CROWN LANDS ACT 1989—BY-LAW

(Crown Lands (General Reserves) By-law 1995)

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 119 of 29 September 1995]

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of the Crown Lands Act 1989, has been pleased to make the By-law set forth hereunder.

KIM YEADON, M.P.,
Minister for Land and Water Conservation.

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Citation

1. This By-law may be cited as the Crown Lands (General Reserves) By-law 1995.

Commencement

2. This By-law commences on 1 October 1995.

Application

3. This By-law applies to a reserve specified in Schedule 1, except as specifically provided by other clauses of this By-law.

Definitions

4. In this By-law:

“authorised person”, in relation to a reserve trust, means:

- (a) a member of the trust board of the reserve trust; or
- (b) an administrator of the affairs of the reserve trust; or
- (c) a ranger or other person appointed by the reserve trust; or

(d) where a council has been appointed to manage the affairs of the reserve trust, any officer, employee of the council or other person appointed as authorised officer by the council;

“building” includes part of a building;

“council” has the same meaning as in the Local Government Act 1993;

“mooring” means the anchoring of any vessel or the securing of any vessel to any post, stake, pile, float, pontoon, wall, wharf, jetty or other landing stage;

“reserve” means a reserve to which this By-law applies, and includes part of a reserve;

“reserve trust”, in relation to a reserve, means the reserve trust that is the trustee of the reserve under the Act;

“secretary”, in relation to a reserve trust, means the secretary to the reserve trust;

“the Act” means the Crown Lands Act 1989;

“the Minister” means the Minister administering the Act for the time being;

“vehicle” includes:

- (a) a motor car, motor carriage, motor cycle or other apparatus propelled on land, snow or ice wholly or partly by volatile spirit, steam, gas, oil or electricity; and
- (b) a boat or other object that, while floating on water or submerged, whether wholly or partly, under water, is wholly or partly used for the conveyance of persons or things; and
- (c) an apparatus that, while propelled in the air by human or mechanical power or by the wind, is wholly or partly used for the conveyance of persons or things; and
- (d) an apparatus propelled on land, snow or ice by human or animal power or by the wind; and
- (e) a trailer or caravan, whether or not it is in the course of being towed.

PART 2—ADMINISTRATION

Division 1—Trust boards

Operation of Division

5. This Division applies to the reserve trust of a reserve to which this By-law applies, where the reserve trust is managed by a trust board.

Meetings

6. (1) The trust board is to meet at least 4 times a year at the places and times as determined by the board.

(2) At one such meeting, to be termed the annual general meeting, the trust board is to:

- (a) elect a chairperson and a deputy chairperson; and
- (b) elect a person or persons as secretary and treasurer unless those positions are filled by a person or persons appointed and employed under clause 13.

(3) A person elected under subclause (2) is to hold office until the next annual general meeting of the trust board.

(4) A statement of accounts is to be presented to the annual general meeting of the trust board.

Special meetings

7. On receipt by the chairperson of a written request for a meeting of the trust board, the chairperson, if the request is signed by at least 2 members of the board and specifies the purpose of the meeting, is to call a special meeting to be held within 28 days after receipt of the request at the place and time specified by the chairperson.

Prior notice of meetings

8. (1) Subject to subclause (2), the chairperson, not later than 10 days before the day appointed for a meeting referred to in clause 6 or 7, is to forward to each member of the trust board a notice in writing setting out the place and time of the meeting and the agenda for that meeting.

(2) If the chairperson is of the opinion that a special meeting should be held as soon as possible, the chairperson may give such notice of the place and time of, and the agenda for, the meeting as the chairperson considers appropriate.

Casual vacancy

9. If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of the chairperson, deputy chairperson, secretary or treasurer, the trust board, at the first meeting held after the occurrence of the casual vacancy, is to elect or appoint, as the case requires, a person to fill the vacancy and the person so elected or appointed is entitled to hold office for the unexpired part of the term of office of that person's predecessor.

Conduct of meetings

10. (1) At a meeting of the trust board, the chairperson or, in the absence of the chairperson, the deputy chairperson, is to preside.

(2) In the absence of the chairperson and the deputy chairperson, the members of the trust board present are to elect a person from among their number to preside at the meeting and the person so elected is to preside.

(3) The person presiding at a meeting of the trust board is to have a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, is to have a second or casting vote.

