Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Amendment (Access to Money) Regulation 2015

under the

Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999.

DAVID ELLIOTT, MP
Minister for Corrections

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to allow money to be paid into an extreme high risk restricted inmate's account if that payment is authorised by the Commissioner of Corrective Services. (Currently, extreme high risk restricted inmates are not allowed to receive any money directly or into their accounts (other than money paid to inmates by the Commissioner), and any such money is required to be returned to the sender or confiscated.)

This Regulation is made under the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999, including sections 79 and 271 (the general regulation-making power).
