Road Rules Amendment (Graduated Rider Licensing) Regulation 2009

under the

Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999.

MICHAEL DALEY, MP
Minister for Roads

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to make an amendment to the Road Rules 2008 consequential on the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Amendment (Graduated Rider Licensing) Regulation 2009. That Regulation amends the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 2008 to provide that a provisional P1 licence of class R (a motorcycle licence) is subject to a condition that the holder of the licence not carry a passenger. Failure to comply with the condition is an offence. Rule 271–1 of the Road Rules 2008 also makes it an offence for a rider of a motor bike to carry a passenger unless the person has held a rider's licence for at least 12 months.

This Regulation amends that rule so that it will no longer apply in respect of a rider to whom the provisional P1 licence condition applies. However, that rule will continue to apply in respect of riders who have been issued a licence in another State or Territory and who ride in NSW.

This Regulation is made under the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999, including section 71 (the general regulation-making power) and 72A (the general rule-making power).
