

New South Wales

Regional Development Regulation 2018

under the

Regional Development Act 2004

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Regional Development Act 2004.

JOHN BARILARO, MP

Minister for Regional New South Wales

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to repeal and remake, without substantial alteration, the Regional Development Regulation 2012, which would otherwise be repealed by section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989 on 1 September 2018. The new Regulation prescribes the local government areas that constitute the Sydney metropolitan area for the purposes of the Regional Development Act 2004.

The Act provides for financial assistance to those areas of New South Wales outside the Sydney metropolitan area.

The Regulation updates references to the names of certain local government areas to take account of recent council amalgamations.

This Regulation is made under the Regional Development Act 2004, including the definition of Sydney metropolitan area in section 4 (1) and section 16 (the general regulation-making power).

This Regulation comprises or relates to matters set out in Schedule 3 to the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989, namely matters of a machinery nature.
