

Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Amendment (Medical Examinations) Regulation 2003

under the

Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998.

CARL SCULLY, M.P.,

Minister for Roads

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 1999 to replace the existing separate publications setting out standards for the conduct of medical examinations to determine the medical fitness of persons to hold licences to drive heavy and lighter vehicles with a single publication covering drivers of all vehicles.

This Regulation is made under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998, including sections 19 (the general regulation-making power) and 20.
