New South Wales

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2014 No 88

Act No 88, 2014

An Act to repeal certain Acts and instruments and to amend certain other Acts and instruments in various respects and for the purpose of effecting statute law revision; and to make certain savings.
[Assented to 28 November 2014]

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2014.

2 Commencement

- (1) This Act commences on 8 January 2015.
- (2) However, the amendments made by the Schedules to this Act commence on the day or days specified in those Schedules in relation to the amendments concerned. If a commencement day is not specified, the amendments commence in accordance with subsection (1).

3 Explanatory notes

The matter appearing under the heading “Explanatory note” in any of the Schedules does not form part of this Act.

Schedule 1 Minor amendments

1.1 Bail Amendment Act 2014 No 52

Schedule 1 Amendment of Bail Act 2013 No 26

Omit “Firearms Act 1996” from proposed section 16B (1) (e) (i) in Schedule 1 [6].

Insert instead “Weapons Prohibition Act 1998”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Bail Amendment Act 2014 corrects a cross-reference in a provision that refers to offences involving the use of a military-style weapon. The Firearms Act 1996, which the provision mistakenly refers to, does not contain any such offences. The relevant offences are contained in the Crimes Act 1900 (correctly referred to in the provision) and the Weapons Prohibition Act 1998.

1.2 Combat Sports Act 2013 No 96

[1] Section 45 Revocation of permits by Commissioner of Police

Omit “A police officer of the rank of Assistant Commissioner or above” from section 45 (1).

Insert instead “The Commissioner of Police”.

[2] Section 45 (1)

Omit “the officer”. Insert instead “the Commissioner”.

[3] Section 45 (2)

Omit “A police officer”. Insert instead “The Commissioner of Police”.

[4] Section 45 (3)

Omit “a police officer”. Insert instead “the Commissioner of Police”.

[5] Section 45 (3)

Omit “the police officer”. Insert instead “the Commissioner”.

[6] Section 68 Consultation required for licensed premises

Omit “Director-General of the Department of Trade and Investment”.

Insert instead “Secretary of the Department of Trade and Investment, Regional Infrastructure and Services”.

[7] Section 84 Appointment of combat sport inspectors and exercise of inspectorial powers by others

Omit “Director-General of the Department of Education and Communities” from section 84 (1).

Insert instead “Chief Executive of the Office of Sport”.

[8] Section 105 Penalty notices

Omit section 105 (10). Insert instead:

(10) In this section:

authorised officer means any of the following:

(a) a police officer,

- (b) a member of the Authority,
- (c) a person employed in the Office of Sport who is authorised in writing by the Chief Executive of that Office as an authorised officer for the purposes of this section.

Commencement

The amendments to the Combat Sports Act 2013 commence, or are taken to have commenced, on the commencement of that Act.

Explanatory note

Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Combat Sports Act 2013 enables the Commissioner of Police to revoke a permit to hold a combat sport contest in certain circumstances, rather than (as is currently provided for) a police officer of the rank of Assistant Commissioner or above. The amendment will permit the Commissioner to delegate the power to revoke a permit to any police officer (under section 31 of the Police Act 1990). Items [2]–[5] make consequential amendments.

Item [8] ensures that police officers can issue penalty notices under the Combat Sports Act 2013, in addition to members of the Combat Sports Authority (as is currently provided for) and authorised staff of the Office of Sport (rather than, as is currently provided for, authorised staff of the Department of Education and Communities).

Item [6] corrects a reference to the head of a Department.

Item [7] replaces a reference to the head of the Department of Education and Communities with a reference to the Chief Executive of the Office of Sport.

1.3 Commercial Agents and Private Inquiry Agents Act 2004 No 70

Section 4 Definitions

Omit “section 50 of the Australian Consumer Law (NSW)” from paragraph (a) of the definition of minor offence in section 4 (1).

Insert instead “section 168 of the Australian Consumer Law (NSW)”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Commercial Agents and Private Inquiry Agents Act 2004 corrects a reference in a list of certain offences appearing in a definition of minor offence. Currently, the definition incorrectly refers to a prohibition on the unfair practices of harassment and coercion appearing in Part 3-1 of the Australian Consumer Law (NSW) (ACL (NSW)), rather than the associated offence appearing in Part 4-1 of the ACL (NSW). The proposed amendment corrects that error.

