

Legal Practitioners Admission Rules 1994

under the

Legal Profession Act 1987

By resolution of the Legal Practitioners Admission Board—

Rule 113 is amended by adding:

- (3) In exercising its discretion under sub-rule (1) the Board may consider, inter alia, whether it believes that the circumstances cited by the applicant are of such compassionate significance that the Board's other applicants would be willing to pay a little more in order that the applicant be relieved of the burden of the fee.

Part 13 is amended by adding rule 116:

116. The Board may delegate to its Presiding Member, a member, several members, the Executive Officer or any combination of the foregoing the making of a decision on any particular matter or class of matters provided always that a person who is aggrieved by a decision of a delegate may apply for a re-hearing by the Board.

Form 1 is amended and the amended form is attached

Form 9 is amended and the amended form is attached.
