

New South Wales

Health Care Liability Regulation 2007

under the

Health Care Liability Act 2001

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Health Care Liability Act 2001.

REBA MEAGHER, M.P.,
Minister for Health

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to remake, without substantial changes, the provisions of the Health Care Liability Regulation 2001, which is repealed on 1 September 2007 by section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

The new Regulation:

- (a) specifies the classes of medical practitioners who are exempt from the requirement under section 19 of the Health Care Liability Act 2001 to be covered by approved professional indemnity insurance, and
- (b) specifies the classes of health practitioners who are required under section 25 of that Act to be covered by approved professional indemnity insurance and the classes of health practitioners who are exempt from that requirement.

The Regulation does not continue in force provisions of the repealed Regulation that no longer have any practical operation.

This Regulation is made under the Health Care Liability Act 2001, including sections 19 (4) (b), 25 and 34 (the general regulation-making power).

Clause 4 Health Care Liability Regulation 2007

Part 2 Medical practitioners

Part 2 Medical practitioners

4 Exemption from approved insurance requirement

- (1) In accordance with section 19 (4) (b) of the Act, the following medical practitioners are exempt from the approved insurance requirement:
- (a) a person whose registration as a medical practitioner is, in accordance with section 9 of the Medical Practice Act 1992, subject to the condition that the person does not practise medicine,
 - (b) a medical practitioner who practises medicine primarily outside New South Wales and who is covered by professional indemnity insurance of any kind while practising medicine in New South Wales,
 - (c) a medical practitioner whose medical practice is limited to the rendering, on a voluntary basis, of medical assistance in emergency situations or first-aid,
 - (d) a medical practitioner who practises medicine in the course of being:
 - (i) employed by another person, or
 - (ii) engaged by another person under some contractual arrangement,
 - (e) a medical practitioner whose medical practice does not include the provision of health care or medical opinion in respect of the physical or mental health of a person,
 - (f) a medical practitioner who, while practising medicine, is covered by an indemnity arrangement established or entered into by the State or the Commonwealth to cover civil liability,
 - (g) a medical practitioner who, while practising medicine in accordance with a function conferred or imposed by or under any State or Commonwealth Act or regulation, does not, under that Act or regulation, incur any personal liability,
 - (h) a medical practitioner who, without fee or reward, refers a person to another medical practitioner for the purposes of providing health care,
 - (i) a medical practitioner who, without fee or reward, prescribes a therapeutic substance in either of the following circumstances:
 - (i) the prescription involves the renewal of a prescription provided by another medical practitioner (other than a medical practitioner referred to in paragraph (a), (c) or (e)) within the previous period of 6 months and does not relate to a drug of addiction within the meaning of the Poisons and Therapeutic Goods Act 1966,

- (ii) the prescription is provided to a person who requires temporary relief or first-aid pending attendance on that person by another medical practitioner (other than a medical practitioner referred to in paragraph (a), (c) or (e)).
- (2) An exemption under subclause (1) (b)–(i) applies to a medical practitioner only to the extent to which the medical practitioner practises medicine in the circumstances described in the exemption concerned.
 - (3) Without limiting subclause (2), the exemption under subclause (1) (d) applies only in relation to a medical practitioner:
 - (a) to the extent that the medical practitioner is practising medicine as an employee of, or contractor to, the other person, and
 - (b) to the extent that the medical practitioner is indemnified, under an insurance policy issued to the other person, for civil liability arising out of the provision of, or failure to provide, health care by the medical practitioner, and
 - (c) if the other person is not the medical practitioner’s practice company.
 - (4) The exemption under subclause (1) (i) applies only in relation to a medical practitioner if the medical practitioner has, within the period of 12 months preceding the date on which the prescription is provided by the medical practitioner, undertaken professional education activities relating to the prescribing of therapeutic substances.
 - (5) In this clause, therapeutic substance means a substance that is manufactured for therapeutic use within the meaning of the current Poisons Standard (as defined in the Therapeutic Goods Act 1989 of the Commonwealth).

5 Exemption for limited period after cessation of insurer’s business

- (1) If a medical practitioner ceases to be covered by approved professional indemnity insurance as a consequence of the cessation of business of the insurer who provided the insurance, the medical practitioner is, in accordance with section 19 (4) (b) of the Act, exempt from the approved insurance requirement but only for a period of no more than 3 months (or such longer period as the Minister may specify by order published in the Gazette) immediately following the date on which the medical practitioner ceased to be so covered.