1.4 Conveyancers Licensing Act 2003 No 3

Section 79 Qualifications of auditors

Insert after section 79 (1) (a):

- (a1) is an authorised audit company within the meaning of the Corporations Act, or
- (a2) is a member of a professional accounting body within the meaning of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 of the Commonwealth and holds a Public Practice Certificate or Certificate of Public Practice issued by the body, or

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Conveyancers Licensing Act 2003 enables audits of licensees' records to be carried out by authorised audit companies and members of professional accounting bodies who hold a Public Practice Certificate.

1.5 Criminal Procedure Act 1986 No 209

[1] Section 130A Pre-trial orders and orders made during trial bind trial Judge

Insert “or given” after “made” in section 130A (4).

[2] Section 130A (5)

Insert after section 130A (4):

- (5) To avoid doubt, this section extends to a ruling given on the admissibility of evidence.

Explanatory note

Item [2] of the proposed amendments to the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 removes an uncertainty, raised by Simpson J in JG v R [2014] NSWCCA 138 as to whether section 130A of that Act applies to rulings on the admissibility of evidence. Item [1] makes a consequential amendment.

1.6 Electricity Supply Act 1995 No 94

[1] The whole Act (except Schedule 6)

distributor means a person who owns or controls a distribution system.

distributor’s licence means a licence referred to in section 14.

[8] Dictionary, definition of “distribution system”

Omit “point of supply” wherever occurring. Insert instead “connection point”.

[9] Dictionary, definition of “distribution system”

Insert “operated by Rail Corporation New South Wales or Transport for NSW” after “system” in paragraph (b).

Explanatory note

Item [3] of the proposed amendments to the Electricity Supply Act 1995 allows the regulations under that Act to provide for payment of fees in connection with an application for accreditation, or for renewal of accreditation, to provide electrical or other services.

Items [1], [2], [4], [5], [7] and [8] revise terminology to align it with terms used in the National Energy Retail Law (NSW).

Items [6] and [9] update references to the operators of the rail network electricity system.

Explanatory note

Item [2] of the proposed amendments to the Electricity Supply (Safety and Network Management) Regulation 2014 (the Regulation) requires a fee to accompany an application for accreditation, or for renewal of accreditation, to provide electrical or other services if the Scheme Rules made under the Regulation specify a fee. Item [3] permits the Scheme Rules to prescribe the required fee. Items [2] and [3] are related to item [2] of the proposed amendments to the Electricity Supply Act 1995 in this Schedule.

Items [1], [4] and [5] revise terminology consequential on item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Electricity Supply Act 1995 in this Schedule.

Omit “and 16 of Schedule 5”. Insert instead “, 16 and 22 of Schedule 5”.

[2] Schedule 3, clause 1 (1)

Omit “or 16 of Schedule 5”. Insert instead “, 16 or 22 of Schedule 5”.

[3] Schedule 5 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Insert after clause 20:

Part 5 Provisions consequent on repeal of Pacific Power (Dissolution) Act 2003 by Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2014

21 Definition

In this Part:

former authority means the Residual Business Management Corporation constituted by the Pacific Power (Dissolution) Act 2003.

22 Dissolution of Residual Business Management Corporation

- (1) The former authority is dissolved.
- (2) The assets, rights and liabilities of the former authority immediately before its dissolution are transferred to the Crown by this clause.
- (3) Despite clause 4 of Schedule 3, the transfer of assets, rights and liabilities under this clause takes effect on 8 January 2015.
- (4) The SAS Trustee Corporation may, at the request of the Treasurer, debit all or part of the funds from an employer reserve of the former authority in an account established under section 81 of the Superannuation Administration Act 1996 and credit that amount to an employer reserve of the Crown established under that section.

Explanatory note

Item [3] of the proposed amendments to the Energy Services Corporations Act 1995 dissolves the Residual Business Management Corporation (RBMC) and transfers the assets, rights and liabilities of RBMC to the Crown. RBMC was constituted under the Pacific Power (Dissolution) Act 2003 to manage the residual assets, rights and liabilities of the former Pacific Power. That Act is proposed to be repealed by Schedule 3.

