

Police Superannuation Amendment (Superannuation Contributions Surcharge) Regulation 2004

under the

Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act 1906

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act 1906.

JOHN DELLA BOSCA, M.L.C.,

Special Minister of State

Explanatory note

Under the Superannuation Contributions Tax (Assessment and Collection) Act 1997 of the Commonwealth, superannuation contributions surcharge may be payable to the Commissioner of Taxation in respect of employer contributions paid to the Police Superannuation Fund on behalf of a contributor. Before a superannuation benefit is paid, the SAS Trustee Corporation is required to deduct from the benefit an amount to offset the surcharge that may be payable. The maximum amount that may be deducted is capped (the “surcharge deduction cap”).

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Police Superannuation Regulation 2000:

- (a) to limit the liability of a former contributor for superannuation contributions surcharge arising from assessments made after benefits have commenced to be paid or been paid to the former contributor and that is additional to the amount already offset, and
- (b) to prescribe the maximum surcharge deduction amounts that may be determined by SAS Trustee Corporation in respect of certain periods when benefits payable to contributors accrued so that the maximum amounts will be in line with the maximum surcharge rates being charged or to be phased in by the Commonwealth for those periods.

The Regulation sets out the circumstances in which SAS Trustee Corporation may reimburse a former contributor for additional superannuation contributions surcharge paid by the former contributor to the Commissioner of Taxation or, at the request of the
