Supreme Court Amendment (Transcript and Registry Hours) Regulation 2002

under the

Supreme Court Act 1970

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Supreme Court Act 1970.

BOB DEBUS, M.P.,

Attorney General

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Supreme Court Regulation 2000 so as:

- (a) to enable a convicted person who is the applicant or respondent to an appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal against a conviction or sentence of the Supreme Court to obtain a copy of the transcript of the proceedings concerned without charge, and
- (b) to alter references to the opening hours of the Supreme Court Registry in a provision that sets fees for keeping the Registry open outside its usual hours.

The proposed amendments reflect changes to the Criminal Appeal Rules relating to procedures for appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal and a change to the Supreme Court Rules 1970 extending the opening hours of the Supreme Court Registry from 4 pm to 5 pm.

This Regulation is made under the Supreme Court Act 1970, including section 130 (Fees and percentages).
