The proposed amendment extends section 14A of the Annual Holidays Act 1944 (which allows a local council and an employee of the local council to agree to the employee receiving a payment in lieu of annual holidays, or taking annual holidays at double or half pay) to county councils and joint organisations and their employees. Treating employee leave entitlements consistently across these entities recognises that county councils and joint organisations are created to allow councils to work together to deliver services and that employees often transfer between these entities.

1.3 Anzac Memorial (Building) Act 1923 No 27

Section 3C Australian Defence Force representative

Insert after section 3C(3)—

not affected by a change in the position held by the person during the person's term of office as a trustee.

Explanatory note

Item [1] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that the requirement for a progress payment under a construction contract, which is required to be paid by a principal to a head contractor no later than 15 business days after a payment claim is made, does not apply to an exempt residential construction contract.

Item [2] enables the regulations to apply, adopt or incorporate any publication as in force at a particular time or as in force from time to time. This allows for updates to the Continuing Professional Development Guidelines for Adjudicators (CPD Guidelines) and ensures that continuing professional development requirements, as informed by the CPD Guidelines, remain relevant for adjudicators.

Omit “or special officer”.

Explanatory note

Item [4] of the proposed amendments omits a provision that allows the Ombudsman to appoint an officer of the Ombudsman to be a special officer, to whom the Ombudsman can delegate functions. The provision is unnecessary as, in practice, the Ombudsman delegates functions to the Assistant Ombudsman, who is deemed a special officer under section 8A(2), and officers of the Ombudsman, any of whom can be appointed a special officer. The role of special officer inserts an unnecessary bureaucratic step in the process of creating delegations and has no other purpose under the Ombudsman Act 1974. Items [1]–[3], [5]–[8] and [10]–[12] make consequential amendments.

Item [9] of the proposed amendments enables the Ombudsman to orally inform a complainant about the Ombudsman’s decision in relation to a complaint if the complaint was made orally, unless the complainant asks the Ombudsman to inform the complaint in writing. The proposed amendment also makes it clear that the Ombudsman may inform the complainant about the decision in writing if the Ombudsman considers it appropriate in the circumstances.

Schedule 6 General savings, transitional and other provisions

1 Effect of amendment of amending provisions

- (1) An amendment made by Schedule 1 to an amending provision contained in an Act or instrument is, if the amending provision has commenced before the Schedule 1 amendment concerned, taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision, whether or not the amending provision has been repealed.
- (2) In this clause—
amending provision means a provision of an Act or instrument that makes a direct amendment to an Act or instrument by—
 - (a) the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act or instrument without the insertion of any matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter, or
 - (b) the omission of matter contained in the amended Act or instrument and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter, or
 - (c) the insertion into the amended Act or instrument of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act or instrument.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that an amendment made by the proposed Act to a repealing or amending provision of an Act or instrument will (if the repealing or amending provision commences before the amendment made by the proposed Act) be taken to have commenced on the date the repealing or amending provision commences.

2 Effect of amendment or repeal on acts done or decisions made

Unless expressly provided to the contrary, if this Act—

- (a) amends a provision of an Act or an instrument, or
- (b) repeals and re-enacts (with or without modification) a provision of an Act or an instrument, any act done or decision made under the provision amended or repealed has effect after the amendment or repeal as if it had been done or made under the provision as so amended or repealed.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that the amendment or repeal of a provision will not, unless expressly provided, vitiate any act done or decision made under the provision as in force before the amendment or repeal.

3 Effect of amendment on instruments

Unless expressly provided to the contrary, any instrument made under an Act amended by this Act, that is in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment, is taken to have been made under the Act as amended.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that, unless expressly provided, any instrument that is in force and made under a provision of an Act that is amended or substituted by the proposed Act will be taken to have been made under the Act as amended.

4 Revocation of repeal

Section 29A of the Interpretation Act 1987 applies to the repeal of Acts or instruments, or provisions of Acts or instruments, by this Act.

Explanatory note

The effect of this clause is to enable the Governor, by proclamation, to revoke the repeal of any Act or instrument, or any provision of any Act or instrument, by the proposed Act. The Act or instrument, or provision, the subject of the revocation of repeal is taken not to be, and never to have been, repealed.

5 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.
- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication on the NSW legislation website, the provision does not operate so as—
 - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Explanatory note
