Coroners Amendment (Fees for Odontologists) Regulation 2004

under the

Coroners Act 1980

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Coroners Act 1980.

BOB DEBUS, M.P.,

Attorney General

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to provide for the payment of fees to odontologists who undertake dental examinations in disaster victim identifications. The fees are generally the same as those currently payable to medical practitioners who undertake medical examinations in such identifications.

This Regulation is made under the Coroners Act 1980, including sections 52 and 58 (the general regulation-making power).
