13 Definitions

In this Part:

commencement date means the date on which section 15 was inserted by the Technical and Further Education Commission Amendment (Staff Employment) Act 2011.

existing staff member means:

- (a) a person who, immediately before the commencement date, was employed under Chapter 1A of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 in the TAFE Commission Division of the Government Service, or
- (b) a person who:
  - (i) immediately before the commencement date, was employed in the Department of Education and Communities, and
  - (ii) in the opinion of the Director-General of the Department given in writing, was so employed primarily to assist the TAFE Commission in the exercise of its functions, and
  - (iii) was not so employed under Part 3.1 of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002.

transferred staff member means an existing staff member who is transferred to the employment of the TAFE Commission by operation of clause 14.

transitional period, in relation to a transferred staff member, means whichever is the shorter of the following periods:

- (a) the period of 12 months beginning on the commencement date,
- (b) the period beginning on the commencement date and ending immediately before the date on which an enterprise agreement (within the meaning of the Fair Work Act 2009 of the Commonwealth) first takes effect in relation to the staff member.

14    Transfer of existing staff members to employ of TAFE Commission

On the commencement date, each existing staff member is transferred to the employment of the TAFE Commission.

15    Employment arrangements for transferred staff members

- (1) The TAFE Commission is to take such action as is available to it as an employer of a transferred staff member to ensure that the provisions of this clause are implemented.
- (2) During the transitional period, the employment of a transferred staff member with the TAFE Commission is to be on the same terms and conditions relating to the following matters as applied immediately before the commencement date to the person's employment as an existing staff member:
  - (a) hours of work,
  - (b) salary,
  - (c) shift, overtime and penalty rates,
  - (d) allowances,
  - (e) leave (other than extended leave or long service leave).
- (3) A transferred staff member:
  - (a) retains any rights to annual leave, extended or long service leave, sick leave, and other forms of leave, accrued or accruing in his or her employment as an existing staff member, and
  - (b) is not entitled to receive any payment or other benefit merely because the member ceases to be in the employment from which the member was transferred, and
  - (c) is not entitled to claim, both under this Act or any other Act, dual benefits of the same kind for the same period of service.
- (4) Without limiting subclause (3), a transferred staff member is not, despite any other provision of this or any other Act, entitled to elect, because of that transfer, to be paid the money value of any extended or annual leave that the member accrued in the employment from which the member was transferred.

16    Jurisdiction of Industrial Relations Commission

- (1) On and from the commencement date, the Industrial Relations Commission has no jurisdiction to determine an industrial matter (within the meaning of the Industrial Relations Act 1996) relating to a member of staff if:

- (a) the Fair Work Act 2009 of the Commonwealth has excluded the application of State industrial laws (within the meaning of section 26 of that Act) in relation to the matter, or
  - (b) the matter is an appeal to which Part 7 of Chapter 2 of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 applies.
- (2) This clause does not affect the jurisdiction of the Industrial Relations Commission in relation to a matter that is the subject of an application under section 146B of the Industrial Relations Act 1996.
