Institute of Teachers Amendment Regulation 2009

under the Institute of Teachers Act 2004

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Institute of Teachers Act 2004.

VERITY FIRTH, MP
Minister for Education and Training

Explanatory note

The Institute of Teachers Act 2004 provides that a person who:

- (a) immediately before the relevant date was the holder of a tertiary or teaching qualification, and
- (b) after that date, returns to teaching after a break from the classroom of more than 5 years, is a new scheme teacher.

The object of this Regulation is to prescribe 1 July 2009 as the relevant date in respect of those new scheme teachers.

This Regulation is made as a consequence of the enactment of the Institute of Teachers Amendment Act 2009.

This Regulation is made under the Institute of Teachers Act 2004, including the definition of relevant date in section 28 and section 52 (the general regulation-making power).
