Health Administration Amendment (Reportable Incidents) Regulation 2014

under the

Health Administration Act 1982

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Health Administration Act 1982.

JILLIAN SKINNER, MP
Minister for Health

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to adopt an updated Ministry of Health policy directive that sets out the type of incidents that are a reportable incident for the purpose of Division 6C (Root cause analysis teams) of Part 2 of the Health Administration Act 1982. That Division provides for the appointment of root cause analysis teams to deal with any reportable incident and to make certain notifications or reports about the incident.

This Regulation is made under the Health Administration Act 1982, including the definition of reportable incident in section 20L and section 34 (the general regulation-making power).
