Gambling Legislation Amendment (Responsible Gambling) Act 1999 No 49

Act No 49, 1999

An Act to amend certain Acts to minimise the harm associated with the misuse and abuse of gambling activities, to promote the responsible conduct of gambling activities, and for other purposes. [Assented to 2 November 1999]

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Gambling Legislation Amendment (Responsible Gambling) Act 1999.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Amendment of Acts

The Acts specified in Schedules 1–7 are amended as set out in those Schedules.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Casino Control Act 1992 No 15

(Section 3)

[1] Section 64 Training courses for employees

Omit “operations” from section 64 (1).

Insert instead “operations and responsible practices in relation to the conduct of gaming activities”.

[2] Section 76 Junkets and inducements

Insert at the end of section 76 (1):

, or

- (c) the offering to persons individually of inducements to apply for review of exclusion orders.

[3] Section 80 Review of exclusion order

Insert after section 80 (5):

- (5A) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to matters to be taken into consideration by the Authority in making its decision with respect to an application for review of an exclusion order.

[4] Section 82 Duration and revocation of exclusion orders

Insert at the end of section 82:

- (5) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to matters to be taken into consideration by the person who gave an exclusion order before the person decides to revoke the order.

[5] Section 84 Excluded person not to enter casino

Insert at the end of the section:

- (2) A court that finds a person guilty of an offence against this section may, if satisfied (after taking into account any evidence that the court thinks it proper to consider) that the person has a problem arising from the person's gambling activities, postpone its decision as to the imposition of a penalty on condition that the person agrees to undergo such gambling counselling, for such a period not exceeding 12 months, as is specified by the court.
- (3) A court that postpones its decision as to the imposition of a penalty for a period under subsection (2) is to make its decision:
 - (a) as soon as practicable after the end of the period, or
 - (b) if, during the period the person concerned advises the court that he or she does not intend to continue to undergo the gambling counselling, as soon as practicable after receiving that advice, or
 - (c) if, during the period the court is satisfied that the person has failed to undergo the gambling counselling, as soon as practicable after being so satisfied.
- (4) In making its decision under subsection (3), the court is to take into consideration whether the person concerned has undergone the gambling counselling as agreed.
- (5) In this section:

gambling counselling means counselling that a court considers would be beneficial in assisting a person to avoid any financial, social or other harm that the court is satisfied has arisen or is likely to arise from the person's gambling activities.

[6] Section 169A

Insert after section 169:

169A Remedial orders

- (1) A court that finds a casino operator guilty of an offence against this Act or the regulations, being an offence that is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section, may, in addition or as an alternative to any penalty that it may impose for the offence, make either or both of the following orders:
 - (a) an order requiring the casino operator to publish an advertisement correcting any information contained in any advertising concerning any game played or gaming equipment provided in a casino that the court is satisfied on evidence before it is false, misleading or deceptive and giving directions (if any) that the court considers appropriate as to the time, form, extent and manner of publication,
 - (b) an order requiring any one or more of the following:
 - (i) the casino operator,
 - (ii) if the casino operator is a corporation, a director of the corporation or a person concerned in the management of the corporation,
 - (iii) a special employee within the meaning of Part 4, to undertake any specified course of training that the court considers will promote responsible practices in the conduct of gambling activities in the casino.
- (2) A person who, without lawful excuse, fails to comply with an order under this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Liquor Act 1982 No 147

(Section 3)

[1] Section 2A Liquor harm minimisation is a primary object of this Act

Insert “liquor” before “harm minimisation” wherever occurring.

[2] Section 2B

Insert after section 2A:

2B Gambling harm minimisation and responsible conduct of gambling activities are primary objects of the Act

- (1) Other primary objects of this Act are:
 - (a) gambling harm minimisation, that is, the minimisation of harm associated with the misuse and abuse of gambling activities, and
 - (b) the fostering of responsible conduct of gambling activities.
- (2) The court, the Board, the Director, the Commissioner of Police and all other persons having functions under this Act are required to have due regard to the need for gambling harm minimisation and to foster the responsible conduct of gambling activities when exercising functions under this Act. In particular, due regard is to be had to the need for gambling harm minimisation when considering for the purposes of this Act what is or is not in the public interest.

[3] Section 17B

Insert after section 17A:

17B Remedial orders

- (1) The court may, in addition to or as an alternative to any requirement that it makes or penalty that it imposes in any proceedings before it in relation to a complaint or in which it finds any person guilty of an offence against this Act or the regulations, being an offence prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section, do either or both of the following:

- (a) require a person to publish an advertisement correcting any information contained in any advertising concerning any gambling activities authorised by or under this Act that are conducted at the licensed premises concerned that the court is satisfied on the evidence before it is false, misleading or deceptive and give directions (if any) that the court considers appropriate as to the time, form, extent and manner of publication,
 - (b) require a licensee, manager or any other person involved in the conduct of gambling activities at the licensed premises to undertake any specified course of training that the court considers will promote responsible practices in the conduct of gambling activities at the licensed premises.
- (2) A person who, without lawful excuse, fails to comply with an order under this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

[4] Section 20 Conditions of licences

Insert “or section 125D (Responsible conduct of gambling activities)” after “(Responsible service)” in section 20 (2) (a1).

[5] Section 20 (4B)

Insert after section 20 (4A):

- (4B) It is a condition of a hotelier’s licence that the licensee comply with any reasonable direction in writing given by the Director in accordance with the regulations with respect to action to be taken or practices to be adopted to minimise harm associated with the misuse and abuse of gambling activities.

