Fisheries Management (General) Amendment (Abalone) Regulation 2005

under the

Fisheries Management Act 1994

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Fisheries Management Act 1994.

IAN MACDONALD, M.L.C.,
Minister for Primary Industries

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Fisheries Management (General) Regulation 2002 to reduce the maximum quantity of abalone that a person may take on any one day, or that a person may have in his or her possession in certain circumstances, from 10 to 2 (this limit does not apply in respect of abalone taken by a commercial fisher for sale or abalone in possession of a commercial fisher for sale). Since 1 July 2005, this reduction has been in place pursuant to a fishing closure order made under section 8 of the Fisheries Management Act 1994.

This Regulation is made under the Fisheries Management Act 1994, including sections 17, 18 and 289 (the general regulation-making power).
