

Security Industry Amendment Regulation 2012

under the

Security Industry Act 1997

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Security Industry Act 1997.

MICHAEL GALLACHER, MLC
Minister for Police and Emergency Services

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to make miscellaneous amendments to the Security Industry Regulation 2007, including amendments that are consequential on the enactment of the Security Industry Amendment Act 2012.

The Regulation also includes amendments:

- (a) to require the holder of a master licence providing persons carrying on security activities involving the use of horses to obtain and maintain certain public liability insurance, and
- (b) to require the holder of a master licence who provides class 1 licensees to record particulars of certain incidents involving the licensees in an incident register and to ensure that such class 1 licensees sign on in a register kept at premises where security activities are carried on, and
- (c) to exempt from the application of the Security Industry Act 1997 certain persons who carry out aircraft security checks, certain persons who check on the admission of persons to venues who might otherwise be subject to that Act as crowd controllers and firearms dealers when selling safes or vaults for firearms, and
- (d) to clarify certain signage requirements, and
- (e) to update various references to offences under other Acts.

This Regulation is made under the Security Industry Act 1997, including sections 9 (2), 14 (2), 15 (4), 17 (2) (c) and (3), 18, 24, 40A (2), 48 (2) (i) and 48 (the general regulation-making power).

 - (b) the expiry date of the licence held by each class 1 or class 2 licensee provided by the holder of the master licence,
 - (c) in relation to each occasion on which the holder of the master licence is engaged to provide security services to be performed by a class 1 or class 2 licensee employed by the holder of the master licence:
 - (i) the name and address of the person engaging those services, and
 - (ii) the address of the location at which the services are provided, and
 - (iii) the date on and time at which the services are provided, and
 - (iv) details of the services provided, and

2012 No 536

Security Industry Amendment Regulation 2012

Schedule 1 Amendment of Security Industry Regulation 2007

- (v) the name of, and the number of the licence held by, the class 1 or class 2 licensee who performed the services, and
 - (d) details of any contract or agreement to provide security services required by the Commissioner by written notice given to the holder of the master licence or to holders of master licences generally by a notice placed on the website maintained by the Security Licensing and Enforcement Directorate within the NSW Police Force.
- (2) If the holder of a master licence provides any person to perform a mobile patrol service, it is a condition of the licence that the holder of the licence must ensure that:
- (a) a record of each patrol visit is kept, and
 - (b) such a record contains details of the name and licence number of the licensee who undertook the patrol visit.
- (3) Each record required to be kept under this clause must be kept for at least 3 years.

36A Copies of licences

It is a condition of a master licence that the holder of the licence keep a copy of the licence:

- (a) at any place of business at which the holder of the master licence's records are kept other than the holder's principal place of business, and
- (b) at any premises at which the holder provides class 1 licensees to carry out security services on a recurrent basis (other than mobile patrol and cash in transit services).

37 Incident registers

- (1) If the holder of a master licence provides a class 1 licensee, it is a condition of the master licence that holder must keep a register (an incident register) in a manner and form approved by the Commissioner containing particulars of any of the following incidents that occur while the class 1 licensee is performing his or her duties:
- (a) in relation to a class 1A, 1B, 1C, 1D or 1F licensee—the licensee makes forcible physical contact with, or physically restrains, a member of the public,
 - (b) in relation to a class 1C licensee—the licensee ejects a member of the public from the premises or site concerned,

- (c) in relation to a class 1D licensee—the licensee’s dog attacks a person,
 - (d) in relation to a class 1F licensee—the licensee removes a firearm from his or her holster (unless the removal is for the purposes of unloading ammunition or for the maintenance of the firearm),
 - (e) in relation to a class 1F licensee—the licensee discharges a firearm,
 - (f) any other type of incident required by the Commissioner to be recorded in the incident register by written notice given to the holder of the master licence or to holders of master licences generally by a notice placed on the website maintained by the Security Licensing and Enforcement Directorate within the NSW Police Force.
- (2) The holder of the master licence must record or cause to be recorded the particulars of any incident as soon as practicable after the incident occurs and before any class 1 licensee involved in the incident completes the shift during which the incident occurred.
 - (3) The incident register must be kept:
 - (a) at any premises at which the holder provides class 1 licensees to carry out security services on a recurrent basis (other than mobile patrol and cash in transit services), and
 - (b) in the case of mobile patrol and cash in transit services and other security services which are not carried out on particular premises on a recurrent basis—at the place of business at which the holder of the master licence’s records are kept.
 - (4) It is a condition of a master licence that, if a class 1F licensee employed by the holder of the master licence discharges a firearm, the holder must, within 24 hours after the discharge, give the Firearms Registry of the NSW Police Force written notice of the particulars of the incident as recorded in the incident register under this clause.
 - (5) For the purposes of subclause (3) (a), each holder of a master licence must keep a separate incident register if more than one master licensee is providing persons to carry on security activities at the same premises.
 - (6) Each record of an incident required to be recorded in the incident register under this clause must be kept in the incident register for at least 3 years.

- (7) The requirement to keep a register under this clause is in addition to the requirement under clause 36 to keep records.

37A Sign-on register

- (1) If the holder of a master licence provides class 1 licensees to carry out security services at particular premises on a recurrent basis (other than mobile patrol and cash in transit services), it is a condition of the master licence that the holder must keep a register (a sign-on register) in a manner and form approved by the Commissioner that records, for each day on which the provided class 1 licensees carry on security activities at those premises:
- (a) the name, signature and licence number of each class 1 licensee provided by the holder of the master licence to carry on security activities on that day, and
 - (b) the time at which any such class 1 licensee commenced carrying on security activities on that day, and
 - (c) the time (whether on the same day or the following day) at which that class 1 licensee ceased carrying on such security activities, and
 - (d) any other particulars the Commissioner requires the holder of the master licence to record in the sign-on register by written notice given to the holder of the master licence or to holders of master licences generally by a notice placed on the website maintained by the Security Licensing and Enforcement Directorate within the NSW Police Force.
- (2) If the holder of a class 1 licence (the relevant person) is provided by a master licensee to carry on security activities at premises at which the master licensee provides holders of class 1 licences to carry out security services on a recurrent basis (other than mobile patrol and cash in transit services), it is a condition of the licence held by the relevant person that, on each day the relevant person carries on security activities at those premises, he or she completes in the approved manner the sign-on register kept by the master licensee at those premises before commencing, and immediately following ceasing, the carrying on of security activities.
- (3) This clause does not have effect until 1 February 2013.

[38] Part 3B

Insert after clause 38B:

Part 3B Temporary excess provision of services permit38C Fee to accompany permit application

For the purposes of section 40A(2) of the Act, the prescribed fee to accompany an application for a temporary excess provision of services permit is $150 for each specified day, or each day within a specified period, for which authorisation to provide more persons than the number authorised by a master licence is sought by the applicant.
