Greyhound Racing Regulation 2016

under the

Greyhound Racing Act 2009

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Greyhound Racing Act 2009.

TROY GRANT, MP
Minister for Racing

Explanatory note

The objects of this Regulation are as follows:

- (a) to require the owner of a registered greyhound to notify Greyhound Racing New South Wales (GRNSW) before transferring the greyhound to a registered owner or to an approved greyhound adoption program,
- (b) to prohibit the owner of a registered greyhound from retiring, exporting or destroying the greyhound, or from transferring it to a person who is not a registered owner, without the consent of GRNSW.

This Regulation is made under the Greyhound Racing Act 2009, including section 48 (1) (b).

This Regulation comprises or relates to matters set out in Schedule 3 to the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989, namely matters of a machinery nature and matters that are not likely to impose an appreciable burden, cost or disadvantage on any sector of the public.

Greyhound Racing Regulation 2016

under the

Greyhound Racing Act 2009

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Greyhound Racing Regulation 2016.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on the day on which it is published on the NSW legislation website.

3 Definitions

(1) In this Regulation:

registered greyhound means a greyhound registered under the rules or born to a greyhound registered under the rules.

the Act means the Greyhound Racing Act 2009.

the rules means the rules made under the Act.

transfer a greyhound means transfer ownership of the property in the greyhound by any means, including by sale, gift or surrender.

Note. The Act and the Interpretation Act 1987 contain definitions and other provisions that affect the interpretation and application of this Regulation.

(2) Notes included in this Regulation do not form part of this Regulation.

4 GRNSW to be notified of transfer of greyhound

The owner of a registered greyhound must notify GRNSW in writing before transferring the greyhound:

- (a) to any other person who is registered as a greyhound owner under the rules or under the law of any other State or Territory, or
- (b) to a person or body responsible for a greyhound adoption program that is approved by the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, New South Wales.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

5 Consent of GRNSW required in certain other cases

(1) The owner of a registered greyhound must not, except with the written consent of GRNSW:

- (a) retire the greyhound from racing, or
- (b) export the greyhound to a country other than Australia, or
- (c) transfer the greyhound to a person who is not registered as a greyhound owner under the rules or under the law of any other State or Territory, or
- (d) destroy the greyhound or cause it to be destroyed.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (2) Despite subclause (1) (a)–(c), the consent of GRNSW is not required if GRNSW has been notified of the transfer of the greyhound in accordance with clause 4.
- (3) Despite subclause (1) (d), the consent of GRNSW is not required if the greyhound is destroyed by a veterinary practitioner in an emergency in order to relieve it of suffering or distress due to injury or illness.
- (4) GRNSW may give consent under subclause (1) only if it is satisfied that the greyhound is to be appropriately cared for or humanely destroyed (as the case requires).

6 Disciplinary action by GRNSW

- (1) If a person contravenes clause 4 or 5 (1), GRNSW may, in accordance with the rules, do either or both of the following:
  - (a) disqualify the person,
  - (b) prohibit the person from participating in or associating with greyhound racing in any specified capacity.
- (2) Any such action may be taken in respect of a person even though the person is no longer registered under the rules.
- (3) This clause does not limit any other disciplinary action that may be taken by GRNSW in accordance with the rules.
