

New South Wales

Tow Truck Industry (Transitional) Regulation 1999

under the

Tow Truck Industry Act 1998

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Tow Truck Industry Act 1998.

CARL SCULLY, M.P.,
Minister for Transport.

Explanatory note

This Regulation is consequential on the abolition of the Tow Truck Industry Council (“the former corporation”) by the Tow Truck Industry Act 1998 (“the new Act”) and the commencement of certain administrative provisions of that Act relating to the constitution of the Tow Truck Authority (which replaces the former corporation). The purpose of this Regulation is to enable the Authority to exercise the functions of the former corporation under the Tow Truck Act 1989 until such time as the Authority’s functions under the new Act, and the operational provisions of the new Act, are commenced.

This Regulation is made under the Tow Truck Industry Act 1998 (including clause 1 of Schedule 2). This Regulation comprises matter that is of a transitional nature.

1999 No 75

Clause 1 Tow Truck Industry (Transitional) Regulation 1999

Tow Truck Industry (Transitional) Regulation
1999

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Tow Truck Industry (Transitional) Regulation 1999.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 19 February 1999.

3 Notes

The explanatory note does not form part of this Regulation.

4 Construction of references to Tow Truck Industry Council

In the Tow Truck Act 1989, or in any other Act (except the Tow Truck Industry Act 1998) or in any other instrument, a reference to the Tow Truck Industry Council (as constituted by the Tow Truck Act 1989) is to be construed as a reference to the Tow Truck Authority (as constituted by the Tow Truck Industry Act 1998).