Disorderly Houses Regulation 2001

under the

Disorderly Houses Act 1943

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Disorderly Houses Act 1943.

BOB DEBUS, M.P.,

Attorney General

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to replace, without substantial amendment, the Disorderly Houses Regulation 1995. That Regulation will be repealed on 1 September 2001 under section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

Section 17 of the Disorderly Houses Act 1943 enables a council of a local government area to apply to the Land and Environment Court for an order that the owner or occupier of premises in the area that are being used as a brothel is not to use (or allow the use of) the premises concerned for that purpose. The section also enables the making of regulations prescribing the appropriate authorities to make such applications in relation to premises on land that is not in a local government area.

This Regulation prescribes the Lord Howe Island Board for the purpose of making those applications for premises situated on Lord Howe Island and the Western Lands Commissioner for the purpose of making those applications for premises situated in any part of the Western Division of New South Wales that is not in a local government area.

This Regulation is made under the Disorderly Houses Act 1943 and, in particular, under section 17 (6) and section 19 (the general regulation-making power).

This Regulation comprises or relates to matters of a machinery nature.
