The Home Detention Act 1996 is amended as set out in Schedule 6.

Schedule 1 Miscellaneous amendments to Community Service Orders Act 1979

(Section 3)

[1] Section 7 Number of hours of community service work

Insert after subsection (3):

- (4) If a court has not specified in respect of any community service order in force in respect of a person whether the hours of work under the order are to be served concurrently with or in addition to the hours under any other such order, the hours are to be served concurrently as long as the orders are both in force. The limits specified in subsection (2) apply in such a case as if the court had specified concurrent community service.

[2] Section 8 Supervising court

Omit the section.

[3] Section 12 Preparation and service of copy of order

Omit section 12 (2). Insert instead:

- (2) The court is to cause a copy of the written order to be served on the person in respect of whom the order is made before the person leaves the precincts of the court, and another copy to be sent to the Director-General.

[4] Section 15 Directions

Omit section 15 (1). Insert instead:

- (1) The assigned officer must not, under section 14, direct a person in respect of whom a community service order is in force to perform work if, in performing the work, the person would take the place of any other person who would otherwise be employed in that work as a regular employee.

[5] Section 17 Extension of duration of community service order

Omit “the supervising court”. Insert instead “a Local Court”.

Insert at the end of the section:

- (2) The court may extend the period even if it has already expired, as long as the application for extension is made before the expiry. If the court decides to extend the period after it has expired, the order comes back into force from the date of the decision or such other date as the court specifies.

[7] Section 18

Omit the section. Insert instead:

18 Revocation of community service orders

- (1) A court may do any of the following in relation to a community service order in force in respect of a person if it appears in the interests of justice to do so, having regard to circumstances that have arisen since the order was made:
  - (a) revoke the order,
  - (b) revoke the order and deal with the person, for the offence in respect of which the order was made, in any manner in which the person could have been dealt with for that offence by the court that made the order if the order had not been made.
- (2) A court may do any of those things only:
  - (a) on the application of the person in respect of whom the community service order is in force or the assigned officer, and
  - (b) if the court is the court that made the order (even if differently constituted) or is an equivalent or superior court.

[8] Section 21 Notification of amendment or revocation of orders

Omit “and (if that court is not the supervising court) sent to the clerk of the supervising court”.

[9] Section 22 Substitution of new supervising court

Omit the section.

[10] Section 23 Breach of requirements

Insert after section 23 (3):

- (4) A failure to comply with one community service order in force in respect of a person or with any requirement made by or under this Act or the regulations in respect of the order is taken to be a failure to comply with every community service order made in respect of that person and still in force at the time of the first-mentioned failure.
- (5) Subsection (4) applies whether the hours of community service work under one or more of the orders are to be performed in addition to or concurrently with the hours under the other order or orders and even if the person has not started performing the work under one or more of the orders.

[11] Section 24 Issue of summons or warrant for failure to comply

Omit “the supervising court” wherever occurring.
Insert instead “a specified court”.

[12] Section 24 (2) and (3)

Insert at the end of section 24:

- (2) A court specified by a justice under this section must be the court that made the order (even if differently constituted) or an equivalent or superior court.

- (3) A complaint or summons referred to in this section may specify more than one failure to comply with an order or requirement, or a failure to comply with more than one order or requirement.

[13] Section 25

Omit the section. Insert instead:

25 Conviction for breach—how dealt with

- (1) If a court convicts a person of an offence under section 23 (1), the court may:
- (a) without prejudice to the continuation of the community service order, impose on the person a fine not exceeding 2.5 penalty units, or
  - (b) revoke the order (if still in force) and deal with the person, for the offence in respect of which the order was made, in any manner in which the person could have been dealt with for that offence by the court that made the order if the order had not been made, or
  - (c) take no action.
- (2) In proceedings before the District Court or Supreme Court under this section, any question whether a person has failed to comply with a community service order, or with a requirement made by or under this Act or the regulations in respect of the order, is to be determined by the judge and not by the verdict of a jury.
- (3) Once a court has convicted a person of an offence under section 23 (1) in relation to one community service order, the court may take action under subsection (1) in relation to any other community service orders in force in respect of the person. The court may take different action under subsection (1) in relation to each order.

[14] Part 4, heading

Omit “Regulations”. Insert instead “Miscellaneous”.

