State Environmental Planning Policy (Major Projects) 2005 (Amendment No 3)

under the

Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following State environmental planning policy under the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 in accordance with the recommendation made by the Minister for Planning.

FRANK SARTOR, M.P.,
Minister for Planning

State Environmental Planning Policy (Major Projects) 2005 (Amendment No 3)

under the

Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979

1 Name of Policy

This Policy is State Environmental Planning Policy (Major Projects) 2005 (Amendment No 3).

2 Aims of Policy

The aim of this Policy is to provide that certain temporary development of minimal environmental impact carried out on the land to which this Policy applies is exempt development.

3 Land to which Policy applies

This Policy applies to the land, known as the Redfern-Waterloo Authority Sites, identified on Map 16 to Schedule 2 to the State Environmental Planning Policy (Major Projects) 2005.

4 Amendment of State Environmental Planning Policy (Major Projects) 2005

State Environmental Planning Policy (Major Projects) 2005 is amended by inserting at the end of clause 9A (Development for which Minister consent authority under Part 4) the following subclause:

- (2) However, the following development is exempt development if it is carried out on land identified on Map 16 to Schedule 2 (Redfern-Waterloo Authority Sites), is of minimal environmental impact and complies with the criteria set out in the guidelines prepared by the Redfern-Waterloo Authority (and approved by the Minister for Redfern Waterloo and made publicly available) for the purposes of this subclause:
 - (a) the temporary use of the land for community events that are open to the general public, including public gatherings, ceremonies, sporting events or outdoor exhibitions,

- (b) the erection and use of temporary structures, having minimal visual impact, for the purposes of, or in connection with, any such community event.
