  - (b) any election under section 20 (Right to convert pension to lump sum entitlement) in respect of the pension (since the person last became a member) is of no effect and is taken never to have been made, and any lump sum payment made under this Part pursuant to any such election is to be repaid to the Fund, and
  - (c) the person’s net contributions are to be refunded to the person, except as otherwise provided by this section.
- (4A) If the person, before being convicted of the serious offence, had been in receipt of a pension or had received a lump sum payment pursuant to an election under section 20, the trustees may refund net contributions by deducting the amount of the refund from any pension already paid, or any lump sum payment, that the person is required to repay to the Fund under subsection (4).