Committees

11. (1) The trust board may form one or more committees to carry out such works or perform such duties as the board determines.

(2) All such committees must consist of members of the trust board.

Division 2—General administrative matters*Operation of Division

12. This Division applies to the reserve trust for each reserve to which this By-law applies.

Officers and employees

13. (1) The reserve trust may appoint and employ a secretary, a treasurer, rangers and such other officers and employees as may be necessary for the efficient operation of the reserve.

(2) One person may be appointed to the positions of secretary to, and treasurer of, the reserve trust.

(3) If there is a trust board, a member of the trust board may be appointed and employed under this clause.

Duties of secretary and treasurer

14. (1) The secretary is to:

- (a) keep and maintain minutes of each meeting of the reserve trust;
- and

- (b) keep and maintain the book (disclosure of pecuniary interests of members of a trust board) required by clause 1 (3) of Schedule 4 to the Act; and
  - (c) perform other duties as directed by the reserve trust.
- (2) The treasurer is to:
- (a) be responsible to the reserve trust for the keeping and maintaining of proper financial records; and
  - (b) keep and maintain the records required to be kept by the reserve trust under Schedule 4 to the Crown Lands Regulation 1995.

Financial year

15. The reserve trust's financial year is to end on 30 June each year.

Receipts and disbursements

16. (1) All money received by the reserve trust is to be deposited to the credit of an account established with any bank or building society specified in or prescribed for the purposes of section 14A of the Trustee Act 1925, in the name of the reserve trust.

(2) Each item of expenditure by or on behalf of the reserve trust is to be authorised or confirmed for payment, at a duly convened and constituted meeting of the reserve trust by tabling and approval of a report by the treasurer relating to that item of expenditure.

(3) Cheques drawn on the reserve trust's account are to be signed by one member of the reserve trust and one other person approved by the trust.

(4) If an administrator of a reserve trust has been appointed under the Act, cheques are to be signed by the administrator and one other person chosen by the administrator.

Common seal

17. (1) The common seal of the reserve trust is to be kept by the secretary or, if there is no secretary, by such other person as may be appointed by the trust.

(2) The common seal of the reserve trust is to be affixed to a document only:

- (a) following a resolution to do so passed at a meeting of the reserve trust; and

(b) in the presence of a member of the reserve trust and the secretary or, if there is no secretary, by such other person as may be appointed by the reserve trust for that purpose.

(3) The affixing to a document of the common seal of the reserve trust that is managed by a trust board is to be attested by a member of the trust board and by the secretary to the reserve trust or, if there is no secretary, by such other person as may be appointed by the reserve trust for that purpose.

(4) If an administrator of a reserve trust has been appointed under the Act, the common seal may be affixed and attested by the administrator alone.

PART 3—REGULATION OF USE OF RESERVE

Public access to reserve

18. (1) Subject to subclause (2), the reserve is to be open to the public during such times as the reserve trust may specify in a public notice displayed at or adjacent to each entrance to the reserve.

(2) The reserve trust, by a public notice displayed at or adjacent to each entrance to the reserve, may:

- (a) close to the public the reserve, any part of the reserve, or any building, structure or enclosure; or
- (b) restrict or otherwise regulate the purposes for which the reserve, any part of the reserve or any building, structure or enclosure may be used; or
- (c) prohibit the use of the reserve, any part of the reserve or any building, structure or enclosure for any purpose specified in the notice.

(3) A person must not enter or use the reserve, any part of the reserve or any building, structure or enclosure within the reserve contrary to a public notice displayed under this clause.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

Reserve trust may set aside parts of reserve for certain uses

19. Subject to and consistent with any plan of management for a reserve, the reserve trust may set aside any part of the reserve, including any building, structure or enclosure, for any purpose for which the reserve may be used.

Fees and charges

20. (1) The reserve trust may from time to time determine the fees or charges payable in respect of any one or more of the following:

- (a) entry to and use of the whole or any part of the reserve and any building, structure or enclosure within the reserve;
- (b) parking or use of any vehicle or class of vehicles on the reserve;
- (c) use of electricity, gas and water;
- (d) rubbish disposal and cleaning of the reserve;
- (e) removal of effluent.

(2) In determining fees and charges, the reserve trust is to have regard to any contractual arrangements entered into by the reserve trust.

