Part 3 Resolution of disputes

10 Purpose of part

The purpose of this part is to facilitate the resolution of disputes in relation to live music and performance venues through mediation and other appropriate forms of alternative dispute resolution.

11 Definitions

In this part—dispute—see section 12(1).

head, of a Public Service agency, has the same meaning as in the Government Sector Employment Act 2013.

live music and performance venue means—

- (a) a dedicated live music and performance venue within the meaning of the Liquor Act 2007, or
- (b) another venue at which live music is played or live performances are held.

mediation—see section 13(1).

mediation policy means the policy approved under section 19.

mediator—see section 13(2).

Public Service agency has the same meaning as in the Government Sector Employment Act 2013.

Public Service employee has the same meaning as in the Government Sector Employment Act 2013.

significant venue means a live music and performance venue that meets the criteria specified in the mediation policy.

12 Meaning of “dispute”

- (1) In this part, a dispute is a disagreement or conflict between—
- (a) the licensee, or owner or operator, of a live music and performance venue, and
 - (b) another person, including a local council.

Example— a disagreement about compliance with a development consent

- (2) A dispute does not include a disagreement or conflict prescribed by the regulations.

Example— The regulations may provide that a disagreement for which another resolution process exists is not a dispute for this part.

13 Meaning of “mediation” and “mediator”

- (1) In this part, mediation is not limited to formal mediation procedures and includes the following—
- (a) preliminary assistance in dispute resolution, including the giving of advice designed to ensure—
 - (i) the parties are fully aware of the parties’ rights and obligations, and
 - (ii) full and open communication between the parties about the dispute,
 - (b) other appropriate forms of alternative dispute resolution.

- (2) A reference in this part to a mediator—

- (a) means a person appointed in accordance with the mediation policy, and
- (b) includes a reference to a person who provides assistance or a form of alternative dispute resolution referred to in subsection (1).

14 Applications for mediation to assist in resolving disputes

- (1) The licensee, or owner or operator, of a live music and performance venue may apply to the Minister for mediation to be provided to assist in resolving a dispute in relation to the venue.
- (2) The application must be made in the way decided by the Minister.

15 Decisions about applications for mediation

If the Minister receives an application under section 14(1) for mediation to be provided, the Minister must decide the following in accordance with the mediation policy—

- (a) whether the live music and performance venue is or is not a significant venue,
- (b) whether mediation will or will not be provided to assist in resolving the dispute in relation to the venue.

16 Decision to refer dispute for mediation

- (1) The Minister may refer a dispute to a mediator for mediation under this part if the Minister is satisfied—
- (a) the live music and performance venue is a significant venue, and

- (b) the dispute relates to the operation of the venue's business of providing live music and performances, and
 - (c) it is in the public interest for the Minister to refer the dispute for mediation under this part.
- (2) The Minister may decline to refer a dispute for mediation under this part if, in the Minister's opinion, the dispute is vexatious or trivial.
- (3) The Minister may, with the agreement of the head of a Public Service agency, decide to refer a dispute to the Public Service agency for case management.
- (4) The Minister may, for the purposes of deciding how to deal with a dispute—
 - (a) make preliminary inquiries, and
 - (b) ask the person requesting the mediation for further information.

17 Legal representation of parties to mediation

A party to mediation is not entitled to be legally represented at the mediation unless—

- (a) all other parties to the mediation consent to the representation, or
- (b) the mediator has agreed, on the application of the party, to the party being legally represented.

18 Participation in mediation

For the purposes of mediation under this part, a mediator may, by written notice given to a person, ask the person to—

- (a) give the mediator information, specified in the notice, relating to the person's dealings with a significant venue within the reasonable time specified in the notice, or
- (b) attend a meeting at a time and place specified in the notice, or
- (c) produce, at a time and place specified in the notice, to the mediator a document or other thing specified in the notice that—
 - (i) is in the possession or under the control of the person, and
 - (ii) in the mediator's opinion, would benefit the resolution of the dispute.

19 Minister may issue policy about mediation

- (1) The Minister may issue a policy about matters relating to mediation under this part.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a mediation policy may provide for the following—
 - (a) the criteria to be considered in deciding whether a venue is a significant venue,
 - (b) the process for referring a dispute to mediation or case management,
 - (c) matters relating to mediators, including—
 - (i) eligibility for, and other matters relating to, appointment, and
 - (ii) functions, and
 - (iii) protection from liability,
 - (d) arrangements for the use of the services of Public Service employees or resources of Public Service agencies for the purposes of mediation,
 - (e) procedural matters for mediation,

- (f) the certification of outcomes of mediation.

20 Delegation

The Minister may delegate the exercise of a function of the Minister, other than this power of delegation, to—

- (a) a Public Service employee, or
- (b) a person authorised for this section by the regulations.

Part 4 Miscellaneous

21 Regulations

The Governor may make regulations about the following matters—

- (a) a matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed,
- (b) a matter that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

Planning Minister means the Minister administering the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979, Parts 3 and 4.

precinct management plan—see section 202D(2).

special entertainment precinct—see section 202B.

State environmental planning policy has the same meaning as in the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979.

