34A Compulsory transfer determinations

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) cancels the licence of a trustee company (the transferring company) and makes a determination under section 601WBA of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth that there is to be a transfer of estate assets and liabilities from the transferring company to another licensed trustee company (the receiving company), and
  - (b) ASIC issues a certificate of transfer under section 601WBG of that Act for the transfer, and
  - (c) either the transferring company or the receiving company (or both) is registered in New South Wales.
- (2) When the certificate of transfer comes into force, the receiving company is taken to be the successor in law in relation to estate assets and liabilities of the transferring company, to the extent of the transfer.

Note. Section 601WBG of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth requires the certificate of transfer to state when it is to come into force.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2):
  - (a) if the transfer is a total transfer—all of the assets and liabilities of the transferring company become assets and liabilities of the receiving company (without the need for any further conveyance, transfer, assignment or assurance), and
  - (b) if the transfer is a partial transfer—the assets and liabilities listed as referred to in section 601WBG (2) (c) of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth of the transferring company become assets and liabilities of the receiving company (without the need for any further conveyance, transfer, assignment or assurance), and
  - (c) to the extent of the transfer, the duties, obligations, immunities, rights and privileges applying to the transferring company apply to the receiving company, and
  - (d) if the certificate includes provisions of the kind referred to in section 601WBG (3) of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth specifying:

- (i) that particular things are to happen or are taken to be the case—those things are, by force of this section, taken to happen, or to be the case, in accordance with those provisions, and
  - (ii) a mechanism for determining things that are to happen or are taken to be the case—things determined in accordance with the mechanism are, by force of this section, taken to happen, or to be the case, as determined in accordance with that mechanism.
- (4) The operation of this section is not to be regarded as:
- (a) a breach of contract or confidence or otherwise as a civil wrong, or
  - (b) a breach of any instrument (including, without limitation, any provision prohibiting, restricting or regulating the assignment or transfer of assets or liabilities), or
  - (c) an event of default under any contract or other instrument, or
  - (d) giving rise to any remedy by a party to a contract or other instrument, or as causing or permitting the termination of, or exercise of rights under, any contract or other instrument.

34B Exemption from State tax

- (1) In this section:
- exempt matter* means the transfer of the estate assets and liabilities of a transferring company to a receiving company under Division 2 of Part 5D.6 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.
- State tax* means application or registration fees, duty under the Duties Act 1997 or any other tax, duty, fee or charge imposed by any Act or law of the State.
- (2) State tax is not payable in relation to:
- (a) an exempt matter, or
  - (b) anything done because of, or for a purpose connected with or arising out of, an exempt matter.

[12] Sections 35–36B

Omit the sections.

[13] Section 37 Regulations

Omit section 37 (2).

1 Regulations

- (1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the following Acts:

Trustee Companies Amendment Act 2000

Trustee Companies Amendment Act 2009

- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication on the NSW legislation website, the provision does not operate so as:
- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
  - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.
