Evidence Regulation 2010

under the

Evidence Act 1995

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Evidence Act 1995.

JOHN HATZISTERGOS, MLC
Attorney General

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to remake, with minor changes, the provisions of the Evidence Regulation 2005, which is repealed on 1 September 2010 by section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

This Regulation provides for the following matters:

- (a) the requirements for notices of previous representations in relation to exceptions to the hearsay rule,
- (b) the requirements for notices of intention to adduce tendency or coincidence evidence,
- (c) the form of certificates relating to privilege against self-incrimination,
- (d) the form of affidavit to be used by police fingerprint experts.

This Regulation is made under the Evidence Act 1995, including sections 67 (2), 99, 179 (1), 180 (1) and 197 (the general regulation-making power).

This Regulation comprises or relates to matters set out in Schedule 3 to the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989, namely matters arising under legislation that is substantially uniform or complementary with legislation of the Commonwealth or another State or Territory.

Clause 4

Evidence Regulation 2010

- (c) particulars of:
  - (i) the date, time, place and circumstances at or in which each of the representations mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) was made, and
  - (ii) the names of the persons by whom, and the persons to whom, each of those representations was made, and
  - (iii) in a civil proceeding—the address of each person so named, so far as they are known to the notifying party.
- (3) If a notifying party intends to rely on any of sections 63 (2) (a) or (b) or 65 (2) (a), (b), (c) or (d), (3) (a) or (b) or (8) (a) or (b) of the Act, the party's notice of previous representation must state particulars of the facts on the basis of which it is alleged that the person who made a representation referred to in the notice is not available to testify concerning the fact to be proved by adducing evidence of that representation.
- (4) If a notifying party intends to rely on section 64 (2) (a) or (b) of the Act, the party's notice of previous representation must state particulars of the facts that the party will rely on to establish the grounds specified in section 64 (2) of the Act.
- (5) If a notice of previous representation refers to a previous representation that is in writing:
  - (a) a copy of the document, or of the relevant portion of the document, containing the representation must be attached to the notice, and
  - (b) the notice must identify the document unless:
    - (i) a copy of the document is attached to the notice, and
    - (ii) the identity of the document is apparent on the face of the copy.
- (6) If a copy of a document, or of a portion of a document, is attached to a notice it is a sufficient compliance for the purposes of subclause (2) (a) to specify in the notice, or in the copy of a document or portion of a document attached to the notice, the representation evidence of which the notifying party intends to adduce.
- (7) On the application of a party in a criminal proceeding, the court may make an order directing the notifying party to disclose the address of any person named in a notice given under this clause by whom, or to whom, a representation referred to in the notice was made.
- (8) The direction may be given on such terms as the court thinks fit.
- (9) In this clause, notice of previous representation means a notice given under section 67 (1) of the Act.

5 Notice of tendency evidence

- (1) A notice of tendency evidence must be given in accordance with the requirements of this clause.
- (2) A notice of tendency evidence must state:
  - (a) the substance of the evidence of the kind referred to in that subsection that the party giving the notice intends to adduce, and
  - (b) if that evidence consists of, or includes, evidence of the conduct of a person, particulars of:
    - (i) the date, time, place and circumstances at or in which the conduct occurred, and
    - (ii) the name of each person who saw, heard or otherwise perceived the conduct, and
    - (iii) in a civil proceeding—the address of each person so named, so far as they are known to the notifying party.
- (3) On the application of a party in a criminal proceeding, the court may make an order directing the notifying party to disclose the address of any person named in a notice of tendency evidence who saw, heard or otherwise perceived conduct or events referred to in the notice.
- (4) The direction may be given on such terms as the court thinks fit.
- (5) In this clause, notice of tendency evidence means a notice given under section 97 (1) (a) of the Act.

6 Notice of coincidence evidence

- (1) A notice of coincidence evidence must be given in accordance with the requirements of this clause.
- (2) A notice of coincidence evidence must state:
  - (a) the substance of the evidence of the occurrence of two or more events that the party giving the notice intends to adduce, and
  - (b) particulars of:
    - (i) the date, time, place and circumstances at or in which each of those events occurred, and
    - (ii) the name of each person who saw, heard or otherwise perceived each of those events, and
    - (iii) in a civil proceeding—the address of each person so named, so far as they are known to the notifying party.
- (3) On the application of a party in a criminal proceeding, the court may make an order directing the notifying party to disclose the address of any person named in a notice of coincidence evidence who saw, heard or otherwise perceived conduct or events referred to in the notice.
