Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Property (Relationships) Act 1984.

BOB DEBUS, M.P.,
Attorney General

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to remake such provisions of the Property (Relationships) Regulation 2000 as have not been overtaken by the Civil Procedure Act 2005. That regulation would otherwise be repealed on 1 September 2005 by section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

The new Regulation deals with the following matters under the Property (Relationships) Act 1984 (the Act):

- (a) proceedings under the Act that are taken before a Local Court (Part 2), including the following:
  - (i) provisions to maintain privacy for the parties to proceedings on applications for orders under Part 3 of the Act,
  - (ii) the payment of maintenance,
- (b) the enforcement of orders for periodic maintenance (Part 3),
- (c) other matters of a minor, consequential or ancillary nature (Parts 1 and 4).

This Regulation is made under the Property (Relationships) Act 1984, including sections 47, 54, 57 and 61 (the general regulation-making power).

This Regulation comprises or relates to matters of a machinery nature and matters that are not likely to impose an appreciable burden, cost or disadvantage on any sector of the public.

- (2) Proceedings are to be transcribed only if the Magistrate or registrar of the Local Court so orders.

6 Directions as to practice and procedure

- (1) A Local Court may give such directions as it considers necessary with respect to the practice or procedure to be followed in a particular case if it is satisfied:
  - (a) that the Act or this Regulation does not make adequate provision for the practice or procedure to be followed in that case, or
  - (b) that a difficulty arises or doubt exists as to the practice or procedure to be followed in that case.
- (2) Any directions must seek to facilitate a speedy and inexpensive hearing of the matters in issue between the parties and must be consistent with the Act and this Regulation.

7 Information concerning proceedings

- (1) Information concerning proceedings under the Act must not be published otherwise than in the form of a list of proceedings that has been provided by the registrar of the Local Court for that purpose.
- (2) A list of proceedings may contain such of the following particulars as the registrar of the Local Court thinks fit:
  - (a) the surnames of the parties, but not their given names,
  - (b) the name of the Magistrate,
  - (c) the time at which, and the place or courtroom in which, the Magistrate will sit,
  - (d) the general nature of the applications to be heard by the Magistrate.

Part 3                Enforcement of periodic maintenance orders

Part 3    Enforcement of periodic maintenance orders

10    Mode of enforcing Supreme Court order

A periodic maintenance order made by the Supreme Court under section 27 of the Act may be enforced in a Local Court as if it were a judgment of the Local Court.

11    Certificate of court as to periodic maintenance order

(1) A person in whose favour a periodic maintenance order has been made under section 27 of the Act (whether by the Supreme Court or by a Local Court) may obtain from the Prothonotary of the Supreme Court or the registrar of the Local Court a certificate in Form 1.

(2) The certificate:

(a) must be signed by the Prothonotary and sealed with the seal of the Supreme Court, in the case of an order made by the Supreme Court, or

(b) must be signed by the registrar of the Local Court, in the case of an order made by a Local Court.

12    Certificate as to amount of maintenance paid

(1) A registrar of a Local Court who is specified in a periodic maintenance order as the person to whom the maintenance is to be paid must, on request, give to the person who obtained the order a certificate in Form 2 stating:

(a) the amount that, according to the relevant records, has been paid under the order on or before the date specified in the certificate in that regard, and

(b) the amount that, according to the relevant records, was due under the order but is unpaid on that date.

(2) Such a certificate is evidence of the matters so stated.

13    Matters to be satisfied before recording order as judgment

(1) The registrar of a Local Court may record as a judgment of the Local Court a periodic maintenance order in respect of which a certificate under clause 11 has been issued.

(2) An application to record a periodic maintenance order as such a judgment must be accompanied by:

(a) the certificate under clause 11, and

- (b) a recent certificate under clause 12, in the case of a periodic maintenance order that specifies a registrar of a Local Court as the person to whom the maintenance is to be paid, and
  - (c) affidavits as to the matters referred to in subclause (4).
- (3) A certificate under clause 12 is a recent certificate if the specified date as at which the amounts under the order are stated to have been paid, or to remain unpaid, is no more than 10 days before the date of the application referred to in subclause (2).
- (4) The registrar of a Local Court must not record a periodic maintenance order as a judgment of the Local Court unless the registrar is satisfied:
- (a) that a copy of the order has been duly served on the person liable to make payments under the order, or that service of a copy of the order on that person has been dispensed with by the Local Court, and
  - (b) that the maintenance order has not been complied with for a period of at least 14 days, and that a specified amount of money remains due and unpaid, and
  - (c) that no judgment has been entered in any other Local Court in respect of the arrears, and that no enforcement action is pending in respect of any other arrears of maintenance which remain due and unpaid.
- (5) An affidavit is not necessary with respect to the matters referred to in subclause (4) (b) if the registrar of the Local Court is specified in the order as the person to whom the maintenance is to be paid.

14 Notice of transmission of money

If:

- (a) the registrar of a Local Court is specified in a periodic maintenance order as the person to whom the maintenance is to be paid, and
- (b) the order is recorded as a judgment of some other Local Court, and
- (c) money is paid into the Local Court for which the registrar so specified is the registrar, the registrar so specified must give notice to the registrar of the other Local Court of any money remitted to the person in whose favour the order was made.
