, the chairperson may make any one or more of the following orders:
 - (a) an order reprimanding or cautioning the veterinary surgeon,
 - (b) an order suspending the veterinary surgeon from practice for a period not exceeding 12 months,
 - (c) an order directing that the name of the veterinary surgeon be removed from the register of veterinary surgeons or the register of specialists,
 - (d) an order imposing a fine on the veterinary surgeon of an amount not exceeding $10,000,
 - (e) an order imposing conditions on the registration of the veterinary surgeon with respect to the practice of veterinary science,
 - (f) an order requiring the veterinary surgeon to pay specified costs relating to the hearing.
- (2) Even though the matter of a complaint against a registered veterinary surgeon may have been proved to the satisfaction of the Disciplinary Tribunal, the chairperson must not make an order of the kind referred to in subsection (1) (b) or (c) if the Disciplinary Tribunal is of the opinion that:
 - (a) because the matter of the complaint is of a trivial nature, or

(b) because of the circumstances in which that matter occurred, or

(c) for any other reason,

it is in the public interest that the veterinary surgeon should be allowed to continue to practise veterinary science.

- (3) If the Disciplinary Tribunal considers that the matter of a complaint against a registered veterinary surgeon has not been proved to the satisfaction of the Tribunal, but the Tribunal nevertheless considers that the conduct of the veterinary surgeon was sufficiently unacceptable to warrant the making of the complaint, the chairperson may make an order against the veterinary surgeon under subsection (1) (a) or (f), or both.
- (4) On directing the name of a person to be removed from a register, the chairperson may fix a time after which the person may apply for restoration of the person's name to the register.
- (5) While an order under this section suspending a person from practice remains in force, the person is taken not to be a registered veterinary surgeon.
- (6) The chairperson must, when making an order under this section, specify the reasons for the order.
- (7) As soon as practicable after an order under this section is made against a registered veterinary surgeon, the Registrar must give notice of the order to the veterinary surgeon.
- (8) An order under this section does not take effect until 21 days after notice of the order is given to the veterinary surgeon by the Registrar, subject to any decision of the Supreme Court on appeal under section 34.

[19] Section 33 Disciplinary proceedings against veterinary surgeon who ceases to be registered

- (1A) A registered veterinary surgeon may also appeal to the Supreme Court against a decision made under section 30A in respect of the veterinary surgeon by the Disciplinary Tribunal confirming or varying an order of the Investigating Committee made under section 28.

[22] Section 34 (5)

Insert “under subsection (1)” after “hearing of an appeal”.

[23] Section 34 (6)

Omit section 34 (6). Insert instead:

- (6) Without limiting subsection (4), the Supreme Court may, in respect of the veterinary surgeon concerned:

- (a) make any decision that could have been made under section 30A, or any order that could have been made under section 32, or
 - (b) vary any decision made under section 30A, or any order made under section 32,
- as the case requires.

[24] Section 35 Restoration of name to register etc

Section 35 (1)

Omit “Disciplinary Tribunal”. Insert instead “chairperson”.

[25] Section 35 (3)

Omit “by it”. Insert instead “by the chairperson”.

[26] Section 35 (4)

Insert after clause 3:

3A Acting consumer member

- (1) The Minister may, from time to time, appoint a person to act in the office of the consumer member of the Tribunal during the illness or absence of the member, and, while so acting, has and may exercise all the functions of the member and is taken to be the consumer member.

- (2) The Minister may remove from office a person appointed under this clause.
 - (3) A person is, while acting as consumer member of the Tribunal, entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travel and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of the person.
 - (4) For the purposes of this clause, a vacancy in the office of consumer member of the Tribunal is taken to be an absence from office of the member.

3B Term of office of consumer member

Subject to this Schedule, the consumer member holds office for such period, not exceeding 3 years, as may be specified in the member's instrument of appointment, but is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-appointment.

3C Filling of vacancy in office of consumer member

If the office of consumer member becomes vacant, a person is to be appointed to fill the vacancy, subject to this Act.

[34] Schedule 3, clause 4

Insert at the end of clause 4:

- (2) The consumer member is taken to have vacated office if the member:
 - (a) dies, or
 - (b) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit, or
 - (c) becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or

- (d) is convicted in New South Wales of an offence which is punishable by penal servitude or imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence which, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable, or
 - (e) resigns the office in writing addressed to the Minister, or
 - (f) is removed from office under subclause (3).
- (3) The Minister may remove the consumer member from office at any time.

[35] Schedule 3, clause 6

Insert after clause 5:

6 Effect of certain other Acts

- (1) Part 2 of the Public Sector Management Act 1988 does not apply to or in respect of the appointment of the consumer member.
- (2) If, by or under any Act, provision is made:
 - (a) requiring a person who is the holder of a specified office to devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of that office, or
 - (b) prohibiting the person from engaging in employment outside the duties of that office, the provision does not operate to disqualify the person from holding that office or the office of consumer member, or from accepting and retaining any remuneration payable to the person under this Act as the consumer member.

