Health Records and Information Privacy Amendment Regulation 2007

under the

Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002.

REBA MEAGHER, M.P.,
Minister for Health

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Health Records and Information Privacy Regulation 2006:

- (a) as a consequence of certain additional areas being included in the electronic health record pilot program (which attracts certain privacy exemptions under the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002) and certain other areas being removed from the program because the program was never implemented in those other areas, and
- (b) to provide for the Department of Health, the Health Administration Corporation, area health services and statutory health corporations to be treated as a single agency for the purposes of the Health Privacy Principles (as set out in Schedule 1 to the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002) and health privacy codes of practice (as made under Part 5 of that Act).

This Regulation is made under the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002, including section 75 (the general regulation-making power).

2007 No 630