Item [3] also enables funds held by the SAS Trustee Corporation for the purposes of the superannuation benefits of former employees of Pacific Power to be transferred from an employer reserve of RBMC to an employer reserve of the Crown.

Items [1] and [2] make consequential amendments. Other amendments to other Acts that are consequential on the dissolution of RBMC are proposed to be made in this Schedule.

1.10 Fair Trading Act 1987 No 68

Section 8 Delegation by Director-General

Omit section 8 (1) (c).

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Fair Trading Act 1987 omits a provision that allows the Commissioner for Fair Trading, Office of Finance and Services to delegate functions imposed under the Home Building Act 1989. The provision is redundant as the Commissioner already has, under section 122 of that Act, a power to delegate those functions.

1.11 First State Superannuation Act 1992 No 100

Schedule 1 Employers

Omit “Residual Business Management Corporation”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the First State Superannuation Act 1992 is consequential on the dissolution of the Residual Business Management Corporation proposed to be effected by the amendments to the Energy Services Corporations Act 1995 in this Schedule.

1.12 Health Administration Act 1982 No 135

Section 20L Definitions

Omit “health support services” from paragraph (d) of the definition of relevant health services organisation.

Insert instead “services”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Health Administration Act 1982 corrects terminology (replacing a reference to “health support services” provided by the Secretary of the Ministry of Health with the broader concept of “health services”) as a consequence of amendments made to the Health Services Act 1997 in 2010. Service is defined in the section proposed to be amended to mean a health service, including any administrative or other service related to a health service.

1.13 Holiday Parks (Long-term Casual Occupation) Act 2002 No 88

Schedule 1 Terms that are taken to be in every occupation agreement

Omit “3 months” from clause 40 (2). Insert instead “90 days”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Holiday Parks (Long-term Casual Occupation) Act 2002 expresses the notice period for giving a notice of termination of an occupation agreement in days, rather than months, for consistency with other notice periods in that Act.

1.14 Law Enforcement and National Security (Assumed Identities) Act 2010 No 73

Section 6 Determination of applications

1.15 Motor Accidents Compensation Act 1999 No 41

Section 74 Form of notice of claim

Omit section 74 (4).

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Motor Accidents Compensation Act 1999 removes the requirement for a notice of a motor accident claim given to an insurer to be verified by statutory declaration.

The requirement for a statutory declaration in such circumstances is made redundant by section 307C of the Crimes Act 1900, which makes it an offence for a person to produce a false or misleading document in compliance with a law of the State (maximum penalty of 2 years' imprisonment or a fine of 200 penalty units, or both).

1.16 Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013 No 107

[1] Section 69 Limitation periods

Omit “Unregistrable second-hand” from the heading to section 69 (9).

Insert instead “(other than a motor cycle of a design that makes it incapable of being registered in this State)”.

Commencement

The amendments to the Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013 commence, or are taken to have commenced, on the commencement of section 69 of that Act.

Explanatory note

Item [2] of the proposed amendments to the Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013 (the 2013 Act) corrects a provision dealing with limitation periods that was incorrectly transcribed from the Motor Dealers Act 1974 (the 1974 Act). (The 2013 Act is to replace the 1974 Act.) The amendment will ensure that motor dealers of certain second-hand motor cycles, other than motor cycles having a design that makes them incapable of being registered in New South Wales, are required to repair defects occurring within the applicable limitation period (instead of being required to repair defects only if the second-hand motor cycles concerned are incapable of being registered).

Item [1] corrects a heading.

1.17 Motor Dealers and Repairers Regulation 2014

Schedule 2 Forms

Omit “an unregistrable” from Section 3 of Form 7. Insert instead “a”.

Commencement

The amendment to the Motor Dealers and Repairers Regulation 2014 commences, or is taken to have commenced, on the commencement of section 69 of the Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Motor Dealers and Repairers Regulation 2014 is consequential on the proposed amendment to section 69 (9) of the Motor Dealers and Repairers Act 2013 in this Schedule.