202A Meaning of “entertainment activity”

- (1) An entertainment activity—
 - (a) means an activity carried out for the purposes of entertaining members of the public, including—
 - (i) live or recorded music, and
 - (ii) other performances and activities carried out for the purposes of entertaining members of the public, for example, karaoke, trivia, bingo and comedy, and
 - (b) includes the following if carried out in the course of a business to which a liquor licence applies or that otherwise provides hospitality services—
 - (i) a private function, for example, a wedding, party or ticketed event,
 - (ii) the provision of food and drink services, whether accompanied by another activity mentioned in paragraph (a) or not.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), entertainment activity also includes activities associated with activities referred to in that subsection including—
 - (a) the set up and pack down of the activities, and
 - (b) rehearsals and sound checks associated with the activities, and
 - (c) the entry or exit of persons from premises on which the activities are being carried out, and
 - (d) other activity by patrons or staff on the premises on which the activities are being carried out, for example, staff announcements and sound caused by patrons.

202B Meaning of “special entertainment precinct”

- (1) A special entertainment precinct is an area in which—
 - (a) sound from entertainment activity from premises in the area is regulated in accordance with a precinct management plan, and
 - (b) requirements about sound attenuation included in a precinct management plan apply to certain types of development in the area, and
 - (c) dedicated live music and performance venues are authorised to trade for an additional 60 minutes under the Liquor Act 2007, section 12A(4).
- (2) If the area for which a special entertainment precinct is established includes relevant premises—
 - (a) the premises are taken not to be included in the special entertainment precinct, and
 - (b) the precinct management plan for the special entertainment precinct does not apply to the premises.
- (3) In this section—

relevant premises means the following—

 - (a) premises used for the purposes of a brothel or other sex services,
 - (b) premises used for adult entertainment of a sexual nature,
 - (c) premises that, due to the nature of the business conducted on the premises, restrict access to patrons or customers who are 18 years of age or older.

Example for paragraph (c)— sex shops, adult bookstores

202C Establishing special entertainment precincts

- (1) A special entertainment precinct may be established—
 - (a) by the council for the area in which the precinct will be located, by identifying the precinct in a local environmental plan that applies to the land on which the precinct will be located, or
 - (b) in a State environmental planning policy—
 - (i) at the request of the council for the area in which the precinct will be located, or
 - (ii) if all of the following apply—
 - (A) a local environmental plan does not apply to the land, or any part of the land, on which the precinct will be located,
 - (B) the Planning Minister is the consent authority for development on the land or part of the land,
 - (C) the council for the area in which the precinct is located endorses the establishment of the precinct.
- (2) A special entertainment precinct may consist of—
 - (a) a single premises, or
 - (b) a precinct, streetscape or otherwise defined locality in the council’s area.
- (3) If a special entertainment precinct is established, the council for the area in which the precinct is located must notify the following persons about the precinct, including by publishing a notice on the council’s website and by a notation on planning certificates for land in the precinct—
 - (a) residents of the area,

- (b) persons moving into the area.

202D Preparation of precinct management plan

- (1) This section applies if a special entertainment precinct is proposed to be established.
- (2) Before the special entertainment precinct is established, the council for the area in which the special entertainment precinct will be located must prepare a plan (a precinct management plan) that provides for the following—
 - (a) the trading hours for premises in the special entertainment precinct,
 - (b) the regulation of sound from entertainment activity from premises in the special entertainment precinct,
 - (c) that the process for managing complaints in relation to licensed premises in the proposed special entertainment precinct is the process set out in the Liquor Act 2007, Part 5, Division 3.
- (3) If the special entertainment precinct is to be established by a State environmental planning policy, the council must prepare the precinct management plan in consultation with the Planning Minister.
- (4) A copy of the precinct management plan must be published on the website of the council for the area in which the special entertainment precinct is proposed to be established.

202E Relationship with other instruments

- (1) A condition of a development consent that is inconsistent with the following matters in a precinct management plan ceases to have effect to the extent of the inconsistency—
 - (a) the trading hours for premises in a special entertainment precinct,
 - (b) the regulation of sound from entertainment activity from premises in the special entertainment precinct,
 - (c) the provision of live entertainment in the special entertainment precinct.

Examples of conditions inconsistent with a precinct management plan—

 - a condition of a development consent that prohibits live entertainment in its entirety
 - a condition of a development consent that prohibits live entertainment after a specified time if the precinct management plan allows live entertainment after that time
- (2) A condition of a complying development certificate that is inconsistent with the following matters in a precinct management plan ceases to have effect to the extent of the inconsistency—
 - (a) the trading hours for premises in a special entertainment precinct,
 - (b) the regulation of sound from entertainment activity from premises in the special entertainment precinct.
- (3) Subsections (1)(a) and (2)(a) apply only if—
 - (a) for subsection (1)(a)—the trading hours in the condition of the development consent are less than the trading hours in the precinct management plan for the special entertainment precinct, or
 - (b) for subsection (2)(a)—
 - (i) the trading hours in the condition of the complying development certificate are less than the trading hours in the State environmental planning policy, and

- (ii) the trading hours in the State environmental planning policy are less than the trading hours in the precinct management plan for the special entertainment precinct.