[6] Section 68 Grounds for complaint

Insert at the end of section 68 (1) and omit “or” from section 68 (1) (i):

, or

- (k) that the licensee or manager has engaged in conduct or activities in relation to gambling at the licensed premises that have encouraged, or are likely to encourage, the misuse and abuse of gambling activities.

[7] Section 125D

Insert after section 125C:

125D Responsible conduct of gambling activities

- (1) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to requiring or encouraging the adoption of responsible practices in relation to the gambling activities that may lawfully be conducted at licensed premises.
- (2) In particular, the regulations may make provision for or with respect to the following:
 - (a) restricting or prohibiting the conduct of promotions or other activities (including advertising),
 - (b) the standards to be observed on licensed premises for the conduct of responsible gambling activities,
 - (c) requiring licensees, managers or other persons involved or proposing to be involved in the conduct of gambling activities at licensed premises to undergo courses of training that will promote responsible practices in the conduct of those activities,
 - (d) the prohibition or restriction of the offering of inducements, or inducements of a kind, specified in the regulations,
 - (e) the information to be provided and signs to be displayed about gambling activities at licensed premises,
 - (f) the notices to be displayed with respect to the availability of counselling in respect of financial, social or other problems that may arise in connection with gambling,

- (g) requiring facilities on licensed premises for the withdrawal or transfer of money from banks and authorised deposit-taking institutions (such as ATMs and EFTPOS) to be installed or located in parts of the premises that are separate from parts of those premises where gambling activities are conducted,
 - (h) the provision of anonymity at the request of a gambler who has won a major prize.
- (3) The regulations under this section may create offences punishable by a penalty not exceeding 50 penalty units.
 - (4) It is the intention of Parliament that regulations under this section will be made as soon as practicable after the date of assent to the Gambling Legislation Amendment (Responsible Gambling) Act 1999.

[8] Section 125F

Insert after section 125E:

125F Industry codes of practice

- (1) For the purpose of providing practical guidance for the promotion of responsible practices in the conduct of gambling activities at licensed premises, the Minister is, within 6 months after the date of assent to the Gambling Legislation Amendment (Responsible Gambling) Act 1999, to approve an industry code of practice that sets out the standards to be observed by licensed premises for the responsible conduct of gambling activities.
- (2) The Minister may approve as an industry code of practice any code, standard or document relating to such standards prepared or formulated by the Australian Hotels Association (NSW) or any other body or authority.
- (3) The Minister may approve any amendment of the code of practice or revoke the approval of the code of practice.
- (4) The Minister is to publish in the Gazette:
 - (a) the approved code of practice, and
 - (b) any approved amendment of the code of practice, and

- (c) the revocation of an approval of a code of practice.
- (5) The Minister is to cause a copy of the approved code of practice and, if any amendment to the code has been approved, a copy of the amendment, to be made available for inspection by members of the public without charge at the offices of the Department of Gaming and Racing during normal office hours.

[9] Sections 126A and 126B

Insert after section 126:

126A Prohibition on extension of credit for gambling

- (1) A responsible person for licensed premises must not extend, or offer to extend, a cash advance or any other form of credit to another person for the purpose of enabling the other person to gamble at the licensed premises.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extension of a cash advance in the form of a prize or bonus provided as referred to in section 20 (4A).
- (3) In this section:

responsible person for licensed premises means the following:

- (a) the licensee,
- (b) the manager of the premises,
- (c) an agent or employee of the licensee or manager,
- (d) a person acting or purporting to act on behalf of the licensee or manager.

126B Misrepresentation or misdescription of credit transactions

- (1) A responsible person for licensed premises must not, in any transaction involving a payment to the licensed premises by means of a credit facility provided by a bank or authorised deposit-taking institution, describe or represent any cash advance extended to another person who the responsible person knows, or could reasonably be expected to know, intends to use the cash advance to gamble at the licensed premises to be a payment for goods or services lawfully provided on the licensed premises or elsewhere.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

(2) In this section:

responsible person has the same meaning as it has in section 126A.

[10] Section 150B

Insert after section 150A:

150B Liability with respect to self-exclusion schemes

(1) In this section:

self-exclusion scheme means a scheme:

- (a) in which a person (“the participant”) is prevented, at his or her own request, from entering or remaining on any part or parts of licensed premises used for gambling, and
- (b) that is conducted by the licensed premises in accordance with any requirements prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

(2) It is lawful for a responsible person for licensed premises, using no more force than is reasonable in the circumstances:

- (a) to prevent a participant in a self-exclusion scheme from entering those parts of the premises used for gambling, and
- (b) to remove such a person from those parts of the premises or cause such a person to be removed from them.

(3) No civil or criminal liability is incurred by a responsible person for licensed premises for any act done or omitted in good faith and in accordance with this section to or in respect of a participant in a self-exclusion scheme conducted at the licensed premises.

(4) In this section:

responsible person for licensed premises means the following:

- (a) the licensee,
- (b) the manager of the premises,
- (c) an agent or employee of the licensee or manager,
- (d) any other person involved in the conduct of gambling activities at the premises.

[11] Section 158A

Insert after section 158:

158A Card-operated approved amusement devices

- (1) Without limiting section 158, the Board may declare that a device is an approved amusement device under that section if the device is a device that can be operated by means of a card of a kind or kinds prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) The Board may declare a device to be an approved amusement device as referred to in subsection (1) only if the Board considers that the device complies with the requirements of the regulations (if any) prescribed for approved amusement devices for the purposes of this section.
- (3) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to cards for the operation of approved amusement devices, and in particular with respect to the following:
 - (a) the kinds of cards that may be used to operate approved amusement devices,
