- (4) The Director-General is to determine an application for the renewal of a licence:
 - (a) by granting the application and issuing a licence to the applicant, or

- (3) The authority conferred by a licence ceases to have effect during the period that the licence is suspended.
- (4) However, the Director-General may authorise a person, during the period that a licence is suspended, to cultivate or supply, in accordance with the conditions of the licence, any low-THC hemp that was in the possession of the licence holder immediately before the suspension took effect.

16 Revocation of licence

- (1) A licence may be revoked by the Director-General:
 - (a) if the licensee contravenes any provision of this Act or the regulations, whether or not the licensee has been convicted of an offence for the contravention, or
 - (b) on such other grounds as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Note. Failing to comply with the conditions of a licence is a contravention of the Act.
- (2) The Director-General must revoke a licence if the Director-General is satisfied that, if the licensee were applying for a new licence, the application would be required by this Act to be refused.
- (3) A licence is revoked by the Director-General by serving on the licensee a written notice stating that the licence is revoked. The revocation takes effect when the notice is served or on a later date specified in the notice.