(3) The fees or charges payable under this clause must be displayed in a public notice erected at or adjacent to each entrance to the reserve or part of the reserve or building, structure or enclosure to which the fees or charges relate.

(4) The reserve trust may in any particular case waive payment of a fee or charge.

(5) The Minister may serve notice on the reserve trust disallowing or varying any fee or charge as set out in the notice and the reserve trust is to give effect to the Minister's notice.

Entry

21. (1) A person who enters the reserve or part or any building, structure or enclosure within the reserve, whether on payment of an entrance fee or otherwise, enters subject to such conditions as may be determined from time to time by the reserve trust and as are displayed in public notices erected at or adjacent to each entrance to the reserve or part or the building, structure or enclosure.

(2) The reserve trust may designate entrance and exit points to and from the reserve, any part or any building, structure or enclosure within the reserve by public notices displayed at or near those points.

(3) Where the reserve trust has designated an entrance and determined an entrance fee, a person must not enter the reserve or part or the building, structure or enclosure unless:

- (a) the person pays that entrance fee; and

- (b) the person enters as directed by public notices displayed at or adjacent to an entrance where any entrance fee demanded is payable.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (4) A person must not enter or leave the reserve or part or building, structure or enclosure otherwise than through an entrance or exit as designated by public notices displayed at or adjacent to the entrance or exit.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

Vehicles on reserve

- 22. (1) The reserve trust may give such directions as to the bringing of vehicles into, and the use and parking or mooring of vehicles in, the reserve as the reserve trust thinks fit, and any such direction:

- (a) may be limited as to time, place or subject-matter; and
(b) may be varied or revoked by the reserve trust.

- (2) A direction given under subclause (1) has effect only where it appears in a public notice displayed on or near the reserve or part to which the direction relates.

- (3) The direction appearing in a public notice that is displayed on or near a reserve or part with the authority of the reserve trust has effect as a direction, for the time being in force, given under subclause (1) in relation to the reserve or part and the notice is, for the purposes of subclause (2), notice of that direction.

- (4) A person must not contravene a direction having effect under this clause.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (5) A person must not interfere with, alter or remove any public notice displayed with the authority of the reserve trust under subclause (2).

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (6) Nothing in this clause affects any other provision of the Act or any other Act or of this By-law so far as the provision has effect in relation to conduct on a reserve.

Regulation of conduct within reserve

- 23. (1) A person must not make use of a reserve or carry on a specified activity on the reserve if that use or specified activity is prohibited by a public notice displayed on the reserve.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

(2) For the purposes of subclause (1), the specified activities are as follows:

- (a) entering the reserve at a time when the reserve is not open to the public;
- (b) entering any building, structure or enclosure or part of the reserve not open to the public;
- (c) holding a meeting or performance or conducting an entertainment;
- (d) selling, offering or exposing for sale any article or thing;
- (e) displaying or causing any bill or poster to be displayed;
- (f) having or operating television, cinematographic or photographic equipment for commercial purposes;
- (g) camping or permanently residing;
- (h) damaging, picking or removing any tree, shrub, plant, vine, flower or other vegetation (whether dead or alive), except as permitted by paragraph (i);
- (i) removing any dead timber, log or stump, whether standing or fallen, except for the purpose of cooking food in the reserve;
- (i) damaging any lawn, playing field or green, except in the course of and as a normal incident of any recreational or sporting activity;
- (k) defacing or removing or disturbing any rock, soil, sand, stone or similar substance;
- (l) lighting a fire:
  - (i) at any time when the lighting of fires in the reserve is prohibited under the Bush Fires Act 1949; or
  - (ii) at any other time except in a fire-place provided by the reserve trust or in portable cooking equipment;
- (m) climbing any tree, building, fence, seat, table, enclosure or other structure;
- (n) destroying, capturing, injuring, annoying or interfering with any animal, or interfering with the habitat of any animal;
- (o) having or keeping any dog or other animal, or allowing any animal under the person's control to depasture;
- (p) carrying, laying or setting any trap, snare or poison bait, or dropping from any aircraft any trap, snare or poison bait;
- (q) placing any beehive;