20 Investigation of complaints by Investigating Committee

- (1) A person appointed as the member of the Investigating Committee referred to in section 24 (3) (e) of this Act may participate in the investigation of a complaint made to that Committee even though the complaint was made before the appointment.
- (2) The amendments made by Schedule 1 [8]–[11] to the Amending Act do not apply to complaints made to the Investigating Committee before those amendments took effect.

21 Constitution of Disciplinary Tribunal

The amendment made by Schedule 1 [5] to the Amending Act does not apply to the Disciplinary Tribunal in respect of any proceedings for which it was constituted before the amendment took effect.

22 Right of appeal to Disciplinary Tribunal

Section 30A of this Act does not apply to a veterinary surgeon against whom an order was made under section 28 (1) (b) of this Act before the commencement of Schedule 1 [14] to the Amending Act.

23 Powers of Disciplinary Tribunal to make orders

- (1) Section 32 of this Act (as in force after the commencement of Schedule 1 [18] to the Amending Act) applies to proceedings before the Disciplinary Tribunal that have not been finally disposed of before that commencement.
- (2) Section 32 (4) and (5) of this Act (as in force after the commencement of Schedule 1 [18] to the Amending Act) apply to a direction of the Disciplinary Tribunal under section 32 (4) of this Act (as in force immediately before that commencement) as if the direction were a direction of the chairperson of that Tribunal made under section 32 (4) of this Act (as in force after that commencement).

24 Appeal against order of Disciplinary Tribunal

Section 34 of this Act (as in force before the commencement of Schedule 1 [20]–[23] to the Amending Act) continues to apply to orders of the Disciplinary Tribunal made before that commencement.

25 Restoration of name to register

Section 35 of this Act (as in force after the commencement of Schedule 1 [24]–[26] to the Amending Act) applies to persons whose names were removed from a register by the Disciplinary Tribunal before that commencement as if their names had been removed from the register by the chairperson of that Tribunal.

26 Recovery of charges and fines

Section 66 of this Act (as in force before the commencement of Schedule 1 [30] to the Amending Act) continues to apply to costs or fines ordered to be paid by the Disciplinary Tribunal, but not recovered, before that commencement.

27 Licences issued by Director-General for veterinary hospitals

A licence issued by the Director-General under section 46 of this Act and in force immediately before the commencement of Schedule 2 [2] to the Amending Act is taken to be a licence issued by the Board under that section (as in force after that Commencement).

28 Applications to Director-General for licences

An application for a licence for a veterinary hospital made to the Director-General under section 48 of this Act and not finally disposed of before the commencement of Schedule 2 [3] to the Amending Act is taken to be an application for such a licence made to the Board under that section (as in force after that commencement).

29 Licence fee recoverable by Board

A licence fee payable to the Director-General under section 51 of this Act but not paid or recovered before the commencement of Schedule 2 [3] to the Amending Act can be recovered by the Board under section 66 of this Act (as in force after the commencement of Schedule 2 [6] to that Act).

30 Suspension of licences for veterinary hospitals

- (1) A licence for a veterinary hospital suspended under section 52 of this Act at the commencement of Schedule 2 [3] to the Amending Act is taken to have been suspended by the Board on the date on which it was suspended by the Director-General, and the suspension has effect as if the amendment made by Schedule 2 [3] to that Act had been in force on that date.

- (2) If the Director-General has served a notice under section 52 (3) of this Act (as in force immediately before the commencement of Schedule 2 [3] to the Amending Act) and has not suspended or cancelled the relevant licence before that commencement, the notice is taken to have been served by the Board on the date on which it was served by the Director-General and as if the amendment made by Schedule 2 [3] to that Act had been in force on that date.

31 Appeals against decisions of Director-General!

Section 53 of this Act (as in force after the commencement of Schedule 2 [3] to the Amending Act) applies to decisions of the Director-General made before that commencement as if those decisions had been made by the Board.

32 Superintendents of veterinary hospitals

Permission given, and conditions imposed, by the Director-General under section 54 of this Act and in force immediately before the commencement of Schedule 2 [3] to the Amending Act are taken to have been given or imposed by the Board under that section (as in force after that commencement).

33 Certificates given by Director-General

A certificate purporting to have been signed by the Director-General under section 61 of this Act (as in force before the commencement of Schedule 2 [5] to the Amending Act) is taken to have been signed by the Registrar of the Board under that section (as in force after that commencement).

34 Protection of Director-General from liability

Section 68 of this Act (as in force immediately before the commencement of Schedule 2 [7] to the Amending Act) continues to apply to and in respect of matters or things done before that commencement by or at the direction of the Director-General as if the amendment made by Schedule 2 [7] to that Act had not been enacted.

35 Former functions of Director-General to be exercisable by Board

Without limiting the operation of the other provisions of this Part, if:

- (a) any act or thing required or permitted to be done by the Director-General under this Act (as in force before the commencement of the amendments made by the Amending Act) has not been done or completed by the Director-General before that Commencement, and
- (b) that act or thing would be required or permitted to be done by the Board under this Act after that commencement, that act or thing is required or permitted to be done or completed by the Board.