- (b) a person is eligible to be elected as a councillor or delegate of the Federation only if the person is a member of such a parents and citizens association.

1.19 Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Act 1971 No 53

Section 14 Trustees of the Fund

Omit section 14 (2). Insert instead:

- (2) A person holding office as trustee does not vacate that office on ceasing to be a member by reason of the dissolution or expiry of the Legislative Assembly, but continues in office until the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly (as the case requires) appoints a successor.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Act 1971 enables the existing trustees of the Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Fund who are appointed by the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly to continue in office, despite ceasing to be members because of the dissolution or expiry of the Assembly before a State general election, until the Assembly or Council appoints a successor after the State general election.

The Parliamentary Remuneration Tribunal has, under section 4 of the Parliamentary Contributory Superannuation Act 1971, issued a certificate approving this Bill. Such a certificate is required before Parliament can deal with a Bill that amends that Act.

1.20 Parole Orders (Transfer) Act 1983 No 190

[1] Section 3 Definitions

Omit the definition of corresponding law. Insert instead:

corresponding law means a law of another State or Territory relating to the transfer of parole orders that corresponds (or substantially corresponds) to the provisions of this Act, and includes a law of another State or Territory declared by the Minister, by notice published in the Gazette, to be a corresponding law for the purposes of this Act.

[2] Section 15

Insert after section 14:

15 Confirmation of meaning of “corresponding law”

- (1) Anything done or omitted to be done under or for the purposes of this Act before the substitution of the definition of corresponding law in section 3 by the amending Act that would have been valid had the definition been in force when it was done or omitted to be done is (to the extent of any invalidity) taken to be, and always to have been, valid.
- (2) For the avoidance of doubt, it is declared that each of the following laws (while in force) has been a corresponding law for the purposes of this Act (including subsection (1)):
 - (a) the Crimes (Sentence Administration) Act 2005 of the Australian Capital Territory,
 - (b) the Parole Orders (Transfer) Act 1983 of the Australian Capital Territory (including when it was named the Parole Orders (Transfer) Ordinance 1983),
 - (c) the Parole Orders (Transfer) Act of the Northern Territory,
 - (d) the Parole Orders (Transfer) Act 1984 of Queensland,
 - (e) the Parole Orders (Transfer) Act 1983 of South Australia,
 - (f) the Parole Orders (Transfer) Act 1983 of Tasmania,
 - (g) the Parole Orders (Transfer) Act 1983 of Victoria,
 - (h) the Parole Orders (Transfer) Act 1984 of Western Australia.
- (3) Any notice made for the purposes of the definition of corresponding law in section 3 before its substitution by the amending Act that was in force immediately before that substitution continues in force as a notice for the purposes of the substituted definition.
- (4) In this section:
amending Act means the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2014.

Explanatory note

Item [1] of the proposed amendments to the Parole Orders (Transfer) Act 1983 replaces the definition of corresponding law in the Act with a definition that provides for a law of another State or Territory that corresponds (or substantially corresponds) to the provisions of the Act to be treated as a corresponding law without the need for a notice to be published by the Minister declaring the law to be a corresponding law (as is currently the case).

Item [2] confirms the meaning that the term corresponding law has had since the enactment of the Act and, where necessary, validates anything done (or omitted to be done) by reference to that meaning.

1.21 Public Authorities (Financial Arrangements) Regulation 2013

Omit “Residual Business Management Corporation”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 is consequential on the dissolution of the Residual Business Management Corporation proposed to be effected by the amendments to the Energy Services Corporations Act 1995 in this Schedule.

Item [2] broadens the operation of section 118 of the Act to allow employees and other persons authorised by the operator of a community under a site agreement to sign a termination notice terminating the agreement with a home owner.

[1] Section 95 Occupants remaining in residential premises

Section 47A of the Constitution Act 1902 precludes the Board from employing staff.

Item [6] is a related amendment, which makes it a condition of these classes of licence that the licensee does not carry on the security activity authorised by the licence with a dog.

