

Education Amendment (District Councils of P&C Associations) Regulation 2002

under the

Education Act 1990

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Education Act 1990.

JOHN WATKINS, M.P.,

Minister for Education and Training

Explanatory note

Section 115 of the Education Act 1990 provides for the constitution of parents and citizens associations and district councils. Section 115 (2) provides that the Minister may establish a district council, constituted in accordance with the regulations, for any area prescribed by the regulations.

The objects of this Regulation are:

- (a) to prescribe the Far South Coast District as an area for which a district council may be established by the Minister (clause 7A), and
- (b) to require the Minister to cause notice of the establishment of a district council for an area to be published in the Gazette (clause 7B), and
- (c) to provide that a district council is to consist of up to 2 delegates from each parents and citizens association or kindred association from within the district council's area, delegates of any such association being appointed in accordance with the rules made or adopted by the association (clause 7C).

This Regulation is made under sections 115 and 130 (the general regulation-making power) of the Education Act 1990.
