Administrative Decisions Review Amendment Regulation 2020

under the

Administrative Decisions Review Act 1997

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Administrative Decisions Review Act 1997.

MARK SPEAKMAN, MP
Attorney General, and Minister for the Prevention of Domestic Violence

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to provide that if the Minister for Education and Early Childhood Learning issues a direction that a student not attend school that results in the student being directed not to attend school for more than a total of 20 days in a 12-month period, the student is excluded from an internal review of that decision and instead may apply directly to the Civil and Administrative Tribunal of New South Wales for administrative review.

This Regulation is made under the Administrative Decisions Review Act 1997, including sections 53(11)(b) and 71(1) (the general regulation-making power).