Item [2] clarifies that the security activities that a class 2A or class 2B licence authorises include certain activities specified in the definition of security activity in the Act. In particular, the amendment clarifies that the authority conferred by a class 2A licence includes selling security methods or principles and that the authority conferred by a class 2B licence includes acting as an agent, broker or intermediary in certain circumstances.

Items [3] and [4] omit provisions that require the Commissioner of Police to nominate a place where an applicant for a licence is to collect the licence, since it is the practice now for licences to be collected or posted. Items [8] and [9] make consequential amendments.

Item [5] requires class 1 and class 2 licences to contain a recent photograph of the licensee and bear the licensee's signature. Photographs and signatures can currently be required at the discretion of the Commissioner, whose practice is to require photographs and signatures for all class 1 and class 2 licences but not for master licences. Under the amended provision, the Commissioner retains the discretion to require a photograph or signature (or both) in the case of master licences.

Item [7] specifies when a licence (other than a renewed licence) comes into force, replacing a current provision stating that a licence comes into force on the day on which it is collected. In particular, the amendment provides that a master licence comes into force on the date specified in the licence, and that a class 1 or 2 licence comes into force on the day on which the licence is collected or (if the licence is posted to the licensee) 4 working days after the relevant photograph of the licensee was taken.

Item [10] enables certificate evidence to be given that a penalty notice had been issued to a specified person for a specified offence (rather than in respect of a licence, as at present, since penalty notices are not necessarily issued to licensees). The amendment also removes the requirement for the certificate to specify that the amount of the penalty had or had not been paid in the time specified by the penalty notice (to reflect the fact that a penalty notice may be paid after that time, for instance, after the person has been served with a penalty reminder notice or a penalty notice enforcement order).

1 Effect of amendment of amending provisions

- (1) An amendment made by Schedule 1 or 2 to an amending provision contained in an Act or instrument is, if the amending provision has commenced before the Schedule 1 or 2 amendment concerned, taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision (whether or not the amending provision has been repealed).
- (2) In this clause:
amending provision means a provision of an Act or instrument that makes a direct amendment to an Act or instrument by:
 - (a) the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act or instrument without the insertion of any matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter, or
 - (b) the omission of matter contained in the amended Act or instrument and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter, or
 - (c) the insertion into the amended Act or instrument of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act or instrument.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that certain amendments, including amendments correcting errors in technical provisions (for example, headings indicating the section to be amended or directions as to where a new section is to be inserted) and rectifying minor drafting errors (for example, corrections in numbering of provisions, correction or insertion of cross-references, omission of unnecessary matter or insertion of omitted matter), will be taken to have commenced on the date the amendments to which they relate commenced.

2 Effect of amendment or repeal on acts done or decisions made

Except where it is expressly provided to the contrary, if this Act:

- (a) amends a provision of an Act or an instrument, or
- (b) repeals and re-enacts (with or without modification) a provision of an Act or an instrument, any act done or decision made under the provision amended or repealed has effect after the amendment or repeal as if it had been done or made under the provision as so amended or repealed.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that the amendment or repeal of a provision will not, unless expressly provided, vitiate any act done or decision made under the provision as in force before the amendment or repeal.

3 Effect of amendment on instruments

Except where expressly provided to the contrary, any instrument made under an Act amended by this Act, that is in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment, is taken to have been made under the Act as amended.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that, unless expressly provided, any instrument that is in force and made under a provision of an Act that is amended or substituted by the proposed Act will be taken to have been made under the Act as amended.

4 Revocation of repeal

Section 29A of the Interpretation Act 1987 applies to the repeal of Acts, or provisions of Acts or instruments, by this Act.

Explanatory note

The effect of this clause is to enable the Governor, by proclamation, to revoke the repeal by the proposed Act of any Act or any provision of an Act or instrument. The Act or provision the subject of the revocation of repeal is taken not to be, and never to have been, repealed.

5 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.
- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication on the NSW legislation website, the provision does not operate so as:
 - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Explanatory note

This clause enables the making of regulations of a savings or transitional nature having a short term effect and relating to incidental matters arising out of the proposed Act with regard to which no specific, or sufficient, provision has been made in the proposed Act.
