Major Events Amendment (ASEAN–Australia Special Summit) Regulation 2018

under the

Major Events Act 2009

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Major Events Act 2009.

GLADYS BEREJIKLIAN, MP
Premier

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to declare the ASEAN–Australia Special Summit to be held in Sydney on 16–18 March 2018 to be a major event for the purposes of the Major Events Act 2009.

The ASEAN–Australia Special Summit comprises a series of meetings between representatives of the members of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations and Australia and also includes a business summit, a counter-terrorism conference and associated meetings and events.

The Regulation provides for the following:

- (a) the period of the major event is 15–19 March 2018,
- (b) the Commissioner of Police is the responsible authority for the event,
- (c) the specific provisions of the Major Events Act 2009 that apply in relation to the event, including provisions relating to the management of roads and traffic, airspace control and safety and crowd management within the area in which the event is taking place.

This Regulation is made under the Major Events Act 2009, including sections 4 (2) (definition of major event venue or facility), 5, 6, 13 and 72 (the general regulation-making power).