[15] Section 28 and Schedule 1

Insert after section 27:

28 Savings and transitional provisions

Schedule 1 has effect.

Schedule 1 Savings and transitional provisions

(Section 28)

1 Regulations

- (1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the following Acts:

Sentencing Legislation Amendment Act 1997

- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect on the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which such a provision takes effect on a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:
- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
  - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

2 Provisions consequent on enactment of Schedule 1 to Sentencing Legislation Amendment Act 1997

- (1) Section 7 (4) applies in respect of any order only if the order is made after the commencement of that subsection.

- (2) Section 12, as amended by the Sentencing Legislation Amendment Act 1997, applies only in respect of a community service order that is made after the amendment takes effect.
- (3) A direction in force under section 14 at the commencement of Schedule 1 [4] to the Sentencing Legislation Amendment Act 1997 continues in force, as if section 15 had not been amended by that item, until it expires or a new direction is given in its place.
- (4) Section 17 (2) extends to apply to any community service order that is in force immediately before the commencement of that subsection.
- (5) Section 23 (4) and (5) as inserted by the Sentencing Legislation Amendment Act 1997 apply to a failure to comply that occurs after the commencement of those subsections, but in respect of any community service order in force at the time of the failure to comply, whenever the order was made.

Schedule 2 Miscellaneous amendments to Children (Community Service Orders) Act 1987

(Section 4)

[1] Section 13 Number of hours of community service work

Insert at the end of section 13:

- (5) If a court has not specified in respect of any children's community service order in force in respect of a person whether the hours of work under the order are to be served concurrently with or in addition to the hours under any other such order, the hours are to be served concurrently as long as the orders are both in force. The limits specified in this section apply in such a case as if the court had specified concurrent community service.

[2] Section 18 Directions

Omit section 18 (1) and (1A). Insert instead:

- (1) The assigned officer must not, under section 17, direct a person in respect of whom a children's community service order is in force to perform work if, in performing the work, the person would take the place of any other person who would otherwise be employed in that work as a regular employee.
- (1A) Subsection (1) does not prevent a direction being given under section 17 to perform work, even if the person would take the place of any other person who would otherwise be employed in that work as a regular employee, as long as the work is to be performed:
  - (a) at facilities (within the meaning of the Children (Care and Protection) Act 1987) operated by officers, or
  - (b) for such authorities of the State, in such circumstances, as are prescribed by the regulations.

[3] Section 20

Omit the section. Insert instead:

20 Extension of children's community service orders

- (1) The Director-General may extend the period for which a children's community service order is to remain in force if it appears to the Director-General that it would, having regard to circumstances that have arisen since the order was made, be in the interests of justice to do so.
- (2) The Director-General may do so only on the application of the assigned officer or the person in respect of whom the order was made.
- (3) The Director-General may extend the period even if the order has already expired, as long as the application for extension is made before the expiry. If the Director-General decides to extend the period after it has expired, the order comes back into force from the date of the decision or such other date as the Director-General specifies.

[4] Section 23 Issue of summons or warrant—application under section 21

Omit "20 or" from section 23 (1).

[5] Section 24 Breach of requirements

Insert after section 24 (3):

- (4) A failure to comply with one children's community service order in force in respect of a person or with any requirement made by or under this Act or the regulations in respect of the order is taken to be a failure to comply with every children's community service order made in respect of that person and still in force at the time of the first-mentioned failure.
- (5) Subsection (4) applies whether the hours of community service work under one or more of the orders are to be performed in addition to or concurrently with the hours under the other order or orders and even if the person has not started performing the work under one or more of the orders.

[6] Section 25 Issue of summons or warrant—failure to comply with children’s community service orders made by court

Insert after section 25 (2):

- (3) A complaint or summons referred to in this section may specify more than one failure to comply with an order or requirement, or a failure to comply with more than one order or requirement.

[7] Section 27

Omit the section. Insert instead:

27 Notice of revocation of children’s community service orders

If a court revokes a children’s community service order, the court must have notice of the revocation sent to the Director-General and to the assigned officer and, if the court is not the Children’s Court, to a Registrar of the Children’s Court.

[8] Section 30 and Schedule 1

Insert after section 29:

30 Savings and transitional provisions

Schedule 1 has effect.

