Liquor Amendment (Signage) Regulation 2000

under the

Liquor Act 1982

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Liquor Act 1982.

JACK RICHARD FACE, M.P.,
Minister for Gaming and Racing.

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to repeal the requirement that a hotelier must display a notice providing information about the chances of winning a major prize from the use or operation of any approved gaming device. It is proposed that a different form of notice will replace the current requirement. The Regulation also provides a maximum penalty for the offence of failing to display a gambling warning notice or a problem gambling notice.

This Regulation is made under the Liquor Act 1982, including section 125D (2) (e).