- (r) carrying or having in a person's possession a firearm within the meaning of the Firearms Act 1989 or a prohibited weapon within the meaning of the Prohibited Weapons Act 1989, unless that person is a police officer acting in connection with the performance of that person's duties as such an officer;
- (s) discharging fireworks;
- (t) having in possession, selling, serving or consuming any intoxicants;
- (u) having or using any axe, saw or similar tool or implement;
- (v) assembling or using a hang-glider or landing a helicopter;
- (w) flying a mechanically propelled model aircraft or similar thing;
- (x) breaking any glass or throwing or projecting any stone, missile or other object;
- (y) operating a radio, cassette, record player or electronic sound system at a volume likely to cause a nuisance to any person or animal;
- (z) conducting or taking part in any sporting activity that forms part of any organised competition or tournament;
- (aa) skateboarding, roller skating or roller blading;
- (ab) jetskiing or surfboarding;
- (ac) fishing.

(3) Nothing in this clause prohibits a blind or hearing impaired person from being accompanied by a guide dog within the reserve.

(4) A person must not interfere with, alter or remove any public notice displayed with the authority of the reserve trust under subclause (1).

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

(5) Nothing in this clause affects any other provision of the Act or any other Act or of this By-law so far as the provision has effect in relation to conduct on a reserve.

Conduct prohibited in reserve

24. A person must not:

- (a) leave any rubbish or litter within the reserve, except in receptacles provided by the reserve trust for the purpose; or
- (b) damage, deface or interfere with any structure, sign, public notice, descriptive plate, label, machinery or equipment within the reserve; or

- (c) obstruct any authorised person or employee of, or contractor to, the reserve trust in the performance of the authorised person's duty or the employee's or contractor's work within the reserve; or
- (d) pollute any fresh water, tank, reservoir, pool or stream within the reserve; or
- (e) bring onto the reserve any diseased animal or any noxious animal; or
- (f) walk over, mark, scratch or otherwise mutilate, deface, injure, interfere with, remove or destroy any aboriginal rock carving, its surrounds or any other aboriginal relic within the reserve; or
- (g) deface with graffiti or other form of writing, picture, or symbol, any trees, building, fence, seat, table, public notice, enclosure or other structure within the reserve; or
- (h) drive or ride any animal or act contrary to any public notice erected by the reserve trust that regulates the use or movement or confinement of animals within the reserve; or
- (i) remain in the reserve or any part or any building, structure or enclosure within the reserve when requested to leave by an authorised person.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

PART 4—MISCELLANEOUS

Destruction or taking of plants or animals

- 25. Nothing in this By-law prevents the reserve trust from authorising:
- (a) the destruction within the reserve of any noxious plant or animal; or
  - (b) subject to the provisions of the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974, the taking from the reserve of any plant or animal that, in the opinion of the trustees, has assumed pest proportions or is required for scientific purposes.

Certain acts and omissions not to be offences

- 26. (1) A person does not commit an offence under this By-law if the act or omission giving rise to the offence was done or omitted:
- (a) by a member of the reserve trust or an officer or employee of the reserve trust in the exercise of his or her duty as a member, officer or employee; or

(b) in accordance with the conditions (whether express or implied) of a lease or licence granted by the reserve trust; or

(c) under the direction or with the consent of the reserve trust.

(2) The consent of the reserve trust referred to in this clause may be given generally or in a particular case.

(3) Nothing in this clause permits the reserve trust to consent to the doing of any thing within the reserve which is otherwise prohibited by any other law.

Authorised person may demand name and address

27. (1) An authorised person who suspects that a person who is on a reserve has contravened a provision of this By-law may direct the person to provide his or her full name and residential address to the authorised person.

(2) A person to whom such a direction is given must not fail to comply with the direction.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

(3) A person is not guilty of an offence under this clause unless the person was warned, when the direction was given, that failure to comply with the direction would constitute an offence.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Regulation is to remake the provisions of certain reserve, showground and sportsground by-laws that were repealed on 1 September 1995 by section 10 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989. The new By-law:

- (a) deals with matters relating to the administration of the various reserves, including meetings of the trust board for a reserve trust that manages a reserve under the Crown Lands Act 1989, the appointment of staff of a reserve trust, the duties of the secretary and treasurer of a reserve trust, accounting matters and other general administrative matters (Part 2); and
- (b) regulates the entry of persons into reserves and the conduct of persons in reserves (Part 3); and
- (c) contains other miscellaneous and formal matters (Parts 1 and 4).

This By-law is made under the Crown Lands Act 1989, including section 128 (the general by-law making power).