Schedule 1 Savings and transitional provisions

(Section 30)

1 Regulations

- (1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the following Acts:
Sentencing Legislation Amendment Act 1997
- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect on the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date.

- (3) To the extent to which such a provision takes effect on a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:
- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
  - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

2 Provisions consequent on enactment of Schedule 2 to Sentencing Legislation Amendment Act 1997

- (1) Section 13 (5) applies in respect of any order only if the order is made after the commencement of that subsection.
- (2) A direction in force under section 17 at the commencement of Schedule 2 [2] to the Sentencing Legislation Amendment Act 1997 continues in force, as if section 18 had not been amended by that item, until it expires or a new direction is given in its place.
- (3) The repeal and re-enactment of section 20 by the Sentencing Legislation Amendment Act 1997 do not affect any extension ordered before the repeal and re-enactment take effect.
- (4) Section 20 extends to apply to any children's community service order that is in force immediately before the commencement of that subsection.
- (5) Section 24 (4) and (5) as inserted by the Sentencing Legislation Amendment Act 1997 apply to a failure to comply that occurs after the commencement of those subsections, but in respect of any children's community service order in force at the time of the failure to comply, whenever the order was made.

Schedule 3 Amendment of Community Service Orders Act 1979 with respect to work incidents

(Section 3)

[1] Part 4 (sections 26L–26Q)

Insert after section 26K:

Part 4 Liability in respect of work incidents

26L Definition

In relation to work performed under a community service order, a reference in this Part to a person for whom work is performed includes any person (including a corporation):

- (a) for whose benefit the work is performed, or
- (b) who directs or supervises the work, specifies its terms or conditions or controls it, or
- (c) who owns or occupies the premises or land on which the work is performed.

26M Act or omission of offender engaged in community service work

- (1) No act or omission of a person that occurs in the course of the person's performance of work under a community service order gives rise to any civil liability on the part of the person for whom the work is performed.
- (2) A civil action that would, but for subsection (1), lie against the person for whom the work is performed lies instead against the Crown.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not have effect if:
  - (a) the work concerned was not work approved by the Director-General, or
  - (b) the act or omission concerned was, or was a necessary part of, an act or omission that was expressly required by the person for whom the work was performed but was neither approved nor required by the Director-General.

26N Act or omission of supervisor of community service work

- (1) No act or omission of a person for whom work is performed under a community service order gives rise to any civil liability on the part of the person to the person who performs that work if the act or omission occurs in the course of that work.

  - (b) includes:
    - (i) a disease that is contracted by the person in the course of the performance of such work and to which the performance of the work was a contributing factor, and
    - (ii) the aggravation, acceleration, exacerbation or deterioration of any disease, where the performance of the work was a contributing factor to the aggravation, acceleration, exacerbation or deterioration.
- (3) In the application of Division 3 of Part 5 of the Workers Compensation Act 1987:
- (a) a reference to a worker is taken to be a reference to a person who performs work under an order under section 10 (1) (b), and
  - (b) a reference to a worker's employer is taken to be a reference to the person for whom the work is performed (except in section 151L where it refers to the Commissioner or the Crown), and
  - (c) a reference in section 151N of that Act to a person's contributory negligence, or in section 151O of that Act to a person's negligence in failing to take sufficient care for his or her own safety, is taken to include any failure on the part of the person to make a disclosure in accordance with the person's duty under section 27E of this Act.

- (4) In the application of section 151L of that Act, a reference to the employer's workplace rehabilitation program is taken to be a reference to a rehabilitation program (if any) offered by the Commissioner to a person who performs work under an order under section 10 (1) (b).
- (5) This section does not apply to an award of damages to which Part 6 of the Motor Accidents Act 1988 applies.

27E Disclosure of material facts about health

- (1) A person in respect of whom an order under section 10 (1) (b) is in force has, while the order is in force, a duty to disclose as soon as possible to the Commissioner:
  - (a) any condition of the person that is a condition to which this section applies, or
  - (b) any substantial change in that condition.
- (2) A person's condition to which this section applies is any medical, physical or mental condition of the person of which the person is aware and that the person is aware substantially increases the risk to the person of injury in performing work of any kind.

27F Settlement of claims

The Commissioner may, on behalf of the Crown, settle any action that lies against the Crown because of this Part. The Commissioner may do so on such terms as he or she thinks fit.
